2. Eka evāgnir-bahudhā samiddha ekaḥ sūryo viśvamanu prabhūtaḥ. Ekaivoṣāḥ sarvamidaṁ vi bhātyekaṁ vā idaṁ vi babhūva sarvam.

The nature of awareness in communion is this, and this same is the understanding of an intelligent soul: Only one Agni, fire, lighted in many ways, only one sun risen all over the world, only one dawn rising daily anew, lights this entire world, and only one universal spirit pervades this entire universe, the entire existence is one.

Further: Of you all Vishvedevas, the one that is self-refulgent, self-revealing, three wheeled-one centred, blissful, gloriously moving, a seat of bliss, full of treasure, by the power and inspiration of which the dawn of light arises and illuminates the world, that supreme spirit I invoke for you and call you to experience the absolute bliss beyond the relative.

Indra and Varuna, powers of natural energy and natural selection for evolution and growth, herbs and trees, waters and liquid flows attain efficiency and rise higher in munificence when you cross the paths across the skies, come and vibrate, and there is no defiling power in operation to negate your efficacy.

in this house of truth and divine law of yajna in human life, are replete with the beauty and splendour of life. With these, pray bring in the knowledge and wisdom of divinity and nature revealed by the sages and enlighten the yajamana.

We speak and celebrate, for the sake of great goodness and prosperity, the truth, grandeur and power, honour and excellence received from the mighty and magnificent Indra and Varuna. O Indra and Varuna, gracious and benevolent protectors of the greatness and goodness of life, protect and promote us by the sevenfold voice of the seven sisters and seven sages at the three levels of body, mind and soul.

Indra and Varuna, divine powers of vigour and intelligence, judgement and imagination, what words of knowledge and thoughts of wisdom by virtue of meditation, study and speech you gave to the sages of vision earlier, and what orders of discovery and invention through yajnic extension of research, the patient, persistent sages achieved later, all these, with my austere discipline of study and application, let me see and realise for myself.

1. Agna ā yāhyagnibhir-hotāraṁ tvā vṛṇīmahe. Ā tvām-anaktu prayatā haviṣmatī yajīṣṭhaṁ barhi-rāsade.

Agni, universal fire of life, come with other fires such as the sun. We opt to worship you alone, the cosmic yajamana. The yajaka people holding ladlefuls of havi would honour and celebrate you and seat you on the holy grass.

Agni, creator of energy and power, dear as breath of life omnipresent, the ladles of ghṛta feed you well in the holy fire of yajna. We honour and adore the divine fire, prime power, infallible product of cosmic energy and rising in flames in yajnas.

3. Agne kavirvedhā asi hotā pāvaka yakṣyaḥ. mandro yajiṣṭho adhvareshvīḍya viprebhiḥ śukra manmabhiḥ.

Agni is the poet of the cosmos which is his poem. He is maker and disposer of the universe, chief performer of cosmic yajna, purifier and sanctifier of the polluted, loving and adorable. O lord of power and purity, you are blissful, most honourable and companionable, adored by sages in yajnas with hymns of love and worship.

Most youthful Agni, eternal power and presence, bring the loving and generous divinities to receive the homage and bless the innocent and guileless yajaka. O lord of the world's wealth, haven and home of all, accept the most cherished offerings and, adored with our sincere thoughts and acts of yajna, rejoice yourself.

Lord most pure and refulgent, rise and shine and enlighten the world. Bless the people and the celebrants with peace and goodness. You are great and glorious. May our wise and brilliant leaders enjoy the goodwill of the divinities, be keepers of the holy fire and controllers of hate and enmities.

Agni, save us by the first voice, and by the second, by three voices, and, O lord of cosmic power, ultimate haven and home of existence, save us by the four.

(This is a very simple and yet a most comprehensive verse. The first voice could be the voice of average humanity; second, words of the sages; third, voice of the soul; fourth, the voice of divinity. Another way to understand: One, two, three or all the four Veda's voice. Yet another: voice of the soul in the rising sequence of the four mantras of Aum as described in the Upanishads. And then the four stages of language in the descending order from divine to the human: Para, Pashyanti, Madhyama and Vaikhari)

Agni, saviour and purifier of life, closest and friendly, give us wealth which is admirable and leads to progress in food, health and age and cattle wealth. Give us the way of life leading to universally loved wealth, honour and excellence, renowned and rising.

Give us the wealth of competence by which, rising in strength and power, moving forward, countering opposite intentions, designs and plans, we may defeat our enemies in the battles of life. O lord of knowledge, power and action, help us advance with food and sustenance, inspire and enlighten our vision and intelligence in action so that we may rise to be masters of wealth, honour and excellence.

Just as a bull whets and brandishes his horns against his rival, so does Agni shake his opponents. Fiery is his visor, strong his jaws, mighty his courage, he is invincible, uncounterable, irresistible.

16. Sapta hotāras-tamidīlate tvā'gne sutyajamahra-yam. Bhinatsyadriṁ tapasā vi śociṣā prāgne tiṣṭha janāñ ati.

Agni, seven yajakas adore and serve you, all giver, imperishable and eternal. You cleave the mountains and expand and evaporate the clouds with your heat and flames of fire. Pray, Agni, stay among the people at the closest and rise high.

For your sake, O people of the world, we on the seats of holy grass invoke Agni, one form after another of the irresistible universal power of nature and divinity,

1. Sa pūrvyā mahānāṁ venāḥ kratubhirānaje. Yasya dvārā manuṣpitā deveṣu dhiya ānaje.

He, eternal spirit of the universe, love and desire and indeed the ideal of the great among humanity, is realised through holy acts of prayer and yajna, by the doors of whose grace the thinking man, fatherly man sustainer of life, attains noble knowledge and competence for action among the divinities of nature and humanity.

2. *Divo mānam notsadant-somapṛṣṭhāso adrayaḥ.

The mountains overgrown with soma do not forsake the spirit and presence of divinity since it is manifested there. Hence hymns of praise and songs of adoration ought to be sung in honour of divinity.

स विद्वान् अङ्गिराभ्य इन्द्रा गा अवृणादप ।

3. *Sa vidvān āngirobhya indro gā avṛṇodapa.

That omniscient and omnipresent Indra brought the earths and stars into existence for the living and breathing forms of being. Therefore I sing and celebrate his divine power and love.

4. *Sa pratnathā kavivṛdha indro vākasya vakṣaṇiḥ.

He, Indra, as ever before, strengthens the poets and promotes and extends the divine speech. May the lord of peace and bliss, we pray, come and join our yajna of worship.

आदू नु त अनु कतुं स्वाहा वरस्य यज्यवः ।

5. *Ādū nu te anu kratuṃ svāhā varasya yajyavaḥ.

And then they, the yajakas, in pursuance of the holy act of chosen yajna offer oblations in truth of word and deed, and the singers immediately start the song of adoration in honour of Indra for the gift of wealth and joy.

इन्द्र विश्वानि वीर्या कृतानि कर्त्त्वानि च ।

6. *Indre viśvāni vīryā kṛtāni kartvāni ca.

When the universal community of five classes of people join together and raise their voices of prayer to Indra, then with his might he wards off their enemies and misfortunes. That same lord of the people, omniscient and master is the centre of my worship too.

8. Iyamu te anuṣṭutiś-cakṛṣe tāni pauṁsyā.

Indra, lord of glory, this song of worship is for you. You alone do all those admirable grand works of valour I praise and you alone protect and direct the orbits of the moving universe.

9. Asya vṛṣṇo vyodana uru kramiṣṭa jīvase.
Yavaṁ na paśva ā dade.

On receiving the variety and versatility of food, energy and inspiration from this generous and virile Indra, life rises and springs forward for the joy of living as an animal gets the grass for food and energy and plays around.

O mighty lord of energy, ambition and victory, with resounding hymns of joy in homage we bow to you, treasure home of life and progress, creator and promoter of strength and energy through seasonal yajnas, and we pray that joined to you in body and mind we may win in our struggles for life and living.

Indra, lord ruler of power and progress, for us, in our fight against suffering, may the Rudras, powers of justice and desperation, mighty generous clouds of shower, mountains and great men, all loving and cooperative, indeed whoever fast and strong may hasten and advance for the celebrant and worshipper, all the wisest and seniormost brilliant powers of generosity in nature and humanity, come and help us in our struggle for the conquest of darkness, want, evil and ignorance prevailing in society.

To the best of your knowledge and culture and with the best of your language, worship and adore Indra, protector of stars and planets, lands and cows, language and culture, creator of the dynamics of existence and protector of its constancy.

5. *Ā harayaḥ sasṛjire'ruṣīradhi barhiṣi.
Yatrābhi saṁnavāmahe.*

Let the vibrations of divinity, like crimson rays of dawn which bring the sun to the earth, bring Indra on to our sacred grass where we humans meet and pray and celebrate the lord in song together.

इ॒न्दा॒य॒ गाव॑ आ॒शि॒रं दु॒दु॒ह व॒जि॒ण॒ मधु॑ ।

6. *Indrāya gāva āśiram duduhre vajriṇe madhu.
Yat sīmupahvare vidat.*

Lands and cows, suns and planets, indeed all objects in motion, exude for Indra, wielder of thunder, the ichor of emotional adoration seasoned with ecstasy like honey sweet milk mixed with soma which he receives close at hand and cherishes.

उद्यद ब्रध्नस्य विष्टपं गृहमिन्द्रश्च गन्वहि।

7. Udyad bradhnasya viṣṭapaṁ gr̥ham-indraśca ganvahi. Madhvaḥ pītvā sacevāhi triḥ sapta sakhyuḥ pade.

Up let us rise on top of the sun and vast spaces, reach the abode of Indra, and, having drunk the soma sweet of ecstasy, let us be together across and over the thrice seven stages of being in evolution in the purely spiritual state of the lord's presence as a friend.

(The thrice seven are the steps of physical, mental and psychic evolutionary phases of existence in three qualitative modes of being in the process of becoming. The seven states of evolution in descending order from pure being are: mahat, Ahankara and the five elements, akasha, vayu, agni, apah and prthivi. The three qualitative modes are sattva, rajas and tamas or thought, energy and matter. Another way to explain the twenty one is: five elements, five pranic energies, five perceptive organs and five organs of volition, the twenty-first is antahkarana or psychic self. When the psychic self or the soul in the existential state wishes to rise back to the purely spiritual state, it has to cross the twenty one stages and then be in the company of Indra, the cosmic self, and even later, in the transcendental state of absolute Being, the Spirit, the Brahmic state.

This is set out in detail in the Sankhya, Yoga and Vedanta philosophy.)

अच॑त॒ पाच॑त॒ पि॒यम॑धासा॒ अच॑त ।

8. Arcata prārcata priyamedhāso arcata.
Arcantu putrakā uta puram na dhṛṣṇvarcata.

O lovers of Yajna, lovers of union and communion with the divine, adore and worship Indra, adore and worship again, worship again and again. Worship along with your children and grand children, just as the citizens adore and exalt a great city and the glorious ruler of the celestial city.

अव॑ स्वराति॒ गग॑रा गा॒धा परि॑ सनिष्व॒णत ।

9. Ava svarāti gargaro godhā pari sanīṣvaṇat.
Piṅgā pari canīṣkadad-indrāya brahmodyatam.

The drum booms aloud, the bow string strikes the arm guard, the string bells jingle, let the hymns rise in honour of Indra.

आ यत्प॑त॒न्त्य॒न्यः सु॒दु॒घा अ॒न॒प॒स्फुरः॑ ।

अ॒प॒स्फुरं॑ गृ॒भाय॑त॒ साम॑मि॒न्दाय॒ पा॒तव॑ ॥ १० ॥

10. Ā yat patantyenyah sudughā anapasphurah.
Apasphuram grbhāyata somam-indrāya pātave.

When the dynamic senses of perception and volition, controlled, unagitating and calmly withdrawn, concentrate in the inner mind, then you receive the showers of soma nectar of spiritual ananda for Indra,

अपादिन्द्रा अपादग्निविश्वं द्रवा अमत्सत । वरुण इदिह
यत्तमापा अभ्यनूषत वत्सं संशिश्वरीरिव ॥ ११ ॥

11. *Apādindro apādagnir-viśve devā amatsata.
Varuṇa idiha kṣayat tamāpo abhyanūṣata vatsam saṁśiśvarīriva.*

Indra, the soul, seeking honour, fame and power, loves the soma of ananda. Agni, leading scholar advancing into the light of knowledge, loves the soma of ananda. All brilliancies of nature and humanity love the ecstasy of soma. Varuna, powers of love and justice, all abide in the ecstasy of soma. All seekers of yajnic action and divine dedication love the soma of spiritual ananda of their creation like the mother loving her child.

सुद्रवा असि वरुण यस्य त सप्त सिन्धवः ।
अनु रन्ति काकुदं सूर्यं सुषिरामिव ॥ १२ ॥

12. *Sudevo asi varuṇa yasya te sapta sindhavaḥ.
Anukṣaranti kākudaṁ sūryam suṣirāmiva.*

Varuna, master scholar and teacher, you are divinely brilliant and generous whose seven streams of knowledge and wisdom flow forth in words from the master's voice to the seekers, like water flowing from a tube into many channels.

या व्यतीर्णफाणयत्सुयुक्ताँ उप दाशुष ।
तक्वा नृता तदिद्वपुरुपमा या अमुच्यत ॥ १३ ॥

13. *Yo vyatīṇraphāṇayat suyuktāṁ upa daśaṣe.
Takvo netā tadidvapurupamā yo amucyata.*

That soul is Indra, man of self control and self power, who withdraws his scattered powers of senses and mind, turns them inward and applies them into meditation for the sake of generosity of the spirit, and then as their patient master and leader, with the power and grace of his self-possession, releases and relaxes them in the state of peace. He is the sovereign soul.

14. Aīdu śakra ohata indro viśvā ati dviṣaḥ.

Bhinat kanīna odanaṁ pacyamānaṁ paro girā.

Indra, the sovereign soul of self-power, transcends all jealousy, malignity and enmity and, blest with top handsomeness and grace of the spirit, breaks open into words the mature knowledge and self-realised spiritual food for the seekers.

अभका न कुमारका धि तिष्ठ त्वं रथम् ।

स प तन्महिषं मृगं पित्र मात्र विभुक्तुम् ॥ १५ ॥

15. Arbhako na kumārako'dhi tiṣṭhan navaṁ ratham.

Sa pakṣan-mahiṣaṁ mṛgaṁ pitre māt্রে vibhukṭa-tum.

Neither a child nor an adolescent, the man of mature mind abiding in a healthy body practices meditation and realises the great, supreme, omnipotent cosmic soul of universal holy action for the enlightenment of all about Mother Nature and the father of creation.

आ तू सुशिप दम्पत् रथं तिष्ठा हिरण्ययम् । अध द्यु ऽं

16. *Ā tū suśipra dampate ratham tiṣṭhā hiranya-yam.
Adha dyukṣam sacevahi sahasrapādam-aruṣamsvastigām-anehasam.*

O lord of golden grace, father and sustainer of the house-hold of the universe, come and seat yourself in the golden chariot of this human body and, together as friends and companions, we shall ride this chariot of heavenly light, thousand wheeled, invincible and immaculate, moving on the road to peace and ultimate good.

तं घमि॒त्था न॑म॒स्विन् उप॑ स्व॒राज॑मासत ।

17. *Tam ghemitthā namasvina upa svarājam-āsate.
dāvane.*

Thus do yajnic and meditative souls holding havis for homage adore and worship self-refulgent Indra when, in order to realise the nature, character and generosity, indeed the very presence of the lord, they turn their self-controlled mind to the Divine Soul in order to reach him.

अनु॑ प्र॒त्नस्या॑क॒सः प्रि॒यम॑धास एषाम ।

18. *Anu pratnasyaukasah priyamedhāsa eṣām.
Pūrvāmanu prayatiṁ vṛktabarhiṣo hitaprayasa

Of these devotees of yajna and lovers of meditative communion, those who sit on the holy grass with a clean mind and offer oblations of spiritual love in the style of the sages of old as ever achieve union with the universal presence of the eternal Spirit.

Mandala 8/SuKta 70

Indra Devata, Puruhanma Angirasa Rshi

या राजा चषणीनां याता रथभिरधिगुः ।

विश्वासां तरुता पृतनानां ज्येष्ठा या वृत्रहा गृण ॥ १ ॥

1. Yo rājā carṣaṇīnām yātā rathebhiraadhriguḥ. Viśvāsām tarutā pṛtanānām jyeṣṭho yo vṛtrahā grṇe.

I adore Indra, lord supreme, who rules the people, and who is the irresistible and universal mover by waves of cosmic energy, saviour of all humanity, supreme warrior and winner of cosmic battles of the elemental forces and who destroys the evil, darkness and poverty of the world.

इन्द्रं तं शुम्भ पुरुहन्म त्वस् यस्य द्विता विधतरि ।

2. Indraṁ taṁ śumbha puruhanmannavase yasya dvitā vidhartari. Hastāya vajra prati dhāyi darṣato maho dive na sūryaḥ.

O man of universal devotion, exalt and glorify that omnipotent Indra for protection and progress in whom, as ruler and controller of the world, both justice and mercy abide simultaneously, who holds the thunderbolt of power in hand, and who is great and glorious like the sun in heaven.

नक्रिष्टं कमणा नशद्यश्चकार सदावृधम ।

3. Nakṣṭam karmanā naśadyaścakāra sadāvṛdham. Indram na yajñair-viśvagūrtamṛbhva-sam-adhrṣtam dhrṣṇvojasam.

No one can equal merely by action, much less hurt even by yajnas, that person who has won the favour and grace of Indra, lord divine who is rising as well as raising his devotees high, who is universally adored, universal genius, redoubtable and invincibly illustrious.

अषा हमुगं पृतनासु सासहिं यस्मिन्महीरुरुजयः ।

4. Aṣālham-ugram pṛtanāsu sāsahim yasmin mahī-rurujrayaḥ. Saṁ dhenavo jāyamāne anonavur-dyāvaḥ ksāmo anonavuh.

Unchallengeable, awful, victorious in cosmic dynamics, in whose pervasive presence great and tempestuous stars and planets, earths and heavens, all in unison move in order and do homage in reverence, such is Indra.

यद द्याव इन्द्र त शतं शतं भूमीरुत स्युः । न त्वा वजिन्त्सहस्रं

5. Yaddyāva indra te śataṁ śataṁ bhūmīruta syuḥ. Na tvā vajrint-sahasraṁ sūryā anu na jātamaṣṭa rodasī.

Indra, lord of thunder, if there were a hundred heavens, and if there were a hundred earths, they would not be able to rival you. Not a thousand suns, nor heavens, earths and skies together would match you at the rise in manifestation.

आ प॑पाथ॒ महि॒ना वृ॒ष्ण्या वृ॒षन्वि॒श्वो श॒विष्ठ॒ शर्व॑सा ।

6. Ā paprātha mahinā vṛṣṇyā vṛṣan viśvā śaviṣṭha śavasā. Asmāñ ava maghavan gomati vraje vajriṇ-citrābhir-ūtibhiḥ.

O lord of the thunderbolt, master and controller of world's wealth, honour and power, most potent and lord of showers of generosity, with your generous and creative power and grandeur you pervade the universe. Pray protect, guide and promote us by your various and wondrous modes of protection and progress in our search for development of lands and cows, knowledge, language and culture.

7. Na sīmadeva āpadiṣaṁ dīrghāyo martyaḥ. Etagvā cidya etaśā yuyojate harī indro yuyojate.

Never can an impious, ungodly mortal find that food and energy in life which that other person can find who yokes those dynamic energies and powers in his search for progress which Indra deploys in his creative and evolutionary programme of existence.

तं वा॑ म॒हा म॒हाय्य॑मिन्द्रं द॒नाय॑ स णि॒म ।

8. Taṁ vo maho mahāyyam-indraṁ dānāya sakṣa-ṇim. Yo gādheṣu ya āraṇeṣu havyo vājeṣvasti havyaḥ.

Invoke that great, adorable and friendly Indra for the gift of power, energy and expertise for your progress who is invoked and adored in the depth of the seas, over lands and mountains and in the battles of the brave for new heights.

उदू षु णा वस म॒ह मृ॒शस्व॑ शू॒र राध॑स ।
उदू षु म॒ह्य म॑घवन्म॒घत्त॑य॒ उदि॑न्द्र श्रव॑स म॒ह ॥ ९ ॥

9. Udū ṣu ṇo vaso mahe mṛśasva śūra rādhasē. Udū ṣu mahyai maghavan maghattaya udindra śravase mahe.

Brave Indra, lord of the wealth, honour and excellence of the world, haven and home of all living beings, inspire our will and intelligence for the achievement of great wealth and competence for success in life and raise us to great power, honour and excellence to win high fame across the world.

त्वं न॑ इ॒न्द्र ऋ॒त॒युस्त्वा॒निदा॒ नि तृ॑म्पसि ।

10. Tvaṁ na indra ṛtayustvānido ni tṛmpasi. Madhye vasiṣva tuvinṛmṇorvorni dāsaṁ śiśnatho hathaiḥ.

Indra, lover and promoter of truth and rectitude, you fulfil us with your gifts and reduce the maligners of divinity to deprivation. O lord of boundless wealth and power, raise us to the heights of the skies in the midst of heaven and earth, and strike down the violent and the destroyer with blows of retribution.

अव॑ स्वः स॒खा दु॑धुवी॒त प॑व॒तः सु॒घ्नाय॑ दस्युं पव॑तः ॥ ११ ॥

11. *Anyavratam-amānuṣam-ayajvānam-adevayum.
Ava svaḥ sakhā dudhuvīta parvataḥ sughnāya dasyum parvataḥ.*

Friendly, generous but adamant ruler, punish the person committed to destructive values, anti-human organisation, anticreative and antisocial actions and antinature and impious plans and programmes, punish him with deprivation of comfort, self-satisfaction and social privileges and assign him to sure elimination or total change. The strong uncompromising ruler should punish the violent, the terrorist and the killer to an equal and opposite fate.

त्वं न इन्द्रासां हस्तं शविष्ठ दावन् ।

12. *Tvaṁ na indrāsām haste śaviṣṭha dāvane.
Dhānānām na saṁ gr̥bhayāsmayur-dviḥ saṁ gr̥bhayāsamayuh.*

Indra, most powerful ruler and leader, our benefactor, one of our own, in order to benefit us, pray take up in hand these assets of wealth just as one holds roasted rice in hand for distribution, and give it to us. Take up the wealth again, our own man, and distribute that too.

सखायः कतुमिच्छत कथा रीधाम शरस्य ।

13. Sakhāyaḥ kratum-icchata kathā rādhāma śarasya. Upastutiṁ bhojaḥ sūriryo ahrayaḥ.

O friends, try freely to do good by way of yajna, else how shall we serve Indra, lord of the bow and arrow, with worship and adoration? He is the great benefactor and ruler, light giver, abundant and gracious.

भूरिभिः समह ऋषिभिर्बहिष्मद्भिः स्तविष्यस ।
यदित्थमकमकमिच्छरं वत्सान्पराददः ॥ १४ ॥

14. Bhūribhiḥ samaha ṛṣibhir-barhiṣmadbhiḥ staviṣyase. Yadittham-ekamekam-icchara vatsān parādadaḥ.

O lord of grandeur and glory, destroyer of suffering, ignorance and all difficulties in the way of human happiness, since thus you give gracious gifts of cherished wealth, light and joy to dear and holy beneficiaries, to one and all of them, you are adored by all sages of the sacred grass on the yajna vedi.

कृणुगृह्या मघवा शारद्व्या वत्सं नस्त्रिभ्य आनयत ।
अजां सूरिन धातव ॥ १५ ॥

15. Karṇagrhyā maghavā śauradevyo vatsaṁ nastribhya ānayat. Ajāṁ sūrirna dhātave.

Indra, lord of wealth, power and glory, benefactor of the brave and holy, holds in his power the cherished wealth of perceptible knowledge and awareness which he showers for us from the three regions of heaven, earth and sky, just as, at our human level, the master and sagely scholar holds the eternal Vedic Word for us to hear and enjoy.

7. *Uruṣyā ṇo mā parā dā aghāyate jātavedaḥ.

All pervasive, omniscient Agni, protect us and leave us not to the sinner, the criminal, and the man of evil thought and action.

8. *Agne mākiṣṭe devasya rātim-adevo yuyota.

Agni, lord of brilliance and generosity, let no impious man deprive us of your generosity extended to us. You rule, control and protect the wealth, honour and excellence of the world.

9. *Sa no vasva upa māsyūrjonapān-māhinasya.

Agni, creator and treasure home of the world, infinite energy, giver of peace and settlement, universal friend, give us wealth as well as honour and glory for the celebrants.

Let all our songs of adoration rise fast to the refulgent and glorious Agni. Let our yajna with homage and havi move and reach the universally adored and universally honoured Agni for the sake of universal protection.

अग्निं सूनुं सहसा ज्ञातवदसं दानाय वायाणाम ।

11. Agnim sūnum sahaso jātavedasam dānāya vāryāṇām. Dvitā yo bhūdamṛto martyeṣvā hotā mandratamo viśi.

Let our prayers reach Agni, all pervasive creator of energy, for the gift of cherished wealth and power. Agni is the immortal presence who appears among mortals in both physical and spiritual forms, universal yajaka, happiest and most blissful, arising in every home stead of the people.

May Agni as a friend give us food and energy for sustenance since he rules over all the wealth and powers of the world. We always serve and pray to Agni for our children and grand children, he being the universal giver of home and settlement as well as the protector and sustainer of our body's health.

We adore Agni for driving away our enemies from us and for giving us peace and settlement with happiness. He is like a protector among people, giver of home and adored by sages.

Mandala 8/Sukta 72

Agni or Havis Devata, Haryata Pragatha Rshi

हविष्कृणुध्वमा गमदध्वयुवनत पुनः ।

विद्वाँ अस्य पशासनम ॥ १ ॥

1. Haviṣkr̥ṇudhvamā gamad-adhvaryur-vanate punaḥ. Vidvāñ asya praśāsanam.

Come, devotees of yajna, celebrants of Agni: Prepare the havi for oblation, let the high priest come, he knows the ministration of this yajna, let him serve Agni again.

नि तिग्ममभ्यंशुं सीदद्धाता मनावधि ।

जुषाणा अस्य सुख्यम ॥ २ ॥

2. Ni tigmamabhyaṁśuṁ sīdaddhotā manāvadhi. Juṣāṇo asya sakhyam.

Let the hota, offerer of oblations, come and sit close to the fire in bright flames, loving and honouring at heart the friendship of this Agni.

अन्तरिच्छन्ति तं जन रुद्रं पुरा मनीषया ।

गृभ्णन्ति जिह्वया ससम ॥ ३ ॥

3. Antaricchanti taṁ jane rudraṁ paro manīṣayā. Grbhṇanti jihvayā sasam.

Dedicated priests and scholars among people, with the best of their mind and intelligence, try to raise Agni, mighty fiery power immanent everywhere, and having raised it, they try to describe and adore it with words of homage.

जा॒म्य॒तीत॒प॒ धनु॑व॒या॒धा अ॑रु॒ह॒द्वन॑म ।

4. Jāmyatītape dhanur-vayodhā aruhad-vanam.
Drṣadam jihvayāvadhīt.

Agni, immanent, friendly and rising as the sun, heats up the sky, bearing health and energy for nourishment, it rides the vapours of water and with its catalytic energy breaks the cloud.

चर॑न्व॒त्सा रु॒श॒हि नि॒दा॒तारं॑ न वि॒न्दत ।

वति॑ स्ता॒तव॑ अ॒म्ब्य॑म ॥ ५ ॥

5. Caran vatso ruśanniha nidātāraṁ na vindate.
Veti stotava ambyam.

Agni, newly risen, playing as hyperactive and shining bright, brooks no obstruction and for its description and assessment needs a celebrant appraiser.

उ॒ता न्व॑स्य॒ यन्म॑हद॒शवा॑व॒द्याज॑नं बृ॒हत ।

दा॒मा रथ॑स्य॒ ददृ॑श ॥ ६ ॥

6. Uto nvasya yanmahadaśvāvadyojanaṁ bṛhat.
Dāmā rathasya dadṛśe.

And as its mighty boundless expansion grows on, intensely bright with sun-rays, its sphere of energy is seen like the halo of glorious light round the solar chariot.

दु॒हन्ति॑ स॒प्तका॑मु॒प॒ द्वा पञ्च॑ सृ॒जतः॑ ।

ती॒थ सि॒न्धा॒रधि॑ स्वर॒ ॥ ७ ॥

7. Duhanti saptaikāmupa dvā pañca sṛjataḥ.
Tirthe sindhoradhi svare.

Five senses of perception alongwith two others, mind and intelligence (i.e., mana and buddhi), at work distill the power and glory of Agni, like seven milk-maids milking one cow on the bank of a sacred river, and give it expression in the resounding notes of cosmic hymns.

आ द॒शभि॑वि॒वस्व॑त॒ इन्द्रः॑ का॒शम॑चु॒च्यवी॑त ।

ख॒दया॑ त्रि॒वृता॑ दि॒वः ॥ ८ ॥

8. *Ā daśabhir-vivasvata indraḥ kośam-acucyavīt.
Khedayā trivṛtā divaḥ.*

Just as Indra, electric energy of the sun in the form of lightning, breaks the cloud and brings down showers from the sky, so does the divine human soul by threefold passion of intellect, will and emotion, with the assistance of ten senses of perception and volition and ten pranic energies, distill down the treasure glory of Agni from the sun into threefold wealth of knowledge, action and prayer committed and dedicated to divinity.

परि॑ त्रि॒धातु॑र॒ध्वरं॑ जू॒णिर॑ति॒ नवी॑यसी ।

9. *Pari tridhāturadhvaraṁ jūrṇireti navīyasī.
Madhvā hotāro añjate.*

Just as Agni rising in threefold flames, white, red and dark, comes at lightning speed to yajna with youthful power and the priests anoint and serve it with homage, so does the light of divinity with revelations of sattva, rajas and tamas and the values of knowledge, action and prayer, youthful, bright and vibrant, come to the mind of the celebrant, and then the yajnic senses, mind and intellect and the pranic energies of the devotee express the power and grace of Agni in celebration.

नीचीनबार्मि तिम ॥ १० ॥

10. *Siñcanti namasāvatamuccācakram parijmānam.
Nīcīnavāramakṣitam.*

With homage the devotees serve Agni, radiating and vibrating on high, pervading all round, full of peace and joy, just an inverted well, inexhaustible, with release of showers on the down side for the celebrants.

अभ्यारमिददया निषिक्तं पुष्करं मधु ।

11. *Abhyāram-idadrayo niṣiktaṁ puṣkare madhu.
Avatasya visarjane.*

When the fount of the divine reservoir is released toward the quiet mind of the devotee, then the lord of clouds and soma fills the lotus of his heart with the honeyed ecstasy of divine grace.

गाव उपावतावतं मही यज्ञस्य रप्सुदा ।

उभा कर्णा हिरण्यया ॥ १२ ॥

12. *Gāva upāvatāvatam mahī yajñasya rapsudā.
Ubhā karṇā hiraṇyayā.*

The psychic base of the devoted seeker of meditative communion is highly creative. O mind and senses attended with both knowledge and action of divine character, rise high and reach close to the reservoir of divine grace and win the showers of bliss.

आ सुत सिञ्चतु श्रियं रादस्यारभिश्चियम ।

13. *Ā sute siñcata sriyaṁ rodasyorabhiśriyam.
Rasā dadhīta vṛṣabham.*

O seekers of communion aspiring for divine ecstasy, when the communion is achieved, collect and fill the mind to overflowing with nectar and offer the oblations of ananda to the heavenly glory of Agni rolling across and over heaven and earth.

त जानतु स्वमाक्यं सं वत्सासा न मातृभिः ।

मिथा नसन्त जामिभिः ॥ १४ ॥

14. *Te jānata svamokyaṁ saṁ vatsāso na mātṛbhiḥ.
Mitho nasanta jāmibhiḥ.*

The aspirants know the one inmate spirit of their common home and they all abide and move together in and with the one intimate spirit of their own kind as children move around attached with their mothers (each with the one that is his, but all mothers are the same, the one common Soul).

उप स्रक्वेषु बप्सतः कृण्वत धरुणं दिवि ।

15. *Upa srakveṣu bapsataḥ kṛṇvate dharuṇaṁ divi.
Indre agnā namaḥ svaḥ.*

Agni, receiving, kindling and consuming the oblations in the flames, turns the havi into light in heaven as offering in the cup of faith to Indra. (So does the yogi turn his thoughts through contemplation into light and joy in the higher personality to offer it as homage to Indra.)

अधु॑ त्पि॒ष्युषी॑मिष॒मूर्जं॑ स॒प्तप॑दीम॒रिः ।

सूर्य॑स्य स॒प्त र॒श्मिभिः॑ ॥ १६ ॥

16. *Adhukṣat pipyuṣīmīṣamūrjaṁ saptapadīmariḥ.
Sūryasya sapta raśmibhiḥ.*

May the lord of faith and power accept the offering of nourishing food and energy through seven stages of nature's evolution, and by seven-rayed chemistry of the sun turn it into showers of spiritual fulfilment for the yajaka.

साम॑स्य मि॒त्रावरु॑णादि॒ता सूर॑ आ द॒द ।

17. *Somasya mitrāvaruṇoditā sūra ā dade.
Tadāturasya bheṣajam.*

O Mitra, O Varuna, O lord of love and justice, may I, at the rise of the sun, receive the heavenly light and joy of soma, rejuvenating nectar of life for the suppliant yearning for fulfilment.

उ॒ता न्व॑स्य॒ यत्प॒दं ह॑य॒तस्य॑ नि॒धान्य॑म ।

परि॑ द्यां जि॒ह्वया॑तन॒त ॥ १८ ॥

18. *Uto nvasya yat padaṁ haryatasya nidhānyam.
Pari dyām jihvayātanat.*

And then let the devotee with holy voice celebrate and glorify this state of divine fulfilment, promised of Agni, destined for man, unto heaven.

O Maruts, vibrant leaders of humanity in knowledge and action, sing the resounding songs of Sama which, like the sun, dispel the darkness and eliminate evil, the same by which the sagely servants of eternal law and cosmic yajna in the service of God vitalise, recreate and extend that divine inextinguishable light of life which is ever awake in the world of existence.

O Maruts, vibrant brilliant leaders of humanity, worship Indra, lord omnipotent beyond all bounds, and study the divine powers immanent in nature, with hymns of Vedic adoration. The maiden having consented to marry, whether she is emaciated in health or bubbling with energy, should get the soma, and while going home should speak to herself for autosuggestion: I prepare you, soma juice, for Indra, regenerative and procreative power, for shakra, strength and vigour of robust health.

Indra, lord of energy and power, let these three grow to maturity.

अहिं च वृत्रहावधीत ॥ २ ॥

2. *Nava yo navatiṁ puro bibheda bāhvojasā.
Ahiṁ ca vṛtrahāvadhīt.*

Indra who breaks off the nine and ninty strongholds of darkness, ignorance and suffering by the force of his lustrous arms and, as the dispeller of darkness, destroys the crooked serpentine evil of the world:

स न इन्द्रः शिवः सखा श्वावद्गामद्यवमत ।

उरुधोरव दाहत ॥ ३ ॥

3. Sa na indrah śivah sakhā 'śvāvad-gomadyavamat.
Urudhāreva dohate.

That same Indra who is blissful, a gracious friend and companion, commands the wealth of cows and horses, nourishment and achievement, knowledge and enlightenment and distils for us power, honour and excellence from nature such as the torrential showers of rain.

यदद्य कच्च वृत्रह इदगा अभि सूर्य ।

सर्वं तदिन्द्र त वश ॥ ४ ॥

4. Yadadya kacca vṛtrahannudagā abhi sūrya.
Sarvaṁ tadindra te vaśe.

O sun, dispeller of darkness, whatever the aim and purpose for which you rise today, let that be, O Indra, lord ruler of the world, under your command and control.

यद्वा पवृद्ध सत्पते न मरा इति मन्यस ।

उता तत्सत्यमित्तव ॥ ५ ॥

5. Yadvā pravṛddha satpate na marā iti manyase.
Uto tat satyamit tava.

Indra, O mind, O soul, ever rising as the world expands, protector of truth and reality, if you believe and say in all faith that “I shall not die”, then it shall be true, an inviolable reality.

य सामासः परावति य अवावति सुन्विर ।

सर्वास्ताँ इन्द्र गच्छसि ॥ ६ ॥

6. *Ye somāsaḥ parāvati ye arvāvati sunvire.
Sarvāṅstāṅ indra gacchasi.*

Indra, O dynamic intelligence, protector of the knowledge of truth and reality, whatever somas of knowledge, culture and enlightenment are distilled either far away or close at hand, pray you move there to record and protect them for us.

तमिन्द्रं वाजयामसि मह वृत्राय हन्तव ।

स वृषा वृषभा भुवत ॥ ७ ॥

7. *Tamindram vājayāmasi mahe vṛtrāya hantave.
Sa vṛṣā vṛṣabho bhuvat.*

That Indra, dynamic and enlightened mind and intelligence, we cultivate and strengthen for the elimination of the great waste, deep ignorance and suffering prevailing in the world. May that light and mind be exuberant and generous for us with showers of enlightenment.

इन्द्रः स दामन कृत आजिष्ठः स मद हितः ।

द्युम्नी श्लाकी स साम्यः ॥ ८ ॥

8. *Indraḥ sa dāmane kṛta ojiṣṭhaḥ sa made hitaḥ.
Dyumnī ślokī sa somyaḥ.*

Indra, mind and intelligence, was created for enlightenment and for giving enlightenment. Most lustrous and powerful, it is engaged in the creation of joy. It is rich in the wealth of knowledge, praise-worthy, and cool, gentle and at peace in the state of enlightenment.

गिरा वज्रा न संभृतः सबला अनपच्युतः ।

वव १ ऋष्या अस्तृतः ॥ ९ ॥

9. Girā vajro na sambhṛtaḥ sabalo anapacyutaḥ.
Vavakṣa ṛṣvo astrtaḥ.

Held in and by the voice of divinity like the roar of thunder and like the flood of sun-rays, it is powerful, unfallen, irrepressible and lofty with thought, so let it express itself freely.

दुग चि १ः सुगं कृधि गृणान इन्द्र गिवणः ।

त्वं च मघवन्वशः ॥ १० ॥

10. Durge cinnaḥ sugaṁ kṛdhi gṛṇāna indra girvaṇaḥ. Tvaṁ ca maghavan vaśaḥ.

Indra, adorable lord, praised and prayed, turn even the difficult paths to simple and easy ones and, O lord of wealth, honour and power, do it as and when you wish, you are the master.

यस्य त नू चिदादिशं न मिनन्ति स्वराज्यम् ।

न द्वा नाधिगुजनः ॥ ११ ॥

11. Yasya te nū cidādiśaṁ na minanti svarājyam.
Na devo nādhri gurjanaḥ.

No power can violate your sphere of self-rule and sovereignty nor what you ordain, neither human nor super human howsoever irresistible it be.

अथा त् अपतिष्कुतं द्रुवी शुष्मं सपयतः ।

उभ सुशिप रादसी ॥ १२ ॥

12. *Adhā te apratiṣkutaṁ devī śuṣmaṁ saparyataḥ.
Ubhe suṣipra rodasī.*

And then, O lord of glorious countenance, both the divine earth and heaven honour and serve your irresistible might.

त्वमतदधारयः कृष्णासु राहिणीषु च ।

परुष्णीषु रुशत्पयः ॥ १३ ॥

13. *Tvam-etad-adhārayaḥ kṛṣṇāsu rohiṇīṣu ca.
Paruṣṇīṣu ruśat payaḥ.*

Only you as mind and electric energy bear, hold and maintain in circulation this bright vital liquid energy as sap and blood in the dark and red life sustaining veins and arteries of living forms.

वि यदहरध त्विषा विश्वं द्रवासा अक्रमुः ।

विदन्मृगस्य तां अमः ॥ १४ ॥

14. *Vi yadaheradha tviṣo viśve devāso akramuḥ.
Vidan-mṛgasya tāñ amah.*

When all the divine perceptive senses and conceptive faculties of the mind rise to fight the dark powers of evil, Indra, the soul, the higher mind, realises the fierce powers of evil and stirs:

आदु म निवरा भुवद वृत्रहादिष्ट पंस्यम ।

अजातशत्रुरस्तृतः ॥ १५ ॥

15. *Ādu me nivarō bhuvad-vṛtrahādiṣṭa pauṁsyam.
Ajātaśatrur-astr̥taḥ.*

Then Indra, the soul, the higher mind, my saviour, destroyer of evil, provides me strength, and, undaunted, I stir and become unchallengeable by enemies.

श्रुतं वा वृत्रहन्तमं प शर्धं चषणीनाम ।
आ शुष राधस मह ॥ १६ ॥

16. *Śrutam̐ vo vṛtrahantamam̐ pra śardham̐ carṣa-

For your strength, high success and advancement, I strive for and try to attain to the highest strength of the people capable of fighting out and eliminating the darkness, ignorance and suffering of life.

अया धिया च गव्यया पुरुणामन्पुरुष्टुत ।
यत्सामसाम् आभवः ॥ १७ ॥

17. *Ayā dhiyā ca gavyayā puruṇāman puruṣṭuta.
Yat some soma ābhavaḥ.*

Indra, O higher mind, O soul, O awareness of divinity, who are adored by many, celebrated by many many names in many ways, arise in every person in every soma yajna by with virtue of this intelligence, this knowledge and this awareness which nature has given to every person.

बाधिन्मना इदस्तु ना वृत्रहा भूयासुतिः ।
शृणातु शक आशिषम ॥ १८ ॥

18. *Bodhinmanā idastu no vṛtrahā bhūryāsutiḥ.
Śṛṇotu śakra āśiṣam.*

May Indra, lord of universal intelligence, destroyer of darkness, commander of universal success and joy, we pray, know our mind and listen to us for our heart's desire for success.

कया त्वं न ऊत्या भि प मन्दस वृषन ।

कया स्तातृभ्य आ भर ॥ १९ ॥

19. Kayā tvaṁ na ūtyā'bhi pra mandase vṛṣan.
Kayā stotṛbhya ā bhara.

Indra, lord of power and prosperity, generous as cloud showers, by which modes of protection and promotion do you bless us with the joys we have, by which methods and graces do you bear and bring the wealth which the celebrants enjoy?

कस्य वृषा सुत सचा नियुत्वान्वृषभा रणत ।

वृत्रहा सामपीतय ॥ २० ॥

20. Kasya vṛṣā sute sacā niyutvān vṛṣabho raṇat.
Vṛtrahā somapītaye.

In whose soma yajna does Indra, generous giver of showers of joy, master of cosmic dynamics, virile all creative, destroyer of darkness, want and suffering, take delight as a friend and participate in the creation, protection and promotion of the soma joys of life?

अभी षु णस्त्वं रयिं मन्दसानः सहस्त्रिणम ।

प्रयन्ता बोधि दाशुष ॥ २१ ॥

21. Abhī ṣu ṇastvaṁ rayiṁ mandasānaḥ sahasriṇam.
Prayantā bodhi dāśuṣe.

Indra, lord all joy and bliss, our guide, delighted with the soma yajna of the generous yajamana, enlighten him and bring him a thousandfold wealth, honour and excellence.

पत्नीवन्तः सुता इम उशन्ता यन्ति वीतय ।

अपां जग्मिनिचुम्पुणः ॥ २२ ॥

22. Patnīvantah sutā ima uśanto yanti vītaye.
Apām jagmir-nicumpuṇah.

These sparkling life-giving streams of soma joys of life created by Indra in the world flow to the thirsty yajakas for their enlightenment and joy just as streams of water flow to the unsatiating sea.

इष्टा हात्रा असृ तन्दं वृधासा अध्वर ।

अच्छावभृथमार्जसा ॥ २३ ॥

23. Iṣṭā hotrā asṛkṣatendram vṛdhāso adhvare.
Acchāvabhṛthamojasā.

Cherished and lovely offers of havi offered into the fire in the yajna of life exalt Indra, and with light and lustre lead the yajamana to the sanctifying bath on the completion of the yajna.

इह त्या सधमाद्या हरी हिरण्यकश्या ।

24. Iha tyā sadhamādyā harī hiraṇyakeṣyā.
Volhāmabhi prayo hitam.

And may those brilliant and jubilant perceptive, creative and communicative dynamics of yajna working in unison conduct Indra, the soul, onward in the business of living and lead the yajamana to the desired wealth and nourishment of life.

तुभ्यं सामाः सुता इम स्तीर्णं ब्रह्मिविभावसा ।

स्तातृभ्य इन्द्रमा वह ॥ २५ ॥

25. Tubhyaṁ somāḥ sutā ime stīrṇaṁ barhivibhā-vaso. Stotṛbhya indramā vaha.

O lord of light, the soma delicacies distilled and seasoned are ready for you. The holy grass seats are spread on the vedi. Pray come in and bring in Indra, wealth, honour and excellence of life for the celebrants.

आ त द ऽ वि राचना दधद्रत्ना वि दाशुष ।

स्तातृभ्य इन्द्रमचत ॥ २६ ॥

26. Ā te dakṣaṁ vi rocanā dadhadratnā vi dāśuṣe. Stotṛbhya indramarcata.

O lord of light, refulgent and glorious stars and planets such as sun, earth and moon bear your power and potential and they bear the jewels of life for the generous yajamana. O celebrants, celebrate Indra and pray for the devotees that the lord may bless.

आ त दधामीन्द्रियमुक्था विश्वा शतकता ।

27. Ā te dadhāmīndriyam-ukthā viśvā śatakrato. Stotṛbhya indra mṛḷaya.

O lord of infinite acts of grace, I hold in faith and abide by your divine power and law and I stand by all the divine injunctions of holiness and piety set out in holy writ. O lord omnipotent, Indra, be kind and gracious to the devoted celebrants.

भ॒दंभ॒दं न॒ आ भ॒रष॒मूर्जं॑ श॒तक॒ता ।

28. Bhadraṁ bhadraṁ na ā bhareṣamūrjaṁ śatakrato. Yadindra mṛḷayāsi naḥ.

Indra, lord of infinite actions of grace, when you are kind to us and bless us with joy and well being, you give us food, energy, knowledge and enlightenment so that we may rise towards perfection as good human beings.

स न॒ विश्वा॒न्या भ॒र सु॒वितानि॑ श॒तक॒ता ।

29. Sa no viśvānyā bhara suvitāni śatakrato. Yadindra mṛḷayāsi naḥ.

Indra, lord of infinite acts of kindness, when you are kind and gracious to us, bear and bring us all the good fortunes, prosperity and welfare of life.

30. Tvāmid vṛtrahantama sutāvanto havāmahe. Yadindra mṛḷayāsi naḥ.

Blest with the beauty, grace and excellence of life, we invoke and celebrate you only, greatest destroyer of the darkness, evil and suffering of life since you are the highest power kind and gracious to us.

उ॒प न॒ ह॒रि॒भिः सु॒तं या॒हि म॑दानां प॒त ।

O lord and protector of the joys of life, come to us to taste the soma of life prepared by us with our mind, imagination and senses in your honour, come to us for the soma distilled by our heart and mind for you.

32. Dvitā yo vṛtrahantamo vida indrah śatakratuḥ.

Indra, hero of a hundred noble actions, greatest destroyer of darkness who know both the way of knowledge and the way of karma for the good life, come to taste our soma of homage prepared by us with our heart and soul for you.

त्वं हि वृत्रह षां पाता सामानामसि ।

उप न हर्षिभिः सुतम ॥ ३३ ॥

33. Tvaṁ hi vṛtrahann-eṣām pātā somānāmasi.
Upa no haribhiḥ sutam.

Indra, O soul, dispeller of darkness and ignorance, you are the experiencer of the joyous soma pleasures of life. Rise and enjoy the knowledge and wisdom collected and offered by the senses, mind and intelligence.

34. Indra iṣe dadātu na ṛbhukṣaṇam-ṛbhuṁ rayim.
Vājī dadātu vājinam.

For food, energy and knowledge, may Indra, lord of creativity, imagination and power, give us wealth, honour and excellence of broad, versatile and expert nature. May the lord of speed and victory grant us sustenance, energy and advanced success in our pursuit of progress.

Mandala 8/Sukta 94

Maruts Devata, Bindu or Putadaksha Angirasa Rshi

गाधयति मरुतां श्रवस्युमाता मघानाम ।
युक्ता वह्नी रथानाम ॥ १ ॥

1. Gaur-dhayati marutāṃ śravasyur-mātā magho-nām. Yuktā vahnī rathānām.

The cow, the earth, nature herself, mother of magnanimous Maruts, mighty men, is committed to provide sustenance and honourable existence for them and, joined with them in piety, bearing lovely gifts for them, provides the food of life and love as a mother suckles her children.

यस्या द्वा उपस्थं वता विश्वं धारयन्त ।

2. Yasyā devā upasthe vratā viśve dhārayante. Sūyāmāsā dṛśe kam.

She in whose lap the Vishvedevas, divinities of humanity and nature, hold, maintain and observe their laws of existence, and the sun and moon wear their beauty and refulgence so that we may see and appreciate the glory of divine existence:

तत्सु ना विश्वं अय आ सदा गृणन्ति कारवः ।

मरुतः सामपीतय ॥ ३ ॥

3. *Tat su no viśve aya ā sadā gṛṇanti kāravaḥ.
Marutaḥ somapītaye.*

That same beauty and glory of existence and the mother's magnanimity, all our poets and pioneers celebrate in song and heroic action. O Maruts, magnanimous men of might, come, act, and enjoy this soma of the Mother's gift of glory.

4. *Asti somo ayaṁ sutāḥ pibantyasya marutaḥ.

O Maruts, mighty men of honour and action, this soma of glorious life is ready, created by divinity. Lovers of life and adventure, Ashwins, live it and enjoy, those who are self-refulgent, free and self-governed, and who are ever on the move, creating, acquiring, giving, like energies of nature in the cosmic circuit.

5. *Pibanti mitro aya mā tanā pūtasya varuṇaḥ.

Mitra, men of universal love, Aryama, men of adventure on the paths of rectitude, and Varuna, men of judgement and right choice, continuously drink of this soma created and sanctified by the procreative power of divinity pervading in the three regions of the universe, heaven, earth and the sky.

And surely the delight and exhilaration of this soma, Indra, the soul, inspirited with the power of brilliance and awareness, like a yajaka at dawn, experiences, and celebrates the ecstasy in dance and song.

12. Tyam nu mārutaṁ gaṇaṁ giriṣṭhām vṛṣaṇaṁ huve. Asya somasya pītaye.

That host of Maruts generous as showers of clouds, abiding on high as on the peaks of mountains, I invoke and call to come and join us in the celebration of life's beauty and glory for the experience and awareness of its divinity.

Indra Devata, Tirashchi Angirasa Rshi

1. Ā tvā giro rathīrivā'sthuh suteṣu girvaṇaḥ. Abhi tvā samanūṣatendra vatsaṁ na mātaraḥ.

Indra, adorable lord of glory, when the soma sense of life's beauty and meaning is realised, let our voices of adoration reach you fast as a charioteer, and as mothers out of love incline to their children, so let our voices too closely abide with you.

आ त्वा॑ शु॒का अ॑चु॒च्यवुः॑ सु॒तासं॑ इ॒न्द्र गि॒वणः॑ ।

2. Ā tvā śukrā acucyavuh sutāsa indra girvaṇaḥ. Pibā tvasyāndhasa indra viśvāsu te hitam.

Indra, lord ruler of the world, adorable soul, let these somas of transparent knowledge and awareness of crystalline purity distilled from life reach in homage to you. Accept these, enjoy, protect and promote these rolling round in space for you as food for life and soul.

(This mantra can also be interpreted as a divine blessing to the human soul in response to its karmic homage presented in the previous mantra. When a devotee offers homage of prasada in the lord's temple, the lord returns it with blessings for the presenter.)

We adore and worship Indra whom hymns and songs of adoration exalt, and we pray to him for the gift of many forms of strength, honour and excellence.

Come, friends, and, with happy chant of pure holy Sama songs, adore Indra, pure and bright spirit and power of the world, who feels pleased and exalted by honest unsullied songs of adoration. Let the supplicant with a pure heart please and win the favour of Indra and rejoice.

8. Indra śuddho na ā gahi śuddhaḥ śuddhābhirūtibhiḥ. Śuddho rayim ni dhāraya śuddho mama-ddhi somyaḥ.

May Indra, pure and absolute spirit, come to us and bless us. May the pure immaculate spirit come with pure modes of action and protection. May the pure spirit bring us wealth, honour and excellence. May pure divinity, absolute peace and bliss, be pleased and exalted.

इन्द्र शुद्धा हि ना रयिं शुद्धा रत्नानि दाशुष ।

9. Indra śuddho hi no rayim śuddho ratnāni dāśuṣe. Śuddho vṛtrāṇi jighnase śuddho vājam siṣāsasi.

Indra, spirit pure and absolute, may bring us wealth, honour and excellence. The pure may bring jewels of life for the generous yajamana. Indra, the pure, in order to eliminate evil and dispel darkness and suffering, loves to give us strength, sustenance and advancement, the lord pure and blissful that he is.

Mandala 8/Sukta 96

Indra (1-13, 16-21), Indra-Marutah (14), Indra-Brhaspati (15) Devataḥ, Tirashchi Angirasa or Dyutana Maruta Rshi

अस्मा उषास आतिरन्त याममिन्द्राय नक्तमूय्याः सुवाचः ।

1. Asmā uṣāsa ātiranta yāmam-indrāya naktam-ūryāḥ suvācaḥ. Asmā āpo mātaraḥ sapta tasthur-nṛbhyas-tarāya sindhavaḥ supārāḥ.

For Indra, this lord supreme ruler and ordainer of the universe, the dawns advance their course, for Indra, the last hours of the night are sanctified with voices of adoration, for this same lord, seven motherly dynamics of nature, i.e., five elements, mind and pranic energies, keep to their tasks in nature's law, and for him the rivers and seas ebb and flow for human navigation.

2. Atividdhā vithureṇā cidastrā triḥ sapta sānu saṁdyāni pravṛddho vṛṣabhaś-cakāra.

With staggering missile he pierced thrice seven mountain peaks in succession. Neither divine nor human can ever do what the mighty hero in the state of exaltation has at a stroke achieved.

इन्द्रस्य वज्र आयसा निमिश्ल इन्द्रस्य बाह्वाभूयिष्ठमाजः ।

3. Indrasya vajra āyaso nimiśla indrasya bāhvor-bhūyīṣṭhamojah. Śīrṣannindrasya kratavo nireka āsanneṣanta śrutyā upāke.

The thunder bolt of Indra is made of unbreakable steel, sharpened and integrated with his body system, in his arms there is tremendous force and lustre, in his head are definite thoughts, plans and actions of high degree, and in his tongue is speech which people are anxious to hear at the closest.

(These two mantras are highly mystical, comprehensively allegorical also. They describe the divine process of evolution. We may interpret the astra as the missile of the Big Bang of the divine will which formally splits integrated Prakṛti into seven stages of mahan, ahankara and the five elements, i.e., akasha, vayu, agni, apah and prthivi over three modes of satva, rajas and tamas of each. The vajra, again is the will continuously operative as Rtam, the law of the dynamics of nature. At the human level, the same dynamic works as living energy of prana in the biological system and converts food into seven ascending stages of rasa, rakta, mansa, meda, majja, asthi and virya which, properly cultivated and preserved, shines as ojas, lustre of the personality.)

4. Manye tvā yajñiyam yajñiyānām manye tvā cyavanamacyutānām. Manye tvā satvanāmindra ketum manye tvā vṛṣabham carṣaṇinām.

Indra, hero of invincible power, plan and action, I honour as the most revered of the powers worthy of love and homage in yajna. Of the unmoved and immovables, I honour you as the greatest mover and the moving at the highest velocity. Of the real, the true, the eternal, I honour you as the first and highest. And of the dynamic visionaries, I honour you as the highest visionary, most dynamic in power and generosity.

5. Ā yadvajraṁ vāhvorindra dhatse madacyuta-mahaye hantavā u. Pra parvatā anavanta pra gāvaḥ pra brahmāṇo abhinakṣanta indram.

Indra, when you hold the pride shattering thunderbolt in hands for the destruction of evil forces, mountains bend, earths adore, and divines sing hymns of praise to celebrate your glory.

6. Tamu ṣṭavāma ya imā jajāna viśvā jātānyava-rāṇyasmāt. Indreṇa mitraṁ didhiṣema gīrbhirupo namobhirvṛṣabhaṁ viśema.

We worship him that brought all these forms of existence into being after him. Let us win friendship with Indra, and with hymns of adoration presented with homage and humility, abide in his presence at the closest.

7. Vṛtrasya tvā śvasathādīṣamāṇā viśve devā ajahurye sakhāyaḥ. Marudbhirindra sakhyaṁ te astvathemā viśvāḥ pṛtanā jayāsi.

O soul of man, when at the frightful breath of evil forces of thought and the external world all your noble faculties who are your friends forsake you out of fear and insecurity, at that time, Indra, O soul, of innate power and self-confidence, hold on, be friends with the Maruts, vital pranic powers, and surely you would win in all the battles against evil.

Thrice sixty Maruts, pranic and psychic energies, venerable cooperative yajnic powers, like floods of light, exalting Indra, stand by Indra, the soul. We stand by you, say they, give us our share of attention and food for life in yajna, and by this very share of recognition and food for life and power, we shall render you back the strength and power you need.

Indra, O soul, the powers of the Maruts, pranas, is really your fiery thunderbolt. Who holds a weapon counter to thunder? The evil forces are, in fact, without any force and weapon. Nor do they have anything positive and divine about them. Rise, move and shoot your wheel of concentrated force and strike them down.

O man, set in motion the long range visionary process of uprooting the evil tendencies with songs of divinity for the sake of the great, lustrous, mighty and most beneficent and peaceable Indra, the inner soul. Collect and offer profuse voices of holy exhilaration and exhortation in honour of the divine lord of song and, O dear as breath of life, he would bless you with ample gifts of health, progeny and prosperity.

O man, direct and send up your thoughts and prayers over to the great omnipotent Indra who loves the devotee's songs of adoration. Send up the adorations as we cross over the rivers by boat. And with your vision, intelligence and action feel the touch of the dear divine lord of universal presence and glory in the very core of your heart. Would not the lord dear as breath of life not oblige and bless?

O man, do that and enter there where Indra desires you to be. Worship the lord adorable and serve him with homage and praise. O celebrant, sanctify yourself and be close to him, never feel sorry and depressed. Send up your prayers so that he may listen. O dear friend, would he not listen and bless?

13. Ava drapso amśumatīm-atiṣṭhad-iyānaḥ kṛṣṇo daśabhiḥ sahasraiḥ. Āvat tamindraḥ śacyā dhamantam-apa snehitīr-nṛmaṇā adhatta.

The dark passion of pride with its ten thousand assistants and associates comes, occupies the affections and suppresses the emotive and creative streams of life, but Indra, noble leader of men, the soul, with its great thought and action, takes this bully over, controls its violence and covers it with sweetness and love.

I have seen the dark devil of passion and pride roaming around widely and variously on the banks of the vibrant stream of life. O mighty energies of prana and divine potential, I wish you fight in the battle and, like unfailing agents of cleansing of dirt, throw out the dark evil standing out and working boldly as well as surreptitiously.

When the dark passion is cleansed out, then pure vitality, lustrous and sparkling, sustains itself in the lap of creative life aflow. Indra, exuberant soul purified and tempered, in cooperation with wide ranging pranic energies, challenge and fight out the unholy tendencies of carnal mind ranging around.

Thus does Indra become a victorious enemy for the seven unrivalled unholy tendencies of sense and mind and emerges a brilliant unrivalled hero. Thus does he find the real joyous heaven and earth otherwise, for him, covered in deep darkness. Thus do you, O soul, bear and bring happiness to the regions of life vested in dignity and excellence.

You, virile commander of thunderous strength, most daring hero, by your virile and thunderous force of personality you won unequalled lustre and dignity. With your deadly weapons, you overcame the ravages of famine, deprivation and exploitation, and with your courage and conscientious action you won lands and cows and conquered your own carnal self.

Indra, you are the power on top, virile and generous leader of the dynamic human community, destroyer of darkness, evil and exploitation, and a blazing brilliant hero. You release the streams of waters and social energies restrained by forces of repression and suppression, and you free and win over the floods of human potential and action locked up under the force of tyranny.

You are the hero of noble action, happy celebrant of life and divinity in yajnic gatherings of knowledge, enlightenment and advanced action. Unsurpassed is your passion for action, and your splendour and generosity is like the light of day.

With words of welcome and adoration, we invoke, invite and serve the brilliant leader, destroyer of want, ignorance and suffering, and sustainer of the people, He is our protector, trustee of the nation's wealth, power and honour, defender of our honour and dignity in world forums and giver of honour, prosperity and excellence. He is the power and person adorable.

Indra, destroyer of darkness, ignorance and exploitation, is patron of the wise and intelligent artists, scientists, technologists and pioneers in the fields of development and progress, and constantly born and reborn in manifested glory and dignity, he is the highest adorable power and person. Doing many many noble acts worthy of a dynamic and progressive humanity, he is inspiring as soma, loved, honoured and adorable for friends, companions and co-workers wherever he is.

Indra, lord of bliss and omnipotence, the food, energy and vitality which you bear and bring from the sources of pranic energy such as sun, air, cloud and cosmic intelligence is great and admirable. O lord of power and glory, pray advance the devotees who appreciate, develop and celebrate this energy and spread the holy grass of yajna in gratitude to you, offer homage to you and develop your gifts.

Indra, lord of wealth, honour and excellence, he, the hoarder and wastour, who lies idle lost in deep sleep, having forgotten divinity, gratitude and the law of divinity, he destroys that wealth by his own actions and behaviour, though that wealth, otherwise, deserves to be used and developed. Better it is you vest that wealth away from him, elsewhere so that it could be creatively used and developed.

2. Matsvā suśipra harivastadīmahe tve ā bhūṣanti vedhasaḥ. Tava śravāṁsyupamānyukthyā sute-ṣvindra girvaṇaḥ.

O lord of golden glory, moving and manifesting by vibrations of joyous energy, arise and exult in the heart. You alone, the wise sages exalt and glorify. Indra, lord adorable in song, when the yajnic communion of meditation is fulfilled, the vibrations of your ecstatic presence are ideal and admirable.

3. Śrāyanta iva sūryaṁ viśvedindrasya bhakṣata. Vasūni jāte janamāna ojasā prati bhāgaṁ na dīdhima.

Just as the rays of light share and diffuse the radiance of the sun, so you too share and reflect the golden glories of Indra, the cosmic soul. Let us meditate on the divine presence and for our share enjoy the ecstasy of bliss vibrating in the world of past and future creation by virtue of Indra's omnipresent majesty.

4. Anarśarātiṁ vasudāmupa stuhi bhadraṁ indrasya rātayah. So asya kāmam vidhato na roṣati mano dānāya codayan.

Adore and meditate on Indra, giver of wealth, honour, excellence and bliss. Infinite is his generosity, unsatiating, auspicious his gifts. He does not displease the devotee, does not hurt his desire and prayer, he inspires his mind for the reception of divine gifts.

5. Tvamindra pratūrṭiṣvabhi viśvā asi sprdhah. Aśastihā janītā viśvatūrasī tvam tūrya taruṣyatah.

Indra, O inspired soul, in the external conflicts of life and in the internal conflicts of mind, you are the superior over all assailants. You are the destroyer of evil and calumny, creator of goodness and eliminator of impediments. Pray drive off all evil thoughts and oppositions of life and mind.

6. Anu te śuṣmaṁ turayantamīyatuḥ kṣoṇī śīsum na mātārā. Viśvāste sprdhah śnathayanta manyave vṛtram yadindra tūvasi.

Just as mothers follow the desires and interests of children, so do the heaven and earth, all living beings from earth to heaven, think and act in conformity with you, evil destroying power. All oppositions slacken and fall exhausted when you strike and destroy the demons of evil and negativity in the interest of man.

7. Ita ūtī vo ajaraṁ prahetāramaprahitam. Āśuṁ jetāraṁ hetāraṁ rathītamaṁ-atūrtaṁ tugryāvṛdham.

O men and women of the earth, for your protection and progress follow Indra, unaging, all inspirer and mover, himself unmoved and self-inspired, most dynamic, highest victor, thunderer, master of the chariot of life, inviolable augments of strength to victory.

8. Iṣkartāramaniṣkṛtaṁ sahaskṛtaṁ śatamūtiṁ śatakratum. Samānamindramavase havāmahe vasavānaṁ vasūjuvam.

For our protection and progress, we invoke Indra, lord supreme abiding in the soul, giver of fulfilment, himself self-fulfilled, creator and giver of strength, courage and fortitude, giver of infinite protections, lord of a hundred good acts, equally good to all, all protective and kind, settler and augments of wealth and wisdom.

I bear my portion of the honey sweets of life primarily for you in gratitude, out of which the soma essence distilled from experience would be offered in homage. May you, I pray, be kind and friendly to me on the right and then together we shall eliminate evil and darkness from life.

O seekers of strength, power and progress in life, offer worship and adoration in honour of Indra if it is your faith in heart and soul that reality is the truth and Indra is the reality. Only some one of raw and sceptical understanding would say: Indra is non-existent, who saw him? And if none saw Indra, who and why should we adore and worship?

I AM. O celebrant, behold I am here. I am the real on top of all that is born in the world, self-existent by my own grandeur. The laws of existence exalt me with space, and scholars of the laws, Rtam, adore me all round. I am the creator, I am the destroyer, I split open the seed, I manifest the world forms and I break them back beyond the form into the seed state.

When the wise visionaries reach on top of thought and meditation and see me, the lone presence over the glorious order of existence, my mind from the core of my heart of love speaks out: My friends blest with knowledge and vision through the power of prana beyond sufferance have called on me. (This is the voice of divinity, invitation to a higher life of cosmic vision.)

Admirable are all those acts of kindness and grace, laudable in yajnic meets of humanity, O lord of glory, Indra, which you do graciously for the meditative soul where by you reveal the climactic, intensely concentrated wealth of beatific vision and presence for the man of austere discipline in communion, brother of the omniscient, all seeing creator, the cosmic poet.

7. *Pra nūnaṁ dhāvataṁ pṛthaṅ neha yo vo avāvarīt.

O friends of divinity, with determined will and decision, move forward and run fast, each in your own style, there is none to stop you. Indra, lord omnipotent, strikes the thunderbolt at the core of darkness and destroys the obstructions.

मनाजवा अयमान आयसीमर्तत्पुरम् ।

दिवं सुपणा गत्वाय सामं वज्रिण आभरत ॥ ८ ॥

8. *Manojavā ayamāna āyasīmatarat puram.
Divam suparṇo gatvāya somam vajriṇa ābharat.*

Moving at the speed of mind, suparna, flying human imagination and vision, crosses the iron bounds of the fortress of the body, and having gone to the regions of heavenly light and bliss brings the soma, ecstasy of divine joy for the soul which bears the virile vitality of the spirit, wielder of the soul's thunderbolt.

9. Samudre antaḥ śayata udnā vajro abhīvṛtaḥ. Bharantyaśmai samyataḥ puraḥ prasravaṇā balim.

In the liquid vitalities of the body system surrounded by living waters, the virile vitality of the spirit, the vajra, resides in the human body. For this vitality, streams of energy flowing forth in the veins and nerves bear and bring contributive forms of physical and pranic nourishment of the spirit for the soul's rise to divinity.

10. Yadvāg-vadantyavicetanāni rāṣṭrī devānām niṣa-sāda mandrā. Catasra ūrjam duduhe payāmsi kvasvidasyāḥ paramam jagāma.

When the divine voice, joyous and refulgent, settles in the heart, illuminates the mind and senses, awakens the subconscious and the unconscious, and reveals the secret potentials of the soul in divine communion, then all the four directions of space, all the four Vedic voices, and all the four layers of speech distil the light and wisdom of divine existence for the soul. What is the ultimate reach of that voice? Indra only knows.

11. Devīm vācam-ajanayanta devāstām viśvarūpāḥ paśavo vadanti. Sā no mandreṣamūrjam duhānā dhenur-vāg-asmānupa suṣṭutaitu.

Sages and scholars, brilliant and wise, manifest and speak in human language that divine speech of omniscience which, then, all living and seeing forms of beings speak in its extended forms of variety over the world. That divine speech, joyous and generous like the milch cow, giving nourishment and energy, honoured, served and studied, may, we pray, come direct to us and bless.

12. Sakhe viṣṇo vitaraṁ vi kramasva dyaurdehi lokam vajrāya viṣkabhe. Hanāva vṛtraṁ riṇacāva sindhūn-indrasya yantu prasave visṛṣṭāḥ.

O friend, O soul progressive like universal Vishnu's presence, act and advance to redeem your divinity. O light of heaven, give more light and space for the virile vitality of the soul to settle, consolidate and rise. Then we, the human and the immanent divine, together, shall eliminate evil, darkness and suffering from life, release the inhibited streams of life to flow freely, and the floods of human potential may then, we pray, flow abundantly in the blissful yajnic creation of Indra.

MANDALA-9

Mandala 9/Sukta 1

Pavamana Soma Devata, Madhucchanda Vaishvamisra Rshi

स्वादिष्ठया॒ मदिष्ठया॒ पवस्व॒ साम॒ धार॑या ।
इन्द्रा॒य॒ पात॑व सुतः ॥ १ ॥

1. *Svādiṣṭhayā madiṣṭhayā pavasva soma dhārayā.
Indrāya pātave sutaḥ.*

O Soma, Spirit of Divinity, peace and glory of existence distilled in the essence for the soul's being, flow in the sweetest and most exhilarating streams of ecstasy, cleanse and sanctify us unto purity and constancy, and initiate us into the state of ananda, divine glory.

(Soma in the physical sense is an exhilarating drink, in the aesthetic sense it is ecstasy, in the psychic sense it is ananda, and in the spiritual sense it is elevation of the soul to the experience of divinity. It is the peace, purity and glory of life, any power physical, social or divine that leads to satyam (truth), shivam (goodness), and sundaram (beauty) of life, anything, power and person that gives us an experience of sacchidananda, the real, the intelligent and the blissful state of the life divine. In short, Soma is satyam, shivam and sundaram, the sat, the chit and the ananda of life. It is not restricted to a particular herb and a particular drink. The meaning of soma is open-ended on the positive side of life and

र॒ ण॒हा वि॒श्वच॑षणि॒र॒भि या॒नि॒मया॑हत॒म ।

4. *Abhyarṣa mahānām devānām vītimandhasā.
Abhi vājamuta śravaḥ.*

Let your bounty flow free to the yajnic hall of the great and generous divine yajnic givers with gifts of holy food and prosperity, and bring us honour,

सा॒म॒मिन्द्रा॑य॒ पात॑व ॥ ९ ॥

9. *Abhīmamaghnyā uta śrīṇanti dhenavaḥ śiṣum.
Somamindrāya pātave.*

And this soma, further, the ten senses and pranas season and inflame with positive powers of the soul as the milk of inviolable cows seasons and inflames the power of soma juice, and then the enflamed joy of the soul nourishes and inspires the dedicated man like a divine baby for the achievement of spiritual glory.

1. *Pra devamacchā madhumanta indavo'siṣyad-

Seekers of the light and soma sweetness of divinity, themselves noble and refined with honey sweets of culture, manners and holy language, approach the refulgent and generous divine lord like calves going to mother cows. Sitting on the holy grass of yajna at dawn, eloquent of tongue and clear of understanding, they receive and treasure the nectar stream of soma, peace and bliss of divinity, as calves receive milk streaming from the udders or as dawns receive radiations of light from the sun over the night's darkness.

He, eternal preceptor, refulgent dispeller of want and darkness, instant, transcendent, omniscient and eloquent master of the eternal voice, feels delighted with the rising seekers and, accepting and inspiring them, removes all superfluities and impediments, reveals and releases the soma of higher joy of knowledge and thus grants them the sacred boon they desire.

3. Vi yo mame yamyā saṁyatī madaḥ sākaṁvṛdhā payasā pinvadakṣitā. Mahī apāre rajasī vive-vidad-abhivrajann-akṣitaṁ pāja ā dade.

The lord grants that soma joy of divinity which, going over and pervading the great and boundless heaven and earth, energises, vitalises and expands the inviolable twin sisters growing together in glory, with the milky spirit of divinity, and which, thus going forward unobstructed, holds the imperishable power and bliss of divinity.

The lord grants that power and bliss of soma which vibrates with motherly heaven and earth, energising the cosmic waters and the dynamics of nature and humanity, which partakes of the omniscience of divinity, flows and swells the holy spirit of the yajnic meditative soul and which, invoked and served by noble humans of kindred nature with meditation inputs, grows from shoots to flowers and unites with, preserves and promotes the highest faculties of humanity.

5. *Sam dakṣeṇa manasā jāyate kavir-ṛtasya garbho

The creative soul, Soma, is born along with mind and noble intelligence, the seed and seat of divine law and wisdom hidden somewhere far deep by the laws of nature. Being together, they, mind and intelligence, are first physically born as in any other creature, the other, higher and enlightened self, is born, rather reborn, as it is raised through purity and elevation of the mind from the depth of its hiding cave.

The yogis of elevated, enlightened and concentrated mind feel and know the presence of the blissful soma spirit of existence which the vibrant visionary soul perceives, distils and actually realises as food for fulfilment far off and everywhere. The sages adore and worship that very exalting spirit flowing in streams of existence which is passionate and loving, energising, all comprehensive and adorable, sung and celebrated in hymns of the Veda.

O Soma, Spirit of the bliss of existence, ten youthful senses and vibrant pranas of the soul adore and exalt you, sung and celebrated by the sages of knowledge, thought and meditation, served by the best of men with best of homage and divine presentations, and realised and treasured by the seers. O lord of universal protection and progress, give us a vision of your divine power and presence for our ultimate victory and spiritual fulfilment.

Joyous celebrants with sincerity of mind and soul exalt Soma, universally vibrant Spirit, lovely and adorable, holy and companionable who, immortal treasurehold of the wealth and honey sweets of life, gives us streams and showers of the divine voice of omniscience from the heights of heaven.

9. Ayam diva iyarti viśvamā rajah somah punānaḥ kalaśeṣu sīdati. Adbhir-gobhir-mṛjyate adribhiḥ sutaḥ punāna indurvarivo vidat priyam.

This Soma, lord of peace and power, moves all the particles of nature and forces of power from the centre of light and, pure and purifying, sits and pervades in all forms of existence. By the adamant and generous powers of nature and humanity, it is exalted with the dynamics of energy, will, acts and voices of intelligence, and the holy spirit, thus distilled and realised, pure and purifying, brings us the best and dearest wealth, honour and excellence of immortal value.

Thus adored, exalted and served, O Soma, flow with vibrant presence, bringing us the most wonderful food, health and strength. We invoke the earth and heaven free from jealousy, contradiction and enmity, and pray may the divinities of nature and humanity bear and bring us wealth, honour and excellence worthy of the brave.

Mandala 9/Sukta 69

Pavamana Soma Devata, Hiranyastupa Angirasa Rshi

इषुन धन्वन्पतिं धीयत मतिवत्सा न मातुरुप स्रज्यूधनि ।

1. Iṣurna dhanvan prati dhīyate matirvatso na māturupa sarjyūdhani. Urudhāreva duhe agra āyatyasya vrateshvapi soma iṣyate.

Like the arrow fixed on the bow, the enlightened mind is directed to the divine mother's treasure of milk for the baby. Then like the mother cow coming home with milk streaming forth for the calf, the coming life at hand is replete with joyous possibilities of fulfilment. Thus, under the laws of the lord's dispensation, nectar soma is created, loved and realised for the joy and fulfilment of the soul.

2. Upo matiḥ prcyate sicyate madhu mandrājani codate antarāsani. Pavamānaḥ saṁtaniḥ praghnatāmiva madhumān drapsaḥ pari vāramarṣati.

When the mind is joined in concentration with divinity, honey is released and pours forth, divine ecstasy stirs in the heart within, and the continuous stream of soma, overflowing with joy like the uninterrupted ecstasy of the yogis of perfect renunciation, showers upon the blessed soul.

अव्यं वधूयुः पवतु परि त्वचि श्रथ्नीत नृमीरदितऋतं यत ।

The stream of soma joy flows in the protected heart of the dedicated celebrant, attenuates the extrovert natural tendencies of the mind and augments the inner concentration of the higher mind for the man of natural truth and divine law. And Hari, divine lord controller of agitation and dispeller of darkness, intensifies the controlled flow of the yogi's joy in communion and, deepening and directing it on the fixed target, shines like a victor with divine strength and glory.

4. *Ukṣā mimāti prati yanti dhenavo devasya devī-

The generous virile soul overflowing with soma joy vibrates with Infinity, the senses having returned inward like cows to the stall. The enlightened mind and thoughts of the holy soul unite with the hallowed centre of the spirit. The soul breaks through its existential cover, returns to its original imperishable purity, and Soma protects it as a pilgrim cleansed and redeemed.

The saviour, destroyer of suffering and darkness, cleansing and sanctifying existence with imperishable light of his glory, pervades, transcends and beatifies the top of heaven and the middle regions of vapour between earth and heaven, vesting them all with his splendour.

The dynamics of the lord's creation instantly in motion, energising the sleeping existences, joyous and joyously moving everything to ecstatic being, all together move across the web of life conceived and created by the lord omnipotent, Indra. Not without Indra does any particle, any wave, any world, move pure and sacred as it is.

Floods of river waters showered from the clouds flow fast in their happy course down to the sea and mix with the ocean. Like these, may our people, joyous with showers of soma, fast and progressive, flow and proceed like water courses to the divine Indra. O Soma, lord of peace and joy, let there be peace and joy in our homesteads for humans and animals both. May our people and our powers and progress be firm and constant on the forward paths of higher achievement.

8. Ā naḥ pavasva vasumaddhiranyaṇyavadaśvādadgomadyavamat suvīryam. Yūyaṁ hi soma pitaro mama sthana divo mūrdhānaḥ prasthitā vaya-skṛtaḥ.

O Soma, lord of peace, progress and joy, bring us, purify and let flow, the wealth of peace and honour replete and overflowing with settlement and security, golden glory, progressive achievement, lands, cows and culture graces, food and good health, and noble courage, strength and forbearance. You alone are our father and mother, you alone would stay so constant, light of heaven, top of excellence, stable as earth, and giver of food, health and sustenance for a long full age.

These soma joys of life, pure and purifying, like divine radiations of victory, flow to the karma-yogi, man of holy action and enthusiasm. Distilled and concentrated, they flow to the sacred heart, dispel ill health and infirmity, and, ever fresh and inspiring, they bring showers of divine bliss.

O lord of peace, beauty and joy, giver of happiness and well being, adorable divinity, destroyer of violence, enemies and impediments, flow for the great Indra, for the glory of the karma-yogi. Bring the beauties of wealth, settlement and security, honour and excellence of life for the celebrant. O heaven and earth, come along with the divinities of nature and humanity and protect and promote us with happiness and well being.

Pavamana Soma Devata, Renu Vaishvamitra Rshi

त्रिरस्म सप्त धनवा दुदुह सत्यामाशिरं पूव्य व्यामनि ।

1. Trirasmai sapta dhenavo duduhre satyāmā-śirani pūrve vyomani. Catvāryanyā bhuvanāni nirṇije cārūṇi cakre yadr̥tairavardhata.

Thrice seven cows, creative powers of natural evolution, generate the milky strain of vitality added to the evolving reality in the service of the creator Soma in the cosmic yajna in absolute time and space, Soma who also created four other beautiful orders of existence for the glory and sanctity of existence which grows by the laws of cosmic dynamics.

(The seven cows may be interpreted as the seven evolutes of Prakṛti: mahan, ahankara and five subtle elements of ether or akasha, energy or vayu, fire or agni, water or apah, and earth or prthivi. Three are orders of sattva or thought, rajas or motion, and tamas or matter. This makes the thrice seven, the four other beautiful orders of existence may be interpreted as mana (mind), buddhi (discriminative intelligence), chitta (memory) and ahankara (I-sense or existential personality). Another interpretation could be the four Vedas, knowledge, the corresponding order of existence in terms of awareness and expression.

2. Sa bhikṣamāṇo amṛtasya cāruṇa ubhe dyāvā kāvyenā vi śaśrathe. Tejiṣṭhā apo mamhanā pari vyata yadī devasya śravasā sado viduḥ.

He, loving, sharing and pervading the immortal beauty of existence, orders and adorns both heaven and earth with his art, intelligence and poetic sublimity, also vesting the vapours of the middle regions with his might and splendour. Those who know the reality of the lord's creation alongwith his power, love and generosity really know and share the bliss.

3. Te asya santu ketavo'mṛtyavo'dābhyāso januṣī ubhe anu. Yebhir-nṛmṇā ca devyā punata ādi-drājānaṁ mananā agrbhṇata.

May those radiations of the light and power of this divine Soma, spirit of bliss, free from mortality, deception or unreality, by which the lord strengthens, purifies and sanctifies acts and virtues both human and natural, be in accord with life, human as well as of other forms, and may humanity receive and internalise that divine spirit of love, peace and refulgence with all their thought, thoughtful action and meditation.

He, blissful and watchful guardian of humanity both pious and impious, exalted by ten efficient senses and pranas and by ten holy observances of Dharma, who is pervasive in the midst of human faculties of perception and volition, awareness and understanding to watch and warn us, thereby strengthening and promoting the holy and immortal dharmic discipline of humanity, He watches at first hand what people do in thought, word and deed.

5. Sa marmṛjāna indriyāya dhāyasa obhe antā rodasī harṣate hitaḥ. Vṛṣā śuṣmeṇa bādgate vi durmatīr-ādediśānaḥ śaryaheva śurudhaḥ.

He, adorable and exalted, pervades and abides in both heaven and earth and in the middle regions, happy, blissful and generous with showers of joy for humanity for their honour and exaltation, to help them to wield their potential efficiently. With divine power, he warns men of negative understanding, even commanding them like a warrior who wards off the evil and finally destroys the forces of violence and destruction.

6. Sa mātaraṇa dadṛśāna usriyo nānadadeti marutāmiva svanaḥ. Jānannṛtaṁ prathamam yat svarṇaram praśastaye kamavṛṇita sukratuḥ.

As mother cows watch and guard the calves, so does Soma, lord of light and power of life, vibrant and resonant like roaring winds, pervade, watch and vitalise heaven and earth, mother givers of life and sustenance. And the man of holy action, knowing the cosmic law of divinity and the prime paradisaal agent of the good of humanity, should love and worship that Soma for his self-fulfilment.

Mighty, virile and generous all-watching soma spirit of divinity, sharpening its top powers of perfection of good and elimination of evil, settles in the heart centre of the man of holy action, vibrates and resounds, and then the man's perceptive and discriminative intelligence becomes definitive, protective and creative, inviolable.

Pure, purifying and sanctifying the holy man in body, the protective and gracious Soma spirit of divinity is enshrined on top of the holy man's inviolable being, loved and adored for the sake of the spirit of friendship, veneration for judgement and vibrant enthusiasm for life, and then honey sweets of triple powers for body, mind and spirit are created by men of holy action.

9. Pavasva soma devavītaye vṛṣendrasya hārdi somadhānamā viśa. Purā no bādhādduritāti pāraya kṣetraviddhi dīśa āhā vipṛcchate.

O Soma spirit of life and divinity, virile and generous, pure and purifying, favourite of divine hearts, come for the service of the divine Lord and join the soma yajna and the soma yajis. Take us across the evil before its onslaught. After all, he alone can guide the traveller asking for directions who knows the area on earth and the field of life.

Like a war horse directed to the field of battle, come Indu, Soma spirit of peace, power and joyous action, flow, enter and purify the spirit of Indra, man of action and the social order. Like the mariner crossing the sea by boat, advance, O scholar and warrior, fighting on. Protect us, destroy the scandal mongers and take us across the sea of life.

The gift is given liberally, the mighty, Soma, comes to the hall and presides, the wakeful protects against the evil and the jealous, and the omnipotent Soma, lord of peace and plenty, creates water vapours as a pillar and cover between the green earth and heaven of light and reveals the Vedas to sanctify and glorify existence.

2. Pra kṛṣṭiheva śūṣa eti roruvadasuryam varṇam ni riṇīte asya tam. Jahāti vavriṁ pitureti niskṛta-mupaprutam kṛṇute nirṇijam tanā.

The mighty hero of peace, power and plenty, Soma, goes forward roaring like a warrior, loud and bold, revealing, manifesting and displaying that vibrant, assertive and tempestuous character of his which dispels and destroys darkness and evil, realises and maintains the purest sacred spirit of his ancestral tradition in action and attains the perfect, unsullied and absolute fulfilment of his earthly existence.

3. Adribhiḥ sutah pavate gabhastyor-vṛṣāyate nabhasā vepate matī. Sa modate nasate sādgate girā nenikte apsu yajate parīmaṇi.

The soma spirit of life vibrates and sanctifies, distilled and condensed by clouds, realised by sages, shining in sun-rays and reflecting in meditative minds of the yogis. Virile and generous, it waxes in strength, showers with the cloud and inspires all with intelligence. It rejoices, reaches all, makes everything possible, and with the divine voice joins humanity, cleanses and sanctifies, and blesses all in yajna and in their yajnic actions.

Honey showers of peace, patience and fortitude rain on the master of homely fire-side, lover of light and dedicated performer of soma yajna, in whose life and family senses, mind and memory, fed on positive and yajnic perceptual and conceptual food of experience, retain and sanctify high moral and spiritual values of prime importance with the highest reflections of divinity.

Just as ten fingers of both hands control and direct the chariot's course so, if the ten faculties of perception and volition and the ten pranas collected together in meditation were to raise the yogi's intelligence and awareness and he were to rise as reborn and reach the lap of mother Infinity, he would attain to the top of the blissful stage of existence which all his faculties in unison would generate for him.

6. Śyeno na yonim sadanam dhiyā kṛtaṁ hiraṇya-yamāśadam deva eṣati. E riṇanti barhiṣi priyaṁ girā'svo na devāñ apyeti yajñiyah.

As the eagle bird comes to rest in its nest, so does the light of the soul rise and shine in the golden cave of the heart, the seat of divinity, prepared by the light of higher intelligence and awareness. There on the seat of sanctity the celebrants adore the dear Soul with holy song where the divine Spirit, loving and adorable, blesses the divine soul of the yogi and his transparent faculties and rules as an emperor over the dominion.

The divine Soma Spirit of peace and power selfrefulgent beyond the lights of heaven, omniscient creator, omnificient giver, visionary and watchful over the three orders of time and space, delights in the songs of adoration as a committed listener. It is omnipotent guide over a thousand ways, immanent and transcendent, and rules and illuminates the eternal dawns of light and vision like the sun.

Its form assumes a lustrous character of blazing refulgence, and wherever it reflects, shines and abides, there in the battles of human life and existence it destroys negativities and inner conflicts. Commanding the dynamic powers of life with its innate potential it goes to the pious celebrant and abides there in the heart adored with the highest words of exaltation.

9. Ukṣeva yūthā pariyannarāvīdadhi tviṣīradhita sūryasya. Divayaḥ suparṇo'va cakṣata kṣāṁ somaḥ pari kratunā paśyate jāḥ.

Just as cosmic energy comprehends and controls all systems of the universe and with its thunderous dynamics vests the sun with light, so does Soma, supreme spirit of creativity, peace and joy, the light of life and cosmic intelligence, watches the earth and nature and, with its holy creativity, controls and enlightens all systems and species it has created.

Devout celebrants love Soma divine like the warmth of fire, admire it like beauty of the dawn, and exalt it like light of the sun. You join the bliss of this divinity with all your senses, mind, intelligence and awareness. And then you would realise that Soma vibrates in the heart as bliss and rolls as waves of the sea. It inspires men to burst forth in song, energises thoughts and intellect, and sharpens the vision and imagination. Indeed there are no bounds to the precious gifts of Soma, infinite are they, universally adored and exalted as it is.

When intelligent celebrants experience the Soma ecstasy in the heart core of personality, when brilliant people, leading lights of high mind and soul, with all ten senses and pranas collected, controlled and exalted with Soma, realise the bliss they cherish, they all celebrate the divine presence and burst forth in song.

Bearing love and enthusiasm for this Soma, the devotee abides with both sister senses of perception and volition, but indifferent to sense experience and pleasure, he moves on to the sweet message of the dawn, daughter of the sun, and goes still beyond to bliss of the absolute divinity.

O soul, master of senses, mind and intelligence, the soma joy of existence flows free for you everywhere. Exercised in practice by holy men, distilled and realised in the heart and on the holy grass of yajna, darling of the soul, ruler of sense and mind, it masters, controls and governs the stars and planets. It is refulgent, heavenly and illuminative, and blissful across the seasons, time and space. It holds and sustains all systems of nature and humanity, it is the harbinger of success and fulfilment for us in all our yajnic corporate acts, and it is pure and immaculate beyond possibility of sin, evil and pollution.

Indra, O soul, the soma joy of divinity flows free for you, impelled by human arms of karma, showered in streams with resonant hymns. Move on to holy actions in yajna, and Soma, lord of peace and power, pervading in heaven and earth and the middle regions like cosmic energy and the dynamics of cause and effect, would fulfill your desires, intentions and resolutions of mind.

Streams of the waves and particles of exuberant soma of the creator singing in unison flow into forms in the cosmic home of existence, and the centre-holds of the forms of systems and sub-systems flow back into the vedi of the cosmic yajna, completing the cycle. The highest and omnipotent lord of cosmic vitality, to begin this yajna, brought into manifestation three modes of Prakṛti, sattva, rajas and tamas, and the emergence of living forms of species, boat-like carriers-on, finally complete the holy creative process.

Mighty men, sages, scholars and leaders, wise, ambitious and good intentioned, holily all together stirring on top of the oceanic waves of existence, keep it moving fast and faster and, creating beautiful things, doing good work in honour of the lord creator, advance this dear world of the Almighty with streams of the honey sweets of soma.

Men of soma purity of mind and character, they stand by the holy voice of divinity and the dynamics of nature. The eternal father and ruler over all protects and promotes their discipline of Dharma. Just as the all enveloping space alone can cover the mighty ocean and the cosmic vapours, similarly men of stable mind only can keep original human commitment in matters of cosmic law.

The instant and watchful eyes of the dynamics of divinity, all enveloping and all beholding, are ever awake without a wink for the moment. O lord, at every step the binding bonds are there, and there are saviour bridges as well.

Like the rays of sunlight radiating from above to mother earth in unison, shining with their brilliance, illuminating and purifying, and burning off those pollutants which act against natural law, the soma souls of humanity acting in unison around father and mother in holy tradition, shining and sanctifying life with divine hymns, reducing and eliminating powers of negative character and habit against natural law and human values, they drive off and eliminate the defilers and violators of cosmic law, and, with the knowledge and power of the light of great heaven, they remove the veil of the darkness of ignorance.

Soma souls that act in unison with faith in eternal values, who are self-controlled by the divine Word and follow the spirit of lord Almighty pursue the path of universal law and reach the divine destination. But men of negative disposition see not what they see and hear not what they hear, abandon the path of truth and fail to reach the divine destination of life.

In this expansive world of a thousand streams of purity flowing on and on, men of noble thought and poetic vision create, speak and sanctify their word. Men of judgement and rectitude, they discriminate between right and wrong and the natural consequences thereof. They are dynamic, free from jealousy, penetrative observers, worthy of reverence, holy visionaries and constant watchers of humanity

The man of universal truth, guardian of law, is undaunted, he is not for fear, nor for deceit. Pure at heart and holy of action, he maintains that strength and purity in his threefold conduct in thought, word and deed. Man of knowledge, vision and practical wisdom, he overwatches the entire regions of the world, brings to book the sceptics and the uncommitted, and fixes the saboteurs and the violators of law.

The web of Truth and Law is vast and universal. It extends enshrined in the pure at heart and speaks at the tip of the tongue by virtue of the wondrous power of Varuna, lord of love and justice, choice and discrimination. The brave, settled at heart and mind, receive it and follow it to self-fulfilment. The sceptics, dissenting and denying, fall from grace into negation and utter frustration.

When in this vernal wood of existence, man clamours like a new born baby for sustenance, then that mighty refulgent heavenly giver of light and bliss waxes with love and desire overflowing with the milk of grace and blesses him with the living energy of heavenly divinity. To that divine lord of light and peace we pray with songs of holiness for life's well being and spiritual freedom.

We pray to that centre-hold of heaven, foundation of existence, boundless holy presence all pervasive and perfect, covering all space all round who holds both these worlds of earth and heaven with the middle regions together and sustains them like a yajamana. He is the omniscient visionary, poetic creator and giver of food and energy for sustenance and knowledge for enlightenment.

Of mighty form is he, generous, adorable, exceedingly refulgent controller of universal dynamics, shelter home of life who rules over the rains of living waters on earth. The honey sweets of soma homage well expressed and distilled are for him, yajamana of the yajnic wide paths of rectitude of mother earth and nature.

Living energising showers of soma ghrta and waters are received from space. The centre-hold of eternal truth and spirit of immortality here constantly manifests in the flow of existence. Joint integrated generous powers of nature serve that divinity and leading lights of humanity too offer service in abundance to the munificent power.

Four treasure casks of Dharma, artha, kama and moksha abide well guarded in the region of light and, overflowing with ghrta, living water and divine sanctity, bring down the spirit and message of full life on earth for the joy of human life, imperishable and immortal.

Whenever man desires, Soma, life of life on earth and virile controller of solar energy that pervades vast natural resources, forms shining clouds of vapour, parjanya, then, with its intelligential dynamics, joins with the vapour powers, and, going forward from light to the cloud, breaks the flood of water vapours into rain. (Like the clouds of rain showers of water, also, come the rain showers of knowledge and wisdom for humanity).

To him do celebrants of divinity with sincere mind enthusiastically pray to bless the scholars, the teacher and the disciple, with a hundred years of enlightened life of knowledge and wisdom.

O Soma, lord of light and bliss, pure and purifying, lover of life with showers of living consecrating nectar, the immortal bliss of your presence flows to the chosen soul of humanity. As such, celebrated and exalted by poets, O Spirit immaculate most ecstatic, pray flow and be sweet and gracious for the delight and fulfilment of Indra, virile soul of pious humanity.

Soma, spirit of life and joy of existence, mighty, infinite, omnipresent, pervades and vitalises all dear beautiful systems of waters and light, expansive and exalted therein. Greater than the great, all watching, it rides the grand chariot of the sun which comprehends and illuminates the whole world.

The speaker and protector of the acts of yajna and Soma truth of life is fearless, undaunted. Just as progeny is the continuance and illumination of the honour and reverence of parents, so is yajna the progeny and illuminative soma of Soma refulgent in the third and highest region of the light of existence.

Those who distil the eternal truth of existence in their yajnic communion with divinity celebrate and exalt it in song as it abides over three regions of earth, heaven and the skies and shines over the glory of dawns.

being of life. Pure and purifying, exalted by the veteran wise, come and sanctify the beauty of life. With all those joyous gifts of yours which are mighty universal and Soma, joyous spirit of the universe, sustainer of the regions of light, constant doer, eternal delight and bliss of divinities, perfect omnipotent power, sole worthy of worship by humanity vibrates omnipresent, purifies and sanctifies the life of existence. Destroyer of want and suffering, ever creative, with its own powers spontaneously, like energy itself creates movement and growth in the channels of existence.

Wielding the powers and instrumentalities of nature, like a warrior and victor in immanent will and omniscience, keen to share the joy of existence with humanity in paths of daily business, commanding the chariot of the universe in micro and macro systems of its dynamics, inspiring and elevating the soul's potential, itself stimulated and energised into manifestation by thinkers and men of yajnic action in meditation, the spirit of universal light and glory is aroused to raise and bless humanity.

As thunder, lightning and clouds of rain shower and augment heaven and earth, pray strengthen us, and with divine intelligence, as it were, extend our food, energies, progress and victories for all time. You are the creator, you are the maker, you are the giver.

Soma is refulgent ruler of the world. It flows pure, purifying those who see the light divine. Loving, commanding, and illuminating the dynamics of nature unto waves and particles, seer of the seers as it is, exalted by sun beams, father generator and giver of knowledge, it transcends the vision and word of the wise and poet's poetry.

Thus, O most joyous and blissful spirit of the universe, you flow for the soul. Pray bless us so that under your natural protections of grace we may win in the struggles of life.

potent as thunderbolt of Indra, beauty, power and bliss incarnate, more beautiful and vigorous than beauty and power itself. All voices of speech replete with the spirit of truth and divinity, generous and overflowing with liquidity of meaning and spirit of divinity and divine law flow from it, about it and to it like milch cows overflowing with milk for the calf.

That same joy full of honey sweets, vibrating with power and bliss joins with the weaker humanity stricken with fear and anxiety and may, we pray, inspire the devotee with new strength and vigour.

on all paths of life, companionable, giver of fulfilment, He vibrates in the multitude of existence and roars like thunder in the depth of clouds.

It vibrates and shines with the voice of omniscient lord transcendent, Brhaspati, and, like the vaulting oceans and expansive space, the generative vibrations of divinity extend beyond the lights of heaven.

Charming vibrations of the presence and power of pure and purifying Soma, supreme spirit of light and peace, radiate to the heart core of Indra, lover of knowledge and light of divinity, when, seasoned and supplemented with experiences of senses and mind elevated through higher states of inversion and concentration in Dharma and Dhyana, they exhilarate the brave soul with strength and excellence and exhort it to divine love and total self-surrender.

It knows and vibrates among the divinities simultaneously in their present life as well as in the past and future and reaches from here to there and there to here at the same time (since it is omnipresent and presently comprehends both time and space, and, as Yajurveda says, it moves and yet it does not move).

(So versatile is the yogi also by attainment blest by Soma.)

Soma, self-refulgent supreme creative spirit of the universe, virile and generous, dispeller of darkness and deprivation, regal and gracious like a ruler, self-moves, vibrating to the generation of stars and planets. Itself pure, purifying and sanctifying, it moves to manifest in the heart of imperishable Prakṛti as it chooses and, like the sun that warms and fertilises, it enlivens the generative centre of life as its own womb of manifestive existence. Thus does Soma create and generate the universe.

Soma, omniscient visionary and poetic creator, with the desire to enlighten, you radiate to great minds and move to dynamic yajnas of humanity like accelerated energy to its target of achievement. O lord of light and peace, be kind, dispelling all evil to nullity. Wearing the grace of beauty and purity of yajnic love and sweetness, you move and embrace humanity for fulfilment.

Your waves and vibrations flow and radiate, flow as sister streams and radiate to the stars and planets, and in holy yajna you vibrate with the music of soma stones and the chant of high priests.

Live free from calumny and scandal and keep awake in the paths of life.

O Soma, Spirit of peace, prosperity and bliss vibrating in the dynamics of existence, free from violence, unviolated and inviolable, as you ever blest the ancients of all time with hundredfold, thousandfold food, energy, safeguards and victories of progress, same way, we pray, bring us peace, progress and well being for the new generations. All our people and all our actions honour and obey the law and discipline enshrined in the voice divine.

Vast and expansive is your holy creation of existence and the voice divine, O Brhaspati, lord of expansive universe. You are the master and supreme controller who pervade and transcend its parts from the particle to the whole. The immature man who has not passed through the crucibles of discipline cannot reach to that presence, but the mature and seasoned ones who still maintain the ordeal of fire and abide by the presence attain to it and the divine joy.

The holy light of the cosmic sun extends and lights the regions of heaven where the rays shine and blaze, radiate all round and abide in constancy. Those instant radiations in heavenly state protect the devotee of holy commitment. Indeed the devotees abide there on top of the state of heavenly light with their mind stabilised in peace and joy.

Lighting up the dawns, stars and planets in space, the sun, prime and abundant source of light, warmth of life and waters of sustenance, giver of food and energy sustains the regions of the world. By the light, power and causal effects of it on other objects in existence such as planets and satellites, scholars of science do their astronomical calculations, and parental, kind and studious scholars studying humanity and divinity realise the nature and character of Soma, the original seed of life and source of energy for the world of existence.

The true, eternal and marvellous sustainer of the universe wields and sustains its state of existence and sustains and promotes the evolution of divine refulgent stars and planets as well as the birth cycles of brilliant and generous people. Omnipotent power, it seizes the adverse forces and subdues them into systemic conformity. Devotees and yogis of holy action make it an object of experience in meditation and enjoy the honey sweets of its presence as spiritual food for elevation to the divinity.

Soma, lord of light and bliss, you are the prime yajamana of universal yajna. Holding the holy materials, wearing divine space as refulgent cloak, you move to the great hall of creative yajna free from negativity and violence. Supreme ruler, riding the divine chariot, rising to omnipotence, wielding a thousand arms, you are the supreme victor of infinite glory.

of judgement and knowledge, and Vayu, vibrant leaders and pioneers. Bless us now with wealth and excellence for well being, and in this great house of the world, pray, accept this noble humanity and raise it to be worthy of divine praise and grace.

Flow, purify and consecrate all, O Soma, immortal and eternal light, life and joy of existence, who pervade constant in all regions of the universe and vibrate therein, over, above and beyond, who, making one single unity into infinite variety (specifics in generalities, tensions in balance, centrifugals in centripetal motion, all differences and contrarities moving in complementarity within the dynamics of a single, central, unmoved mind, all re-attaining to the same unity) for the common good and self-fulfilment of all, abide, the One in union with all like the sun with the dawns, illuminating all.

Soma who, abiding by all, wishing to create the beauty of variety for the good and self-fulfilment of all divine creations, creates the sap of life in herbs and trees with solar radiations, flows on with streams of energy, and when the presence is distilled and realised in the consciousness, Soma consecrates the soul of the karma-yogi and vibrates to the delight of divine humanity.

Thus this Soma flows, constant, victor of a thousand victories, energising and accelerating the sound of Aum, the Big Bang of creative manifestation in continuous motion that wakes and awakens at the dawn. Light, life and joy of existence, it rises to the oceans of space with the waves of cosmic energy and, being the joy of the soul's heart core, it abides in all forms of life in existence (some know and care, others don't, but it is there everywhere, all time).

Master giver of all wealth and excellence of life, the Spirit flows, vibrates and beatifies, all doer, all joy, all intelligent, all creative, and sublime as splendour of heaven by the beauty of poetic creation.

First, before the start of evolution, it takes on the great warlike dynamics of the creative evolutionary flow of existence. The same omnipotent generous power, mighty of arms, is adorned and exalted in yajna by celebrants on the vedi designed by the lord and structured by his Shakti, Prakrti.

Thus, just as youthful mortals go with their lady love, join and protect them, and live a full life with vows kept within the bounds of discretion and the law, so does Soma in the sacred heart inspire the loved soul as a friend in covenant by a hundred paths of human possibilities of growth and advancement within the bounds of Dharma. To all dear loving ones flows divine and brilliant Soma, pure, purifying and fulfilling the noble sages with its nectar of ecstasy. May the brilliant joyous divinity, pervading and shining with virtues according to time and season, purify and fulfill us on top of this protective world of ten senses, ten pranas and ten gross and subtle elements.

Undaunted and invincible, let a thousand streams of ecstasy flow, let the breeze of fragrance blow, in the battle for victory worthy of brave humanity.

fructify our fields and gardens. May Soma give us wealth, honour and excellence of the highest order of our choice with mighty brave heroes.

If the language of the mind in words of love of the vibrant sage of worshipful devotion, established in the beauty and splendour of the supreme spirit and law of the universe, were to visualise the picture-presence of Soma, ultimate sustenance of life, then all perceptions, thoughts and imaginations, loving and faithful, would move and concentrate into that presence of the choicest, most loved and beatific master vibrating in the heart core of the soul.

Most charitable giver, heavenly, promoter of liberal philanthropists, self-refulgent inspirer of noble intelligence, Soma purifies and enhances the rectitude of the enlightened. Being the sustainer of Dharma, master ruler of all powers and forces of the universe, the mighty Soma sustains the world by the dynamics of the ten gross and subtle elements of nature.

O Soma, knowing and commanding wealth and power, pure and purifying, be the giver of a thousand powers of sustenance, energy and enlightenment for us.

Creative they are by nature's yajna, overflowing with universal light and intelligence like yajakas in the regions of the sun where universal Soma yajna is going on, and they are the most inspiring and most beatific.

As the rays of day light radiate from the sun, as a good ruler does not hurt the people and treats them as friends, as the son tries by yajnic actions to win the father's love and favour, so O Soma, come to bless this people and assure their victory and progress.

O Soma, the honeyed showers of your gifts radiate and flow when you, with your power and purity, move to your favourite choices well protective and well protected. Indeed, pure and purifying, you move and bless the treasure homes of light, and, self-manifesting and generative, you vest the sun with the light that illuminates the days.

glory, the very abode of immortality. You vibrate, radiate and sanctify for the sake of Indra, the soul of the karma-yogi, and for the conscience of humanity, inspiring the poets and sages with vision and imagination and the visionary scientists with thought to burst forth in spontaneous songs of adoration, you being the treasure-hold of ecstasy, indeed ecstasy itself.

O Spirit of peace and protection, bliss and beauty, consecrate this heart-core of the soul open to Soma, awaiting, come resounding, and let the radiations of refulgent divinity illuminate and sanctify us.

34. Tisro vāca īrayati pra vahnir-ṛtasya dhītiṁ brahmaṇo manīṣām. Gāvo yanti gopatiṁ prcchamānāḥ somaṁ yanti matayo vāvaśānāḥ.

Soma inspires three orders of speech: practical speech that carries on the daily business of life, the thought that conceives of the vibrant immanent divine presence, and the deeper language of silence which is the mode of transcendent reality. The language operations of daily business move in search of the master source of world mystery as in science and philosophy, and the speech of thought and imagination and of love and worship moves to the presence of peace and bliss, Soma. (The three speeches in Vedic language are Ida, Sarasvati, and Mahi or Bharati as described in Rgveda 1, 13, 9 and Yajurveda 21, 19. Explained another way these are the language of the Rks or knowledge, Yajus or karma, and Samans or worship.)

35. Somaṁ gāvo dhenavo vāvaśānāḥ somaṁ viprā matibhiḥ prcchamānāḥ. Somaḥ sutaḥ pūyate ajyamānaḥ some arkāstriṣṭubhaḥ saṁ navante.

Dynamic and creative languages of love and faith celebrate Soma, the languages of scholars enquiring into reality with thought and analysis concentrate on Soma. It is Soma which, distilled from observation and experience and crystallised in nature and function, is sought to be comprehended or apprehended in the language medium. Indeed all speech media of description, definition, comprehension, apprehension, celebration or adoration arise from Soma and merge into Soma.

Thus, O Soma, served, adored and celebrated with your power and purity, let your presence radiate and purify us for our good and all round well being. Come and settle in the soul with the mighty voice of divinity. Generate and exalt the awareness and speech of vision and celebration communicative of high divine realisation.

Dearer than dear are its powers for our protection for sure. May Soma give us wealth, honour and excellence as one would give wealth to the artist.

Soma, prime cause of the world of existence, unfathomable as ocean, taking on by itself countless causes of existence in the vast vault of space and time, roaring and generating the evolving stars, planets and forms of life, is the ruling power of the universe. Potent and generous, infinite, creative and generative, refulgent Soma pervades the immaculate, sacred and protective universe and on top of it expands it and transcends.

And then the creative-generative lord of evolutionary action, Soma, vested lustre and energy in Indra, the soul, and, lord of light as it is, Soma vested light in the sun.

sanctifying as you are, you energise and fulfil the centripetal and centrifugal modes of energy. You energise the sense of courage, boldness and even defiance of stormy energy, you energise the senses, mind and intelligence, and you energise and fulfil the heaven, earth and the skies of space.

refulgent and beatific Indu, be sweet and kind for the soul. Let immense wealth flow from the bottomless sea.

May the spirit of Soma, pure and purifying, flow and bless the loved heart core of the soul. May the spirit, bright and illuminating, flow with showers of knowledge and enlightenment and beatify us with the soothing waters of peace for the mind, senses and the soul.

Pervasive in the holy hearts and indeed in all forms of existence, constant, almighty, watching, radiating and revealing, itself the light of heaven, master of the cosmic chariot, inviolably true in its potential, it flows free like the love as well as the lover of the celebrants of divinity.

Master of infinite power and wealth, destroyer of hoards of negativities, give us boundless forms of wealth for our battle of life, shaking, as if, like a tree of ripe fruit this mighty tree of the world.

Agni, wearing different manifestations, assuming different modes of form and function, holding on at the centre hold of the earth, burning in the vedi, arising on top of the world, bright and beautiful, at the heart of clouds flashing with lights of thunder, present in advance of evolution, present all time upfront, high priest of cosmic yajna, ruling supreme, pray join all divinities of nature and humanity, bring them here and bless us.

7. Ā hi dyāvāprthivī agna ubhe sadā putro na mātara tatantha. Pra yāhyacchosāto yaviṣṭhā'thā vaha sahasyeha devān.

Agni, you always pervade and illuminate both mother earth and heaven as a saviour child illuminates both parents at heart with elation. Go forth ever strong, ever youthful climactic power and presence bright and beautiful, mighty forbearing, come to the loving celebrants and bring in all that is divine, here and now.

Ever youthful Agni, cosmic sun, omnipresent all-reaching all pervasive power and presence, ordainer and maintainer of the seasons of time and nature, fulfil the loving and aspiring seekers, dedicated scholars and divine powers, and be with energy they should have. O self-refulgent divine energy, light and intelligence, of all the divine powers and presences, stars and planets, which together carry on the dynamics of cosmic yajna, you are the closest, highest and most adorable power worthy of attainment.

2. Veṣi hotramuta potram janānām mandhātāsi draviṇodā ṛtāvā. Svāhā vayaṁ kṛṇavāmā havīṃṣi devo devān yajatvagnir-arhan.

Agni, you produce, procure, energise and provide all yajnic inputs, refinements and purifying agents of life for humanity at the individual and social level for life's maintenance and promotion. You are the harbinger of intelligence and knowledge and giver of wealth and honour, and you are the observer and presiding power of holy rites, laws and seasons of time and nature. We enact the yajna with holy inputs and with truth and honey of thought, word and deed, and pray may divine and adorable fire carry the fragrance to the divinities for human fulfilment.

3. Ā devānāmapi panthām-aganma yacchaknavāma tadanu pravolhum. Agnirvidvāntsa yajāṭ sedu hotā so adhvarāntsa ṛtūn kalpayāti.

Let us follow the path of the divinities, sagely scholars, stars and planets as far as we can and do that in proper order so that we may be able to continue: Agni knows, the scholar knows, the sun is the base of knowledge in relation to its systemic position, that is the high priest of the solar system, that controls the harmonious movements of the planets, that ordains the pattern of the seasons.

(Let the sun be the base of our knowledge of the stars and planets in our pursuit of yajnic astronomy. Similarly let the sagely scholar who knows the science of yajna be our guide in our studies and our actions.)

And if we, being ignorant and deficient, neglect or transgress or overstep the laws and disciplines of those who know, then, O divinities, Agni, the sun, the sage, being abundant and graciously fulfilling, makes all that up and saves us by those very powers and actions in time and seasons by which it keeps the sages and divinities in the systemic order.

And if we mortals, either because of immature mind or poor faith and want of expertise, do not know and do not understand and appreciate the way the divine solar yajna is going on, even so Agni, the high priest of that yajna, knowing, ordering and conducting that yajna, the most adorable pervasive all reaching partner, carries on the yajna of heavenly bodies in order according to the time and seasons.

The creator of all the stars and planets of the universe moving in their orbits created you too, O Agni, O sun, wonderful pioneer and commander of the solar system. Pray come, join us and give us lands and earths blest with noble people, and bring us cherished foods, energies and knowledges, and let there be showers of rain giving us abundance of food and fertility for the life species of the world.

O Agni, you whom the heavens bear as sun and light, the middle regions bear as wind and electricity, and the earth bears as fire and magnetic energy, whom Tvashta, cosmic maker of all forms of existence, fashioned forth and brought into existence, you, O Agni, O Sun, knower of the paths of father Time and mother Niyati, cosmic intelligence, and of the Karma and fate of ancestors, children of time, you, lighted in the vedi and blazing in the heavens, pray shine on us and illuminate the paths of life for us.

1. *Ino rājannaratih samiddho raudro dakṣāya susu-

Mighty self-refulgent sun, Agni, constant master illuminator of heaven and earth, blazing and commanding terrible power, abundant with life giving energy, is seen on high, energising life for intelligent and industrious work on earth and shining with boundless light, and then relinquishing the day light and projecting the light far away ahead, passes on to the area of erstwhile darkness of the night. (Then night follows the day here and the day follows night there.)

Then again, overcoming the dark passage of the night with its illumination of light and manifesting the youthful daughter of great and vast heaven bearing the light of the sun up above, the same Agni shines with heavenly light constantly for the day.

The sun of auspicious light, dispeller of darkness of the night, has come up close at the heels of its love, the beauteous holy dawn now on the run on its own and thus Agni, prevailing with beautiful sun shine of the morning holds off the darkness for the day.

The mighty floods of the solar light version of this Agni, bursting forth like thunderous explosions of the voice of kindly, friendly, adorable, potent and sublime power, are fair and blissful reflections of the eternal Spirit, the Purusha, for the man of vision and knowledge on way to divinity.

Agni, beauteous and blissful, mighty and sublime presence whose brilliant rays and reflections radiate, resound and flow like roaring winds and thunderous lightning illumines the heavens with its highest lustre and with its sportive and most potent splendours reaches the summit of refulgent space.

The mighty radiations of this solar Agni, universally vibrant and armed with thunder, roar with the winds while this divinest and most refulgent universal presence pervades and relentlessly energises the universe with its eternal, brilliant and resounding reflections and vibrations.

Agni, bring us great wealth, honour and light of the world. Be with us on the yajna vedi, being radiant, vibrant and ever on the move between the joint world of heaven and earth. Agni, commanding light, illumination and instant motion, eloquent by expression, come by the waves of energy with the voice of thunder, come and bless us here on the vedi.

1. Pra te yakṣi pra ta iyarmi manma bhuvo yathā vandyo no haveṣu. Dhanvanniva prapā asi tvamagnan iyakṣave pūrave pratna rājan.

Agni, eternal, self-refulgent and universal spirit of light, I join you in yajnic self surrender, I send up my thoughts and prayers to you so that you may be always with us, adorable and present, in our yajnas and joint battles of life. Just as rain is the shower of bliss in the desert, so you are the giver of fulfilment to the yajnic celebrant and the needy supplicant.

2. Yam tvā janāso abhi sañcaranti gāva uṣṇamiva vrajaṁ yaviṣṭha. Dūto devānāmasi martyānām-antarmahāñścarasi rocanena.

To you, most youthful Agni, people move and they join you for bliss as cows move to the warm stall to escape the cold outside. You are the saviour and vibrant presence at the heart of divinities and mortal humanity, and by your radiant presence and grandeur you exist and vibrate in every thing.

3. Śīsum̐ na tvā jenyam̐ vardhayantī mātā bibharti sacanasyamānā. Dhanoradhi pravatā yāsi harya-ñjigīṣase paśurivāvasṛṣtaḥ.

Just as a mother nurtures a promising child, loving it and raising it, so does mother earth hold and bear you, victorious, as fire and magnetic energy, augmenting you and loving to be with you, and you, radiating through the middle space, rush down, loving and ambitious to win and excel, like a captive animal set free.

4. Mūrā amūra na vyaṁ cikitvo mahitvamagne tvamaṅga vitse. Śaye vavriścarati jihvayādan rerihiyate yuvatim̐ viśapatiḥ san.

O wise one, enlightened presence, light and fire of knowledge and energy, we are ignorant, but you know and bear your grandeur, dear loving Agni. You pervade, vibrate and radiate, lying immanent in various forms, touch, lick and consume with your flames and rays various assimilative forms of existence, being master of the world.

5. Kūcijjāyate sanayāsu navyo vane tasthau palito dhūmaketuḥ. Asnātāpo vṛṣabho na pra veti sacetaso yaṁ praṇayanta martāḥ.

Somewhere it arises and manifests in old and dried woods with the banner of smoke or streak of a falling star in dead worlds. New, adorable as well as ancient bright, it abides unattached in floods of water and vibrates and radiates in vapours and clouds like a mighty force of energy which intelligent knowledgeable people visualise, realise and generate in various ways for various uses and purposes.

6. Tanūtyajeva taskarā vanargū raśanābhirdaśa-bhir-abhyadhītām. Iyaṁ te agne navyasī manīṣā yukṣvā ratham na śucayadbhir-aṅgaiḥ.

Like dedicated self-insulated researchers in pursuit of light and energy scholars study Agni with the application of light rays and ten senses and pranas and then say: this is the latest new knowledge about you, Agni, pray come and join us as a new chariot of achievement with brilliant rays of power for energy.

7. Brahma ca te jātavedo namaśceyaṁ ca gīḥ sadamidvardhanī bhūt. Rakṣā ṇo agne tanayāni tokā rakṣota nastanvo aprayucchan.

O Agni, all pervasive, all knowing and born anew, this voice of knowledge, this offering is homage and this song of adoration may ever be progressive and rising for us. Pray protect and promote our children, protect our grand children, and protect and watchfully guard our body and mind without relent.

1. Ekaḥ samudro dharuṇo rayīṇāmasm-addhṛdo bhūrijamnā vi caṣṭe. Siṣaktyūdharniṇyorupastha utsasya madhye nihitaṁ padaṁ veh.

The one deep oceanic treasure hold of all world's wealth, manifestive in many ways, Agni inspires and expands our hearts with light and generosity, fills the middle space between heaven and earth with vapours of the cloud, and abides at the hidden centre of the mystery deep in the cloud.

2. Samānaṁ nīlaṁ vṛṣaṇo vasānāḥ saṁ jagmire mahiṣā arvatībhiḥ. Ṛtasya padaṁ kavayo ni pānti guhā nāmāni dadhire parāṇi.

Great, generous, animated and impregnated forces such as clouds, bearing the same one inner law and spirit of Agni, join with impetuously fast moving forces and, open ended, vibrant, expressive and expansive, observe the universal dynamics of the law, and at their centre continue to bear many other forms and forces of water and energy yet to develop and act further in evolution.

The forces of law and change and the forces of form and intelligence evolving things together in measure of form and time create every new form as a lovely baby and thus, with the mind of the cosmic seer, designer and maker, extend the genetic thread of Agni, the centre seed and centre hold of the entire world of moving and non-moving versions of cosmic reality.

4. *Ṛtasya hi vartanayaḥ sujātamiṣa vājāya pradivah

Visionary scholars who know the paths of law and change in evolution study and apply the versions of Agni evolved and developed in latest form for the achievement of new and extended food, energy and knowledge of reality which heaven and earth both sustaining all forms of life feed for extension with inputs and refinements of the honey sweets of water and energy.

The sun rising and illuminating the world radiates seven rays of bright light and raises them from the honey sweets of mists of the morning in order to illuminate the world for all to see. The sun, of ancient and eternal birth, radiates them across the middle regions and, with love for the earth, shines over, meets and energises the nutritious forms of things on earth.

6. Sapta maryādāḥ kavayas-tataḥsus-tāsāme-kāmidabhyamhuro gāt. Āyorha skambha upamasya nīle pathāṁ visarge dharuṇeṣu tasthau.

Seven are the bounds between good behaviour and evil set up by the wise. If one violates even one of them, he is a sinner. Agni is the pillar and centre hold of humanity. At the end of the journey, one, who in life has observed these bounds, reaches and rests in the shelter of the highest and closest, Agni, and abides in the highest states of being.

Being and Becoming, constant and mutable, both in the Supreme Absolute mystery, then the seed of perfect existence in the womb of Mother Nature, and then Agni, self-manifested at the earliest stage of creative evolution, all this, our father and mother as one, was in the ultimate infinite mystery of Brahma, -the Supreme Reality, the Absolute Soul, One with its own potential Prakrti.

Agni who rules over all the divine bliss and yajnic gifts of the world, who, life of the world, is the life giver and rules over lights of the dawn and maturation of wisdom, for whom oblations of yajna are offered into the fire with heart and soul, that Agni of the unviolated cosmic chariot sustains the universe by his omnipotent powers.

Agni, self-exalted by its own powers and majesty, loved and adored with Vedic hymns, awakens and inspires the divinities at the earliest and fastest. Charming and adorable, holy receiver and liberal giver, most highly worshipped with heart and soul, universally immanent and pervasive, Agni blesses the sages with divine gifts of holiness and grace.

That Agni, giver of prosperity, shining and radiating like light energy, you should study, realise and exalt with words of adoration and oblations of holy offerings. Agni, universally immanent and wakeful giver of strength and power, sages and scholars study and exalt with high words and application of mind and thought.

and power. That bright, potent and awful form and nature of yours, the first and highest sages, protected and protective, take up, develop and exalt.

1. Svasti no divo agne pṛthivyā viśvāyurdhehi yajathāya deva. Sacemahi tava dasma praketairuruṣyā ṇa urubhirdeva śamsaiḥ.

Agni, divine power and presence, life of the world, bless us with life, health and food of universal order and quality, and bring us all round happiness and well being for yajnic fulfilment of our life. Protect and promote us, Spirit of wondrous powers and performance, by your wide, comprehensive and far reaching intelligence and open declarations of laws and values, and finally let us join you.

2. Imā agne matayas-tubhyaṁ jātā gobhiraśvairabhi gṛṇanti rādhaḥ. Yadā te marto anu bhogamāna-dvaso dadhāno matibhiḥ sujāta.

Agni, Spirit of life and giver of light, these hymns of adoration spontaneously arisen in praise of your glory, with all our mind and senses, celebrate your gifts of success and achievement when, O shelter home of life and giver of wealth, the mortal receives his reward according to your law, bears and manages it with his mind and senses in order and feels the divine awareness vibrating in the soul.

3. Agniṁ manye pitaram-agnimāpim-agniṁ bhrātaram sadamit sakhāyam. Agneranīkaṁ brhataḥ saparyam divi śukraṁ yajataṁ sūryasya.

I always accept and adore Agni as father, Agni as my own closest relative, Agni as brother and as unfailing friend. I worship the great Agni's solar presence in the heaven of light, adorable, refulgent, worthy of love and service.

Agni, may our thoughts, prayers and adorations be effectual and give us fulfilment. O constant giver of light and life, home mate in yajna, whoever you protect and promote, grows higher in dedication to truth, divine law and yajnic living, blest with holy and bright sense and mind, abundance of food, energy and life's joy. We pray may our life be good and prosperous with brightness day by day.

Refulgent with lights of life and knowledge, helpful and cooperative as a friend, ancient and eternal, constant yajaka by seasons, lover and accomplisher of yajna, such is Agni. People generate it with dexterity of hands, awaken it in the soul with constant practice and renunciation, and establish it among people as giver of life and sustenance.

O self-refulgent spirit of the universe, by yourself you energise the divine forces of nature in the higher regions of life and conduct the yajna of evolution. What can man, limited in knowledge, accomplish for you in this cosmic yajna? O lord omnipotent, as you have eternally carried the yajna according to time and seasons, similarly, O lord, carry on the yajna of the cosmic body.

Agni, pray be our protector and be our preserver against external fears and internal weaknesses. Be our protector of health and good age and bring us greater and higher strength and vigour. O lord of grandeur, give us the wealth and competence to carry on our yajnic homage to the divinities and humanity in the yajnic evolution of the divine cosmos. Save us, protect and promote us, without neglecting the well being of our physical existence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 8

Agni (1-6), Indra (7-9) Devata, Trishira Tvashtra Rshi

प क॒तुन॑ा बृ॒हता या॑त्य॒ग्निरा रा॑द॒सी वृ॒ष॒भा रा॑र॒वीति॑ ।

1. Pra ketunā br̥hatā yātyagnirā rodasī vṛṣabho roravīti. Divāścidantāñ upamāñ udānaḥapāmu-pasthe mahiṣo vavardha.

Agni, mighty abundant power and presence, goes forward with lofty lightning force and banner roaring over heaven and earth. It goes to the very heights and bounds of heaven in all directions and sub-directions and pervades in the middle regions in the depth of vapours and the mighty one grows mightier there at the heart of clouds.

मु॒माद् ग॒र्भा' वृ॒ष॒भः क॒कु॒द्मान॑स्त्र॒मा व॒त्सः शि॑मी॒वाँ अ॑रा॒वीत॑ ।

2. Mumoda garbho vṛṣabhaḥ kakudmānasremā vatsaḥ śīmivāñ arāvīt. Sa devatātyudyatāni kṛṇvantsveṣu kṣayeṣu prathamo jigāti.

Agni waxes with joyous energy, all pervasive and comprehending, mighty abundant, virile and invigorating, lovely as a child yet perfect and powerful as accomplisher, and expresses itself loud and bold from silence of the night to roar of the winds and thunder of the clouds. Thus does Agni go on, the quintessence of divine powers, raising and energising all presences, as the prime power and presence in its own universal dwellings over and across spaces (as agni, fire and magnetic force on earth, as vayu, electric energy in the middle regions, and as aditya, light in the high heavenly regions).

3. Ā yo mūrdhānaṁ pitrorarabdhā nyadhvare dadhire sūro arṇaḥ. Asya patmannaruṣīraśva-budhnā ṛtasya yonau tanvo juṣanta.

In the cosmic yajna of motherly earth and paternal heaven, Agni, the sun, enlightens the top regions, in the middle regions the oceanic vapours and vibrant winds hold it as electric energy, and in its lower paths of radiation on earth on the yajna vedi all physical forms of existence join its bright flames and radiations and benefit from it.

4. Uṣauṣo hi vaso agrameṣi tvaṁ yamayorabhavo vibhāvā. Ṛtāya sapta dadhiṣe padāni janayan mitraṁ tanve svāyai.

Agni, Vasu, sustainer of life, generating the sun for the manifestation of your self, you rise first with every dawn, illuminate the day and distinguish both day and night, and for conduct of the yajna of existence you bear the seven flames of fire and seven rays of light.

5. Bhuvaścakṣurmaha ṛtasya gopā bhuvo varuṇo yadṛtāya veṣi. Bhuvo apāṁ napājjātavedo bhuvo dūto yasya havyaṁ jujoṣaḥ.

You are the eye and guardian of the mighty yajnic order of the cosmos, and when you proceed for the dynamics of the order you become the great evolutionary force of the process of formative evolution. You are the omnipresent power that sustain the waters and energies of the cosmic evolution against devolution, and you are the inspirer and promoter of the yajamana who offers you the holy inputs of the evolutionary yajaka.

6. Bhuvo yajñasya rajasaśca netā yatrā niyudbhiḥ sacase śivābhiḥ. Divi mūrdhānam dadhiṣe svarṣāṁ jihvāmagne cakṛṣe havyavāham.

Agni, you are the leader and carrier of yajnic energies and energiser of the regions through which the energies rise and radiate, where you join and conduct the holy waves of energy onward. In the regions of light you sustain the blissful sun high and on the earth you enjoin your flames of fire to carry the fragrance up and around for the world.

7. Asya tritaḥ kratunā vavre antaricchan dhītiṁ pasthe jāmi bruvāṇa āyudhāni veti.

Trita, the human soul, wearing three body covers of gross, subtle and causal forms in earthly existence, with the desire to win the love of this supreme paternal divinity by concentrative meditation, chooses to meditate on divinity within the self and, thus nestled in the parental presence praying as a child for protection, obtains the arms for defence against internal and external onslaughts of material involvement.

That divinely self-realised soul, having got the paternal arms of defence and inspired by Indra, omnipotent supreme divinity, fights against the material adversaries and, having controlled and subdued the three headed seven bridled bondage of sense and mind, gets free of the bonds.

Indra, protector and saviour of the pious and true devotees, destroying the mighty lustrous, rising and proud adversaries of the child of cosmic materiality, breaks the bonds of seven fold sense-mind complex, destroys the three headed cover of physicality and sets the soul free.

Mandala 10/Sukta 10

Devata: Yama Vaivasvata (1, 3, 5-7, 11, 13) and Yami Vaivasvati (2, 4, 8-10, 12, 14) Rshi: Yami Vaivasvati (1, 3, 5-7, 11, 13) and Yama Vaivasvata (2, 4, 8-10, 12, 14)

This sukta is a beautiful poem in the form of a dialogue between Yama, the bright day, and Yami, the dark night. They are children of Vivasvan, the sun. The theme is desire of the night to commingle with the day, which is not possible as long as the earth rotates and revolves round the sun and the world continues to exist as it is. Yama and Yami can commingle only when all this variety of existence goes back into the unity of absolute essence beyond physicality. The dialogue thus is a nature myth which borders on the mysterious sublime.

Yama and Yami are treated as human characters. For this reason certain commentators as Sayana and others who follow Sayana and popular mythology interpret Yama and Yami as twin brother and sister. The theme then is reduced to a story of incestuous love unfulfilled. This interpretation is not correct because if Yama and Yami were brother and sister, the name of the sister would be Yama ending with long a, and not Yami. Yami can be the name of the female partner of a wedded couple (Panini, 1, 4, 48) and not of a twin sister. They are interpreted here as complementarities.

It may be further suggested here that Yama and Yami on the human plane need not necessarily be interpreted as a wedded couple either. They may better be interpreted as two close friends in love, Yami proposing and soliciting the love of Yama and Yama replying that the love possibly cannot be consummated because the day and night can never meet except at that point of time where meeting and parting are identical and simultaneous. And whenever the meeting would be possible in remote future, at pralaya, the time of dissolution then meeting, parting or separation all would have lost their meaning.

(However, if one insists on interpreting Yama and Yami as twins they should be interpreted as the male and the female complementary forms of the same one human species, children of the same one creator, Vivasvana, in which case the question of incest between brother and sister does not arise.)

आ चित्सखायं सख्या ववृत्यां तिरः पुरु चिदण्वं जगन्वान ।

ṇavaṁ jaganvān. Piturnapātamā dadhīta vedhā adhi kṣami prataraṁ dīdhyanah.*

Yami: With love and desire I come to my friend of my own choice, a friend who has crossed the vast ocean of life a long long way, and I solicit and pray that knowing and thinking of your fulfilment of familial obligation on earth, you beget a successor saviour of your father's familial line and (in marriage) bless me with a child.

2. *Na te sakhā sakhyam vaṣṭyetat salakṣmā yadviṣu-

Yama: Your friend accepts not your proposal of love, friendship and union since you are not homogeneous with him in character and versatility of merit and maturity, in fact you are the contrary. Indeed the brave progeny of the great lord of life and energy of nature, refulgent with light and wisdom, who maintain the light of heaven along with the earth take exception to such a proposal of union, in fact they watch, wonder and rule out such a proposal for union.

3. *Uśanti ghā te amṛtāsa etadekasya cit tyajasam

Yami: The immortal sustainers of earth and heaven do wish that every mortal should leave at least one descendant child. I have accepted your mind and soul as one with me, so pray come and join me in body as life giver husband of your child.

4. Na yat purā cakṛmā kaddha nūnamṛtā vadanto anṛtaṁ rapema. Gandharvo apsvapyā ca yoṣā sā no nābhiḥ paramaṁ jāmi tannau.

Yama: Having observed the laws of divine nature and observing them now, what we have never done before how can we do now in violation of the truth and law? Gandharva, the sun, sustainer of the earth, is there in the middle region, the moon too is there, so are you, youthful night, as I am. But the earth is the common axis between you and me both, and that is the extreme opposition between you and me. (We cannot possibly meet while the earth is in orbit.)

5. Garbhe nu nau janitā dampatī kardevastvaṣṭā savitā viśvarūpaḥ. Nakirasya pra minanti vratāni veda nāvasya pṛthivī uta dyauḥ.

Yami: Our generator Savita, creator of the universe, Tvashta, maker of forms and Kah, sustainer of created forms, made us a couple in nature's womb of generation itself as keepers of this earthly home. None can now violate the rules of the lord's discipline, they don't. Mother earth and father heavenly sun know of this complementarity of ours.

6. Ko asya veda prathamasyāhnaḥ ka īm dadarṣa ka iha pra vocat. Bṛhanmitrasya varuṇasya dhāma kadu brava āhano vīcyā nṛn.

Who knows of this complementarity created at the dawn of creation? He alone knows. As of now, who witnessed it? Who can vouchsafe it now? Vast is the distance between east, the house of Mitra, sun and the day, and west, house of Varuna, presiding deity of the night. O wanton dear, having seen the people now, who can say anything about that?

7. Yamasya mā yamyam kāma āgantsamāne yonau sahaśeyyāya. Jāyeva patye tanvaṁ riricyām vi cidvr̥heva rathyeva cakrā.

I, the night, feel stricken with desire to share life with you, Yama, in one house and one bed and wish I should surrender my body as a wife does to the husband so that we may carry on the business of life like the two wheels of a chariot.

8. Na tiṣṭhanti na ni miṣantyeṭe devānām spaśa iha ye caranti. Anyena madāhano yāhi tūyam tena vi vr̥ha rathyeva cakrā.

Yama: These watchful lights of divinities which sojourn here around in space neither stop nor deviate from their path, nor do they wink their eye. O love-lorn maiden, go soon to one of these, other than me and with him carry on the business of life like a chariot wheel.

If for a moment the lord of existence were to reduce the earth to the axis and its centre point and the light of the sun were exhausted along with days and nights, then like heaven and earth together we too may be together and the night may enjoy conjugal union with the day without any obstruction.

10. *Ā ghā tā gacchānuttarā yugāni yatra jāmayah

But O night, those times would follow long long ages hence when contraries would lie together and coexist without contradictions. Therefore for the time, O sweet and debonair, extend your hand of love to someone other than me, a real virile husband.

11. *Kim bhrātāsadyadanāthaṁ bhavāti kimu svasā

Yami: What? then have you become as a brother to me? And I, deprived of love and care, become a sister, bereft, going away elsewhere in search of another? Lovelorn, I am babbling so much, pray join me, body with body. (Are you just a complementary support and I just a complementary way farer, nothing more?)

12. Na vā u te tanvā tanvaṁ saṁ papṛcyaṁ pāpa-māhuryaḥ svasāraṁ nigacchāt. Anyena mat pramudaḥ kalpayasva na te bhrātā subhage vaṣṭyetat.

Yama: No, I would never touch your body with my body. The wise say that to go and meet a sister like that is a sin, to meet a corresponding way farer in orbit is a violation of the law of nature. O dear and fortunate one, go, be happy with another other than me and make it possible if you can. Your brother way farer does not love this proposal, no he cannot.

Yami: Sorry Yama, O day, it is a pity I did not know your mind and heart this way of nature. May be some one other than me too may join you like a girdle round your waist and embrace you like a creeper clinging by a tree.

Yama: Some other may embrace you too and you embrace him like a creeper by the tree. Love you the other man and his heart, may he too love you and yours. Thus may you create and achieve a happy union in love and good fortune.

Generous, omnipotent and indomitable Agni, self-refulgent ruling Spirit of life in the systemic order of existence, with its natural art and intelligence and creativity, creates and showers the waters of growth and sustenance from the divine infinity of inexhaustible plenty of light, life and joy for the yajnic and generous powers of nature and humanity. The Spirit is Varuna, omniscient intelligence with universal discrimination, knowing the world as it is and the way it behaves. May the lovable and adorable Agni worshipped at yajna love, join and bless the yajnic celebrants of life divine according to the seasons and its own love and judgement.

May the spirit and power of Agni blazing in the sun, thundering in the clouds, vibrating in vapours, flashing in lightning, burning in the vedi and roaring in rivers, protect, promote and inspire my mind. May imperishable Infinity, indomitable nature and inviolable policy establish us all at the heart of what we love to do, accomplish and worship in life and society, and may our chief, eldest, supportive and sustaining brother, speak to us and enlighten us in matters of Dharma, artha, kama and moksha.

Instantly does that blessed, blissful, inspiring and elevating dawn, light of life, vision of wisdom, harbinger of honour, excellence and divine virtue, arise and shine in response to dedicated action bearing the bliss of heaven for all humanity when, in pursuit of corporate creative living and search for total freedom, people light the yajna fire for Agni, lover of the lovers of divinity and chief high priest of the yajna of life.

When noble and dynamic people, lovers of life dedicated to yajna fire, choose to worship the potent and gracious Agni, chief of cosmic yajna and harbinger of infinite gifts, then the celebrant soul of the individual, or society or the ruler of the social order, with flying super-intelligence inspired by the spirit of divinity, achieves that same great and ecstatic power and enlightenment of universal order both on earth and in the spirit by social yajna and spiritual meditation, and by that Agni itself, omniscient, omnipotent and omnificent, becomes the inviolable foundation of human karma, and all possible faculties of thought and action arise for the achievement of success.

Agni, just as food is dear and auspicious to the robust lover of health, so are you dear, exciting and inspiring for humanity, being the holiest presiding power of social and spiritual yajna served with hymns of invocation and adoration, you who, pleased with the sage's songs of adoration, sharing and fulfilling the yajnic homage of devotees, visit and bless the celebrants with plenty and immensities of gifts of enlightenment as well as powers.

Agni, raise and augment the parental powers of heaven and earth and extend the honour and excellence of humanity there like the sun, stealer of the night, which spreads its light in space. The yajamana performs yajna in honour of the divinities of nature and humanity and loves the divinities and yajna with his heart and soul. The ruler, burden bearer of the life of humanity, is up and active and adores and exalts you. The fire is rising and blazing bright, the high priest is inspired, and the life giving energies vibrate with action and intelligence.

immortality, bring us the wealth of earth and light of heaven both divine, let none of the divinities forsake us. Pray abide in our heart here and ever.

Agni Devata, Angi Havirdhana Rshi

Heaven and earth are the first and closest divinities by virtue of the cosmic order to listen to the holy chant and proclaim their response with light and generosity, when Agni, refulgent spirit of life and light of the world, chief priest and inspirer of cosmic yajna, calling mortals to the altar, settles in the vedi itself upfront, generating and accelerating the radiation of its own energy in the yajnic process being enacted.

2. Devo devān paribhūr-ṛtena vahā no havyaṇ prathamaś-cikitvān. Dhūmaketuḥ samidhā bhārjīko mandro hotā nityo vācā yajīyān.

May Agni, supreme power and presence of the spirit over divinities of heaven and earth, first and instant cognizant of our invocation and prayers, radiate and carry our homage and oblations to the divinities of nature by the laws of its cosmic order, Agni, the power with the banner of light and fragrance, blazing with the flames of fuel fire, adorable sublime, divine call for action and creative evolution, eternal and imperishable, loving and companionable by words of sincere adoration.

3. Svāvṛgdevasyāmṛtaṁ yadī gorato jātāso dhārayanta urvī. Viśve devā anu tat te yajurgurduhe yadenī divyaṁ ghṛtaṁ vāḥ.

When the celestial nectar of this refulgent power's own essence radiates, then the energies generated by it support and sustain both earth and heaven, and all divinities of nature and humanity receive and celebrate these gifts of Agni, the divine beauty, radiance and liquid energies which the light divine showers on them.

4. Arcāmi vāṁ vardhāyāpo ghṛtasnū dyāvābhūmī śṛṇutaṁ rodasī me. Ahā yad dyāvo'sunītimayan madhvā no atra pitarā śīśītām.

Listen both heaven and earth my words of adoration : I celebrate you both heaven and earth as father and mother, givers of the liquid energies of life for the growth and progress of humanity and the environment, which, may the brilliant geniuses of humanity, taking forward the energy projects and policies of the world, promote day and night incessantly, and which, may the parental powers and leadership of mankind refine and augment to further the light and sweetness of life here on earth.

5. Kim svinno rājā jagrhe kadasyā'ti vrataṁ cakṛmā ko vi veda. Mitraściddhi śmā juhurāṇo devāñ-chloko na yātāmapī vājo asti.

Does the ruling and refulgent Agni receive and accept our homage? Do we sometime overstep its laws and limits of benediction and experimentation? Who knows this secret we ought to know? Agni after all is a friend. Invoked and served with excess or remiss, it would still accept our homage and adoration and convey it to the divinities, and we pray let there be success and ultimate victory.

Incomprehensible is this mystery of immortal Agni and its power, for sure, since arising from the same one origin and being homogeneous, it grows to boundless variety of forms, which, nevertheless, for the man who knows the One Supreme, Agni, ordainer and controller of this existential variety, is simple and clearly understood. This man, O lord great and gracious, protect and promote without relent.

In whose being the divinities of nature and humanity rejoice in the yajnic order of existence, carry on their assigned tasks in the regions of light and in the heart and mind of humanity, and vest light in the sun and the dark tinge in the moon, that self-refulgent Agni, the sun and moon and all other divinities constantly adore and serve.

May the same self refulgent Agni, the divine powers reveal to us, simple, sincere and conscientious seekers of divinity, so that we may distinctly and intelligently know and serve the divine power. May Mitra, universal spirit of divine love, Aditi, imperishable Mother Nature, self-refulgent Savita, the sun, reveal the mysterious power and presence to us.

1. Yuje vām brahma pūrvyam namobhirvi śloka etu pathyeva sūreḥ. Śṛṇvantu viśve amṛtasya putrā ā ye dhāmāni divyāni tasthuḥ.

For you, O heaven and earth, men and women, bride and bride groom, bearers of the holy materials of yajna, I chant the holy Vedic voice of divinity with fragrant oblations into the vedi in honour of Agni, lord self-refulgent. May this voice spread around like the spirit of light and joy of the enlightened. Let all children of immortality across the world listen, and listen all those too who abide in the celestial regions of light and divine yajna.

2. Yame iva yatamāne yadaitaṁ pra vāṁ bharan mānuṣā devayantaḥ. Ā sīdataṁ svamu lokam vidāne svāsasthe bhavatamindave naḥ.

Living and working together like a pair of twins in this home, when you perform this yajna, then the people around dedicated to divinity would accept and honour you as a holy couple. Abide in your own beautiful place as an enlightened couple and, happy and healthy in your own joint life, live on for the peace and joy of yourselves and all of us and for self-fulfilment in the service of divinity.

3. Pañca padāni rupe anvarohaṁ catuṣpadīmanvemi vratena. Akṣareṇa prati mima etāmṛtasya nābhāvadhi saṁ punāmi.

By the discipline of body mind and soul, I would cover the five stages of earthly existence from the annamaya kosha through pranamaya, manomaya, vijñanamaya kosha to the anandamaya state of divine joy. I would cover the four stages of brahmacharya, grhastha, vanaprastha and sanyasa to total freedom. By meditation on Aum I would cover the physical, psychic and spiritual stages to the fourth stage of turiya, the state of transcendent happiness. Thus would I reach and abide in the centre of the divine order of existence in the state of absolute purity of the spirit.

Which death does Brhaspati or Yama choose for the divines? What immortality does he not choose for ordinary humans? Choose Brhaspati, universal divine Seer as the high priest as well as the object of yajna, self-sacrifice, and Yama would either strengthen the dear body vestment of the soul, or, otherwise empty it out of life energy.

5. *Sapta kṣaranti śīśave marutvate pitre putrāso

As children for the parent, seven poetic compositions of the Veda shower the light and bliss of eternal truth on the soul, master of pranic energies and abiding within at the heart in the body. Both thought and speech, heaven and earth inspire and elevate both divines and humans, both exercise both to rise and both strengthen and refine both orders of life, both coexist with the Law.

Mandala 10/Sukta 14

Yama (1-5, 13-16), Lingokta (6), Lingokta or Pitarah (7-9), Shvanau (10-12) Devatah, Yama Vaivasvata Rshi

पर्यिवांसं प्रवता महीरनु बहुभ्यः पन्थामनुपस्पशानम ।

1. Pareyivāṁsaṁ pravato mahīranu bahubhyah panthām-anupaspaśānam. Vaivasvataṁ saṁganam janānām yamaṁ rājānaṁ haviṣā duvasya.

Know Yama, cosmic Time, refulgent, all ruling all comprehending Time, pervading all that moves forward, stars and planets all, watching, showing the paths of movement for all and outlasting them all. Temporal correspondent dimension of Vivasvan, Savita, ultimate light and supreme spirit, immanent and transcendent, eternal and infinite, ordainer and controller of the world, ultimate end and destination of all that is born, it is the creator, mover and consumer all in one. Worship it with service and homage of yajna (if you wish to survive as spirit through the flux).

Note: In Surya Siddhanta time is Cosmic Time and, secondly, it is temporal which is the temporal correspondent of things in flux. One is called Lokanam-anta-krt-Kala which comprehends all things in existence, and the other is time in respect of calculation, 'Kalanatmaka'. Yama in this hymn is not the god of death, it is the child of the sun, Vivasvan. Therefore Yama should be interpreted as time, in both aspects, i.e., temporal aspect and beyond the temporal in its eternal aspect which is the space-time continuum of eternity.

Time, first and highest of existence, knows as it comprehends our course of life, and that course no one can avoid, escape, alter or alternate, and that same is the path by which our earlier forefathers went their way, and that is the path by which all who are born go their way, knowing according to their Dharma and choice. Honour that time with homage.

Terrestrial fire and bodily heat grow by food and fuel, Yama, life time and life energy, grows by pranic energy, and Brhaspati, spirit and enlightenment, grows by Vedic words and divine joy. These capacities which divinities of earth and heaven and divine enlightenment augment, and the divinities of the environment on earth and above, which humans augment, grow mutually, the divinities by svaha oblations, and humans by svadha offerings of food, and thus they rejoice.

Let the thoughts and health mantras of the sages come with you here with exhilarating and inspiring poetic voices, and then, shining and ruling in the system within with all these gifts, rejoice and make me happy too.

I invoke the refulgent Sun also, your generative father, and pray come and be seated in the holy heart core of this life yajna of mine for a full age of good health and joy. (Reference may be made to Atharva Veda 3, 8, 1: May the sun come with its rays joining and entering the earth and energising it according to the seasons. Rgveda 1, 71, 2 throws further light on the science of health and solar rays in relation to the earth and global atmosphere.)

Lovable, companionable and promotive they are, worthy of reverence. May they be agreeable to us and give us a healthy environment, pleasant, benevolent and exhilarating.

Go forward, O man, move on by the ancient paths of life universally carved for you, by which the forefathers too went forward to complete their course of life. Intelligent you are and you see both the divine sun and the divine night, the all comprehending time and the spirit of cosmic judgement, the solar region and the cosmic waters, divine, brilliant, ruling mighty in terms of their own powers and agreeable by your service to them and to the environment.

O soul, join with pitr pranic energies and go forward, join with another life time for future existence and go forward, join with your acts of obligation and dharmic choice and go forward to the highest spaces, having left this exhausted body, go to a new home, join with a vigorous bright body full of fresh life again. Pitr pranic energies of solar radiation which have carried this soul, departed, gone away, carried around by sun rays, have prepared this new home for it, and Yama, cosmic order of time, with days, nights, dawns and liquid energies, has provided this another stage of its existential being.

Then enjoy the auspicious rays of the sun which always rejoice with the passage of time.

O time, those two day and night are your guardian sentinels of twelve hour duration each, all watching, protective companions of humanity on way. O ruling lord of light, to their care entrust this soul. Let there be peace and well being for it all round, bless it with good health and freedom from sin and ailment.

Let them now again give us happiness and well being full of bubbling energy so that we may see the light of the sun anew, giver of life and enlightenment.

Trishtubh, Gayatri and all other Chhandas abide in the One Word, Aum. All these orders of omniscience, omnipresence and omnipotence abide in One, emerge from That and converge into That, Yama, Time.

Mandala 10/Sukta 15

Pitarah Devata, Shankha Yamayana Rshi

Pitaras in this hymn means nature's life giving, life preserving and life promoting pranic energies, especially the sun rays which start an invigorating yajna with the dawn and continue it upto sun set. It also means the flames and fragrances of yajna rising from the vedi and joining the natural energies to enhance the efficacy of nature's recuperative power for life. On the human plane it means the seniors, the enlightened, the teachers and social workers, men of experience, vision and judgement who contribute to the welfare and progress of society with, their actions and ideas. It does not, however, rule out pitaras of human tradition and history who continue to live by their ideas and ideals they contributed for the progress of society, to whom we feel grateful for their living guidance even after their departure.

1. Udīratāmavara ut parāsa unmadhyamāḥ pitarah somyāsaḥ. Asum ya īyuravṛkā ṛtajñāste no'vantu pitaro haveṣu.

May the sun rays of the morning, mid-day and evening time which radiate and inspire vital soma energy into the things they touch rise in power and efficacy and promote the strength and joy of life. May the wise seniors of the average, high and middle order, harbingers of peace and joy, friendly, dynamic scholars and scientists of yajna who know the cosmic order and the laws of nature and living truths of life rise, inspire us with energy and enthusiasm for life, and may all these saviour and protective powers of nature and humanity strengthen us to defend and promote ourselves in internal and external challenges of life and the environment.

O saviour sages of the world, with knees bent in honour of the vedi, please sit on our right, accept and accomplish the yajna with specific words, and if we happen to transgress some manners or ritual, or are impertinent to you because, after all, we are human, pray be kind and do not in any way hurt or punish us.

7. Āsīnāso aruṇīnām-upasthe rayim dhatta dāśuṣe martyāya. Putrebhyaḥ pitarastasya vasvaḥ pra yacchata ta ihorjam dadhāta.

The radiations of sun rays in the lights of the dawn bear wealth and energy for the man of charity, and wealth and comfort for his children too. May the sages seated on the vedi realise and bring that wealth and energy for us and our future generations.

8. Ye naḥ pūrve pitaraḥ somyāso'nūhire somapī-tham vasiṣṭhāḥ. Tebhiryamaḥ samrarāṇo havīm-ṣyūśannuśadbhiḥ pratikāmamattu.

Those eastern lights of the dawn which awaken and inspire us bear pranic energies radiant and replete with life energy of the sun, treasure source of living soma. May the sun shining and rejoicing with those very bright rays accept and revitalise our oblations offered into the holy fire at dawn.

Those bright rays of the dawn, divine, sharp and inspiring, invigorating, which come to earth thirsting for holy food and water, with those very rays, generous, truly divine, poetically sublime and soul satisfying, conveying pranic energies with morning, mid-day and evening warmth and heat of the day, O yajna fire, come and bless our yajna for the gift of rain.

O divine fire present in everything born, lighted, raised and developed to flaming power, you catalyse refine and energise the holy materials to tremendous power and fragrance. O brilliant divinity, consume the materials offered, feed them to the sun rays, and may they too further refine, energise and spread them all around in space for creative purposes of nature for life on earth.

body which is the seat of life energy.

Agni Devata, Damana Yamayana Rshi

1. Mainamagne vi daho mābhi śoco māsyā tvacāṁ cikṣipo mā śarīram. Yadā śṛtaṁ kṛṇavo jātavedo 'themenam pra hiṇutāt pitṛbhyaḥ.

Agni, do not burn it off wholly, do not consume it entirely, do not cast away its form, do not cast away its body entirely. When its gross body is reduced to ash, then, O Jataveda, all pervasive, all knowing Agni, deliver it to the sun rays.

शृतं यदा करसि जातवदा थमनं परि दत्तात्पितृभ्यः ।

2. Śṛtaṁ yadā karasi jātavado 'themenam pari dattāt pitṛbhyaḥ. Yadā gacchātyasunītimetāma-thā devānām vaśanīrbhavāti.

O Jataveda, when you have reduced its gross body to ash and delivered it to the sun rays, when it comes to the process of transmigration to higher constituent elements, then it is subjected to the laws of other divinities.

3. Sūryam cakṣurgacchatu vātamātmā dyām ca gaccha pṛthivīm ca dharmanā. Apo vā gaccha yadi tatra te hitamoṣadhīṣu prati tiṣṭhā śarīraiḥ.

Let the eye go the sun. Let the soul go to the wind or to the region of light or to the earth in consequence of its dharmic performance, or, if such be its interest and desire, let it go to the water or reach in herbs and trees there to stay in mere body form.

4. Ajo bhāgastapasā taṁ tapasva taṁ te śocistapatu taṁ te arcīḥ. Yāste śivāstanvo jātavedastābhirvahinaṁ sukṛtāmu lokam.

O Jataveda, that part of human personality which is unborn and eternal is the soul, purify and season it to its original purity by the heat of your divine discipline. May your light and fire purify and shine it to its purity and lustre beyond the dross. And by those divine natural potentials of yours which are holy and blissful, pray carry this soul to noble body forms in blessed regions of life.

5. Ava sṛja punaragne pitṛbhyo yasta āhutaścarati svadhābhiḥ. Āyurvasāna upa vetu śeṣaḥ saṁ gacchatām tanvā jātavedaḥ.

O Agni, Jataveda, form and shape out once again from material elements and energy what, having been offered to you in the fire, roams around vested with its own potentials. The soul that remained alive after giving up its material vestments in the fire may, we pray, assume a life time of earthly existence and go about with the body once again doing its karmic business as earlier.

6. Yat te kṛṣṇaḥ śakuna ātutoda pipīlaḥ sarpa uta vā śvāpadaḥ. Agniṣṭadviśvādagadaṁ kṛṇotu somaśca yo brāhmaṇāñ āviveśa.

O soul, in the course of life, whatever fear, harm or injury darkness, dark ones, birds, beasts, insects or reptiles may do to your body, may Agni and Soma and Soma science known to experts heal that and restore you back to good health.

8. Imamagne camasaṁ mā vi jihvaraḥ priyo devā-nāmuta somyānām. Eṣa yaścamaso devapā-nastasmin devā amṛtā mādayante.

O Agni, do not disturb and dislodge this new body form which is a darling of the divines and the sun rays of light and bliss, this body in which the immortal divinities rejoice and find their fulfilment with yajnic food and drink.

9. Kravyādamagniṁ pra hiṇomi dūraṁ yamarājñō gacchatu ripravāhaḥ. Ihaivāyamitaro jātavedā devebhyo havyaṁ vahatu prajānan.

I set in motion the fire which consumes the corpse, and may it, carrier of the material body, go up with it and reach the regions of life consuming spirit of Time. And here itself the other fire, Jataveda, all pervasive fire of life, all aware, may bring in the food for life for the sustenance and satisfaction of the divinities.

10. Yo agniḥ kravyāt praviveṣa vo gr̥hamimaṁ paśya-nnitaraṁ jātavedasam. Taṁ harāmi pitṛyajñāya devaṁ sa gharmaminvāt parame sadhasthe.

The fire that turns away from the corpse consuming fire enters your homes and, watching this other all pervasive fire, I give up that and take to this brilliant fire for honour to ancestors and the environment. May it carry our yajna to the sun in the highest heaven.

The fire, participant of natural law, which carries the elements of the corpse to nature, pervades in senior humanity and vibrates in natural energies too. The same fire carries the yajnic homage and proclaims the gifts for the ancestors, for the divines and for nature.

Saranyu (1-2), Pusha (3-6), Sarasvati (7-9), Apah (10, 14), Apah or Soma (11-13), Devatah, Devashrava Yamayana Rshi

1. Tvaṣṭā duhitre vahatuṁ kṛṇotītīdaṁ viśvaṁ bhuvanam sameti. Yamasya mātā paryuhyamānā maho jāyā vivasvato nanāśa.

Tvashta, cosmic maker of forms of existence, for the fulfilment of the creative urge of nature, Prakṛti, initiates the process of evolution and the entire universe comes into being in cosmic time. While Prakṛti, consort of the self-refulgent creator Savita (Tvashta Being its forming faculty) and mother origin of the order of evolution, is fertilised and moved on to its generative function, it disappears, that is, it converts from its original and intangible essence into the tangible creative form and power in existence.

2. Apāgūhannamṛtām martyebhyaḥ kṛtvī savarṇā-madadurvivasvate. Utāśvināvabharadyat tadā-sīdajahādu dvā mithunā saranyūḥ.

Transforming the original immortal constant Prakṛti in favour of mutable mortal forms of existence, the evolutionary power of divinity, creative and dynamic Prakṛti, offers this form of itself to self-refulgent creator and master, and then in that dynamic state as it is then, it bears a twin pair of evolved existence, the Ashvins, positive-negative complementarities of the evolutionary circuit of nature's dynamics, and produces procreative couples such as Agni and Soma, energy and matter, prana and rayi, male and female, presence and absence (as the two may be described from different points of view).

Pusha knows all these paths and directions of life and he fulfils all our hopes and ambitions too. May he lead us on the most fearless path of progress. May he, giver of all round good and well being, refulgent and vigilant, all mighty, all knowing, be our pioneer and path maker without neglect or relent.

Pusha inspires, strengthens and guides humanity to know and follow the best paths of life and reach the goal, the paths to heaven and the paths over earth. He pervades the dearest paths of progress here and the paths to freedom there and, all knowing and emerging in consciousness, guides us here and beyond.

Aspirants to knowledge and the light of divinity invoke Sarasvati, voice of divinity, they offer homage of faith and devotion in psychic and spiritual yajna which expands their intelligence and vision. Men of noble action invoke Sarasvati, ever flowing Spirit of Knowledge, for strength of will and direction. May Sarasvati grant cherished gifts of knowledge, will and vision to the generous yajakas.

O divine Sarasvati, cosmic voice of divinity, who radiate and expand on the rays of light and rejoice with homage of faith and devotion and the inner vibrations of mind and soul, pray come, abide in this inner seat of mind and consciousness, bless us with divine joy and bring us food and energy free from sin and pollution for the enlightenment of mind and soul.

O divine Sarasvati, whom venerable sages dedicated to meditative yajna in mind and soul invoke and serve in right earnest, we pray, bless the yajamanas with their share here of food and nourishment, wealth, honour and excellence, and the vision and voice of divinity loved and sought for by thousands of seekers.

10. Āpo asmān mātaraḥ śundhayantu ghṛtena no ghṛtapvaḥ punantu. Viśvaṁ hi ripraṁ prava-hanti devīrudidābhyaḥ śucirā pūta emi.

May the fluid and vibrant currents of cosmic energy, original mother source of nature's dynamics of evolution, which, divine and inviolable, soaked in goodness and grace, wash away the entire sin, evil and pollution of life, purify and sanctify us with sweetness and beauty of manners and culture. Thus purified and sanctified, I rise and go on in life.

The elixir of life showers on the earliest refulgent worlds by the dawn of days, on this world and this life also as did ever before. The same elixir of life, the same radiant sun, the same soma element of divine nature, vibrant in this world and this life, I invoke and celebrate with all my seven faculties in honour of the spectrum of its beauty and divinity.

O Savita, lord giver of life and light of the world, the soma nectar of life that showers ever from divinity, that vigour and inspiration which is released from your hands and from the loving heart of exuberant Mother Nature filtered through her pure sattvic elements in the cosmic yajna, that nectar received at heart in the soul, I offer in homage with prayer.

O Soma, lord of life, giver of light and bliss, your nectar of divinity that vibrates every where, the radiations of light and spiritual awareness expansive here in existence and existent there in absolute time and space, that very nectar of life and light of existence, may Brhaspati, this generous spirit of infinite knowledge and speech, shower upon us by the Word and vibrations of divinity for our fulfilment of life here and hereafter.

May the oshadhis, herbs and trees, which receive the sap and sweetness of their sustenance from sun light and moon rays, be full of exuberant Soma nectar of life. May this fluent song and speech of mine be full of love and sweetness of life's joy. May this inspiring essence of the liquid flow of natural energies be full of universal nectar, and may all these with that nectar energise, purify and sanctify me.

1. Param mṛtyo anu parehi panthām yaste sva itaro devayānāt. Cakṣuṣmate śṛṇvate te bravīmi mā naḥ prajāṁ rīriṣo mota vīrān.

O Death, go off to that other path that's yours, of mutability other than the path of divinity. You have eyes to see and ears to hear, and to you I say: Do not hurt our people, do not destroy our brave.

O travellers on the path of divinity, dedicated performers of yajna, as you go forward effacing the onset of death and living a long life of high order of happiness and virtue, may you be blest with wealth and noble progeny, may you be pure and sanctified at heart and in the soul.

May these living people, (we all), be free from the shades of death in life. May our dedication and service to divinity be auspicious and fruitful today. May we go forward living a long life of high order of virtue full of the joy of song and dance and laughter.

I set this border line of order for these people. May none of these trespass this into the other territory of death. May they live a long age of full hundred years, bearing though the fact of death within with adamantine walls of resistance by the discipline of health.

Just as days follow in succession, the latter following the former and the former living on in the latter, just as seasons go on by order of the seasons of the year, just as the successor does not and cannot forsake the predecessor, so in the same order, O lord ordainer and sustainer of humanity, order and sustain the life line of these people.

Go forward high on course of life choosing a full age unto completion and fulfilment in the order of succession and renewal from former to latter, living in discipline actively, all of you, as many as you are. Nobly born here in life, living together in piety with love and devotion as you are, Tvashta, the cosmic maker, ordains a full life of long years for you to live in joy.

O man, go to this land, this motherly earth wide and expansive, kind and gracious. Soft, generous and youthful for the man of generosity and yajnic dedication, she would protect you from the clutches of adversity and premature death and promote you with prosperity.

O mother earth, receive this soul with elation, stop it not, hurt it not. Be a nursing mother for this child, be soft and caressing with love and affection. Just as mother covers the child with the hem of her sari, so, O mother earth, cover, caress and protect it to maturity.

May the earth stay abundant, generous and prosperous, giving life sustenance and shelter to uncountable souls which may live in here with peace and joy. O mother, may your homes be full of love and abound in food and delicacies, and may they always provide peace, pleasure and comfort for humanity.

O man, for you I sustain this earth up in space, for you I place this global atmosphere around, and this I would not hurt or dislodge. This well pillared, well sustained planet of clay the rays of the sun would sustain, and the sun would sustain and vitalise the homes of life.

In the days ahead, as the archers fix feathers on the arrow to hit the target, so may I concentrate my attention with the arrow-like chant of Aum to reach the target of Divinity and, like a horse controlled by bridle reins, direct my voice of prayer in focus on the deity.

O cows, fluent energies, flowing waters and radiant rays of light, O dynamic people, all treasure holds of wealth, go round and come, go not elsewhere, come bearing wealth of life. Bring us showers of abundant food and energy. Agni and Soma, fire and water energy, Punarvasu, wealth in circulation, bring in wealth for us from all round.

Of the people in the society, of the dynamics of wealth in the socio-political system, of the fluctuations of mind and sense in the individual personality, the movement outward, movement inward, conscious balance and equilibrium, the expense out again, withdrawal, release and hold, I watch, and I invoke and call up whoever is the keeper, ruler and master.

let the managing powers constantly watch and control.

wealth of the world, the energies of nature, the fluctuations of our mind and senses turn to us, revolve, concentrate and vibrate there and here.

We join and adore Indra, lord of cosmic energy, who wields the thunder in his right hand and controls the versatile potentials of complementary currents of cosmic energy in the universal circuit, who with energy shakes the earthly vegetation, rises high, and with his forces and implicit potentials acts as catalytic agent and vests us with natural power and success in achievement.

life energy, when the divine presence pervades happy homes and weaves them into a happy web of life on earth with sweets of life, vibrates with power and shakes contradictory forces as the storm shakes the forest.

Free from pride and passion, we have created and offer you, O lord of divine charity, Indra, an ancient, unique and most copious song of celebration. We know the gifts of protection and promotion of this mighty lord, and, masters of our senses and mind, we keep his divine presence at heart as the all-seeing master of our life and karmic performance.

O generous lord of light and life, we know your good will and kindness toward us and we enjoy it too. May this bond of friendship and the gifts of the bond be good and blissful for us like the filial bond of parent and child.

4. *Maṁsīmahi tvā vayam-asmākaṁ deva pūṣan.
Matīnām ca sādhanam viprāṇaṁ cādhavam.*

We know and adore you, divine Pusha, sustainer of life, giver of success to our intelligentsia, pioneer guide and purifier of our vibrant sages.

5. *Pratyarthiryajñānāmaśvahayo rathānām. Ṛṣiḥ sa

Pusha is the promoter and accomplisher of yajnas, energy, power and mover of the shining stars, all seeing creator of joy, well wisher of humanity and inspiring guide and friend of the sages.

6. *Ādhīṣamāṇāyāḥ patiḥ śucāyāśca śucasya ca.
Vāsovāyo'vīnāmā vāsāmsi marmṛjat.*

Pusha is the sustainer of immaculate Prakṛti and of the pure intelligent soul, and just as the weaver weaves a cloth of wool, so does he weave out the structure and texture of the physical web of the world and create the bodies of form and adorns them with beauty.

7. *Ino vājānām patirinaḥ puṣṭīnām sakhā.

Mighty Pusha is the master controller of energies and powers of the world, generous friends of growth and progress, spontaneous energises and inspirer of rising youth, and he is the unchallengeable supreme power over all.

8. *Ā te rathasya pūṣannajā dhuraṁ vavṛtyuh.

O Pusha, unborn, eternal and undiminishing forces move your chariot wheels on and on, friend of all supplicants of the world, eternal, unborn and infinitely manifestive, imperishable.

9. *Asmākamūrjā ratham pūṣā aviṣṭu māhinaḥ.

May the mighty Pusha power and protect our chariot of life with divine energy, may the lord be promoter and augmentor of our food, energy and onward progress, and may he listen and grant this prayer of ours.

Mandala 10/Sukta 27

Indra Devata, Vasukra Aindra Rshi

असुत्सु मं जरितुः साभिवृगा यत्सुन्वत यजमानाय शि म ।
अनाशीदामहमस्मि पहन्ता सत्यध्वृतं वृजिनायन्त-

1. Asat su me jaritaḥ sābhivego yat sunvate yajamānāya śikṣam. Anāśīrdām-ahamasmi prahantā satyadhvṛtaṁ vṛjīnāyantam-ābhum.

O dedicated celebrant, the divine nature and power is good and true, it is this: I grant the prayer and give the desired object to the dedicated creative Soma yajaka. But I punish and strike down the ungenerous, selfish violator of eternal truth and law persistently addicted to sin, evil and falsehood.

यदीदृहं युधयं संनयान्यदवयून्तन्वा ३ शूशुजानान । अमा

2. Yadīdaham yudhaye samnayānyadevayūn tanvā śūśujānān. Amā te tumraṁ vṛṣabhaṁ pañcāni tīvraṁ sutam pañcadaśam ni ṣiñcam.

If I were to collect forces to fight out the selfish, ungenerous and audacious who are such by their sheer physical prowess and brute force in this house of yours, O divine Ruler of existence, I would train a mighty, generous, enlightened leader, warrior and protector, feed him on distilled essences of fourteen branches of knowledge, application and practice being the fifteenth, and thus perfect the ruler.

नाहं तं वद य इति ब्रवीत्यदवयून्त्समरणं जघन्वान ।

3. Nāham taṁ veda ya iti bravītyadevayūntsamarāṇe jaghanvān. Yadāvākhyat samaraṇam-ṛghāva-dādiddha me vṛṣabhā pra bruvanti.

I know not one who says: I have defeated and destroyed the evil and ungenerous in the battle between right and wrong by myself; instead, when the battle between good and evil is won, then the brave warriors declare that they attribute the victory only to me.

यदज्ञातषु वृजनष्वासं विश्वं सता मघवाना म आसन ।

4. Yadajñāteṣu vṛjaneṣvāsaṁ viśve sato maghavāno ma āsan. Jināmi vet kṣema ā santamābhum pra taṁ kṣiṇāṁ parvate pādagrhya.

When I am in regions and battles unknown, all existent holy powers are around me. Then in the interest of the good of the world I defeat all negative powers and, catching them by the root, I throw them on the rocks.

न वा उ मां वृजन् वारयन्त न पवतासा यदहं मनस्य । मम

5. Na vā u māṁ vṛjane vārayante na parvatāso bhayāta evedanu dyūn kiraṇaḥ samejāt.

When I decide to do what I want to do, no powers can obstruct me on the way, not even powers insurmountable as mountains otherwise. At my roar even persons of faintest ear shake with fear. And the sun, commanding boundless light rays goes on way day and night at my command.

दश वत्र श्रुतपाँ अ॒नि॒न्दान्बा॒हु इ॒दः शर॑व॒ पत्य॑मानान । śarave patyamānān. Ghrṣuṁ vā ye niniduh sakhāyam-adhyū nveṣu pavayo vavṛtyuh.*

When I see forces which oppose, contradict or deny Indra, presiding power of world order, people who wrest the food and drink prepared for honest labour, who twist others' arm for extortion, who pounce upon the innocent to kill, or those who revile a friend for his candid but unflattering warmth, over all such the strokes of the thunderbolt of justice and punishment would fall and ultimately crush them.

7. Abhūrvaukṣīrvyu āyurānaḍ darṣannu pūrvo aparo nu darṣat. Dve pavaste pari taṁ na bhūto yo asya pāre rajaso viveṣa.

Indra, unborn and eternal, the seed, the sower and nursing mother and the very life of the world, you destroy the anti-life forces of the earliest times and, later, of the others too. Both earth and heaven comprehend you not, you who transcend these and pervade the infinity beyond.

गा॒वा य॒वं प॒युता॒ अ॒या अ॒न्ता अ॒पश्यं॑ स॒हगा॑पा॒श्चर॑न्तीः ।

8. Gāvo yavaṁ prayutā aryo akṣan tā apaśyaṁ sahaḡopāścaraṁtīḥ. Havā idaryo abhitaḥ samāyan kiyadāsu svapatiś-chandayāte.

The cows ranged together in the pasture graze and enjoy the grass. I, the master, watch them along with the cowherd. When they are called back they come and stand round the master. The master rejoices in them. Similarly Indra, the master, sees the life around as his cows, rejoices in all life forms, and in the evening of the created world calls them back, and they all abide by and abide in his presence.

9. *Sam yadvayaṁ yavasādo janānāmahaṁ yavāda

Here in the pasture, in the midst of the vast world of experience and pleasure, we live and enjoy together with all those living beings which enjoy the grass and experience the things they love and find as the result of their karma, and I too among humans enjoy my share of karmic bhoga. Here then, joined to the lord giver of life, experience and ultimate freedom and peaceful abode, let the soul love and meditate on the master, Indra, and may the loving master accept the devotee, earlier separated, now joined.

And here in the world, take it as my own word of truth that it is I who generate the biped humans and the quadruped animals, and whoever aspires to win as a virile warrior but with indulgence with women, I take off their share of the desired attainment even before or without the interaction between their ambition and nature.

11. Yasyānakṣā duhitā jātvāsa kastāṁ vidvāñ abhi manyāte andhām. Kataro menim prati taṁ mucāte ya im vahāte ya im vā vareyāt.

Who is the sage and scholar who knows that blind force, that eyeless generative power, Prakṛti, mother womb of existence that was there in the pre-existence state of divinity in absolute time and space? Indra, whose consort it was, the Shakti of divinity to generate the various forms of life in historical time and space. Who would wield that mighty force for himself as consort, as Word, as thunder? Who would release her? Who takes her on and controls? Who chooses and loves her? Who except Indra?

12. Kiyatī yoṣā maryato vadhūyoh pariprītā panyasā vāryeṇa. Bhadrā vadhūrbhavati yat supeṣāḥ svayaṁ sā mitraṁ vanute jane cit.

Some maiden feels pleased and satisfied with the dear lovable wealth and speech of the man wooing her for a wife or she is herself pleasing and accepted for her speech and riches. But in reality, that wife is good and fortunate who, noble in person and manners, loves and chooses her friend and husband by herself from amongst the youth.

13. Patto jagāra pratyāñcamatti śīrṣṇā śiraḥ prati dadhau varūtham. Āsīna ūrdhvāmupasi kṣiṇā-ti nyaññuttānām-anveti bhūmim.

Indra emanates and manifests the generated world step by step, then he withdraws it also step by step at the end. The top light of Prakṛti, he places and holds up on high as head and heaven. All present and pervasive, the next high form of it he holds in his lap as the middle region, and the lowest of the high he forms as the earth and pervades it.

14. Brhannacchāyo apalāśo arvā tasthau mātā viṣito atti garbhaḥ. Anyasyā vatsam rihatī mimāya kayā bhuvā ni dadhe dhenurūdhah.

Infinitely great, imperishable beyond mutability and sufferance, all mover, all moving constant, beyond bonds and bounds, he is the all bearing mother womb of existence. Loving and pervading the living forms of the other, Prakṛti, as a mother, like his own progeny, he forms and sustains the world with divine peace and bliss of existence as the mother cow holds the milk for her calf.

15. Sapta vīrāso adharādudāyann-aṣṭottarāttāt samajagmirante. Nava paścātāt sthivimanta āyan daśa prāk sānvi tirantyaśnaḥ.

Seven off-springs came up from the deepest of Prakṛti (they are five subtle elements, mind and senses), eight sprang from the upper part (they are eight vasus, sustainers of life, i.e., earth, water, fire, air, space, moon, sun and stars), from behind came nine well placed in position (they are nine planets and nine sense organs), and ten pranas arise from the front and move high up in air.

16. Daśānāmekam kapilam samānam tam hinvanti kratave pāryāya. Garbham mātā sudhitam vakṣaṇāsvavenataḥ tuṣayanṭī bibharti.

One is the darling of all the ten equally, which they energise and serve for fulfilment of the ultimate purpose of life. Mother Nature bears the soul as its baby well placed in the currents and atomic dynamics of existence, nourishing and pleasing it, though the baby at this stage is unaware of it, but still loves to stay on in the womb.

पीवानं मेषमपचन्त वीरा न्युप्ता अ ण अनु दीव आसन ।

17. Pīvānam meṣamapacanta vīrā nyuptā akṣā anu dīva āsan. Dvā dhanuṃ brhatīmapsvantaḥ pavitravantā carataḥ punantā.

Ten pranas together with the senses, positioned in the holy body for nature's purpose, mature the living body of the soul. Two of these pranas, i.e., prana and apana, active in the vital waters with warm energy, mature, purify and perfect the growing body for the soul.

वि काशनासा विष्वञ्च आयन्पचाति नमा न्हि प दधः ।

18. Vi krośanāso viṣvañca āyan pacāti nemo nahi pakṣadardhaḥ. Ayam me devaḥ savitā tadāha drvanna idvanavat sarpirannah.

Souls come into the world from various directions in various ways, chanting the name of divinity. Some one matures, another does not mature, remains half way only. This is what Savita, lord of life, giver of light, says to me: the yajna fire which consumes the fuel wood and oblations of ghrta helps the soul to mature through yajna and self-sacrifice. The man who lives on fruit and milk and butter matures with divine love and yajnic fire.

From far off by observation of nature and from near by meditation, I have perceived and realised the divine power and presence bearing the multitudinous humanity and other forms of life by its own essential might, moving without wheels, that is, moving and yet not moving, being omnipresent, eternal, yet even new in manifestation, who, sole lord of life, creates the male and female pairs of humans from eternity.

20. Etau me gāvau pramarasya yuktau mo ṣu pra sedhīr-muhurin-mamandhi. Āpaścidasya vi naśantyarthāṁ sūraśca marka uparo babhūvān.

Lord of life, pray do not deprive me, the mortal man, of these two vital energies of prana and apana joined to my existence, pray keep them integrated with me, active and pleasing. The subtle body and the pranic energies help us reach our divine goal, and may the sun and pranic energies, like the cloud, shower me here below with light and joy.

अयं या वजः पुरुधा विवृत्ता वः सूर्यस्य बृहतः पुरीषात् ।

21. Ayam yo vajraḥ purudhā vivṛtto 'vaḥ sūryasya brhataḥ purīṣāt. Śrava idenā paro anyadasti tadavyathī jarimāṇas-taranti.

This thunderous pranic energy, which radiates from the mighty orb of the sun in varied ways, comes down to us by the paths of Prakṛti. Beyond this is there another path and destination too, revealed and heard, to which the celebrants of divinity free from psychic travails of existence attain beyond the flood of pleasure and pain here.

The string fixed like destiny on every bow twangs with a clang, the arrows fly and fall like cannibals on humanity, consuming life and karma. And then the whole world shakes with fear. O yajaka on the vedi, keep on the offer of soma homage to Indra, the omniscient who knows it all.

23. Devānām māne prathamā atiṣṭhan kṛntatrād-eṣāmuparā udāyan. Trayas-tapanti pṛthivīm-anūpā dvā bṛbūkam vahataḥ purīṣam.

For the formation of the first and basic divine natural causes of cosmic evolution, the original causes already existed in the primordial state of Prakṛti. From the disturbance of those primordial causes in that state of unified equilibrium into dynamic state, arose the diversity of subtle and gross elements of material and psychic forms. Three of these (heat, air and water) together mature the earth for life, and two (heat and air) bring the life energy to it.

24. Sā te jīvāturuta tasya viddhi mā smaitāḍṛgapa gūhaḥ samarye. Āviḥ svaḥ kṛṇute gūhate busaṁ sa pādurasya nirṇijo na mucyate.

That, O man, is your life line, the trinity of sun, air and water, Know it, and know that divine Indra. It's all his. In the serious holy business of living, forget it not, nor let life slip away. Indra creates and opens out the bliss of life, consumes the waste to create further, and this evolutionary cyclic process of the life giver never ends, it continues.

Mandala 10/Sukta 28

Devata: Indra (1, 3-5, 7, 9, 11), Vasukra Aindra (2, 6, 8, 10, 12); Rshi: Indra snusha (1), Indra (2, 6, 8, 10, 12), Vasukra Aindra (3-5, 7, 9, 11)

This hymn is a dialogue between Indra and Vasukra. It is an allegory on the organismic, integrated, organised system of life from the individual to the social and the cosmic order. The chief and supreme master is the soul, the ruler, Indra. Others too are powers, but subordinate to the chief.

विश्वा ह्य॑न्या अ॒रिरा॑ज॒गाम॑ ममदह॑ श्वशुरा॑ ना ज॒गाम॑ ।

1. Viśvo hyanyo arirājagāma mamedaha śvaśuro nā jagāma. Jakṣīyāddhānā uta somam papīyāt svāśitaḥ punarastaṁ jagāyāt.

Vasukra's wife says: All other masterly powers are arrived here. Only the chief is not come. I wish he were here, accept our hospitality of food and drink and, satisfied and fulfilled, go back to his seat.

(The soul emerges in the body, takes over and rules over the body system after all other powers have developed and the body is mature for emergence of the soul. So is the social system the soul of which is the sovereign ruling power. So is the cosmos, the ruling soul of the system is Indra.)

2. Sa roruvad-vṛṣabhas-tigmaśṛṅgo varṣman tathau varimannā pṛthivyāḥ. Viśveṣvenam vṛjanēṣu pāmi yo me kukṣī sutasomah prṇāti.

Indra: I, mighty ruling power, harbinger of showers of plenty and prosperity, commanding sharpest forces of defence and offence, abide on top of the mighty expanse of the earth. Whoever the maker of soma that offers me homage and hospitality to my pleasure and satisfaction, I defend, protect and promote in all battles of life.

3. Adriṇā te mandina indra tūyāntsunvanti somān pibasi tvameṣām. Pacanti te vṛṣabhāñ atsi teṣām prkṣeṇa yanmaghavan hūyamānaḥ.

Vasukra: O mighty ruler of wealth and power, Indra, happy performers of the yajnic system, with the best of equipment, extract exciting soma juice and they prepare sanative tonics from vrshabha herbs, of which, when cordially invited, you drink and taste with pleasure to your satisfaction and fulfilment.

4. Idam su me jaritarā cikiddhi pratīpaṁ śāpaṁ nadyo vahanti. Lopāśaḥ siṁhaṁ pratyāñcamat-saḥ kroṣṭā varāhaṁ niratakta kakṣat.

O celebrant, know this force of my power: By the dynamic force of my system and order, the stream of ordered life can carry off criticism, opposition and contradictions and throw out all poisonous elements, the ordinary vegetarian citizen faces and drives off the violent carnivorous enemy, and a single clarion call would dig out and throw out the most destructive terrorist forces from the darkest den.

5. Kathā ta etadahamā ciketaṁ gr̥tsasya pākastavaśa māniṣām. Tvam no vidvāṁ ṛtuthā vi voco yamardhaṁ te maghavan kṣemyā dhūḥ.

O lord of wealth and power, all knowing all watching ruler of the world, Indra, how would I, a simple man, understand and know this mysterious ground power and policy of yours, wise and versatile master of the mighty order. O lord, you alone know, you alone can enlighten us about the admirable basis and direction of your policy of peace and progress of humanity according to the time and season.

6. *Evā hi mām tavaśaṁ vardhayanti divaścinme

Thus do they (assistant powers) exalt me, mighty soul, ruler of the system. The foundation, structure, direction and stability of the system, the power I wield to sustain and rule the system is greater than the vast heavens. A thousand foes I eliminate, all at once, with a single stroke. Indeed the creative powers that generate and manifest me as power generate me without enemy and opposition.

Thus do the devas, divine powers and faculties create and know me as mighty and formidable, virile and generous in every act of the system. Happily with the mighty vajra, vital power, I break the dark cloud of rain with mighty thunder and open the paths of progress for the creative and generous vital channels of the dynamics of the system.

You are the heroic brave.

Indra, ruler of the world, manliest leader of the leaders of humanity, lord of triple splendour of knowledge, action and spiritual advancement, who command a hundred heroes by virtue of power and thunder, source of peace, advancement and bliss, may we ever abide in the light and joy of the dawn of today and of other days to come in our course of life.

The best of people since time immemorial try to win his love and friendship with homage, prayer and meditation. O lord of cosmic chariot, ruler of the world, come to us to bless us and our social order like a master of the chariot among people whom you inspire and bless with clear

1. Pra devatrā brahmaṇe gāturetvapo acchā manaso na prayukti. Mahīm mitrasya varuṇasya dhāsim prthujrayase rīradhā suvr̥ktim.

Let our voice of thanks and praise, our acts of yajnic creation and self-sacrifice in service of the cosmic sustainer, reach all the divine energies and powers of nature and humanity which are ever on the move and sustain life, and let this expression be the very symbol of the total dedication of our mind and soul. O celebrant, O high priest of yajna, proclaim and realise this our will to live as a mighty gift of the lord of love and judgement, and proclaim as well our vision of the ultimate freedom from selfish attachment, which we would realise in dedication to our own spirit, to the social order, and to the infinite lord of cosmic dynamics with the same love and judgement.

O priests and organisers of the socio-cosmic order, bear and bring the fragrant materials of yajnic action for development, rise with passion and enthusiasm, reach the vaulting waters of life, and with open expert hands today receive the waves which the moon and ocean raise and the flood of light and energy which the sun showers down.

O priests and organisers, reach the ocean and the waters of space and connect with the sun and light in space and skies with the right materials of yajna. The sun never allows the waters to exhaust and gives you the purest showers ever. Create and offer the sweetest and most powerful soma oblations to the sun for permanent supply of liquid energies for the sustenance of life.

O sun who burn and shine in space without fuels of fire, whom priests and scientists serve and adore in yajna, who never allow liquid energies of the world to exhaust, pray give us the honey sweets of liquid energies by which Indra, ruler of the world order on earth, may rise to strength and accomplish great deeds for humanity.

The liquids with which Soma, the ruling spirit, rejoices and feels exhilarated as men feel happy and exhilarated by noble youthful women, those exciting liquid energies, O high priest of yajna, find from far and near, and when you find them, then cleanse and strengthen the drinks and sanatives for health and joy.

Just as youthful women submit to young men, and as men with love eagerly advance to loving women, so do the leaders of social and scientific yajna know the liquid energies of nature and with their science and intelligence create, obtain and develop. So do also they develop the energies and competence of the rising youthful generation for the social yajna of the world order of humanity.

1. Ā no devānāmupa vetu śaṁso viśvebhis-turair-avase yajatraḥ. Tebhirvayaṁ suṣakhāyo bhavema taranto viśvā duriṭā syāma.

May the adorable word and wisdom of lord Supreme and all divinities of nature and humanity come to us in communion with all the speed, power and excellence of the world for our protection and progress. May we be good friends with them and cross over all hurdles, sins and evils of existence.

2. Pari cinmarto draviṇaṁ mamanyād-ṛtasya pathā namasā vivāset. Uta svena kratunā saṁ vadeta śreyāṁsaṁ dakṣaṁ manasā jagṛbhyaṭ.

Let mortal man love and desire wealth, honour and excellence in the comprehensive context of the world and divinity, shine and refine it with faith and reverence by the path of truth and universal law, speak of it, think and define it with his own conscience in communion with divinity, and then, with his own mind and soul, realise the high degree of expertise, vision and perfection of thought, action and achievement for himself. (Divinity, humanity, nature, the world around, these are the context of our success and achievement.)

Maturity of thought and concentration is achieved, vibrations of thought in waves flow in, protective and illuminative for the spirit in virile posture like waves of flood on the holy shore. Thus may we achieve the power of success and prosperity, thus may we be knowers and achievers of the boons of immortals in knowledge, awareness and, in fact, in our very being.

May the lord eternal, master of the world's wealth of Prakṛti, generous and potent, love to give and bless humanity for whom Savita, lord creator and generator provides all things of existence, and may Bhaga, lord of universal power and prosperity, and Aryama, lord of justice and dispensation, enlighten him with the word of knowledge, and may the lord of love, beauty and bounty, provide man the sweet shade of protection for advancement.

When clouds laden with power and plenty of rain, and sages with words of enlightenment and power come and bless the earth, then this world of humanity, like the light and freshness of the dawns, shines and prospers on earth, and seekers of wisdom and power asking the sages for knowledge and wisdom of divinity and power and advancement on earth flock here to us, and we pray may power and prosperity continue to flow in for us and our children.

Which is that forest, which was that tree, that material cause, from which the Vishvedevas, divine powers of lord Supreme, fashioned forth the heaven and earth sustained in cosmic order in the imperishable universe, safe and protected, which the eternal days and nights and the dawns at morning and evening proclaim and adore.

There is no other universe like this nor beyond this, and yet there is one power not just exactly as this but beyond, and that is the mighty generous creator and generator who bears this heaven and earth. That is the master lord of Prakṛti, his own Shakti, the mighty material cause of the universe, and he creates and structures the sacred form of it and bears it all as the cosmic energies and space directions bear the sun.

As the sun lights up and transcends the earth, as the wind shakes the cloud of life showers and passes, so does he pervade and transcend the heaven and earth, so does he move the universe to creative activity. Where Mitra, the sun, and Varuna, the moon, i.e., the couple—prana and apana, heat and water, sun and air, sun and moon, energised and impassioned, create and release life energy, heat and desire, there Agni releases the life of life as fire releases heat and vests it in the wood.

Like the heifer, mother Prakṛti (void of life in pre-creation stage of existence) is immediately energised and impregnated by the Spirit of life Supreme, master of the herd of living forms. The original and efficient cause, first mover, creates motion in the unmoved and unmoving, and makes the potential forms move in their orbits. The saviour protector and presiding power that existed awake as ever, even before the parental couples, manifested in action and mother Prakṛti gave birth to forms which now ask, seek and worship the mystery.

And man, the intelligent, they call the child of divine energy. The vibrant, the wise and bold achieve the wealth of life and divinity, and for such as draw the attention and love of divinity, the lord opens his treasure hold of joy and blesses them. None other than divinity can bless humanity with joy and ultimate fulfilment.

1. Pra su gmantā dhiyasānasya sakṣaṇi varebhir-varāṇ abhi ṣu prasīdataḥ. Asmākamindra ubhayaṁ jujoṣati yat somyasyāndhaso bubodhati.

May Indra, omnificent spirit and highest presence of the universe, cherished object of the meditative seeker, move to accept the best of the seeker's acts of homage and surrender and bless him in his state of clairvoyant ecstasy with the objects of his love and desire. Indeed Indra, who acknowledges the homage and service of the man dedicated to search for divinity, loves, joins and rewards our search for knowledge and action with fulfilment.

Indra, omnipotent light of the universe, adored and worshipped by all, by your universal light and energy you pervade and radiate over all divine luminaries of earth, heaven and all space. Those who continuously send up their prayers and dedicate their yajnic actions and endeavours to you win the fruits of their prayers and worship and thereby eliminate all their want and deprivations.

Let it be more and more pleasing for me as soul in body form then when man grows more and more handsome than beauty itself in existence, when the child born of parents carries the family line higher forward, when the wife pleases the husband and exhorts him with sweet words to love and noble thoughts, and it is nice and auspicious for the man to be good and cleansed at heart by love and loyalty.

Indra, give us a bright happy home where illuminative voices of divine Vedic wisdom rule and lead the family as horses draw the chariot, where the mother is honoured as the first and intelligent centre of the family and where the inmates are healthy and virile with all the seven vitalities of physical health.

O seekers of divinity, there is only one guide and leader for you who creates and provides the ultimate haven for you with the divines. And that is Indra who readily and instantly comes with his powers of justice, reward and punishment. And among the seekers of immortality and freedom, divine worship and adoration alone is the ultimate and unfailing giver. Therefore offer honeyed hospitality and sincere worship for the divinities that provide the means of protection, advancement and immortality.

The protector and preserver of the laws of divinities, Indra, divine spirit and teacher, enlightens me and speaks of the fire and spirit of life, Agni, pervasive and concealed in the waters, in particles of Prakṛti abounding in space and in the will, awareness and acts of humanity. O Agni, Indra, the spirit, only experiences and watches your presence. Taught, enlightened and committed by Indra, I have come to the realisation of your presence.

Let the man ignorant of the field of life ask the teacher who knows the field and facts of life and who can communicate, and, thus taught and trained, go forward in the business of living. This only is the holy and auspicious end and aim of teaching and training for life. And this is the way of the evolution and development of tradition by which man gets enlightened on way to progress.

Just today Indra, the soul, starts receiving the energy of prana in the womb, then, covered in the womb these days, it has the feel of its existence, then, when born it sucks the mother's milk, then it grows, thought and language comes to it, adolescence and youth, and finally old age takes it over the youth. O lord, let the resident soul in the body be holy at heart without anger and frustration.

O treasure hold of knowledge, Indra, O learned teacher, O listener of my praises and prayers, these are the holy acts of reverence and adoration which we, givers of thanks and presents, perform in homage to your honour. O men of wealth and power of knowledge, let this knowledge and this presentation of thanks and appreciation be a holy gift of gracefulness and culture, and so may this soma of knowledge be for you, the knowledge which I hold at heart in myself.

O lord of power and glory, Indra, be kind and save us now as ever, and always be our saviour and protector like a father.

1. Prāvepā mā brhato mādayanti pravātejā iriṇe varvṛtānāḥ. Somasyeve maujavatasya bhakṣo vibhīdako jāgrvir-mahyam-acchān.

The large quivering dice, made of vibhidika tree grown on grassy green mountain slopes, shaking and rolling awesome on the dice board, tantalise me like the sight of exhilarating drink from a munja grass covered mountain valley, they excite me and I lose my sleep.

3. Dveṣṭi śvaśrūrapa jāyā ruṇaddhi na nāthito vindate marḍitāram. Aśvasyeva jarato vasnyasya nāham vindāmi kitavasya bhogam.

Normally speaking, the wife of a gambler feels indifferent and alienated from him, the mother-in-law hates him, the wretched man finds no friends' sympathy, there is none to comfort him. Like an old, exhausted, broken horse, though he might have been valuable otherwise, no one bids for him. I set no value upon the gambler. Who would?

Others covet his wife as a possible prize since the mighty dice have cheated him of his money and all wealth. Father, mother, brother, all disown him and say: off with him, we bound and taken. We know him not.

When I realise and think I must not play with dice and must not be miserable, even then, having so decided, I succumb to the approaching dice as to seductive friends. Red and shining dice cast in the game rattle and resound, and I walk into the den like a woman stealing to her paramour.

6. Sabhāmeti kitavaḥ prcchamāno jeṣyāmīti tanvā śūśujānaḥ. Akṣāso asya vi tiranti kāmam prati-divne dadhata ā kṛtāni.

Puffed up in body and mind, the gambler moves to the gambling house asking, even assuring, himself in mind: Shall I win? I must, this time. And his dice, held and poised in hand to defeat his rival, inflame his fire to play and win, more and more.

The dice hold the gambler by the hook, pierce like a dagger, hew down the man and even his family from the root, as a hatchet, burn like fire and torture like incessant pain. For the winner, they bring joyous gifts for the time but later in turn they destroy, and though soaked in honey for the moment, they tear the gambler to pieces at the end.

The group of fifty-three of those dice is played strictly within unsparing rules of the game like the divine sun observing the laws of its motion. They do not bow even to the strongest of men, indeed the ruler bows and offers obeisance to the dice (if he too is addicted).

The forsaken wife of the gambler suffers at heart, the mother of her child wandering somewhere feels tortured by loss. Down under loss and debt, pining for money, he is oppressed by fear, and at night goes to other's home either for shelter or for money the way he can get.

The gambler suffers when he sees his wife, and he regrets when he sees another's wife well settled, their noble acts and comfortable home. Yet again in the forenoon he grabs the tempting dice as a warrior takes to his steed, but when the fire is gone cold, he falls down broken and farlorn.

Be friends, make friends, be good and kind to us. Treat us not with the torture of fear and suppression. Let your anger and passion subside into peace and tranquillity, and may another unfortunate in adversity in the snares of dice be the same way free.

In the early hours of the dawn, those flames of morning fire bearing light and energy of the sun awake and awaken the great heaven and earth, dispelling the darkness, and arouse the people to the karmic business of the day. May the peace, beauty and inspiration of nature at dawn inspired with the love and power of divinity bless us with vision, will and power to act here and now so that we too may rise and shine.

We pray may the lighted fire and rising dawn bring us all happiness and well being of life.

The sun rises, the same one, and illuminates all the dawns. We pray may the lighted fire and rising dawn bless us with felicity and total fulfilment.

O man, smart and brilliant as you are, we wish that you enjoy the light and peace of the bliss and warmth of the sun in the zodiacs throughout the year in the inspiring company of eminent scholars and thus advance. We pray that the lighted fire and rising dawn bless us with felicity and total fulfilment.

O lord of light and bliss, O Adityas, phases of the sun and earth on the move, in this joyous hall of yajna in our open ended search for physical, mental and spiritual knowledge and well being, I invoke the brilliancies of nature and humanity and pray let the seven priests be seated for the conduct of the yajna (the seven being senses of perception, senses of volition, speech, mind, discriminative intelligence, selective memory, and the self). We invoke Indra, divine and secular power, Mitra, divine and human love and cohesion with cooperation, Varuna, divine and human judgement and choice in relation to nature and society, and Bhaga, divine glory and human prosperity with power and self confidence, for sure success and victory. We pray may the lighted fire and rising dawn bless us with felicity and self fulfilment.

May the Adityas come and join us with love and favour for the advancement and comprehensive success of our yajna of universal character and save, protect and promote our yajnic projects of creative progress. We invoke Brhaspati, power of infinite knowledge and speech, Pushan, power of nourishment and growth, Ashvins, complementary powers of nature and humanity, and Bhaga, spirit of universal power and prosperity and pray may the lighted fire and the rising dawn bring us felicity and total self-fulfilment.

May all wealth, honour and excellence of the world, all speed, success and victory be our common human heritage, good fortune and universal victory.

O Vishvedevas, divine powers of nature and humanity, pray let us be, help us all to be, a happy, vibrant and dynamic human community of noble nature, character and action living the life divine and moving ahead on the holy path of life to total fulfilment here and beyond: The person and the community whom you protect, guide and lead to victory in the struggle of existence, whom you save, guard and direct against sin and suffering to success knows no fear. Pray let us be that on the paths of pilgrimage to the Life Divine.

1. Uṣāsānaktā brhatī supeśasā dyāvākṣāmā varuṇo mitro aryamā. Indram huve marutaḥ parvatāṁ apa ādityān dyāvapṛthivī apaḥ svah.

I invoke the rising dawn of the light of day and the soothing darkness of restful night, the radiant illuminative heaven and the vast sheltering stabilising earth, both great and expansive, beautiful and beatific,

I invoke Varuna, oceans of earth and spatial vapours, Mitra, friendly warmth of the sun, Aryama, refreshing breezes, Indra, infinite energy and power of nature, Maruts, stormy forces of the winds, clouds and mountains, sun rays, zodiacs of the sun, radiative energy of the sun and magnetic and gravitational energy of earth, the middle regions of space for expansion and the highest regions of light for illumination.

The sun and the earth, father and mother, both sources of enlightenment, both committed to divine law and replete with dynamic energy, may, we pray, protect us from sin and violence. Let ignorance, injustice and adversity never dominate our life, let pain and suffering keep off. This is the safety, security and protection of our choice we pray for of the divinities today.

May the eternal mother power, the divine Shakti, Aditi, protect us from sin and suffering of the world, she being the mother of abundant sun and ocean, love and judgement. May we receive the light of heaven without violence. This is our prayer for protection we may make to the divinities with free choice today.

May the thundering voice of wise sages keep off all destructive forces, evil dreams, want, adversity and fear of death, and all voracious elements of society. May we obtain the protection, peace and enlightenment of the leading lights and stormy troops of society. This is the shelter and protection we now pray for, of our own choice, from the divinities.

the light divine. This is the favour and protection of the divinities we pray for today.

May the Ashvins, complementary fire and wind, refine and energise our yajna of love and non-violence, fed on ghrta, rising in high flames as ever before, and may they raise it to the regions of the sun to bring us peace and joy for the fulfilment of our aspirations. This is the favour and protection of the divinities we pray for today.

I invoke and call upon the band of Maruts, vibrant winds of nature and dynamic sages and pioneers of humanity, worthy of service and adoration, pure and purifying and harbingers of peace and well being, all heroic and sublime. I invoke them to win their love and friendship. We study and meditate upon wealth, energy and enrichment for participation in their grace and glory.

This is the protective and promotive favour of the divinities we choose to pray for today.

We bear Soma at heart, love and honour Soma, spirit of universal peace, vitality and ecstasy, protector and promoter of life's liquid energies for action, inspirer of life adorable for the divinities, beauty of the yajna of love and non-violence, worthy of invocation and celebration. Beautiful are its flames of fire, its rays of light and its waves of fragrance worthy of being perceived, experienced and internalised, all these we love. And that Soma is the gift, favour and protection of the divinities we choose to pray for, this day.

Let us join and live that Soma spirit of life along with all others who live it with passion and enthusiasm. We are all children of life, living and vibrant with our children and grand children, free from sin and crime.

Let others who negate, hate and violate that universal Spirit of love, life and peace bear, for that reason, their negativities and the dispensation thereof. And that favour of the love of Soma and protection against negativities we beg of the divinities this day.

1. Namo mitrasya varuṇasya cakṣase maho devāya tadṛtaṁ saparyata. Dūredṛśe devajātāya ketave divasputrāya sūryāya śaṁsata.

Homage and salutations to the eye of the lord of universal love and cosmic judgement, lord of day and deep night, mighty generous light of the world. Observe and abide by that universal law of the lord. Sing and celebrate in honour of the Sun, child of Light, heavenly ensign of divine refulgence, born of space, the eye that can see as far as the bounds of existence.

May the word of truth abide by me and protect and sustain me all round all time: That Sun, light of the world, is the presence in which the heavens of light and the green earth abide, days and nights arise and expand, wherein the other worlds abide and all else moves and abides, wherein all dynamics of the universe abide and move day and night, wherein the sun rises every morning for all time in the existential world.

O sun, when you ride your chariot and move on with the radiation of your rays, the earlier darkness of the night does not stay before you, instead it moves on to the other region you left behind, and as you move on, you go forward with your light for another region of the world.

O lord of light, moved and inspired by your own divine self and invoked by prayers of the supplicants, you protect and rule the laws and disciplines of the world around, and without passion or disturbance you rise and move according to your own powers and in response to your celebrants' homage (such as the homage of the planets and yajnic offers of devotees). O sun, whatever we pray for, may the divinities of nature and humanity favour and respond to our yajnic action and prayer.

May they never be indifferent. May we live blest in the light of the sun and the illumination of divinity. we, O sun, see you rising day by day as the greatest friend of ours and live long for a happy time in the light and bliss divine.

May all you Devas, divinities of nature and humanity, give us peace and felicity for our life, for both humans and animals. Let all that is eating, all that is drinking be strong, energetic and fulfilled. Pray give us that peace and well being which is free from violence, sin and evil.

O Devas, divinities of nature and humanity, if we trespass or do some grave offence by word, thought or action and behaviour to earn your displeasure or even provoke your anger, pray forgive us and cleanse us of that weakness and negativity. And if there be some mean and uncharitable person among us who behaves in a vile manner toward us, then O divine givers of peace and shelter, pray let that sin visit back upon the source.

Indra Devata, Mushkavan Indra Rshi

1. Asmin na indra pṛtsutau yaśasvati śimīvati kran-dasi prāva sātaye. Yatra goṣātā dhṛṣiteṣu khādiṣu viṣvak patanti didyavo nṛṣahye.

Indra, O ruler of the world, in this mighty battle for honour and industry, you roar and thunder, pray defend and protect us to advance to the victory. This is a battle for the reclamation, defence and development of the lands and cows, between bold, undaunted soldiers thirsting for the enemy's blood, and on them, in this murderous contest, sharp and blazing arrows fall on all sides.

2. Sa naḥ kṣumantaṁ sadane vyūrṇuhi go-arṇasaṁ rayimindra śravāyyam. Syāma te jayataḥ śakra medino yathā vayamuśmasi tadvaso kṛdhi.

Indra, O lord of power and glory, in this house of the social order abundant in food, water and the wealth of lands and cows, cover, protect and promote the honoured wealth of the nation. O mighty victorious lord, let us be your friends, allies and admirers and, O lord giver of peace, settlement and a good home, pray do as we would wish to fulfil our aspirations.

3. Yo no dāsa āryo vā puruṣtutā' deva indra yudhaye ciketati. Asmābhiṣṭe suṣahāḥ santu śatravastvayā vayaṁ tān vanuyāma saṁgame.

O lord most admired and celebrated, Indra, whether it is a power ignoble and slavish in character, or even one dynamic in character but undivine and negative, who challenges us to battle, let those enemies be boldly faced and fought out, and let us all under your leadership, overthrow and destroy them in battle.

In the decisive battle of humanity to the point of the destruction of evil and negative forces, we now choose and install that man as Indra, leader for defence, protection and progress, who is adorable equally by the select few and the many, small as well as great, who is clean and pure, reputable and universally rich and powerful to create the space and freedom for thought and action around.

Come Indra, lord potent and generous, rise and take on the leadership. We hear and know you are powerful by yourself to uproot evil, indefatigable, inspirer of fighting forces, uplifter of the weak and breaker of blockades. Pray be free and free us from terror and violence. How can the brave like you stay back stolen by ravishment in obscurity?

Ashvins, complementary powers of nature and humanity like heat and cold, light and liquids, teacher and preacher, science and technology, swift and smooth is your chariot, turning, moving and going all over the world in all directions. Adored and adorable is it day and night by admiring priests, worthy of invocation by them with homage and havi. Since time immemorial we have been calling on you and this chariot of yours as we chant the holy name of father, and we call upon you, riders of the chariot, now.

Ashvins, inspire, energise and raise the voice of truth and divine law of eternity. Nourish, strengthen and advance the intelligence and will of humanity for action. Raise up, strengthen and confirm the principles and policies which govern and sustain the values of human institutions. That is what we love and desire of you. Create and confirm our share of honour and excellence in the affairs of human society. Vest the beauty and grace of sweetness and culture for our sake among the men of wealth and power.

Ashvins, you are the hope and inspiration of the bed-ridden home-confined old person. You are saviours of the debilitated and the weakest persons who are unable to eat and move. O lovers and observers of the truth and law of nature, you bring light for the blind, strength for the anaemic and health for the chronic sufferers. That is what people call you, “saviours of life”.

him to life. That's why all your works and achievements are praised and celebrated in holy gatherings.

I, this supplicant girl, request you, Ashvins, pray listen to me, and as father speaks to the child, so please instruct me on matters of health. I am alone and unrelated, ignorant, without kith and kin and immature. Pray protect me with knowledge before the onslaught of the effects of that ignorance.

O Ashvins, with your knowledge of body and mind, you join the youthful, bright and intelligent daughter of the widely friendly father with a bright young man for their joy and fulfilment. You listen to the call of the barren woman, treat her, restore her fertility, and she is blest with a child for a joyous home life.

You revive the sinking man who has lost consciousness, all but surviving in the brain, and muttering from the subconscious. You cure the man in high fever in the state of delirium and restore him to health, full consciousness and self-immunity with all his five senses, mind and intelligence fully working in perfect order.

Ashvins, for the active intelligent soul you give pure unsullied virility and vitality and vibrant swift smartness blest with nine and ninety qualities and faculties of body (nine faculties of sense and mind each energised with ten pranic energies) ever in action onward like a constant friend as you bring for people plenty, prosperity and power full of peace and joy worthy of love and invocation in life for all time.

O Ashvins, morning stars divine, come by that chariot of yours faster than mind which the celestial artists crafted for you, that which you yoke in harness and the maiden of heaven walks forth to ride and rise and then both the happy day and soothing night born of the sun move on.

O Ashvins, divine powers of knowledge and action, enlightened men and women of the world, harness the victorious chariot of divine vision and inspiration, rise forth and move forward by the road to the clouds, strengthen and raise the rousing voice for sleeping humanity, and with your voice and actions free the poor victims seized and held in the jaws of wolves.

Ashvins, complementary twin powers of nature and humanity, this song of adoration we offer in your honour as the divine artists craft and offer the celestial chariot for you, and we have adorned it as we always adorn and prepare a bride for the groom. Blest with children and grand children we abide in life (and depend on you for strength and inspiration in the life cycle day and night, through the seasons, year in and year out).

O leading lights of life and humanity, who and where, with holy intelligence and action, crafts, adorns and prepares your mighty spacious, brilliant, and auspicious chariot ever on the move in action going every morning to yajna every day to every people, bearing and bringing all kinds of wealth for the sake of happiness and well being?

Ashvins, man and woman, where were you at night? Where in the day? Where do you find food and rest? Where do you live? Where do you sleep? Where do you stay together like the widow with her second husband, or a maiden married to a youth? Who invites you to yajna?

Early morning, like venerable divinities you are honoured with songs of praise. Venerable and adorable, you visit the devotee's home day by day. Whose weaknesses do you destroy? And O leading lights of humanity, whose house and yajna do you visit like the princes of a royal realm?

Looking and searching for you as seekers and saviours, we invoke and invite you with homage day and night. All house holders invoke you and offer you homage of havi according to the seasons, and you, leading lights for humanity, treasure holds of good and promoters of the auspicious, bring food and energy for the people.

Ashvins, leading lights of the land, rulers and warriors, this voice of the ruling order like a daughter of the sovereign, going round and knowing every thing of the state, asks you and says : Be up and awake for me day and night and strengthen yourselves and strengthen me to meet the challenges of the forces of horse, chariot and the stormy troopers and thus save me and the social order.

Ashvins, you are visionary poetic creators, stay fast on the chariot, go to the people and appreciate their songs of adoration as a creator and maker of songs would. The honey sweets of your creation, the honey bees taste and drink with their mouth as a youthful woman loves the sweet beauty of her new home.

Ashvins, protect the protector and sustainer of the people's standard of living, protect the dependent and supporter, protect him who appreciates and adores, and protect the poet of love and beauty. Your generous admirer loves to be friends with you, and I too pray for your protection and gift of well being. Pray help all these people to complete their journey of life to self-fulfilment.

Ashvins, both of you, pray protect and support the weak, the depressed, the supporter of the weak, and the widow who has lost all support. And, O Ashvins, for the lovers of knowledge and devotees of yajna and divinity, open the seven rousing flood gates of the seven metres of Vedic poetry for chanting and hearing.

The maiden is grown mature, the suitor comes seeking and proposes for marriage, the plants and creepers bloom according to innate power and potential, streams and rivers, desires and passions for living and continuing, flow down the slopes for the young man, and that is the stage for matrimony when the day of youthfulness is on the high and irrepressible.

People yearn for life, live it with tears and ecstasy, exchange vows and positions on the vedi of love and non-violence, and they desire that they live in wedlock as long as they may wish. Those who live in this felicity for their parents and elders, even away from them, would live happy, their wives would love them and bring them peace and joy in their conjugal relationship.

We know not of that mystery of life, O Ashvins, pray speak of that mystery, that bond and felicity, to the youth who lives in the home of his youthful wife. We only wish that we may find a sweet home with a loving, generous, virile young man, loving at heart and winsome to his wife.

That way, be our protectors as leading lights in our pursuit of happiness and well being. Bless us that we may love, desire and find a home with loving, enlightened, generous and caring husbands.

O givers, protectors and promoters of the good and well being of life, establish a happy home life overflowing with food, drink and freedom of holiness. O Ashvins, harbingers of the light of knowledge and energy of life, leading lights of humanity dedicated to truth and never deviating from your path of rectitude, you ride and guide the chariot harnessed, started and moving in the morning, which bears and brings honey sweets of life and by which you reach the yajnic communities and bless the celebrant's yajna joined by devotees in unison and cooperation.

O Ashvins, harbingers of the light of knowledge and practical power and energy through yajna, whether you go to the dexterous organiser of yajna, bearing honeyed offerings, or you go to the initiator of yajna and fire kindler, expert in the science and power of yajna and at the same time generous and socially oriented, or whether you go to the yajnas of the vibrant scholar specialist, you would have a taste of the honey sweets of life for achievement.

Mandala 10/Sukta 42

Indra Devata, Krishna Angirasa Rshi

1. Asteva su prataraṁ lāyamasyan bhūṣanniva pra ryo ni rāmaya jaritaḥ soma indram.

As an expert archer shoots a distant target with the arrow, similarly bear and offer a holy song in honour of divine Indra, thereby exalting him with the beauties of word and music. O sages, with your voice of song overwhelm the other voice, of negation. O celebrant, hold the divine Indra at heart, be happy and let the Presence shine in your peaceful soul.

2. Dohena gāmupa śikṣā sakhāyaṁ pra bodhaya jaritar-jāram-indram. Kośaṁ na pūrṇaṁ vasunā nyrṣtamā cyāvaya maghadeyāya śūram.

O celebrant, with constant churning of the mind, refine and energise your voice of adoration, send it in to your friend Indra, the soul within, and, like a treasurehold overflowing with wealth of light, stir it, wake up the brave soul for the gift of excellence and grandeur.

3. Kimaṅga tvā maghavan bhojamāhuḥ śīśīhi mā śīśayaṁ tvā śṛṇomi. Apnasvatī mama dhīrastu śakra vasuvidaṁ bhagamindrā bharā naḥ.

Indra, mighty soul, dear as breath of life, grand and sublime, don't they say you are the giver of all pleasure and glory of life? Pray bless me too with the wealth of light and grandeur. I hear you are the all omnificent lord. O Lord Almighty, refine and sharpen my vision and understanding to the efficiency of divine attainment. Indra, pray bring us glory and good fortune full of wealth, power and peace.

4. Tvām janā mamasatyēṣvindra santasthāna vi hvayante samīke. Atrā yujam kṛṇute yo haviṣmān nāsunvatā sakhyam vaṣṭi śūrah.

Indra, people invoke you for help in contests of righteousness and call upon you while they march to the battle. Here too, however, he alone wins his help who offers faith and yajna, because the mighty one does not love, nor recognise, the friendship of the selfish and the non-performer of Soma-yajna.

Whoever the man of discipline and practice that offers precious gifts of holy and plenteous value and performs effective and powerful soma yajna of peace and pleasure for this divine Indra, ruling lord of humanity, for him Indra dispels all darkness and evil and eliminates all his enemies at the very outset of the day, howsoever strong, violent and well-armed the enemies might be.

6. Yasmin vayan̄ dadhimā śaṁsamindre yaḥ śísṛāya maghavā kāmamasme. Ārāccit san bhayatāmasya śatrur-nyasmai dyumnā janyā namantām.

Indra, the ruler in whom we repose our faith with admiration and who assures our fulfilment in all we want and aspire for, is great and all powerful. His enemies, even though they be far off cower with fear and flee, and to him all the wealth and powers born and produced in the land submit in reverence and loyalty.

7. Ārācchatrum-apa bādhasva dūramugro yaḥ śambhaḥ puruhūta tena. Asme dhehi yavamadgo-madindra kṛdhī dhiyaṁ jaritre vājaratnām.

Indra, ruler of the world, invoked and celebrated by all, by that thunderbolt of power and justice which is lustrous and awful, throw out and keep off from us all social and environmental enemies. Give us abundance of grain, lands and cows, and for the celebrant yajna create an environment of enlightened action productive of the jewel wealth of life.

The ruler to whom powerful creations of generous and imaginative artists and inspiring somaic achievements of peaceful projects are offered and dedicated from within the land for highly generative purposes and social values, that ruler, commanding wealth, power and majesty, does not impose any restrictions upon such veteran and generous artists, instead he provides manifold inspiring incentives to the creative minds.

A veteran winner, he counters an attack and wins the opponent just as an expert player or hunter rounds up his prey and chooses the right time to strike and win. He does not restrict or restrain the philanthropist who loves divinity and spends on yajnic projects, instead, master, protector and promoter of wealth and power as he is, he blesses the giver with more and more of wealth.

O ruler of the world invoked and celebrated by all humanity, let us solve the difficult problem of poverty and mental and cultural backwardness by cow development, land development and proper education, and the problem of hunger, by food production across the world. Let us take the initiative first to win wealth by cooperation with other rulers, and ultimately win our goals by our own power and effort.

May Brhaspati, omniscient lord of divine voice, protect us from sins and negative legacies of the past, from doubts and fears from above and below. May Indra, mighty ruler, be our friend and protect us from difficulties facing upfront. May he promote us on and on. May he place us at the centre of life's problems, protect and promote us and create the wealth of honour and excellence for us, his friends.

All my thoughts, words and actions, all together in perfect unison concentrated on the love and light of divinity, ecstatically adore and celebrate Indra, lord almighty of existence. Just as wives with love embrace their human lover, protector and husband, so do my prayers centre on Indra, lord of glory, power and purity, for all round protection, promotion and well being.

2. Na ghā tvadrigapa veti me manastve it kāmam puruhūta śīśraya. Rājeva dasma ni ṣado'dhi barhiṣyasmintsu some'vapānamastu te.

Indra, lord universally invoked and celebrated, may my mind and soul having surrendered its love and ambition to you, never go astray from the presence such as yours. O lord beatific and glorious, you abide on my vedi and in my heart as the sovereign ruling presence. May your divine love, joy and protection ever abide in this mind and soul and bless it with peace and joy in your presence.

3. Viṣūvrdindro amateruta kṣudhaḥ sa idrāyo maghavā vasva īsate. Tasyedime pravane sapta sindhavo vayo vardhanti vṛṣabhasya śuṣmīṇaḥ.

Indra, lord of all power and glory, dynamic presence all round in the world, dispels hunger and ignorance, rules and dispenses wealth, power and peace of shelter and settlement. Indeed, under the rule of this mighty generous master, all these seven streams of nature, life and living energy flow on and evolve to perfection. (This is true of both the external world of nature under the law of the cosmic spirit and of the internal world of mind and pranic energy under the rule of the spirit within.)

Just as birds take to the tree of rich foliage for rest and replenishment of life energy, so the soma cheer and energy of the sevenfold fluent streams of cosmic and individual systems take to Indra, the soul, for life and peace and joy. Then the expressive face of these shines with the splendour of Indra, and thus the living light of divinity descends in showers for the bliss of man.

5. Kṛtaṁ na śvaghnī vi cinoti devane saṁvargam yanmaghavā sūryaṁ jayat. Na tat te anyo anu vīryaṁ śakanna purāṇo maghavan nota nūtanah.

Just as a player in the game casts the die and wins and piles up his gains, so does Indra, lord omnipotent and omnificent, in this pleasure garden of the dynamics of existence win over the sun and the rain bearing cloud. O lord almighty, no one else can possibly equal your might, no one old or new.

The lord of glory abides with all people of the world whosoever they be. The generous lord knows, listens and grants all prayers of the people. Whosoever the devotee whose yajnas the mighty one joins and enjoys, that celebrant wins over all his rivals and adversaries by the power of his ardent soma offerings of holy action in yajna.

As rivers flow into the sea, as streams of rain flow into the lake, so do the beauties of faith and pleasure in soma yajnas concentrate on Indra, glory of the world. As showers of rain with profuse divine generosity raise the crops of barley and the plants grow up in ecstasy, so in the homely presence of this generous lord of sublimity, saints and sages rise and shine in moral and spiritual grandeur.

8. *Vṛṣā na kruddhaḥ patayadrajah svā yo aryapat-

Just as the swelling cloud causes the vapours of water in the skies to be released of itself and lets these showers of rain fall upon the earth, so does Indra, lord of glorious generosity, bring showers of light and bliss for the generous man of charity who offers the homage of soma to the lord for humanity.

Let the thunderbolt of power and justice arise, let the voice of truth and law divine be generous, creative and fruitful as ever before, let the bright sun rise with its immaculate light and glory, may the lord protector and promoter of the good reveal the light and power of divinity as the bliss of heaven.

Let us dispel the darkness of ignorance with the communication of universal knowledge, let us remove the world's hunger with food production, let us reclaim our original wealth of knowledge, power and prosperity with our innate lights and enlightened actions.

May Brhaspati, lord of Infinity and the master of knowledge protect us against the violence of sin and sinners upfront, behind, above or below. May Indra, ruler and friend of humanity, create and lead us to the wealth of life for us and our friends, all at present and in our midst.

1. Ā yātvindraḥ svapatirmadāya yo dharmaṇā tūtujānastuviṣmān. Pratvakṣāṇo ati viśvā sahāṁsypāreṇa mahatā vṛṣṇyena.

May Indra, lord ruler of his world of reality, come, arise in view, in our consciousness, for the joy of his devotees. Mighty is he, loving, bright and accepting by his own essential nature and the laws of life, and, by his boundless grandeur and generosity, he takes on all challenges of counterforces and reduces them to naught for his people. (The mantra may be applied to Divinity or to the ruling power).

Stable, strong and perfectly directed is your chariot, controlled and accurate your dual powers of motion. O refulgent ruler and protector of the people, in your hands you hold the controls of the thunder power of force and justice. Pray come at the fastest by the safest and straightest path to us right here. We celebrate and exalt your powers and generosity, and you love to protect and promote your celebrants.

3. Endravāho nṛpatiṁ vajrabāhumugamugrāsa-staviṣāsa enam. Pratvakṣasaṁ vṛṣabhaṁ satyaśuṣmamemasmatrā sadhamādo vahantu.

May the mighty, blazing, penetrating, vigorous and refining radiations of this Indra, protector and promoter of humanity, thunder armed, virile and generous, indomitable upholder of truth, come in unison with inspiring strength and bring him to us for our social and spiritual good.

4. Evā patiṁ droṇasācam sacetasamūrjaḥ skambham dharuṇa ā vṛṣāyase. Ojaḥ kṛṣva saṁ grbhāya tve apyaso yatha kenipānāmino vṛdhe.

Thus do solar radiations transmit the presence of Indra, lord protector and ruler pervasive in the world of humanity, all aware, the pillar of universal energy, strength and power. Thus do we exalt and celebrate Indra. O lord, you are the shower of power and generosity in the all-sustaining world of yours. Pray create and give us the strength of life, hold us in your power and presence for our promotion and progress since you are the ultimate lord and master of the dedicated aspirants for light.

Indra, may wealths, peace and honours of the world come to us, I wish and pray. Come, accept the homage of the celebrant's song of praise. You rule all, come and abide in this holy seat of yajna and love of the heart. Bold and undaunted, we are your celebrants by the nature and Dharma of our being.

6. Prthak prāyan prathamā devahūtayo'kṛṇvata śravasyāni duṣṭarā. Na ye śekuryajñiyām nāva-māruhamīrmaiva te nyaviśanta kepayah.

People of the first order dedicated to divinity and yajnic piety go forward by holy paths of the first order and perform admirable acts of the most difficult order. But those who cannot board the ark of yajnic order and divine love, men of unclean character, doubtful mind and crooked ways, lie about here in the lower and lowest orders of being.

Thus do people of evil disposition keep wallowing in low states of existence whose mind and senses are engaged in wrong things like restive horses. And thus do others of the first and higher disposition fare who are dedicated here itself to the higher omnificient divinity in which infinite gifts of freedom, peace and happiness abound.

He wields the dynamics of nature, fixes the mountains and moves the roaring clouds. He holds the raging heavens and shakes the violent skies. He holds both earth and heaven together and, the glorious sun having drunk up the vapours, showers down the rains in joy like the overflow of divine ecstasy in the music of song.

I happily abide by this law and discipline of yours, Indra, which is divinely maintained and sustained, the law by which, O lord of power and glory, you punish those who strike life by their hoof and claw. May your presence abide in this holy seat of my yajna in the heart and soul. May your divine majesty, O lord of glory, know and fulfil our desire in this cherished act of love and faith.

O lord universally invoked and celebrated, let us overcome the difficult problems of want, of moral and spiritual vision and knowledge, by the Vedic voice, and the problem of world hunger by cooperative production of food. And let us on top win wealth, honour and excellence by our own brilliance of intelligence and our own persistent effort.

May Brhaspati protect and promote us all round from behind, from above and from below against sin and evil. May Indra, our friend and ruler, create and give wealth, honour and excellence for us and for the entire fraternity of the world from within at the centre of humanity and may he continue the same into the future.

Agni Devata, Vatsapri Bhalandana Rshi

दिवस्परि पथमं जज्ञ अग्निस्मद द्वितीयं परि जातवदाः ।

1. Divaspari prathamam jajñe agnirasmad dviṭīyaṁ pari jātavedāḥ. Trṭīyamapsu nṛmaṇā ajasramin-dhāna enaṁ jarate svādhīḥ.

Agni first manifests as light in the high heavenly region in the form of the sun. Secondly it manifests as Jataveda, vital heat in all earthly forms around us. In the third form it manifests as energy in waters in the middle regions of space as electricity. Agni is the vital energy which enables humanity to live and work. Man as self-intelligent being lights this perpetual Agni and thereby exalts and celebrates the eternal creative spirit of existence.

विद्वा त अग्र त्रधा त्रयाणि विद्वा त धाम विभृता पुरुत्रा ।

2. Vidmā te agne tredhā trayāṇi vidmā te dhāma vibhṛtā purutrā. Vidmā te nama paramaṁ guhā yadvidmā tamutsaṁ yata ājagantha.

Agni, universal vital energy, we know the three modes in which you manifest in three different forms, structures, properties and functions. All pervasive energy, we know the three regions in which you abide. For sure we know the deepest secret cave where your abode is since we know the infinite source from where you arise and manifest as Agni, Vayu and Aditya on earth, in sky and in heaven.

3. Samudre tvā nṛmaṇā apsvantar-nṛcakṣā īdhe divo agna ūdhan. Trītye tvā rajasi tasthivāṁsamapā-mupasthe mahiṣā avardhan.

Agni, the fluid energy excites and kindles you in the currents in the depths of the waters; in the region of light, the sun that illuminates the world of humanity produces and radiates you; and in the third region of

Agni Devata, Vatsapri Bhalandana Rshi

प हाता जाता महा भावि ऋषिद्वी सीददुपामुपस्थ ।
दधिया धायि स त वयांसि यन्ता वसूनि विधत्त तनूपाः ॥ १ ॥

1. Pra hotā jātō mahān nabhovinnṛṣadvā sīda-dapāmupasthe. Dadhīryo dhāyi sa te vayāmsi yantā vasūni vidhate tanūpāḥ.

High priest of the cosmic yajna of creation, universally self-manifested, great and glorious, pervasive in space and things even beyond the senses, abiding in the heart and soul of humanity, Agni rolls at the heart of the dynamics of existence. O man, the omnipresent light of the universe which holds, controls and sustains everything is celebrated in the Vedas and worshipped at heart. It is Agni, sustainer of the individual body and the cosmic form, ruler and controller of everything, that bears and brings you all food and energies and blesses you with all wealth, honour and excellence of life.

2. Imaṁ vidhanto apāṁ sadhasthe paśuṁ na naṣṭaṁ padairanu gman. Guhā catantamuśijo namobhiricchanto dhīrā bhṛgavo'vindan.

Just as people search for a lost animal by following the foot prints of the animal in the forest, similarly seekers and aspirants of this Agni, omnipresent in the dynamics of existence, try to search for it by the overt as well as covert marks of its presence in the wide world of nature, and the deeply dedicated brilliant sages, loving and patient in their persistent search with yajnic homage, self-dedication and surrender, find it vibrating in the cave of the heart and soul.

इ॒मं त्रि॒ता भू॒य॑वि॒न्ददि॒च्छन्व॑भू॒वसा॑ मू॒धन्य॑घ्न्या॒याः ।

3. Imaṁ trita bhūryavindadicchan vaibhūvaso mūrdhanyaghnyāyāḥ. Sa śevr̥dho jāta ā harmyeṣu nābhiryuvā bhavati rocanasya.

The ardent lover of divinity, Trita, the man having got over threefold suffering of body, mind and soul through knowledge, good work and meditation, finds this Agni presence on top of inviolable nature and earthly life in the absolute state of consciousness. Thus realised in spiritual manifestation, Agni, harbinger and augments of spiritual felicity, becomes the centre hold of happy homes and a youthful presence of divinity in the mind of enlightened souls.

Earnest men of love, passion and faith among people hold at heart and with homage serve Agni, the power that is joyous, yajnic creator giver and organiser, foremost leader directly realised, worthy of love and reverence, leading power of creative programmes of love and non-violence, cleanser and purifier, harbinger of holy materials for social development. They hold Agni at heart and create and exalt it as the prime power among the people.

5. Pra bhūrjayantaṁ mahāṁ vipodhāṁ mūrā amūraṁ purāṁ darmāṇam. Nayanto garbhaṁ vanāṁ dhiyaṁ dhurhiriśmaśruṁ nārvāṇaṁ dhanarcam.

Earnest men of love, passion and faith, but, being human, limited in intelligence, hold at heart, worship and serve Agni pervading and dominating the world of existence, great, sustainer of the vibrant wise, all knowing and wise, breaker of the strongholds of negativity and darkness, the original seed and source of life, beatific, supremely intelligent, golden flamed and divinely adorable. Men hold at heart, worship and serve this omnipresent Agni being more dynamic than the dynamics of nature, the instant presence that it is.

6. Ni pastyāsu tritaḥ stabhūyan parivīto yonau sīdantaḥ. Ataḥ saṁgrbhyā viśāṁ damūnā vidharmaṇāyantrairīyate nṛn.

Agni, the light of three worlds, all supportive and sustaining, enveloped in light and flames, sits in the vedi in the homes as in the midst of regions of the universe, and from there, having received the homage of yajnic oblations, the generous Agni reaches the leading divinities of nature and humanity in various ways according to different laws of nature.

The eternal, adorable and all saving flames and fragrances of the powerful fires of this Agni are purifying, sanctifying, invigorating, instantly effective, pervasive in forests, clouds and waters, and they are vibrant and blissful as the soothing pleasures of soma.

Agni, light of omniscience, vests humanity with the wisdom, will and power of action, and also with the awareness of the laws of the expansive universe, by the flames of its powerful Vedic voice of revelations. And the people hold, adore, serve and follow that Agni, the most lovable and adorable, purifying, sanctifying and joyous power which is the high priest of the dynamics of existence, the receiver and a thousandfold giver.

That Agni, self-refulgent spirit and light of the universe, is the universal presence which the heaven and earth manifest with their vastness, which the blazing lights of the stars reveal with their splendour, Agni, the first and supreme power and presence, lovable and adorable, which the mighty winds and other bright divinities of nature reveal for thinking humanity.

Agni, self-refulgent light and spirit of the universe whom the divine forces of nature and ardent lovers and faithful people adore and worship as loving and friendly bearer of the gifts of yajna, we pray, bring the food, energy and health and light of life for the dedicated celebrant on the highways of existence. May the lover of divinity be blest with eternal fame, honour and excellence.

I am the eternal lord, master protector and promoter of the world of existence. I create, raise, protect and rule over the eternal wealths of the world. Living beings call on me as father, mother and saviour guardian. I provide food and sustenance for generous humanity dedicated to service and yajna.

I create the streams of vapour over the cloud and waves of energy for the three realms of earth, heaven and the middle regions. I collect and disburse wealth of materials and energies from and for the dynamics of evolution, and I give protection and perception of sense and response to the foetus in the mother's womb.

For me, Tvashta, formative faculty of divine nature, creates the thunderbolt of steel. For me, the divinities of nature and humanity perform their tasks and surrender them unto me. My blazing power is insurmountable like the sun's, and all actions past, present and future in nature or humanity must come to me for effectual fulfilment.

I destroy those challengers who, panting for battle in two's, raise their thunder weapon and challenge the mighty ruling power of the system. I throw them off without the weapon, without bending in compromise either, but with a determined mind and the warning word of the inevitable.

I am one, the absolute without a second. I am destroyer of the enemies who do not recognise me, Indra, centrality of the system. Those who challenge me, I destroy, whether it is one or two or three. I crush them all as sheaves of corn on the threshing floor. It is a pity they revile me.

For the protection and advancement of the unostentatious people of piety and creativity among humanity, I hold and maintain persons and powers that are hospitable, producers of food, and destroyers of sin, evil and violence, and I protect them like the very nourishment of society, since I am known and celebrated for what I am and what I do : eliminate the forces counter

My celebrant is worthy of love and honour, because he is for sustenance, enjoyment and procurement of knowledge for society. He is loved and honoured for two reasons: for friendship and for enlightenment. And when I have given him the light in abundance in the battles of life, only then I raise him to the position of praise and celebration.

10. Pra nemasmin dadṛṣe somo antargopā nemamā-virasthā kṛnoti. Sa tigmaśṛṅgaṁ vṛṣabhaṁ yuyutsan druḥastasthau bahule baddho antaḥ.

Among some people, Indra manifests as soma, divine spirit of joy, beauty and peace, the protector within. Among others, the lord manifests as a bolt from the blue, the sudden fall of thunder. Fighting the sharply armed, strongly determined forces, he stands and subdues like a fury. Thus does Indra manifest, abiding within, among all.

11. Ādityānām vasūnām rudriyāṇām devo devānām na mināmi dhāma. Te mā bhadrāya śavase tata-kṣur-aparājitam-astrtam-aṣālham.

Light of lights, generous and potent, I never violate, frustrate or transgress the identity, function and power of the Adityas, zodiacs of the sun, of Vasus, natural spheres of life sustenance, or Rudras, forces such as winds and pranic energies. Nor do I ever disturb the aditya, rudra and vasu scholars of knowledge and divine service. Let them all realise me and manifest my spirit and presence for their good and fulfilment of their prowess: me, Indra, undaunted, unviolated and unopposed.

अ॒हं दां॑ गृ॒णत॑ पू॒र्व्यं वस्व॑हं ब॒र्हो कृ॑णव॒न् मह्यं॑ व॒धन॑म । अ॒हं भु॑व॒न् यज॑मानस्य चादि॒ता य॑ज्वनः सा॒ वि॒श्वस्मि॑न्भर॑ ॥ १ ॥

1. Aham dām grṇate pūrvyam vasvahanam brahma kṛṇavanam mahyam vardhanam. Aham bhuvan yajamānasya coditā'yajvanah sākṣi viśvasmin bhare.

I give to the celebrant of divinity eternal peace and freedom of the soul, the highest value of life across the world of existence. I create the eternal song of existence for self celebration in joyous exaltation. I am the giver of inspiration to the yajnic performer and partner in cosmic evolution, and I subdue the negationist and uncreative soul in the entire struggle of life for evolution.

2. Mām dhurindram nāma devatā divasca gmaścā-pām ca jantavaḥ. Aham harī vṛṣaṇā vivratā raghū aham vajram śavase dhṛṣṇvā dade.

Living beings of land, waters, heaven and all spaces and all that move, they accept and adore me in faith as Indra, the omnipotent sustainer. I keep the twofold dynamic forces of high velocity constantly on the move in the cosmic process of evolution, and I, power supreme, wield the thunderbolt as my sceptre of omnipotent justice and dispensation.

3. Ahamatkaṁ kavaye śiśnatham hathairaham kutsamāvamābhirūtibhiḥ. Aham śuṣṇasya śnathitā vadharyamaṁ na yo rara āryam nāma dasyave.

I pierce and dispel the darkness for the visionary seer, giving him the break-through and the light with radiations of illuminations and revelation. I protect the sage with these modes of protection and advancement. I, dispeller and destroyer of drought and want, wield the thunderbolt for the negationist and the destroyer whom I do not recognise by the name of a creative positivist.

अहं पितव वतसूरभिष्टय तुगं कुत्साय स्मदिभं च रन्धयम ।

4. Ahaṁ piteva vetasūrñrabhiṣṭaye tugraṁ kutsāya smadibhaṁ ca randhayam. Ahaṁ bhuvam yajamānasya rājani pra yadbhare tujaye na priyā-dhrṣe.

Like a father for the good of the man of creative generosity, I subdue and throw out the obstinate and persistent forces of bruteness, violence and terror. I am for the advancement of the man of yajnic creativity and enlightenment, and I have nothing good for the violent and the bully.

अहं रन्ध्रयं मृगयं श्रुतवण् यन्माजिहीत वयुना चनानुषक ।

5. Ahaṁ randhayam mṛgayam śrutarvaṇe yanmā-jihīta vayunā canānuṣak. Ahaṁ veśam namramāyave'karamahaṁ savyāya paḍgrbhimaran-dhayam.

I subdue the roaming mind of the learned man so that it matures and, always by thought and action, it abides in me without going astray. I condition the inner spirit of man to humility, love and kindness, and I remove the obstacles from the path of the man on way to progress.

अहं स या नववास्त्वं बृहदथं सं वृत्रव दासं वृत्रहारुजम् ।

6. Ahaṁ sa yo navavāstvam bṛhadratham saṁ vṛtreva dāsaṁ vṛtrahārujam. Yadvardhayantaṁ prathayantamānuṣagdūre pāre rajaso rocanākaram.

I am that who, like breaking of the cloud, destroy the evil tendencies of body and mind extending to new areas like epidemics expanding and covering large territories, and thus I am that who throw away for all time all that sin and darkness which would otherwise go on rising and expanding in effect and intensity.

I manifest all round in glory as my presence is conducted by fast radiations of sun rays, and when the celebrant of soma yajna for peace and joy calls on me for fulfilment of his essential nature in divinity, immediately I strike off all impediments by strokes of the thunderbolt as the negativities deserve.

śavasā turvaśaṁ yadum. Ahaṁ nyanyaṁ sahasā

I am the destroyer of sevenfold darkness (of passion, anger, greed, infatuation, pride, fear and sorrow) by sevenfold light of divinity. I am the bond between humanity and divinity, stronger than strength itself. The aspiring man of action and effort, I raise to heights of honour and fame. Others, I fortify with courage and patience, and the rising ones, I cause to rise higher by nine and ninety times for a full life of hundred years.

9. Ahaṁ sapta sravato dhārayaṁ vṛṣā dravitnvaḥ prthivyāṁ sīrā adhi. Ahamarṇāṁsi vi tirāmi sukraturyudhā vidam manave gātumiṣṭaye.

Infinite, generous and omnipotent, I cause the seven streams to flow and the seven seas to roll on earth, and I cause the seven streams of blood and nerve to flow in the body. Master of holy action, I provide for the river's flow, and with the dynamics of nature and society, I provide the paths of progress for humanity on way to fulfilment.

I create and cause to flow that bright fluid in these seas and streams of earth and the body which no bright power of nature or humanity, not even Tvashta, the divine artist, could have created and made to flow: the lovely milk in cow's udders, honey sweet waters in the rivers, and the sparkling life blood in the body's veins, the essence of vitality.

11. Evā devāñ indro vivye nṛṇ pra cyautnena maghavā satyarādhāḥ. Viśvet tā te harivaḥ śacīvo'bhi turāsaḥ svayaśo grṇanti.

Thus does Indra, lord of glory and protector of Truth and Law, impel and inspire natural and human forces of generous and positive action with energy. As such, all men of action and excellence over the world exalt and adore you, O lord of radiant presence, omnipotence and innate excellence, and they feel blest in themselves.

He, Indra, Lord of heaven and earth, leader and master of humanity with love and friendship for all, loved and adored universally, is worthy of worship for all men like me. O lord omnipotent protector and promoter of the good and true, you rejoice, exhilarate and energise us in all top situations worth challenging in the world, in all battles of the brave worth winning, and in all states of darkness and showers of the clouds.

Indra, you are great by virtue of your infinity and eternity of Being and the eternal Word of Being and Divinity. In all holy works of creativity in the world, you are adorable. In all struggles of existence, you are the power and inspiration of humanity. And you are the first, highest and the most sacred chant of human consciousness of divinity, O lord all watching and inspiring for the world.

Indra, you are great, pray protect and promote the lovers and performers of the divine yajna of faith and creativity. People know the grandeur and greatness of your power of protection. Unaging and imperishable you are, pray promote life and all. Indeed, ultimately, it is you who effect all these acts of creation and progress with strength and speed.

Lord of vibrant generosity, the celebrants of divinity in song together in this assembly wait for your gift of the highest wealth of wealths. May they, with their heart and soul and by the path of rectitude, abide in the peace and joy of the soma gift of your grace of spiritual food they pray for.

Mandala 10/Sukta 51

Agni (1, 3, 5, 7, 9), Devah (2, 4, 6, 8) Devata, Devah (1, 3, 5, 7, 9), Agni Sauchika (2, 4, 6, 8) Rshis

This sukta is a dialogue between the Devas such as Mitra, Varuna, pranic energies such as prana and udana and Agni. Agni here means many forms of energy of the world of existence: earthly agni that is fire, middle regions' agni that is electricity, and self-refulgent agni that is light of the solar region. In Vedic literature, it means energy not only in these forms but also in many more forms, that is, the vital heat of life, the passion for living, the spirit of life, the body heat, the vital virility, life itself, the soul and the cosmic spirit. This wide context is relevant to the present sukta.

1. Mahat tadulbariṁ sathaviram tadāsīdyenāviṣ-ṭitaḥ praviveśithāpaḥ. Viśvā apaśyadbahudhā te agne jātavedastanvo deva ekaḥ.

O Agni, Jataveda, cognizable in existential forms, great is that form, that cover, that medium, fine and firm, clothed in which you enter upon the course of life in existence. There is one Divinity which watches all your body forms existent in nature in various media in the world.

का मां ददश कतमः स द्वा या मं तन्वा बहुधा पश्यपश्यत ।

2. Ko mā dadarṣa katamaḥ sa devo yo me tanvo bahudhā paryapaśyat. Kvāha mitrāvaruṇā kṣiyantyagnerviśvāḥ samidho devayānīḥ.

O Devas, who saw me? Which is that Divine who sees me in my body forms in so many ways? O Mitra and Varuna, O sun and moon, O vital energies of prana and udana, say where abide all my bright and vital waves and flames of fire and energy in the world which light up the paths of divinity and lead humanity there?

3. *Aicchāma tvā bahudhā jātavedaḥ praviṣṭa-magne

O Jataveda, manifest in all that is born and come into existence, Agni, we seek for you, co-existent as you are with all waters, motions, plants and trees. Yama, the One Divine who directs all things in existence knows you and watches you, O mysterious presence of infinite forms, shining, illuminating, energising and vitalising life from the depth of ten orders of existence: ten sense organs, ten pranas, and ten physical abodes, i.e., earth, skies, heavens of light, the fire, electric energy, the sun, waters, plants, trees and the living bodies.

4. *Hotrādahaṁ varuṇa bibhyadāyaṁ nedeva mā

O Varuna, lord of judgement and choice, soothing spirit of waters cool in peace, afraid of self-sacrifice to the senses and to the fiery divinities, I, the soul, come to you from the burning fire. Here neither the senses nor the divinities would consume me. As such my body and body organs with all waves and vibrations are completely merged in you. Here I know no such purpose as there in the fire.

5. Ehi manurdevayuryajñakāmo'raṁkrtyā tamasi kṣeṣyagne. Sugān pathaḥ kṛṇuhi devayānān vaha havyāni sumanasyamānaḥ.

Agni, come, you are the soul, director of your divine senses and mind, thoughtful and intelligent, lover of divinities, dedicated to yajna. But you are still steeped in darkness. Come, get ready for yajnic performer. Prepare the paths of divinity for yourself and, happy at heart, carry the holy fragrances to the divinities by yajna.

6. Agneḥ pūrve bhrātaro arthametam rathīv-ādhvānamanvāvarīvuḥ. Tasmādbhīyā varuṇa dūramāyam gauro na kṣepnoravije jyāyāḥ.

O Varuna, earlier my brothers created the same paths for themselves as a charioteer selects the road for himself, but they went off. For that reason I have come this far to you here, and I tremble with fear as a deer shakes with fear from the twang of the bow string of a hunter.

7. Kurmasta āyurajaram yadagne yathā yukto jātavedo na riṣyāḥ. Athā vahāsi sumanasya-māno bhāgam devebhyo haviṣaḥ sujāta.

O Agni, O soul, known as born in the body, we create and ordain an unaging life for you so that joined to that life divine you come to no hurt, nor would you die, and then, happy at heart, happily born, you carry to the divinities that share of the yajnic homage which is meant to be dedicated to them.

O Devas, give me the prayaja, food part of yajnic offerings, and the anuyaja, supplementary part of food, and that part of the offerings which gives energy, light and vision, the lustre of liquid energy, vitality from herbs and plants, long age of health for the soul and freedom from death. O Devas, brilliant, illuminative generous givers. Give me only that part which is mine.

9. Tava prayājā anuyājāśca kevala ūrjasvanto haviṣaḥ santu bhāgāḥ. Tavāgne yajño'yamastu sarvas-tubhyaṁ namantāṁ pradiśaś-catasraḥ.

O Agni, O Soul, yours is the prayaja part of yajnic food, yours is anuyaja, the supplementary part. Let all this be for experience and for the realisation of your essential spiritual nature. And let your share be full of energy and light for you. Indeed all this yajna of your individual existence is for you, the soul, as the cosmic yajna of existence is for the cosmic soul. Let it not go counter to the soul. Let all four directions of space and all that therein is be for experience and self-realisation. (Let it be subservient to the soul, let not the soul be lost in the experience of it.)

O Vishvedevas, generous brilliancies of nature and humanity, instruct me that, selected, elected, appointed and seated in my position as organiser and high priest of the yajnic social system, how I should think and act and how and in what way or ways I shall carry out my responsibilities and fulfil my obligations to you in the social system to offer you your share of sustenance.

2. Aham hotā nysīdam yajīyān viśve devā maruto mā junanti. Aharaharaśvinādhvaryavam vām brahmā samidbhavati sāhutirvām.

I am the hota, performer of yajna, calling to the fire and offering oblations into the vedi, seated on the vedi one in unison with all people. All divinities of the world and Maruts, vibrant youth, like winds of storm, inspire and energise me. O Ashvins, complementary powers of nature and humanity, men and women, teachers and preachers in the socio-economic system, yours is the conduct of the organisation of yajna day by day at and from the very rise of dawn. Let the Vedic scholar, bright and cool like the moon be the Brahma, presiding high priest, and act like ignition and illumination of the fire, and let that light and fire be the concluding oblation into the fire.

3. Ayam yo hotā kiru sa yamasya kamapyūhe yat samañjanti devāḥ. Aharaharjāyate māsīmāsyathā devā dadhire havyavāham.

Who is this hota, yajnic performer, who carries out any and all the powers and obligations of Yama, order and controller of the whole system, whom all the devas, brilliancies of the system, anoint, prepare and honour? He rises higher and higher day by day, month by month, and all the devas, divine powers, uphold and support him while he conducts the vital economy of the yajnic system.

Me the devas, divines, honour and uphold while I conduct the powers and obligations of the yajnic system for them and face the many difficult and most laborious situations even in the minutest details with perfect discipline. Hence they all say: This Agni, the light and fire of the system, well aware of life and its conduct, accomplishes the yajna, threefold, five ways and seven stages.

O devas, as I do honour and service to you in the best manner, as I pray for your gifts of immortality, virility and vitality, and as I hold in hands the ruler's thunderbolt of justice and dispensation, this way does man win all the battles of life.

Three thousand three hundred thirty and nine are the divinities that serve this yajaka, Agni, shower it with brightest ghr̥ta and cover the vedi with holy grass, and they seat the high priest over the yajna of the cosmos, nature, society, and also the individual living soul.

1. Yamaicchāma manasā so'yamāgādyajñasya vidvān paruṣaścikityān. Sa no yakṣad devatātā yajīyān ni hi ṣatsadantaraḥ pūrvo asmat.

He whom we Devas loved and sought with heart and mind is come. He knows the integrated process of yajnic union, knows all and every part of it. May this unifying principle of life, most venerable, join us here in the yajna of life, infact it was abiding here itself within before we joined. (The Devas are the divine principles and faculties of life, and Agni whom the Devas love and seek is the life itself, the soul, which integrates the faculties with the identity that the soul acquires with the body and the faculties, all united in one organismic individual form. Reference may be made to Aitareya Upanishad, ch. 1, 2 and Atharva-Veda, 5, 30, 17).

2. Arādhī hotā niṣadā yajīyānabhi prayāmsi sudhitāni hi khyat. Yajāmahai yajñīyān hanta devāñ īlāmahā īdyāñ ājyena.

The high priest, Agni, lovable and adorable, is seated on the vedi. Honoured and adored, he also observes with interest and favour the sacred offerings placed with faith and reverence on the vedi in homage. We adore and worship all the divine powers that deserve and command our worship and adoration. They deserve service and we adore and worship them with the homage of ghrta and fragrant havi.

3. Sādhvīmakardevavītiṁ no adya yajñasya jihvā-mavidāma guhyām. Sa āyurāgāt surabhir-vasāno bhadrāmakardevahūtiṁ no adya.

May Agni beatify our yajnic service to the assemblage of divinities on the vedi today so that we may have their blessings and hear the secret voice of divinity by the flames. May the life spirit, harbinger of health and happiness, come today bearing the fragrance of life and render our divine worship full of blessings and all round well being.

4. Tadadya vācaḥ prathamam masīya yenāsurāñ abhi devā asāma. Urjāda uta yajñiyāsaḥ pañca janā mama hotraṁ juṣadhvam.

I, Agni, presiding power of corporate life by yajna, now think and meditate upon that first, highest and eternal Word, AUM, by which we, yajnic souls dedicated to divinity, may overcome the evil adversaries.

Let all those who live on energy foods and join together for noble creative works in the spirit of yajna, and the people of all the five classes and communities listen and follow my call to action.

5. Pañca janā mama hotraṁ juṣantām gojātā uta ye yajñiyāsaḥ. Pṛhivī naḥ pāṛthivāt pātvaṁha-so'ntarikṣaṁ divyāt pātvasmān.

Let the people of all five classes and communities listen to my call to action, children of the earth, lovers of the common voice of divinity, and all of those dedicated to united action for creativity and production, and may mother earth protect us against sin and evil earthly, and may the skies protect us against all dangers from the space above.

6. Tantum tanvan rajaso bhānumanvihi jyotiṣ-mataḥ patho rakṣa dhiyā kṛtān. Anulvaṇaṁ vayata joguvāmapo manurbhava janayā daivyaṁ janam.

Spinning and expanding the thread of life divine, pursue the light of the sun across the skies and space. Protect and follow the paths of light created by the wise with thought and vision. Weave the web of the sinless spontaneous men of word and vision in action. Be Man, build up a community of enlightened people, human and close to divinity.

7. *Akṣānaho nahyatanota somyā iṣkṛṇudhvaṁ raśanā ota piṁśata. Aṣṭābandhuram vahatā-bhito

Lovers of Soma, peace and joy, bind the traces, harness the horses, tighten the reins and refine them to perfection, move on the eightfold chariot all round, the chariot by which the divines bring in the dearest treasures of life. (This mantra is a metaphor of the eightfold path of yoga from the control of senses and mind to the attainment of samadhi which marks the communion of the soul with divinity.)

The rocky river of life flows on in flood. Hold on fast together, friends, rise and swim to the shore. let us jettison all that is inauspicious here. Let us swim and cross over to attain the trophies of victory.

The cosmic maker Tvashta, supreme expert of the artists of the world, knows the mysteries of karma and the secrets of fortune or misfortune, and most beneficent as he is, he carves and fills the most delicious cups of joy for the holies. The lord of cosmic wisdom also makes and sharpens the golden axe of knowledge, justice and dispensation whereby the man who attains to this prize knowledge cuts at the root of his karmic tree and drinks the nectar of universal sweets of freedom from the divine cup.

O men of vision and seekers of divinity, sharpen and refine your golden axe of knowledge with the voice of Brahmanaspati, lord omniscient, by which you prepare for the attainment of immortality. O scholars of knowledge, carve out the mystical paths to divinity, work out the progressive stages by which the seekers of divinity attained to the nectar of life eternal.

11. Garbhe yoṣāmadadhurvatsamāśanyapīcyena manasota jihvayā. Sa viśvāhā sumanā yogyā abhi siṣāsanirvanate kāra ijjitim.

The devas, seekers of divinity, hold the Word of omniscience like the sacred vedi fire in the depth of their mind alongwith the reality of existence signified by the Word, and they hold it with the sense of clarity of expression by their tongue controlled and disciplined in the mouth. Indeed such a man of divine word and action in control is always happy at heart and all round efficient, and only such a man wins the victory prizes of life.

Indra Devata, Brhaduktha Vamadevya Rshi

1. Tāṁ su te kīrtiṁ maghavan mahitvā yat tvā bhīte rodasī ahvayetām. Prāvo devāṅ ātiro dāsamojaḥ prajāyai tvasyai yadaśikṣa indra.

Indra, lord of glory, I celebrate that renown of yours by the greatness of which the earth and heaven, both struck with awe, call upon you and glorify, by which you protect the holy and generous brilliancies, subdue the unholy negatives and destroyers, and by which you award the strength and lustre of life to your people.

यदचरस्तन्वा वावृधाना बलानीन्द पबुवाणा जर्नषु ।

2. Yadacarastanvā vāvṛdhāno balānīndra prabruvāṇo janeṣu. Māyet sā te yāni yuddhānyāhur-nāḍya śatruṃ nanu purā vivitse.

As you pervade among people, self-exalting by the power of your presence, and thereby manifest your own glory, and as poets and sages sing and celebrate your battles against evils within and without in the world of humanity, all this glory is but your own essential divine potential, and that is why you have had no enemy ever before nor do you have any even now.

3. Ka u nu te mahimanaḥ samasyā'smat pūrva ṛṣayo'ntamāpuḥ. Yanmātaram ca pitaram ca sākam-ajanayathās-tanvaḥ svāyāḥ.

Which ancient sages and seers before us could ever comprehend the bounds of this absolute glory of yours since you brought into existence both earth and heaven together as mother and father of life from your own material power of Prakṛti?

4. Catvāri te asuryāṇi nāmā'dābhyāni mahiṣasya santi. Tvamaṅga tāni viśvāni vitse yebhiḥ karmāṇi maghavañcakartha.

O great and glorious Indra, four are your states of being, four the modifications of existential manifestation, all of them living and imperishable, which all, O dear lord of life of the universe, you know and by which, O lord of cosmic majesty, you perform the acts of universal life in existence.

(The four states of cosmic being are waking, dreaming, sleeping and the transcendent Absolute. Four states of existence are generation, sustenance, withdrawal and the trans-existential state. Four Prakrti modifications are Prakrti, mahat, ahankara and the specifics of material and mental forms of physical, biological and psychic stages of evolution which are then absorbed into the Absolute state at the end.) Reference may also be made to 'Om' which is the divine Word, the name of divinity consisting of four matras A, U, and M and the fourth is silent and absolute. 'A' refers to the waking, that is, the objective state of existence which is the subject of science. 'U' refers to the imaginative and subjective state which is the subject of psychology and meditation upto the stage of 'vitark' and 'vichara' samadhi, and 'M' refers to the sleep state which is realisable in 'Ananda' state of Samadhi. All these are covered under the Samprajnata Samadhi. The fourth, transcendent state, is realisable in Asamprajnata samadhi which is Transcendental Meditation).

5. Tvaṃ viśvā dadhiṣe kevalāni yānyāviryā ca guhā vasūni. Kāmaminme maghavan mā vi tāri-stvamājñātā tvamindrāsi dātā.

You bear and absolutely comprehend all the treasures of existence, manifest as well as unmanifest. Pray do not frustrate my longing for fulfilment. Indra, you are the knower, the ordainer and the giver.

6. Yo adadhājjyotiṣi jyotirantaryo asṛjanmadhunā saṁ madhūni. Adha priyaṁ śūṣamindrāya manma brahmakṛto brhadukthādavāci.

In honour of Indra who vests light in the stars and creates honey sweets of life with the honey sweets of divinity, and to that Indra, poets of divinity sing with love and faith songs of thought, beauty and power from their articulate meditation on the Infinite.

1. Dūre tannāma guhyaṁ parācairyat tvā bhīte ahvayetāṁ vayodhai. Udstabhñāḥ prthivīm dyāmabhīke bhrātuḥ putrān maghavan titviṣāṇaḥ.

Far too distant and far too deep is that name and lustre, O lord of glory, Indra, for indifferent people to understand and appreciate which the heaven and earth struck with awe call upon for sustenance. O lord of glory, you sustain both heaven and earth in space in complementarity with each other and illuminate the rays of the sun and lightning of the cloud, both brotherly providers of sustenance to life.

2. Mahat tannāma guhyam puruspr̥g yena bhūtāṃ janayo yena bhavyam. Pratnaṃ jātāṃ jyotirya-dasya priyaṃ priyāḥ samaviśanta pañca.

Great and deeply glorious is that name and divine presence universally loved and adored by which you create all that has been and that which would be. That light and glory of this Indra is eternal, ever existent and dear to all into which all the five people that love him and are dear to him and all the five elements of nature retire (when the cycle of existence has run a full circle).

3. Ā rodasī apr̥ṇādota madhyaṃ pañca devāñ ṛtuśaḥ saptasapta. Catustrimśatā purudhā vi caṣṭe sarūpeṇa jyotiṣā vivratena.

That glorious presence pervades and fills heaven and earth and the middle regions, fills and energises the five divine elements, five senses, five pranas, seven regions of the universe, seven rays of light, forty nine orders of the winds, all according to the seasons of time, and it watches and illuminates thirty four orders of divine powers of eight Vasus, eleven Rudras, twelve Adityas, nature's nourishment by Prajapati, nature's energy of fire, electricity and light, and Vak, the articulation of consciousness, all in many ways, with different functions and effects.

4. Yaduṣa aucchaḥ prathamā vibhānāmajanayo yena puṣṭasya puṣṭam. Yat te jāmitvamavaram parasyā mahanmahatyā asuratvamekam.

O Dawn, when you arise and shine first of the lights of the lord, Indra, and bring in fresh life for the world generated and nourished by Indra, then your motherly love for humanity is the one unique and great life giving blessing of the supreme spirit of divinity for humanity on this earth.

विधुं ददाणं समनं बहूनां युवानं सन्तं पलिता जगार ।

5. Vidhum dadraṇam samane bahūnām yuvānaṁ santaṁ palito jagāra. Devasya paśya kāvyaṁ mahitvā'dyā mamāra sa hyaḥ samāna.

Old age consumes even the youthful man of versatile action whom many fear to face in battle and flee. Look at the inscrutable power of the lord divine by whose inevitable law of mutability the man who was living yesterday is dead today, and the one that dies today would be living to tomorrow.

6. *Śākmanā śāko aruṇaḥ suparṇa ā yo mahāḥ śūraḥ

He is Almighty by might supreme, blazing lustrous, high flying and all caring, great, brave, eternally unbound by space. What he knows is truth inviolable, never infructuous, he is universal haven, lovable, all conqueror, all giving.

With these potent and positive waves of natural energy, the virile Indra, wielder of thunderbolt, assumes those powers for breaking the clouds of darkness and want by which he brings about the showers of rain for the world of existence, which powers too for bringing about the showers of positive action and creativity arise from the grandeur of the omnipotent original doer of cosmic karma.

Originally causing and bringing about the dynamics of cosmic karma, the Lord Almighty of the world, destroyer of negatives and despicables, all-knowing cosmic mind, instant and total victor, protector of soma, augments of light, almighty, blows the conch and blows away the forces of nescience.

1. Idaṁ ta ekaṁ para ū ta ekaṁ trīyena jyotiṣā saṁ viśasva. Saṁveśane tanvaścāruredhi priyo devānām parame janitre.

This (body, this life time) is one mode of your existence. The one next (mind and karma) is another such. By the third (spiritual and meditative life) join you with life eternal. On merging of the soul, happy and darling of the divinities, be free in the presence of the supreme creator of the world.

2. Tanūṣṭe vājin tanvaṁ nayanā vāmamasm-abhyam dhātu śarma tubhyam. Ahruto maho dharuṇāya devān divīva jyotiḥ svamā mimīyāḥ.

O dynamic soul, may your life here in the body carrying your self bring precious wealth of joy to us and peace and comfort to you. Living an honest natural life, great in your own self, in service of the sustainer of divinities, create your own light and bliss for yourself, pursuing the light of the heart within as the light of heaven above.

3. Vājyasi vājinenā suvenīḥ suvitaḥ stomaṁ suvito divaṁ gāḥ. Suvito dharma prathamānu satyā suvito devāntsu vito'nu patma.

You are the dynamic soul by virtue of your innate power and potential. Realising your love of life, living in peace and prosperity, rise to the heights of your own self-glory, happy and pious, and reach the heights of heaven. Happy in rectitude, follow the first, original and eternal Dharma. Happy and self-realised, rise to the life divine to the joy of the divines, and, a blessed soul, attain to the Spirit Eternal of the universe.

4. Mahinma eṣāṁ pitaraścaneṣire devā deveṣva-dadhurapi kratum. Samavivyacuruta yānya-tviṣu-raiṣāṁ tanūṣu ni viviṣuḥ punaḥ.

The forefathers lived in the grand manner of these divinities such as light of the sun and moon to their own will and desire as if commanding the bliss and beauty of these. Divine were they who raised their acts and worship to the presence and piety of divinities. They join those lights of divinity which shine and then again they come back to join life in their existential bodies.

These souls by their own karmic potential roam around across all regions of the world, freely ranging over boundless worlds of high order, sajourning in various body forms across the spaces begetting and extending the creativity of life in various ways according to the law of karma.

6. *Dvidhā sūnavo'suraṁ svarvidam-āsthāpayanta

Children of divinity, creative and procreative souls, by their third, familial, karma, vesting the vital and spiritual life principle further along with the procreative vitality, establish their own progeny in the next generation which is the extension of the thread of life in natural piety.

Just as you cross the flood by boat and, with noble acts of knowledge, action and piety, cross all difficult problems of earthly life, so does the man of praise-worthy knowledge, action and piety cross over the problems of life and death and leaves his own legacy, physical, intellectual and spiritual, by his own grand potential vesting it in the next and further generations to survive and continue.

Indra, O Lord Almighty, let us, lovers of soma peace, enlightenment and life's joy never deviate from the path of rectitude and never forsake the creative way of yajnic living. Let no want, malignity, adversity and illiberality dwell among us.

2. Yo yajñasya prasādhanas-tantur-deveṣvātataḥ. Tamāhutaṁ naśīmahī.

There is a thread of unity, love, cooperation and active continuity in the web of life in nature's divinities, and a similar bond of unity in an enlightened community which alone keeps it together and leads it on way to corporate progress. It is created and maintained with relentless self sacrifice in the spirit of yajna. Let us attain and maintain that very bond of yajnic unity for our progress and prosperity. (That is the bond of Agni, vital heat and love.)

Let new life and new initiative rise and advance higher and higher as the dynamic master of the chariot constantly moves forward and as the progressive pioneer achieves his goal and moves higher and higher. Let want and adversity fall off and depart far and farther.

2. Sāman nu rāye nidhimannvannam karāmahe su purudha śravāmsi. Tā no viśvāni jaritā mamattu parātaram su nurrtirjihītām.

Let us create peace for wealth and food in abundance with security and many other forms of life's values and excellence so that the poet, the singer and the senior too may enjoy life without worry and want, and adversity, fear and insecurity may fall off and depart far and farther for good.

As the sun overwhelms the earth, as thunder overwhelms the clouds and clouds overwhelm the fields with rain, so may we overwhelm the negativities and enemies of life and society with our natural and essential strength, virtues and achievements so that the poet, the singer, the senior, the assessor and the admirer may know, and want and adversity, fear and insecurity may fall off and disappear for good.

O mother harbinger of pranic energy, bless us with the strength of mind and morale, and for our good living give us good health and long full age. Mature and establish us in the light of the sun and the vision of divinity, and with the lustre and energy of nature raise our health and age to the heights of perfection.

6. Asunīte punarasmāsu cakṣuḥ punaḥ prāṇamiha no dhehi bhogam. Jyok paśyema sūryamuccarantam-anumate mṛlayā naḥ svasti.

O divine Spirit of life and energy, bless us constantly with the faculty of vision, constant pranic energy too, and vest in here in the body the capacity and faculties to live and enjoy the sweets of life. O motherly spirit of love and acceptance, may we see the rising sun for a long time. Be pleased and kind and bless us with happiness and well being all through in life.

May the earth give us pranic energy of life again. So may the divine sun and the generous sky give us life again. May Soma, divine spirit of joy and peace, give us the body again, and may Pusha, divine spirit of nourishment, place us on the journey of life again and give us happiness and well being.

May the mighty heaven and earth, mother spirits of truth and waters of life bring peace and joy for the holy child and loving brother of living beings. May the sun and earth, father and mother, make up whatever be wanting in body, mind and spirit and the child's senses of values. May they strengthen the child against sin and evil and forgive him for his pitfalls in the struggle for self-realisation. O man, may nothing whatever, sin or sorrow, hurt and violate you ever against your self-identity.

In two's (as the Ashvins or prana and apana) and in three's (as Ila, Sarasvati and bharati, or as light, electric energy and water) the sanatives for life and health flow from the heavenly region of light and one by one be active on earth. May the sun and earth make up what is wanting in body, mind and spirit. May they strengthen humanity against sin and evil and forgive us in the struggle for self-realisation. O man, may nothing whatever, sin or sorrow, hurt and violate you ever against your self-identity.

O Lord omnipotent, Indra, O Sun, inspire and energise the pranic force of the body, inspire and energise the vitality of passion, will and understanding of the body. May the sun and earth make up what is wanting in body, mind and spirit. May they strengthen humanity against sin and evil and forgive us where we fail in our struggle. O man, may nothing whatever, sin or sorrow, hurt and violate you in your struggle for perfection.

1. Idamitthā raudraṁ gūrtavacā brahma kratvā śacyāmantarājau. Krāṇā yadasya pitarā maṁhaneṣṭhāḥ parṣat pakthe ahannā sapta hotṛn.

The eloquent scholar displays his knowledge, in theory and practice, of this divine Vedic voice of the mysterious truth of nature and divinity in relation to Rudra, lord omnipotent of natural justice and dispensation, in the assembly of the wise and brave where his parents, teachers and eminent scholars are present on the day of academic accomplishment and satisfies all the seven high priests of his educational yajna with a sense of fulfilment.

2. Sa iddānāya dabhyāya vanvañcyavānaḥ sūdai-ramimīta vedim. Tūrvayāṇo gūrtavacastamaḥ kṣodo na reta ita ūti siñcat.

Thus accomplished for a creative and corrective role in life, equipped with right means and methods of art and science, he prepares the vedi, i.e., a full programme of family life and social action, for himself. Dynamic and assertive in action, bold in speech, agreeable in tone and deep in meaning, he collects the spirit of virility in the mind as in a deep reservoir and expresses it for the protection and promotion of human dignity and happiness.

3. Mano na yeṣu havaneṣu tigman vipaḥ śacyā vanutho dravantā. Ā yaḥ śaryābhis-tuvinṛmṇo asyā'srīṇītādīśaṁ gabhastau.

O men and women of the land, O Ashvins, O sun and moon, with voice and action, honour the call of this vibrant scholar and master of ample wealth and power who, with all the means and methods on hand, exhorts you to join the yajnic programmes of development to which you rush at the speed of the fastest and sharpest mind.

Ashvins, children of light, when the darkness of night mingles with the crimson lights of the morning, I call upon you, come and join the lovely yajna for me, forget about all undesirables and negativities, enjoy yourselves and partake of the holy food to your heart's desire.

5. Prathiṣṭa yasya vīrakarmamiṣṇadanuṣṭhitaṁ nu naryo apauhat. Punastadā bṛhati yat kanāyā duhiturā anubhṛtamanarvā.

That most expansive creativity and generative vitality of Rudra Prajapati, lord creator, animated and vested in nature, which also is an irresistible human impulse, further expands into life when it is received and borne to maturity by the loving youthful maiden, motherly agent of nature's innate urge for self-fulfilment.

6. Madhyā yat kartvam-abhavad-abhīke kāmam kṛṇvāne pitari yuvatyām. Manānagreto jahatur-viyantā sānau niṣiktaṁ sukr̥tasya yonau.

When the generator, father, and the youthful maiden, the mother, both joined in love and marriage with the desire to fulfil their obligation to Prajapati, lord of the household, have begot and brought up the progeny and have fulfilled their obligation in common, they give up and retire. All this, love, desire, accomplishment and fulfilment, is an extension of the process of divine creativity initiated on top of heaven at the centre of cosmic generation.

7. *Pitā yat svām duhitaram-adhiṣkan kṣmayā retah

As the father, the sun, covers the skies and the earth, his counterpart, and, shedding his living light and lustre, fills them with the vitality of life, then the devas, radiant divinities of nature, create and form Agni, keeper of the vows of the law and master of the earthly home.

8. *Sa īm vṛṣā na phenamasyadājau smadā paraidapa

That master of the home, Agni, like a mighty generous cloud, showers the vitality of life in the process of nature and sends our homage of oblations to far off distances from us except that if some small minded person of stingy character takes no step forward and neglects the ordinances of charity, then Agni, otherwise all embracing, does not accept our oblations.

9. Makṣū na vahniḥ prajāyā upabdiragniṁ na nagna upa sīdadūdhaḥ. Sanitedhmaṁ sanitota vājaṁ sa dhartā jajñe sahasā yavīyut.

The master of the home is the leader, burden bearer and the voice of the people. He must never defile the common wealth of this earthly home like a stingy selfish man defiling the sacred fire. In fact he is arisen as the protector, sharer and trustee of the common assets, energy, honour and progress of the nation, who works for its unity and advancement with his power, patience and fortitude.

म॒ तू क॒नायाः॑ स॒ख्यं न॒व॒ग्वा ऋ॒तं वद॑न्त ऋ॒तयु॑क्तिम॒गम॑न ।

Just as fresh waves of solar radiations in the morning, manifesting the laws of nature and flow of living energy, meet with homogeneity of the beautiful earth and, in contact with both the sun and earth, join the all sustaining gravitational life force, and, without taking anything for themselves create and give universal showers of imperishable creative and motherly fertility to the earth. (So do new generations of youthful men from institutions of education, knowing, proclaiming and living the laws of nature and the land with loyalty to both find the love and friendship of their dear choice maidens in marriage and, dedicated to both the family and humanity, join the high priest of the land and create permanent gains for the nation without any selfish considerations.)

11. Makṣu kanāyāḥ sakhyam navīyo rādho na reta ṛtamit turānyan. Śuci yat te rekṇa āyajanta sabardughāyāḥ paya usriyāyāḥ.

Soon the solar radiations in unison with the homogeneity of fertile earth stimulate the vital process of nature's creativity and produce the liquid living energy, pure life seed, latest prize like the legacy of divinity for you, O yajamana, the gift of generous earth and the mother's milk. (Similarly the young men who win the love and friendship of the lovely maidens of their choice and earnestly observe the laws and discipline of nature and maintain the purity of their seed of life receive the generous mother's gift of noble progeny.)

12. Paśvā yat paścā viyutā budhanteti bravīti vaktarī rarāṇaḥ. Vasorvasutvā kāravo'nehā viśvaṁ viveṣṭi draviṇamaupa kṣu.

After the fulfilment of family obligations, the man having renounced the life of senses and materiality and exulting in the joy of divine revelation exclaims : O friends of knowledge and divine law, O celebrants of songs of divinity, the lord giver of the highest wealth and haven of peace, immaculate and free, brings us the ultimate food of divine joy and supreme wealth of existence.

13. Tadinnvasya pariṣadvāno agman purū sadanto nārṣadam bibhitsan. Vi śuṣṇasya saṁgrathi-tamanarvā vidat puruprajātasya guhā yat.

Then the mind, pranic energies and senses, present all round, vested variously in the body, come into divine animation, having dissolved all carnal desires, when the man fulfilled in the soul knows and realises the presence of the all-mighty, all-pervasive supreme spirit in the depth of the heart and soul, interwoven indeed in the web of life itself.

14. Bhargo ha nāmota yasya devāḥ svarṇa ye triṣadhas the niṣeduh. Agnirha nāmota jātavedāḥ śrudhī no hotarṛtasya hotādhruk.

Blazing brilliant and mighty sublime is that Spirit indeed whose refulgent and divine powers like paradisaal bliss abide in the three regions of heaven, earth and the middle spaces. Agni, light and fire of the universe, is its name, animating all that is born in existence. O high priest of the yajnic dynamics of existence, clarion call of the universe, all love free from hate and animosity, pray listen to our call and prayer.

15. Uta tyā me raudrāvarcimantā nāsatyāvindra gūrtaye yajadhyai. Manuṣvad-vṛktabarhiṣe rarāṇā mandū hitaprayasā vikṣu yajyū.

Indra, lord almighty, pray may those two offsprings of Rudra, lord of mercy, justice and dispensation, Ashvins, twin powers of natural complementarity, commanding the light of life, dedicated to infallible truth, both happy, givers of joy, adorable in yajna with homage, come to me, ready on the holy grass with my people, advance our yajna and acknowledge our homage and prayer among our community of celebrants.

16. Ayam stuto rājā vandi vedhā apaśca viprastarati svasetuḥ. Sa kakṣīvantam rejayat so agniṁ nemiṁ na cakramarvato raghudru.

This adored and refulgent ruler is worshipped.

All knowing, all doing, all vibrant pranic and soma force of divinity, all saviour bridge, by itself crosses all waters and spaces. It moves all spatial energies and all fiery elements just as horses move the centre and the circle of a fast whirling wheel.

He that holds the two worlds of heaven and earth in bond, the high priest of cosmic yajna, all pervasive power that helps us to cross over the flood of existence, gives us the immortal gift of eternal Word and vision when a person, with the best of chant and meditative practice, realises together Mitra, centripetal, and Varuna, centrifugal, processes of cosmic dynamics, and also Aryaman, the all-controlling spirit that controls both the centre and the circle of the wheel of existence.

O soul, says the celebrant in love with divinity, that binding bond, the sun in heaven, is the giver of your will and intelligence and also its guardian, your closest link of nature to life eternal. That navel link is our highest centre of existence and of that, in consequence, I am the devoted celebrant among many.

19. Iyam me nābhiriha me sadhasthamime me devā ayamasmī sarvaḥ. Dvijā aha prathamajā ṛtasyedam dhenuraduhajjāyamānā.

This is my navel link with life, here is my haven and ultimate home, all these divine brilliancies, winds and pranic energies are mine, here I am all, complete. Whether first born of divinity or twice born of nature and education, all this universe is born of Prakṛti in motion and action under the law of divinity. The divine cow, Vak, nature coming into existential manifestation gives birth to it and to all we need.

And in the directions of space pervades Agni, joyous, dynamic, bright, moving across heaven and earth, lord of woods, high power admirable, lovely, which, like an army array, destroys in no time. That stable power, giver of comfort and joy, too, Mother Nature generates.

And as the prayers of some veteran saint reach you, lord of love and favour, O holy lord of wealth and glory, listen to our prayer: Give us the yajnic gifts of life, you who feel exalted by the joyous and truthful adorations of devotees who have risen above their senses and passions of the mind.

And O lord of might and glory, Indra, magnanimous lord protector of humanity, wielder of thunder arms, pray know us and grant us our prayers for wealth, honour and excellence. O lord of nature's forces and destroyer of suffering, protect us, promote us, all dedicated to the power and honour gifts of divine favour. We pray let us enjoy your love and good will that we may live in a state of freedom from sin and evil.

23. Adha yadrājānā gaviṣtau sarat saranyuh kārave jaranyuh. Vipraḥ preṣṭhaḥ sa hyeṣām babhūva parā ca vakṣaduta parṣadenān.

And then, O men of light and wisdom, the person who is keen to rise and is rising in the search for the lord's love and good will, who seeks to adore and serve the lord creator, such a vibrant devotee becomes the dearest of all these seekers for the lord, crosses the flood of existence and, speaking of the highest absolute and inspiring them, helps others too to seek divine fulfilment.

And so for the sake of our growth and progress under the protection of this lord absolute and all victorious master of the universe, we spontaneously sing and pray : you are the creator and sole mover of this universe, all pervasive and dominant, all providing giver of fulfilment and most renowned harbinger of success and victory.

O enlightened men and women of the world, if for your love and friendship and the growth of our strength, the devotee were to offer a song of adoration with homage, humility and love to the lord to whom all earnest voices of prayer converge and reach for fulfilment all over the world, and the lord of all might were pleased to accept, he would bless us with a vision of the path of truth and progress.

Say the lord almighty adored by holies is a friend of the divines. Noble brother and all unifier, He is to be worshipped and exalted with homage of love, hymns of faith, rituals of service and words of praise. His grace rains in showers by paths of love in piety and meditation as the mother cow's milk flows for the calf.

Mandala 10/Sukta 62

*Vishvedevah or Angirasas (1-6), Vishvedevah (7),

1. Ye yajñena dakṣiṇayā samaktā indrasya sakhyam-amṛtatvam-ānaśa. Tebhyo bhadram-aṅgirasas vo astu prati grbhñita mānavam sumedhasaḥ.

Brilliant divinities of light and wisdom, Angirasas, self-realised souls dear as breath of life, who, distinguished and beautified by performance of yajna, self-sacrifice and liberal giving, have won the love and friendship of Indra, lord almighty, and attained the freedom of immortality, may there be all round auspicious good fortune for you in life. O sagely divines, pray take man under your kind care for spiritual refinement.

2. Ya udājan pitaro gomayaṁ vasvṛtenābhinandan parivatsare valam. Dīrghāyutvam-aṅgaraso vo astu prati grbhñita mānavam sumedhasaḥ.

O parental sages and scholars, Angirasas, who research, recover and create the wealth of knowledge and the divine voice and thereby, through yajna and the study of nature's law, break through and dispel the darkness of loss and ignorance all the year round in the seasonal cycle, may Indra bless you with a long happy life. Pray take the son of Manu under your kind care, sages of holy wisdom and knowledge.

3. *Ya ṛtena sūryamārohan divyaprathayan

Angirasas, nature's powers of creation and evolution who, by the divine law and cosmic yajna of nature, raised the sun and set it there and formed and expanded mother earth, may you have the wealth of noble progeny. Enlightened sages of noble intellect and wisdom who study and research the laws of nature, pray take the children of humanity under your kind care.

4. *Ayam nābhā vadati valgu vo gr̥he devaputrā

O children of divinity, seers and visionaries, this central soul speaks the voice divine in your yajnic home, in the core of your heart. Listen to that. O Angirasas, may this divine voice be yours and your heritage to your posterity. O sages of holy mind and wisdom, pray take the children of humanity under your care.

5. *Virūpāsa idṛṣayasta idgambhīravepasah.
Te aṅgirasah sūnavaste agneḥ pari jajñire.*

Rshis are seers of various forms of existence including the structures and meanings of the voice divine. They are powers and performers of serious and mysterious actions. They are all Angirasas, children of the cosmic soul born as waves of cosmic energy. O cosmic soul, O cosmic energy, O Agni, they are your children, creators too in their own natural ways, born of you like sparks from the yajna fire.

Of these various forms of existence born of Agni in the regions of light, the waves called navagu and dashagu being most powerful excel among the divine forms of nature.

Similarly among the living forms of existence born of the divine soul and divine energy, the human form of five elements and four powers of the self, i.e., mana, buddhi, chitta and ahankara, all together nine, and further, ten pranas and ten senses, excels as the highest and most powerful of the divine forms of life.

The wise and visionary yajakas with the inspiration of Indra, lord ruler, create knowledge relating to senses, mind and will, and with their senses raised to eighfold power and sensitivity, giving me a thousand gifts, win praise among brilliant scholars.

No one can approach even the fringe of this wonder worker's achievement as the sun's on top of heaven. After all, the versatility and generosity of this man of universal competence flows ceaselessly like the flood of a river and expands as the sea.

10. *Uta dāsā pariviṣe smaddiṣṭī goparīṇasā.

And the giver, the visionary, the prosperous, the industrious and the victorious, all exalt him and feel honoured to serve and support him.

The giver of thousands, leader of the community, must not be hurt, nor would he hurt anyone. May this generosity, active and advancing, rise with the sun day by day. May the divinities prolong and elevate the health and age of the man of versatile generosity and competence, and may we, under his guidance and leadership, relentlessly advancing, win the goal and victory of our aspirations.

call upon and pray to Indra, mighty ruler of the world, instant listener, noble doer and deliverer from sin and adversity. We call upon Agni, spirit of light and fire, Mitra, loving power of friendship, Varuna, power of judgement and discrimination, Bhaga, lord of power and prosperity, earth and heaven, Maruts, tempestuous forces, and the noble and brilliant people dedicated to positive good action so that we may enjoy the good life of all round well being.

1. Kathā devānām katamasya yāmani sumantu nāma śṛṇvatām manāmahe. Ko mṛḷāti katamo no mayaskarat katama ūtī abhyā vavartati.

In the course of our life, which gracious name of the divinities that hear our prayer shall we adore and how? Who is kind to us first and most? Who brings us peace and pleasure? Who cares for us and turns to us with protection constantly?

Thoughts, desires and resolutions arise in the heart and mind anxious to do honour to divinity. Dedicated celebrants love the objects of their love and ambition and their desires and ambitions fly in various directions. For them, there is no other source of comfort and happiness than the object of these desires, be it divine, human or material. I pray may my desires, ambitions and prayers converge and concentrate on the divinities.

O man, with holy words worship the divine spirit adored by humanity, study, honour and celebrate Pusha, divine unfathomable source of nourishment, Agni present in direct experience and lighted by noble and brilliant yajakas, sun and moon and their relative monthly movements, the heavenly energy operative in the three regions of the sun, sky and the earth, the dawn, the night and day and the Ashvins, complementary dynamics of natural energy in motion.

celebrated and known in his infinite nature and presence? In yajnic acts of search for knowledge, with holy words of celebrative language used with honest intention, unambiguous resolution and faithful purpose, is the one absolute power, unborn and undying, thunderous presence in space, celebrated and, if you use that language with that resolution in those actions, he would listen and respond.

And O mother Aditi, eternal nature, at the dawn of the day, you energise and illuminate both Mitra and Varuna, complementarities of unity and diversity of energy and light, both luminant and bound in law like day and night, and you bring into action the all ordaining cosmic law, Aryama, like the sun ordaining the day and night, which is unobstructed in its course, which commands the many chariots of the universe such as solar systems and galaxies, and which has seven high priests in the dynamic universal yajna, like the seven rays of the sun showing up the infinite forms of things as they come to light.

O yajakas, by your programmed yajnic sessions of scientific endeavour, study the munificent Vayu and Pusha, realise and harness the motive energy of wind usable in chariot and also the nourishing and invigorating power of nature as friends of life for the service of humanity. Both Vayu and Pusha in this cosmic yajna of Savita, lord creator and sustainer, are efficacious and together take life's growth and evolution forwards.

May Rbhuksha, light and energy sustaining the intelligent and wise, Vaja, spirit of nourishment and energy, the master lord of the cosmic chariot, Bhaga, spirit of grandeur, honour and power, all happy givers of felicity worthy of adoration by the celebrants, sustain, protect and promote us on the way forward.

The celebration of Maruts and Rudras, scholars of the science of health and pranic energies, is full of blessings, joyous and beatific to the celebrant's vision like a haven of peace and total fulfilment. O divinities, we pray, may we always adore you with holy songs of celebration, enjoy your love and friendship and, blest with honour and wealth, live happy among the people of the world.

Dear Maruts, wise sages, you know and we pray enlighten us of our divine affinity and essential relationship with this Lord Supreme whatever way it is possible. May Aditi, mother Infinity, lead us to find our essential nature and identity and guide us to reach there where we may regain our first and original centre of being.

Heaven and earth, both of them great, divine, venerable mothers of life from their very birth in existence, are united with generative vitalities of nature here itself. Both sustain the moving and unmoving forms of life with their nourishing powers and both pour out abundant fertility and generative vitalities replete with the seeds of life essence in natural form.

That wonderful voice of divinity, the Vedic Word, which comprehends and corresponds to the entire world of cherished forms of existence is inviolable and sublime. Brhaspati, dedicated preserver and promoter of the divine Word adores it. Therein the master speaker and teacher of it is honoured as harbinger of honey sweets of joyous knowledge. divinities and the divine Word, vibrant devotee of the laws of Truth, worshipper of the highest wealth of Divinity, lover of the wealth and values of existence, with thoughts, words and songs of piety in a state of inspiration and ecstasy serve and celebrate the divinities here in the congregation of the learned in this life.

Their abode and sphere of operation shines by their law of Dharma and the great heaven and the great earth both abide in their vast sphere of cosmic dynamics. The earth which goes about in her well defined orbit, ceaselessly moving on over the orbital stages of the revolution and yielding milky nourishments for life on the way for living beings, expresses her thanks to generous Varuna and does homage to Vivasvan, the refulgent sun, Varuna dispelling it and the sun attracting it, both holding it in balance for the worshipful humanity.

Ashvins, complementary powers of divine light and regeneration, you save the man of suffering and sufferance from sin and evil, refertilise the barren land and revitalise the seed to germinate, raise the genetic quality of seeds and plants for better taste and nourishment, and raise the general capacity of the seeker of knowledge to higher competence.

For the good and well being of life all round, I invoke the Vishvedevas, all bounties and divinities of nature and humanity. Abundant and renowned are they, refulgent givers of light, enlightened promoters of the yajna of love and non-violence, who enhance the creative and productive processes of overcoming ignorance, injustice and poverty. Immortal observers and promoters of universal law with Indra, the omnipotent, as their supreme leader, they know, command and promote the entire wealth and well being of the world.

Created, inspired, commanded and controlled by Indra, supreme ruler, instructed by Varuna, lord supreme of wisdom and judgement, the Maruts have attained to their share of the light of the sun. The wise and the brave institute yajna for the sake of divine bounties. May we too concentrate and dedicate our heart and soul to the strength and liberality of the Maruts.

May Indra protect and promote our home with the wealth of the eight Vasus. May Aditi, mother Infinity, give us peace by all the twelve Adityas. May Rudra, lord of justice and mercy, with the eleven Rudras be pleased with us. May Tvashta promote us with the power of all the divinities for happiness and peace.

For our protection and promotion, we invoke Aditi, mother Nature, heaven and earth, the great cosmic law of Rtam, Indra, cosmic energy, Vishnu, omnipresent divinity that sustains the universe, Maruts, wind energies, cosmic joy, eight Vasus, eleven Rudras, Savita, lord of life and giver of light, lord supreme of cosmic action, and the twelve Adityas, all refulgent divinities of the universe.

The rainy sky with its actions of showers, Varuna with its own laws of functioning, Pusha, nature's energy of nourishment and growth, the mighty all pervasive Vishnu, the winds, and the Ashvins, all dedicated to the supreme spirit of the universe, immortal powers in direct contact with the Supreme Divine, may, we pray, give us peace and rest for body, mind and soul free from sin and evil.

May yajna bring us showers of peace and prosperity, may the yajakas be generous and abundant, may the divinities be generous and abundant, may the bearers of havi be generous and abundant, may heaven and earth replete with waters be generous and abundant, may the clouds be generous and abundant, may the celebrants of the generous divinities too be generous and abundant and bring us showers of peace and prosperity.

Agni and Soma, heat and cold, two complementarities of nature, both generous and abundant for the achievement of food, energy and advancement in knowledge and culture, universally praised and adored as generous and abundant, both of which others too serve and adore as generous and abundant by yajna, I glorify, and pray they may give us threefold peace and protection for body, mind and soul.

Dedicated Kshatriyas consecrated in yajna, brilliant in the knowledge of divinity, meticulous performers of yajna with beauty and grace with Agni as their high priest of yajna in observation and exaltation of the laws of divinity, free from hate and enmity, move forward in their battle against darkness and evil and set the waters of life aflow like rain showers on the break of dark clouds.

Vishvedevas, divinities of nature and humanity, dedicated to their duties and discipline, creating and promoting herbs and trees and forests for nature's sacred purpose of protection and promotion of life, fill the regions of earth, sky, the sun and the highest heaven with replenitude and add beauty to their own body and the environment to their heart's desire.

all be for your advancement and well being on the path of holiness and rectitude. Please take our yajnic endeavours forward in the right direction in a simple and straight manner. O Vasus, Rudras and Adityas, scholars of the first, higher and highest order, noble and generous, please refresh, promote and advance these hymns of adoration to higher achievement in the programmes.

O divine yajakas, O high priests of nature and humanity, I follow the straight path of rectitude and universal law of nature's creativity. And we pray to the lord ruler and protector of the universe immanent in every form of existence, and, join all the divine powers, immortal and relentlessly active in the universal process, for study and advancement through yajna.

Brilliant sages and scholars studying the divine powers and researching the divine resources of nature like the seers and, like parents and protectors, creating the knowledge and the language of knowledge for life's well being, and, O noble benefactors, having known our cherished needs and desires like loving friends and relations, pray energise our economy and create wealth for the community.

The brilliant sage of the first and highest order adores and celebrates the immortal Vishvedevas who abide in all regions of the world. May they give us universal knowledge and vision of the highest adorable lord divine. O Vishvedevas, pray protect and promote us for all time with all that is good for the total well being of life.

Mandala 10/Sukta 67

Brhaspati Devata, Ayasya Angirasa Rshi

इ॒मां धि॒यं सप्त॑शी॒र्ष्णीं पि॒ता न॑ ऋ॒तप॑जा॒तां बृ॒हती॑म॒-

1. Imām dhiyaṁ saptaśīrṣṇīm pitā na ṛtaprajātām bṛhatīmavindat. Turīyaṁ svijjanayadvīśva-janyo'yāsyā ukthamindrāya śaṁsan.

Our father creator, omniscient lord divine, revealed for us this universal voice of knowledge spontaneously. Structured in seven metres, it is born of the lord's awareness of Satyam and Rtam, i.e., the eternal and mutable truth of existence and its laws of evolution, sustenance and involution. He, the original source of the birth of the universe and its knowledge and language, also revealed the fourth and silent mode of existence in the transcendent state of Moksha beyond the earlier three of Dharma, Artha and Kama without effort and spoke it for Indra, the soul.

2. Rtam śamsanta ṛju dīdhyanā divasputrāso asurasya vīrāḥ. Vipraṁ padamaṅgirso dadhānā yajñasya dhāma prathamam mananta.

Speaking the Word of eternal knowledge, meditating on the natural, eternal spirit of omniscience, the Rshis, children of light, brave offsprings of divine virility, self-disciplined souls established in the position of vibrant sages among humanity, realise in direct experience the first and original presence of the adorable lord Supreme.

3. Haṁsairiva sakhibhir-vāvadadbhir-aśmanmayāni nahanā vyasyan. Brhaspatir-abhikanikradagdā uta prāstauducca vidvāṅ agāyat.

Chanting with friends as with hansa-like simple sinless souls of purity, breaking the adamantine chains of karmic bondage, loudly proclaiming the divine Word of omniscience, Brhaspati, master celebrant of the Infinite Spirit, blest with knowledge and vision divine, sings and adores the lord divine.

4. Avo dvābhyāṁ para ekayā gā guhā tiṣṭhanṭīra-nṛtasya setau. Brāhaspatī-tamasi jyotiricchanudusrā ākarvi hi tisra āvaḥ.

Brhaspati, master of language, wishing for the light of knowledge and expression in the midst of the darkness of the web of the world of mutability, expresses the two upper levels of language, i.e., madhyama and vaikhari, which he expresses by two media of thought and word, and the one hidden below, i.e., Pashyanti, he apprehends through one, the deeper mind in meditation. Thus he reveals the three modes of language. (The fourth is Para, the silent mode of language in its originality beyond the world of mutability which can be realised in the highest state of Samadhi.)

5. Vibhidyā puram śayathemapācīm nistrīṇi sāka-mudadherakṛantat. Brāhaspatirūṣaṣaṁ sūryaṁ gāmarkaṁ viveda stanayanniva dyauḥ.

Brhaspati, the seeker of light, in the state of turiya beyond deep sleep, breaks through the three bonds of the city of darkness of the mutable world like thunder and lightning breaking the dark cloud and directly realises the dawn, the sun rays, the sun and the light beyond the sun.

6. Indro valaṁ rakṣitāraṁ dudhānām kareṇeva vi cakartā raveṇa. Svedāñjibhir-āsīram-icchamā-no'rodayat paṇimā gā amuṣṇāt.

Indra, mighty ruling soul, wishing to taste the sweetness of milk mixed with soma, i.e., divine ecstasy with vibrations of grace, removes the veil of darkness covering the light of knowledge and divine speech with an act of will as if with a stroke of thunder and lightning, throws the demon away lamenting, recovers and enjoys the light of knowledge with the voice of divinity and showers of bliss in a state of clairvoyance.

Brahmanaspati, master, protector, promoter and ruler of the world of existence, blest with divine light, vision and speech breaks down the thief of cows, i.e., hoarders, exploiters and destroyers of the wealth of life. He breaks them down with the help and cooperation of friends and associates who are generous, self-fulfilled, fervently dedicated to truth, purity of conduct, laws of Dharma and rectitude, and blest with ample means and materials for the achievement of their goal. Thus does he recover and establish wealth and common wealth for the individual and the society.

8. Te satyena manasā gopatim gā iyānāsa iṣaṇayanta dhībhiḥ. Bṛhaspatirmitho avadyapebhirudusriyā asṛjata svayugbhiḥ.

They, friends and associates, with dedication to truth and with honest mind, intentions, thoughts and actions, wishing to promote the cows, i.e., the wealth and culture of the nation as a system, approach the ‘gopati’, i.e., the head of the commonwealth, and he, Brhaspati, master, protector and ruler of the expansive system, together with his associates at his full command, with safeguards against negativity, scandal and calamity, creates and organises a nation of freedom and progress ranging over the earth in peace and joy.

9. Tam vardhayanto matibhiḥ śivābhiḥ sinhamiva nānadatam sadhasthe. Bṛhaspatim vṛṣaṇam śūrasātau bharebhare anu madema jiṣṇum.

Exalting him with our thoughts and actions dedicated to peace, freedom and all round well being of life, supporting him waxing and roaring victorious as a lion in the world’s hall of yajnic freedom and progress, let us join Brhaspati, mighty and generous protector, for the sake of victory in every battle worthy of the brave, and win our goals and enjoy life with him.

10. Yadā vājam-asanad-viśvarūpamā dyāmaru-kṣad-uttarāṇi sadma. Bṛhaspatiṁ vṛṣaṇaṁ vardha-yanto nānā santo bibhrato jyotirāsā.

When Brhaspati achieves food, energy and victories and higher possibilities of universal order and, like the sun, reaches and illuminates the heavens with light, then those who receive and shine with light like the planets, being many and various, exalt the mighty generous master ruler with words of adoration.

स॒त्या॒मा॒शि॒षं कृ॒णु॒ता व॒या॒ध की॒रिं चि॒द्भ्य॒व॒थ स्व॒भि॒रवः॑ ।

O Brhaspati, O leading lights of humanity, for food and energy, good health and age, fulfil the hopes and ambitions of the people and justify your words of purpose to the point of truth without compromise. Protect the cooperator and celebrant with your own power and security. Then let all violence, enmity and sabotage be overcome and cast off totally far away. And may the heaven and earth, givers of universal fulfilment listen to our prayer and adoration.

bhinaḍ-arbudasya. Ahannahim-ariṇāt sapta

Indra with his might breaks the top of the great ocean of waters in space and, breaking the dark cloud, releases the seven seas and sets the rivers aflow. May the heaven and earth protect us by the divinities.

(The metaphor has been explained also as revelation of the Vedas in seven metres at the time of the creation of humanity. The revelation breaks through the darkness of ignorance and releases the light of knowledge to radiate in seven chhandas of the Vedas.)

Mandala 10/Sukta 68

Brhaspati Devata, Ayasya Angirasa Rshi

1. *Udapruto na vayo rakṣamāṇā vāvadato abhriya-

Like aquatic birds playing on water, like watchful guards raising their voice, like the rolling rumble of rain clouds, like rippling streams flowing down mountain slopes, the celebrants raise their hymns of adoration to Brhaspati.

2. *Sam gobhirāṅgirasō nakṣamāṇo bhaga ivedar-

Just as Angirasa, enlightened disciple of the sage of living knowledge, like Bhaga, divine lord of light and grandeur, leads his friend to knowledge and prosperity, as a friend leads a couple in the community to come together in marriage, so O Brhaspati, inspire and energise the aspirants to go forward and win their goal by the light and words of divinity.

Replete with pure, living energy, ever on the move, loved, coveted, brilliant golden, beautiful in form, such are the rays of light and vitality which Brhaspati, the sun, recovers from the deep caverns of darkness and sends them down to clouds and earth as a farmer sows the seeds of barley in the field.

Sprinkling the womb of life with the honey sweets of vitality like the sun radiating the rays of light from the regions of heaven, Brhaspati recovers the showers of life from the clouds and, as showers of water seep into the crust of earth, so the seeds of life are vested and borne in the earth.

5. Apa jyotiṣā tamo antarikṣād-udnaḥ śīpālamiva vāta ājat. Bṛhaspatir-anumṛśyā valasyā'bhramiva vāta ā cakra ā gāḥ.

As the sun removes darkness with light from the middle regions, as the wind removes the cover of moss and grass from the surface of water, so does Brhaspati, lord of the expansive universe, with deep thought, remove the cover of the darkness of nescience and sets in motion the dynamics of nature's creativity in circuits of energy as the motions of the wind.

य॒दा व॒लस्य॑ पी॒यता॑ जसुं॒ भद॑ बृ॒हस्पति॑रग्नित॒पाभि॑र॒कः ।

6. Yadā valasya pīyato jasum̐ bhed bṛhaspatir-agnitapobhir-arkaiḥ. Dadbhirna jihvā pariviṣṭa-mādadā-virnidhīṇrakṛṇod-usriyāṇām.

When Brhaspati with the flames of fire and rays of the light of his creative will breaks through the darkness of nescience covering the primeval potential existence and takes it over as the tongue takes over the food crushed by teeth, then he opens up and reveals the vast reservoir of his energies of the dynamics of creative nature.

7. Brhaspatiramata hi tyadāsām nāma svarīṇām sadane guhā yat. Āṇḍeva bhittvā śakunasya garbham-udusriyāḥ parvatasya tmanājat.

Brhaspati knows the name and identity of these voluble facts and processes of existence which are present but hidden in the deep womb of nature and which, radiating like rays of light and flowing like streams, grow and come into being as chicks on maturity break the bird's egg and spring into full life.

8. Aśnāpinaddham madhu paryapaśyan-matsyam na dīna udani kṣiyantam. Niṣṭajjabhāra camasam na vṛkṣād brhaspatir-viraveṇā vikṛtya.

Brhaspati sees the sweetness and beauty of human life caught up in the bonds of pleasure and sufferance in the body like a fish caught up in shallow waters, and he raises and refines it like a cup of soma for the divinities, crafted from rough wood, having refined and blest it by the resounding voice of revelation.

9. Soṣā mavindat sa svaḥ so agniṃ so arkeṇa vi babādhe tamāṃsi. Bṛhaspatir-govapuṣo valasya nirmajjānaṃ na parvaṇo jabhāra.

The blessed man realises the light of the dawn of knowledge, the light and bliss of heaven, the vision of refulgent divinity, and with that light wards off the darkness of evil and ignorance. Indeed, Brhaspati raises the man subject to body, senses and mind, now blest with divine vision like a real man, otherwise completely sinking in the depths of darkness and evil.

10. Himeva parṇā muṣitā vanāni bṛhaspatinā-kṛpayadvalo gāḥ. Anānukṛtyam-apunaścakāra yāt sūryāmāsā mitha uccarātaḥ.

Just as the leaves of forest trees are made to fall by winter, so darkness is dispelled and light is created, so is ignorance dispelled and the light of Vedic revelation revealed by Brhaspati, and that is an act he does unparalleled and unpeated as long as the sun and moon shine together and illuminate the days and nights.

Like a dark horse adorned with golden trappings, the rays of light adorn the heavens with stars.

Brhaspati vests darkness in the night and light in the day, breaks the cloud, releases the light and showers recovering the light of existence from the night of annihilation, and enlightens the heart of darkness with revelations of the light of divinity.

12. Idamakarma namo abhriyāya yaḥ pūrvīran-vānonavīti. Brhaspatiḥ sa hi gobhiḥ so aśvaiḥ sa vīrebhiḥ sa nṛbhirno vayo dhāt.

This homage we offer to Brhaspati, lord of living waters and thunder, who reveals the eternal words of divine knowledge. May that lord bless us with good health and long age with lands, cows and the light of knowledge, horses, transport and advancement, brave progeny, leading lights and enlightened people.

Agni Devata, Sumitra Vadhryashva Rshi

भ॒दा अ॒ग्रव॑ध्य॒श्वस्य॑ स॒न्दृ॒शा॑ व॒ामी प॑णी॒तिः सु॒रणा॑
उप॑तयः । यदी॑ सु॒मित्रा॑ वि॒शा अ॒गं इ॒न्धत॑ घृ॒तना॑हु॒त ज॑रत

1. Bhadrā agner-vadhryaśvasya saṁdṛśo vāmī praṇītiḥ suraṇā upetayaḥ. Yadiṁ sumitrā viśo agra indhate ghr̥tenāhuto jarate davidyutat.

May the controlled and directed radiations of light and yajna fire, Agni, be auspicious, may its inspiration and guidance be auspicious and rewarding, may its associations and functioning mutualities be auspicious. When noble and friendly people kindle and install it in the prime position in the vedi of yajna then, raised and fed on oblations of ghrta, it rises and shines, adored and exalted by the celebrants.

(This metaphor of physical fire and light, of which the flames and radiations are controlled and directed, is extendable to the socio-political and educational life of the human community. In this context Agni is to be interpreted as the leader, ruler, commander and teacher, leading the people to auspicious attainments. And, as in the case of all words indicative of divinity, Agni is the supreme lord of light and life whose divine functions are all self-refulgent and self-controlled, leading us all to auspicious attainments.)

Ghrta means and is the rise and exaltation of self-controlled self-directed Agni, ghrta is the food, and ghrta is the growth and expansion with love and grace. Fed on ghrta it rises and expands unbounded and, kindled, energised and exalted with ghrta, it shines glorious and beatific like the sun.

3. Yat te manuryadanīkaṁ sumitraḥ samīdhe agne tadidaṁ navīyaḥ. Sa revacchoca sa giro juṣasva sa vājaṁ darṣi sa iha śravo dhāḥ.

O prime and pioneering power, Agni, the bright and blazing light and flame of yours which Manu, thoughtful intellectual and noble friend, kindles with positive intention and purpose is new and it is adorable. Let it shine rich in wealth. Listen and respond to our words and voices of hope and prayer. Destroy negative forces. Create and bring us honour and prosperity here and now.

Agni, you have been loved, studied and adored since the earliest times. The same you, I study and adore with controlled and concentrated mind, senses, intentions and motivations in my yajnic performance. Pray listen to my words and respond to this endeavour of mine. Be the protector of our homes and families and of our health of body and community, and protect this gift of yours which you have given to us.

5. Bhavā dyumnī vādhryaśvota gopā mā tvā tāri-dabhimātirjanānām. Śūra iva dhṛṣṇuścyavanaḥ sumitraḥ pra nu vocaṁ vādhryaśvasya nāma.

Agni, power of controlled light and flames of fire, be our protector and harbinger of splendour, and let no enemy of humanity challenge and assail you. Like a mighty warrior, Agni is all surpassing, all inspirer, a noble friend, and this is how I celebrate the name of the blazing power of self-control and splendour.

Agni, you win the wealth of clouds and mountains, plains and seas, conquer destructive and darkening forces, and win over noble and dynamic powers. O mighty power of light and fire, like a mighty warrior all surpassing, inspirer of people, you challenge and defeat the adversaries.

This Agni, of expansive unending life, vastly generous burden bearer, thousandfold protected, mysterious and revealing, a hundred ways dynamic leader, excellent expert wise, most radiant among brilliant, adored and exalted by leading lights among friends of noblest mind, shines among the lovers of divinity.

8. Tve dhenuḥ sudughā jātavedo'saścateva samanā sabardhuk. Tvam nṛbhir-dakṣiṇāvad-bhir-agne sumitrebhir-idhyase devayadbhiḥ.

O Jataveda, omniscient lord of all existence, in you abides the perennial, inexhaustible mother cow, nature, the divine Word, agreeable and spontaneous giver of ceaseless streams of life sustaining light and natural energy. You are enkindled and adored by all leading lights of humanity bearing homage in abundance, noble friends, devotees who love and worship divinity.

O Jataveda, lord of infinite power and motion, the immortal divines proclaim your greatness and glory, and when mortal humans come and ask who destroys the dark and the wicked, the answer is: You win over the dark and the wicked with those noble people who adore and exalt you as the master, leader and commander.

As the father bears the child in his lap with love and supports it, so does the dedicated celebrant with controlled mind and sense place you in the vedi in the lap of mother earth, serving you with faith, reverence and awe. O power most youthful, loving and accepting his lighted faith, reverence and service, pray ward off all his enemies old as well as new.

Agni, divine leader of light and life, always wins over the enemies of the self-controlled man of dynamic mind and senses by heroic men who distil the soma with faith and reverence and offer it to Agni in homage. O wondrous lord of light and fire, eliminate conflict wherever it be and, yourself rising in glory, break down violence and destruction when it is raising its head.

This Agni, lord of self-refulgent light, all time invoked and lighted with prayer and homage, is the dispeller of darkness for the devotee of controlled mind and senses. O lord and leader of light and life, face upto and overthrow our enemies whether they are united as a community of saboteurs or as a hoard of heterogeneous antisocial destroyers.

Mandala 10/Sukta 71

Jnana (Knowledge) Devata, Brhaspati Angirasa Rshi

बृहस्पत पथमं वाचा अग्रं यत्परंत नामधेयं दधानाः ।
यदेषां श्रष्टं यदरिपमासीत्पुणा तदेषां निहितं गुहाविः ॥ १ ॥

1. Brhaspate prathamam vāco agram yat prairata nāmadheyam dadhānāḥ. Yadeṣām śreṣṭham yadaripramāsīt preṇā tadeṣām nihitam guhāviḥ.

O lord of Infinite Speech, Brhaspati, the first and original form of eternal speech, which is the integration of name, word and factual reality, which the sages receive and bear in mind and articulate at the dawn of human creation, lies immanent in the universal mind. It is borne in the best and immaculate minds of the sages who make it manifest from there by divine inspiration in a state of grace.

स॒क्तुमि॒व तित॑उना पु॒नन्ता॒ यत्र॒ धीरा॒ मन॑सा॒ वाच॑मक॒त ।

2. Saktumiva titaunā punanto yatra dhīrā manasā vācamakrata. Atrā sakhāyaḥ sakhyāni jānate bhadraiṣāṁ lakṣmīr-nihitādhi vāci.

When the sages of patient and transparent mind, with their thought and imagination, conceive, visualise and articulate the divine word, crystallising it to the state of purity as they sift the grain of truth from the chaff of local variety, then the friends and associates come to know of the idea and the word and the union of word and meaning in communication, and then noble and holy is their knowledge manifested and received from the depth of the sage's language.

य॒ज्ञं वा॒चः प॑द॒वीय॑माय॒न्ताम॑न्व॒विन्द॑त् ऽृषि॑षु प॒विष्टा॑म ।
तामा॒भृत्या॒ व्य॑दधुः पु॒त्रा तां स॒प्त र॒भा अ॒भि सं न॑वन्त ॥ ३ ॥

3. Yajñena vācaḥ padavīyamāyan tāmanvavindant nr̥ṣiṣu praviṣṭām. Tāmābhrtyā vyadadhuḥ purutrā tāṁ sapta rebhā abhi saṁ navante.

By yajna and meeting of minds on the vedi, they get to the form and meaning of language, tracing it word by word in the structure, realising the reality of meaning hidden in the mind of the sages. And having reached, realised and received it, they bear it around and communicate it in many ways widely in many places at various times. Thus do seven eloquent sages honour, serve and worship it, structured and articulated in seven poetic forms.

उ॒त त्वः प॒श्य । द॑द॒श वाच॑मु॒त त्वः शृ॒ण्व । शृ॒णात्य॑नाम ।
उ॒ता त्व॑स्म त॒न्वं॑ वि स॒स्र जा॒यव॑ प॒त्य उ॒श॒ती सु॒वासाः ॥ ४ ॥

4. Uta tvaḥ paśyan na dadarśa vācamuta tvaḥ śṛṇvan na śṛṇotyenām. Uto tvasmai tanvaṁ vi sasre jāyeva patya uśatī suvāsāḥ.

However, even in association, in spite of discussion, someone having seen the language, let us say, in print, or having seen the meaning in practical reality, may not acknowledge it, some one having heard the language by the ear may not hear it in the soul. But Speech to someone, some honest, conscientious dedicated soul, opens up and reveals its hidden meaning as a loving wife beautifully clad opens and reveals herself, her very soul to her loving and faithful husband.

उ॒त त्वं स॒ख्य स्थि॑रपी॒तमाहु॑ननं हि॒न्वन्त्य॑पि वा॒जिन॑षु ।

5. Uta tvaṁ sakhye sthirapītamāhurnainam hinvan-tyapi vājineṣu. Adhenvā carati māyayaiṣa vācam śuśruvāṁ aphalāmapuṣpām.

Such a realised soul, they say, is a sober scholar on solid foundations in matters of language, meaning and vision of reality. In scholarly meets they do not trifle with him, nor contradict him. But some may not even come to the fringe of his attainment. And another one moves around like a barren cow, struck by the magic of mere sound of words, hearing language without fruit or flower.

6. Yastityāja sacividam sakhāyam na tasya vācyapi bhāgo asti. Yadīm śṛṇotalakam śṛṇoti nahi praveda sukr̥tasya panthām.

If someone forsakes the divine speech of the Veda, a real intimate friend for life and after, there remains no substance even in his speech of daily wear, and whoever listens to him listens in vain because he does not know the path of well being and of well doing.

Indeed friends and companions equal of eyes and ears are unequal in mind and intellectual efficiency. Some are like tanks just waist deep, others neck deep, and yet others are deep as lakes, rivers or even seas wherein you bathe and feel sanctified and absolved.

When scholars in close friendly association join in intellectual meets organised with careful thought and heartfelt good intentions, even there, some they leave aside as ignorant while others, scholars of valuable subjects, actively move on with discussions of latest knowledge worth attaining.

Those there are who pursue neither the knowledge of this material world nor the knowledge of the spiritual world, nor are they Brahmanas interested in the holiness of the world of reality, nor even do they follow ritual and worldly life consciously with open mind. So being ignorant people they use only the non-holy language of impiety and merely extend the thread of physical existence at the human level in their life.

All friends feel happy and celebrate with a learned person who comes as a friend with honour, reputation and social prestige, and such a person, eliminator of sin and evil, provider of food and knowledge, rises to the position of leadership among them, being good for their honour and enlightenment.

Of the devotees of the divine voice of the Veda, one chants, celebrates and maintains the energy and enthusiasm of life vibrating in the Rks, one, the udgata, sings the gayatri verses in the Shakvari hymns of power, the Brahma, presiding high priest, proclaims the verses of universal knowledge from all the Vedas, and another, the adhvaryu, orders and organises the entire programme of the yajna in all details.

Mandala 10/Sukta 72

Devah Devatah, Brhaspati Laukya, or Brhaspati Angirasa, or Aditi Dakshayani Rshi

द्वानां नु वयं जाना प वाचाम विपन्यया ।
उक्थर्षु शस्यमानेषु यः पश्यादुत्तर युग ॥ १ ॥

1. Devānām nu vayaṁ jānā pra vocāma vipanya-yā. Uktheṣu śasyamāneṣu yaḥ paśyāduttare yuge.

Let us proclaim in clear words of grateful adoration the birth and evolution of nature's divine manifestations which, when the verses are chanted, one may see and appreciate in later ages to come.

ब॒र्ह॒ण॒स्प॒ति॒र्त्ता सं क॒मा॒र॒इ॒वा॒ध॒मत ।

द॒वा॒नां प॒ू॒व्य यु॒ग स॒तः स॒द॒जा॒य॒त ॥ २ ॥

2. *Brahmaṇaspatiretā saṁ karmāra ivādhamat.
Devānām pūrvye yuge'sataḥ sadajāyata.*

Brahmanaspati, lord, master and ordainer of the cycle of existence, sets these devas in motion like an artisan in the earliest age of evolution and they awake from the unmanifest state of Being into the manifest state of Becoming in existence. (The Avyakta, intangible, becomes the Vyakta, tangible, mode of Prakṛti or Nature.)

द॒वा॒नां यु॒ग प्र॑थ॒म स॒तः स॒द॒जा॒य॒त ।

3. *Devānām yuge prathame'sataḥ sadajāyata.
Tadāśā anvajāyanta taduttānapadaspari.*

In the first age of the devas, the manifest stage of existence arose from the unmanifest Zero stage, i.e., the Zero state emerged into the first positive state of existence after Zero. Then in consequence arose space and the quarters of space. Thereafter arose Uttanapada, the open ended possibilities of boundless evolution further. (The one Vyakta gives rise to potential multiplicity.)

भू॒ज॒ज्ञ उ॒त्ता॒न॒प॒दा भु॒व आ॒शा अ॒जा॒य॒न्त ।

4. *Bhūrjajña uttānapado bhuva āśā ajāyanta.
Aditerdakṣo ajāyata dakṣādvaditiḥ pari.*

From Uttanapada arose Bhu, specific possibility, and many more such arose in space in the spatial quarters. From Aditi, inviolable nature, arose Daksha, will and intelligence, and from will and intelligence, Aditi, the desire to grow and procreate further.

अदितिह्यजनिष्ट द १ या दुहिता तव ।

5. *Aditirhyajaniṣṭa dakṣa yā duhitā tava.
Tām devā anvajāyanta bhadra amṛtabandhavaḥ.*

O Daksha, lord of will and intelligence, Aditi is born which is your offspring, indeed your desire to be many. In consequence, the devas are born, the noble fraternity of the immortal (Nature and divinity).

The order of the birth of the devas is thus described in the Upanishads and in Sankhya philosophy of natural evolution it is this: From avyakta Prakṛti evolves Mahan or Pradhana which is vyakta Prakṛti. From Mahan arises Ahankara which is described here as Uttanapad or the tree of the universe. From Prakṛti are also manifested the three qualitative modes of existence: Sattva or intelligence, Rajas or energy, and Tamas or solid matter. This same is the order here in a different terminology. From Ahankara are born the five subtle bhutas and both mental and perceptive organs. From five subtle bhutas are born the five gross bhutas: Akasha, Vayu, Agni, Apah and Prthivi which all are composed of paramanus, the smallest units.

6. *Yaddevā adah salile susamrabdhā atiṣṭhata.
Atrā vo nrtyatāmiva tīvro reṇurapāyata.*

O Devas, when you abide and play together dancing as if joyously in that vast space, then your radiant energy and ecstasy rises high (to receive the descent of life as the ripe gift of the sun on high).

यद्वा॒ यत॑या यथा॒ भुव॑नान्यपि॒न्वत॑ ।

7. *Yaddevā yatayo yathā bhuvanānyapinvata.
Atrā samudra ā gūḥmā sūryamajabhartana.*

O Devas, working joyously together as you energise and enliven the regions of the world, so here too in the ocean of matter, energy and prana, you hold, support and cherish the bright sun, the soul deep under the mysterious fivefold cover of existential body form.

अ॒ष्टा पु॒त्रासा॒ अदि॑त॒य जा॒तास्त॒न्वः॑ स्पर्शि ।

8. *Aṣṭau putrāso aditerye jātāstanvaspari.
Devān upa prait saptabhiḥ parā mātāṇḍamāsyat.*

Eight are the divine modes of Aditi, eternal inviolable Prakṛti, which are evolved from her personality like children born of the mother (these being Mahan, Ahankara, five material forms and the sense-mind complex which is called Martanda because it bears the soul which passes through the birth and death stages). With seven of these it goes on evolving and the eighth, Martanda, it leaves aside free (to grow by itself with the soul in the human form).

सप्तभिः पुत्ररदितिरुप पत्पूर्य्य युगम् ।

प्राजाय मृत्यवे त्वत्पुनमाताण्डमाभरत ॥ ९ ॥

9. Saptabhiḥ patrairaditirupa prait pūrvyam yugam. Prajāyai mṛtyave tvat punarmār-tāṇḍamā-bharat.

With seven of her children mother Aditi retires to the post-pre-creation stage of the Avyakta absolute, but she continues to bear the Martanda, the soul with the subtle body cover during Pralaya, for birth and death again and again in the eternal cycle of existence. (For 8-9, further, refer to Gita, 7, 4-5, and Aitareya Upanishad, 1, 2, 3-5.)

Indra Devata, Gauriviti Shatya Rshi

जनिष्ठा उग्रः सहस्र तुराय मन्द आजिष्ठा बहुलाभिमानः ।

1. Janiṣṭhā ugraḥ sahasre turāya mandra ojiṣṭho bahulābhimānaḥ. Avardhannindram marutaści-datra matā yadvīram dadhanaddhaniṣṭhā.

Indra, ruler of humanity and the world, adorable, most illustrious, blazing brilliant, highly self-confident, is born to subdue pride and opposition to humanity, and when mother Infinity, or humanity, fortunate and rightfully proud, bears such a brave hero, leader and ruler, the Maruts, leading lights, adore and exalt him.

2. Druho niṣattā prṣanī cidevaiḥ purū śaṁsena vāvṛdhuṣṭa indram. Abhīvr̥teva tā mahāpadena dhvāntāt prapitvādudaranta garbhāḥ.

The armies of the enemy of darkness and pride stand round him well ordered and deployed with fighting forces ready for the move, and they abundantly exalt Indra with universal songs of praise. The people safe all round covered with mighty defence and security rise and progress like showers of rain released from the depth of dark and dense expansive clouds.

3. Rṣvā te pādā pra yajjigāsyavardhan vājā uta ye cidatra. Tvāṁmindra sālāvṛkāntsahasr-amāsan dadhiṣe aśvinā vavṛtyāḥ.

Indra, great and elevated are the columns and constituents of the system you rule over. When you advance and win your goal, the most eminent leaders, scientists and technologists, warriors and whoever others are here, all praise and exalt you. You appoint and maintain thousands of vigilant guards on the forefronts of the land. Indra, keep the social economy and all subsystems of the order moving, keep the circuit live without relent.

4. Samanā tūrṇirupa yāsi yajñamā nāsatyā sakhyāya vakṣi. Vasāvvyāmindra dhārayaḥ sahasrā'śvinā śūra dadaturmaghāni.

Going fast forward in the struggle of life, you move close by the ways of yajna, holding on to the common creative values of corporate life and bringing all complementary forces of the system together for friendship ever in action for advancement. Indra, brave hero and ruler, hold and manage the wealth of the nation while the Ashvins, complementary forces of the system, create and contribute a thousand forms of honour, wealth and all round prosperity to the commonwealth.

5. Mandamāna ṛtādadhi prajāyai sakhibhirindra iṣirebhirartham. Ābhirhi māyā upa dasyumāgā-nmihah pra tamrā avapat tamaṁsi.

Further, happy and joyous with the rule of inviolable law and dispensation of justice, Indra creates, holds, manages and provides wealth and well being for the people with the cooperation of his friendly and enthusiastic colleagues, and with these very cooperative forces faces the negative elements, negates their mischief and dispels all fog, depression and oppressive darkness from the land, uproots all these.

6. Sanāmānā ciddhvasayo nyasmā avāhannindra uṣaso yathānaḥ. Ṛṣvairagacchah sakhibhirni-kāmaiḥ sākam pratiṣṭhā hrhyā jaghantha.

Indra, dispel the darkness of the forces of equal name and power and subdue them with your light like the sun which overtakes the car of the dawns and turns it to day. Move forward with heroic friends who are brilliant and ambitious and with them together win the firmness and stability of your heart's desire.

7. Tvaṃ jaghatha namuciṃ makhasyaṃ dāsaṃ kṛṇvāna ṛṣaye vimāyam. Tvaṃ cakartha manave syonān patho devatrāñjaseva yānān.

You subdue the miserly hoarder and the negative, destructive clever trickster and convert him to be a lover of yajna and social generosity, living a simple natural life for the advancement of the seer. You make the paths of human progress peaceful and enjoyable, holy, simple and natural to follow for the pilgrims of divinity.

8. Tvametāni papriṣe vi nāmeśāna indra dadhiṣe gabhastau. Anu tvā devāḥ śavasā madantyu-paribudhnān vaninaścakartha.

Indra, you fill up all these agents of positivity with strength. Ruling and controlling, you hold the rule and justice like the thunderbolt in hand. Consequently all the divinities of nature and humanity rejoice and exalt you with power and joy. Indeed you turn all the clouds above downwards to release the showers of life giving rain.

1. Cakram yadasyāpsvā niṣattamuto tadasmai madhviccacchadyāt. Pṛthivyāmatiṣitaṁ yadūdhaḥ payo goṣvadathā oṣadhīṣu.

His wheel of power and presence which operates across the spaces and rules the dynamics of nature and humanity also fills and covers the whole system of existence with honey sweets of joy for life and for the lord's own fulfilment too, the same honey which fertilises the earth and fills the clouds, the nectar that is filled in the cow's udders and sweetens the sap in the herbs.

10. Aśvādiyāyeti yadvadantyojaso jātamuta manya enam. Manyoriyāya marmyeṣu tasthau yataḥ prajajñ indro asya veda.

While some say this power and presence comes from the system itself, and I think it is born of divine lustre, arisen from passion and subsisting in forms and subsystems, the truth is that wherefrom it arises Indra alone knows the mystery.

Men of vibrant intelligence and flying imagination, seers and sages with love and reason, in a mood of supplication, prayer and faith sit and abide by Indra. O lord, unveil the truth from darkness, perfect our vision for the light of truth, release us for we are bound like birds in snares.

1. *Vasūnām vā carkṛṣa iyakṣan dhiyā vā yajñairvā

Wishing to honour the winners of the wealth and glories of heaven and earth by thought and action and by corporate yajnic performance, I celebrate the warriors of horse and commanders of wealth and honour of excellence who support the friends and destroy the assailants in the battles of life and who uphold and exalt the well received words and traditions of reputed sages and scholars.

Their call to action, with the fragrance of their yajnic performance full of freshness and rejuvenation for life, rises to heaven and, with their ideas and fame, spreads over the whole earth where brilliant sages of vision and generous leaders, with their own essential choices and best actions, create a heaven on earth for the good and all round well being of life.

3. Iyameṣāmamṛtānāṁ gīḥ sarvatātā ye kṛpaṇanta ratnam. Dhiyaṁ ca yajñāṁ ca sādhanaste no dhāntu vasavyamasāmi.

This is the voice of song in adoration of these immortals who, in the general yajna of all humanity, create and bestow on us the jewel wealth of life, elevate ideas and actions and accomplish the corporate creative programmes of total humanity by yajna. May they, we pray, bear and bring unbounded wealth and honour for us all.

Indra, ruler of the world, the people adore and exalt you when they reap the harvest of abundant food and milk, and when they till the land, and, like the mother cow, wish to milk the great wide earth of a thousand streams who, for her many many children, produces all things together.

O yajakas, for your protection and progress, adore and exalt Indra, lord of wondrous power and action, undaunted subduer of enemies, glorious, majestic, admirable and abundantly generous friend of humanity. And he wields the thunderbolt of power, justice and dispensation.

O fluent streams of water, energy and light, your best and highest grandeur and quality in every region of the master of earth, skies and light (Vivasvan), the scholar scientist devotee adores, describes and celebrates. Seven streams flow three ways in every one of the three regions, and in all the flowing streams the one common current flows on with its own innate energy and power.

O flowing stream, as you flow for the energy and vitality of foods in plants, herbs and trees, or as you flow by the tops of mountains of the earth or as you elevate the first and best part of these living and moving forms of nature with pranic energy, the sun makes the path for your flow.

O Sindhu, flood of water, just as mothers move with love to the child, just as lowing cows with milk move to the calf to promote life, so do streams flow to you and you take them forward flowing to the sea like a warrior king leading his armies to the battlefield for victory.

5. Imaṁ me gaṅge yamune sarasvati śutudri stomāṁ sacatā paruṣṇyā. Asidnyā marudṛdhe vitastayār-jīkīye śṛṇuhyā suṣomayā.

O Ganga, ever flowing stream of water, life and life energy, Yamuna, stream that joins others and flows, Sarasvati, stream of abundant water and light of life, Shutudri, fast flowing stream of water and energy, Marudvr̥dha, stormy stream of water, prana and passion for life, Arjikiya, overflowing stream of life breaking over the banks, along with Parushni, sparkling stream flowing through stages, and Sushoma, stream of peace and vitality deep as the fathomless ocean, Asikni and Vistasta may all listen to this song of homage of mine and bless life.

Note: It is said that the words from Ganga to Sushoma are names of ten particular streams. It is not so. According to Yaska and Swami Dayananda, Veda is universal knowledge, there is no history and no geography in this body of knowledge. If particular streams are called by these names, the names were derived from the Vedas in which those name-words already existed, and the name-word and the characteristics of the stream corresponded. For this very correspondence, certain nerves, arteries and veins in the body also were named after these Vedic words. Pandit Jaya Deva Sharma in his translation of Rgveda (published Arya Sahitya Mandala, Ajmer, 1936, vol. 7, p. 131) quotes from a Kerala manuscript on music the following: kuhuh, Dehamadhyagata etah mukhyah syurdasha nadyah”, and continues that Ganga is Ida, which leads us to spiritual enlightenment, Yamuna is Pingala which joins with and orders various organs of the body, Sarasvati is sushumna which leads us to the joy of knowledge, Parushni (parvavati, bhaswati, kutilagamini) which goes through the vertebrae of the spine is shining, Asikni is dark, Marudvrdha is augmented by all nadis, Shutudri is fast and full, Vitasta controls body temperature, Arjikiya originates from a centre called Rjuka in the brain, also called vipat which, if it breaks, then death occurs and the pranas and the soul forsake the body. For this reason it is also called urunjara. Sindhu is the soul into which retire all the pranas and the nadis. Thus ‘streams’ and names of streams are general terms of life’s dynamics in different physical, psychic and spiritual contexts.

O Sindhu, flood and ocean of the dynamics of life, the streams which you first join and go on by the body chariot of existence are: Trshtama, the nadi with which food is first digested in the stomach, Susartu by which the energy produced is distributed over parts of the body system, Rasa by which energy vibrates across the whole system, Shveti by which food energy joins the blood stream, Kubha by which the skin cover is formed and sustained, Gomati by which speech and other senses are controlled, Krumu which controls and coordinates body movements, and Mehatnu which controls the urinary function.

Rjiti which moves peacefully, Eni which controls the white corpuscles, and Rushati which is bright and creates the body lustre, move by the energy and grandeur of the spiritual centre and communicate particles of energy and vitality across the system. Sindhu, the central stream and spirit, undaunted, is the most dynamic of all dynamics, wonderful as a ray of light and beautiful as a youthful maiden.

Sindhu, the central psychic and spiritual stream of the system commands beautiful senses and mind and the beautiful body chariot, it is fragrant, golden, nobly active, energetic achiever, handsomely covered youthful, provided with an efficient structural body system, beatific, honey sweet and rich, which abides in and rules over all streams of the system.

Sindhu, spirit of the stream of existence, flows incessantly, riding the cosmic chariot of all joy and comfort, wonderfully dynamic, by which it wins victories of attainments for its devotees and tributaries in this cosmic play. Great is its glory praised and celebrated by poets, undaunted and inviolable, innately glorious, infinitely abundant and generous.

O scholars and celebrants of yajna, creators of soma wealth, I honour and cooperate with you at the dawn of light and energy in the morning. Pray honour, celebrate and serve Indra, the sun, the winds, the earth and the environment and reveal their power and potential for us so that both day and night they may produce and give us wealth born of earth for every home.

Enact and accomplish that highest plan of yajnic action which like a goal-oriented programme of cloud showers in the hands of the creative maker of soma wins strength and power, progress and victory for the yajamana so that for the achievement of great wealth and progress he overcomes the worst hurdles and goes forward with quick mile stones of success.

Let that creative soma yajna programme of this yajamana promote and extend his actions and achievements the way as ever before it has opened and extended the paths of progress for humanity and inspired pioneers of positive acts of love and service to go forward in the scientific development of land, cows, culture and enlightenment and in the technological development of efficient means of transport and

O yajakas and creators of soma, destroy the wicked and the evil tendencies, hold off the crooked and negative forces from the ways of development and progress, drive off want and poverty, create and bring us wealth and progeny worthy of the brave, and sing songs of thanks and praise in honour of the divinities.

7. Sunvanti somaṁ rathirāso adrayo nirasya rasaṁ gaviṣo duhanti te. Duhantyūdhar-upasecanāya kaṁ naro havyā na marjayanta āsabhiḥ.

Devotees of Soma, lovers of divinity, riding the body chariot in the state of dharma-megha samadhi extract the nectar juice of divine joy. Loving the vision and word of that joy they distil the taste and flavour of it. They milk the presence, the taste, the flavour of divinity from the udders of Mother Nature to sprinkle on and around the vedi of life and, as people taste the holy food with their tongue, they sanctify and experience the joy in the state of clairvoyance.

All the beauties and graces of life you create, all the wealth, honour and excellence of earthly life you achieve is for the service of Indra, your homage in totality to Divinity, Spirit of the earth.

Like clouds of rain bringing showers of wealth and fertility to the earth, like yajakas bearing sacred offerings for the fire and replenishing the vitality of the environment, the vibrant currents of cosmic mind and holy sages of the divine Word bless humanity with the Vedic voice. Now, in order to do them the honour they deserve, sing and adore the assembly of the sages like the divine currents of Maruts, and do so in order that you too may deserve the honour and appreciation you would win.

For their honour and glory, mortals adore and celebrate them, Even veteran powers of earliest fame cannot violate them. Children of light, they shoot forward like archers and do not deviate from the course. Children of Aditi, mother Eternity, they advance like rays of light and extend the bounds of knowledge.

By virtue of their own strength and power (they are great) but not separate, not unrelated to heaven and earth just as the sun is great but not unrelated to the cloud and the sky. Commanding power and grandeur like heroes, they are adorable like mortals who destroy negativity, and they are refulgent in their own right.

In your area of operation you shine on together, as in the spaces of cosmic dynamics the earth does not shake, nor does it slacken, but goes on and on steadily on its course. Same way your yajnic operation in the cosmic law is universal, versatile and holy. Pray come to our sessions, bear and bring us the food, energy and the wealth we need and work for.

In our programmes of progress, be like the motive powers of the plan with rays of light and reins of control. Be like light givers with sun-light on the rise of the dawns of initiative on a new day. Self-refulgent and glorious like harbingers of soma, be destroyers of violence and negativity. The man established in Vedic chant and yajnic programmes of creation and development who gives for yajna and also gives to the brilliant and versatile Maruts achieves good health and long age blest with plenty of wealth and noble children and he also enjoys the protection of divinities on the path of rectitude.

May the Maruts, adorable at yajna, protectors and promoters most benevolent and blissful by the gift of solar light and enlightenment and showers of substantial waters and energy, versatile movers of the dynamics of cosmic yajna circuit protect and promote our mind, intelligence and knowledge while they love, cherish and extend our grand paths of progress in our social programmes of creation and production in the spirit of universal love, friendship and peace and non-violence.

their hymns with the music of Samans.

1. Apaśyamasya mahato mahitvamamartasya martyāsu vikṣu. Nānā hanū vibhṛte saṁ bharete asinvatī bapsati bhūryattaḥ.

I see and realise the sublime presence of this immortal Agni among mortals whose complementary catalytic powers open and close and open like the jaws of a living being, disjoining and joining together insatiably and relentlessly, creating, destroying and recreating new forms from old ones, and ultimately consume all things thereby consummating and completing the process of evolution back into involution and annihilation.

2. Guhā śiro nihitamṛdhagakṣī asinvannatti jihvayā vanāni. Atrānyasmai padbhiḥ saṁ bharantyyuttā-nahastā namasādhi vikṣu.

The highest presence of Agni is hidden in mystery, in the cave of the heart. Its eyes of universal vision are objectified separately in the sun and moon. With its tongue it consumes various things, even the best and most beautiful too, insatiably. In homage to it, yajakas all across humanity bear holy offerings with hands raised in reverence and adoration and bring them step by step for its consumption in the fire and in the crucibles of the discipline of meditation.

3. Pra mātuh prataram guhyamicchan kumāro na vīrudhaḥ sarpadurvīḥ. Sasam na pakvamavidacchucantaṁ ririhvāmsaṁ ripa upasthe antaḥ.

Loving and seeking the ultimate mystery of Agni, mother spirit of life and human evolution, the seeker comes like an innocent child moving up silently by and along the various folds of earthly existence, ultimately reaching the centre core of the mystery and attains the radiant presence deliciously ecstatic like the ripest fruit of life.

O heaven and earth, father and mother of life in existence, truly do I speak to you of that law of life which you observe and sustain: the baby life in the womb and, thereafter, receives its sustenance from father and mother. I, the rising vital form, the mortal, know not of the lord divine. For sure, Agni the omniscient alone knows all, Agni alone illuminates the spirit in the human form.

Whoever the person that readily and enthusiastically brings and offers food to this Agni, feeds the fire and raises the flames with ghrta and intensive oblations of havi, Agni watches and enlightens him with a thousand eyes and visions. O lord of light and life, Agni, you are always with us, all time, all round, with and within at the closest.

An ignorant man, I ask you, Agni, whether among the divinities, in sport or not in sport, you subject men to sin, anger and aversion, since the omnipotent power, creator and destroyer, to swallow what is to be swallowed at the end, cuts things into particles like a knife cutting leather into pieces.

Fortunately born in a beautiful body, the soul uses various and versatile senses controlled by simple and natural operations of the will and intelligence and, loving and enlightened by Agni, cosmic lord omniscient, grows stage by stage with pranic energies and prospers.

Agni protects the enlightened man free from triple bonds of infatuation with family, fame and finance. Agni establishes the man dedicated to yajnic advancement of humanity in the right relationship with family, friends and community.

Agni, heroic in form and pride of the brave, gives wealth, honour and excellence and all that is valuable in the world. Agni rewards the sage, seer and visionary scholar a thousand ways. Agni raises and diffuses the fragrance of oblations to the heavens. Indeed the presence and pervasions of Agni are boundless, infinitely spread out.

Seers invoke Agni with the chant of sacred hymns. People in crisis on the journey onward call on Agni for help and guidance. Like birds flying up in the sky, sages on the way higher up towards the heavens or deep in awareness in the mind adore Agni. Agni, indeed, pervades and transcends a thousand abodes of light and life and inspires and enlightens the souls that seek and find.

Communities of humanity conscious of their humanity and social responsibility worship Agni for guidance. People who rise above their earthly bonds thank and adore Agni. Agni holds and proclaims the holy voice of eternal truth which guides humanity on the paths of rectitude. The path that leads to Agni exists in and radiates from the lustre of Agni itself.

Rbhus, sages of divine vision and genius, compose and sing songs of adoration in honour of Agni. We too offer holy songs of reverence and worship in celebration of Agni. O Spirit of universal light and life, ever youthful Agni, pray protect and promote the celebrant and give us the highest wealth of yajnic life in communion with you.

Vishvakarma Devata, Bhauvana Vishvakarma Rshi

1. Ya imā viśvā bhuvanāni juhvaḍṛṣiḥrhotā nysīdat pitā naḥ. Sa āśiṣā draviṇamicchamānaḥ prathamacchadavarām ā viveṣa.

The eternal Rshi, visionary creator and cosmic yajaka, our father generator, who calls up all these worlds of the universe into existence ever abides by himself. Moved with desire to give the wealth of life with his blessings to the souls, he first generates the original Prakṛti vesting it with his divine will and then simultaneously enters and pervades the modes and forms of Prakṛti as they evolve.

2. Kim svidāsīdadhīṣṭhānamārambhaṇaṁ katamat svit kathāsīt. Yato bhūmiṁ janayan viśvakarmā vi dyāmaurṇonmahimā viśvacakṣāḥ.

What was the basis, what the beginning of the beginning, what sort and whence, from which Vishvakarma, omniscient all watching guardian of the universe, creating the heaven and earth shaped them and vested them with divine grandeur?

3. Viśvataścakṣuruta viśvatomukho viśvatobāhuruta viśvataspat. Saṁ bāhubhyāṁ dhamati saṁ patatrairdyāvābhūmī janayan deva ekaḥ.

All watching with cosmic eyes, all speaking with cosmic voice, all protecting with cosmic arms and all sustaining on cosmic foundations, the sole self-refulgent maker creating heaven and earth shapes and controls the universe with his hands, i.e., thought and will with strokes of the natural forces forging things into form.

Which is that forest and which is that tree from which the divine forces of nature carve out and shape the heaven and earth? O sages and scholars of divine vision, with your heart and intelligence ask that omniscient lord who abides and presides over the worlds of all existence, holding and controlling them in order.

O Vishvakarman, creator and maker of the universe, whatever the regions, their names and forms which are your creation, whether the highest and farthest, or the middle ones, or the lowest and closest, pray enlighten the friendly seekers and devotees about them. O lord of your own might of Prakṛti and natural law, keep on the universal yajna by yourself, offering the fragrant havish and expanding the body form of the universe.

O Vishvakarman, you yourself guide and perform the yajna of heaven and earth with the holy materials from within nature itself, yourself exlating in the expansive universe. Here the other people, unaware of the mystery, feel awe-stricken but, we pray, may you, Lord Almighty and omnificent, be the ultimate giver of enlightenment for us.

For our enlightenment and victory in our battle of existence and action today, we invoke Vishvakarma, lord of universal speech and the expanding universe, creative cosmic awareness inspiring human mind and thought, and we pray that the lord of holy action and universal well being be pleased to listen and grant us the fruit of all our invocations, prayers and adorations.

Mandala 10/Sukta 82*Vishvakarma Devata, Vishvakarma Bhauvana Rshi*

1. *Cakṣuṣaḥ pitā manasā hi dhīro ghr̥tamene

The creator, protector and promoter of the light of the eye and sensitivity of mind, constant and inviolable, by his own will and resolution manifests the plasticity of nature's potential, Ahankara, from Mahat, and then the double plastic potential of psychic and material forms, mind and senses on the one hand and tanmatras, subtle materials, on the other. And when these basic bounds are shaped and confirmed, then these tangible forms of intelligential and material existence, heavens and earths grow, extend and expand.

Vishvakarma is infinitely intelligent, infinitely pervasive, all sustaining, all controlling, supreme, all percipient, and all watchful. By virtue of his immanence and inspiration, living beings enjoy the cherished objects of their love and desire. It is that one Supreme Spirit which all sages celebrate and adore as One and Absolute. It is from him that all seven mantra chants arise and unto him return.

3. Yo naḥ pitā janitā yo vidhātā dhāmāni veda bhuvanāni viśvā. Yo devānām nāmadhā eka eva taṁ sampraśnaṁ bhuvanā yantyanā.

Vishvakarma is our father and mother, he who is the sustainer, ruler and controller of existence, who knows all abodes and regions of the universe, who is the sole ordainer of the nature, functions and names of all divinities and the sole unity of all these in one, the one comprehensive question of all questions and the one complete answer to all questions, the one ultimate reality into whom all regions and worlds converge and merge.

4. Ta āyajanta draviṇaṁ samasmā ṛṣayaḥ pūrve jaritāro na bhūnā. Asūrte sūrte rajasi niṣatte ye bhūtāni samakṛṇvannimāni.

The earliest Rshis, i.e., the vital energies of nature in the process of creative evolution in their own right with their power of Being, did yajnic service to the creator and offered their best input in the formative process like celebrants. Placed and abiding in the tumult of the moving and unmoving elements and forms, they fashioned forth the later forms of Being in homage to the divine will.

परा दिवा पर एना पृथिव्या परा देवभिरसुर्यदस्ति । कं

5. Paro divā para enā prthivyā paro devebhira-surairiyadasti. Kaṁ svidgarbhaṁ prathamam dadhra āpo yatra devāḥ samapaśyanta viśve.

What is that generative as well as emergent spirit and reality which is beyond the heavens, beyond this earth and this entire universe, beyond the divinities and the energies, beyond and above all that is in existence? What is that presence, that Hiranyagarbha, that golden seed model of the universe which the primeval Prakṛti particles contain and which contains and generates those particles themselves, wherein all the divine existences find and realise themselves?

तमिद्गर्भं पथमं दध् आप यत्र द्वाः समगच्छन्त विश्व ।

6. Tamidgarbhaṁ prathamam dadhra āpo yatra devāḥ samagacchanta viśve. Ajasya nābhāva-dhyekamarpitam yasmin viśvāni bhuvanāni tasthuḥ.

That Vishvakarma is the first power and presence which the particles of Prakṛti contain as the immanent generator and which also generates, contains and rules the particles as the transcendent presiding power wherein all the divinities converge, abide and realise themselves. All that is, is self-contained in the central generative core of the eternal unborn and undying spirit, and therein abide all the regions of the universe.

7. Na taṁ vidātha ya imā jajānānyadyuṣmākama-ntaraṁ babhūva. Nihāreṇa prāvṛtā jalpyā cāsutṛpa ukthaśāsaścaranti.

You do not comprehend that spirit which creates all these worlds of existence. That is something else, deeper than the deepest that you feel you are and know yourself. Covered by the fog of extrovert thought, playing with mere words, happy and satisfied with a breathing existence, singing songs of self-gratification, people roam around and miss the centre pole of the whirling worlds.

O Manyu, spirit of passion and ardour of mind for righteous action, awful as thunder and accurate as an arrow to hit the target, whoever bears, honours and commands you with strength and enthusiasm, rises in universal honour and splendour. We pray that with your friendly and unfailing spirit of courage, patience and vigour, we may be able to support the noble and defeat the violent and the destroyers. (Righteous passion is the gift and spirit of all the divinities.)

Manyu, righteous passion of the spirit and courage of mind, is Indra, glory and power. Manyu is brilliance, manyu is yajaka and performer of yajna, manyu is Varuna, deep as ocean, blazing as sun and self confidence of choice, manyu is Jataveda, spirit of intelligence and existential awareness. Communities which live all over the human world honour and adore manyu. O spirit of passion and universal intelligence of divine mind, dearest friend and inner inspiration, pray protect and promote us with the strength and discipline of body, mind and soul.

enemies. Come, saviour of friends and destroyer of adversaries, dispeller of darkness, eliminator of evil and negativity, bear and bring us all wealth, honour and excellence of the world.

O noble wrath and passionate spirit of rectitude, you are illustrious subduer of adversaries, self-existent and self justified, awesome, challenger and destroyer of hostilities, universally present among men, patient and forbearing. Pray inspire us with strength and high morale in our battles of life.

Being void of righteous passion, O spiritual rectitude, giver of self confidence and assertive identity, I am gone far from my own self and, by action, deprived of your spirit of lustre and inspiration. O manyu, O Indra, O Varuna, O Jataveda, I am guilty of remiss toward you, and I pray bless me with the strength of body, mind and soul.

O Manyu, sweetest companion of living splendour universally invoked and adored, come to us with the force of unfailing yajnic action in the heat of the grand battle scene of life.

3. Somaṁ manyate papivān yat saṁpiṁṣantyo-ṣadhim. Somaṁ yaṁ brahmāṇo vidurna tasyā-śnāni kaścana.

Preserved by divine ordinances, protected by the measures of Brhat Samans, Soma is guarded safely by somapalas. O Soma, you abide somewhere in divinity hearing the roar of thunder and clouds, no one earthly can drink or experience the ecstasy of your celestial nature and identity.

5. *Yat tvā deva prapibanti tata ā pyāyase punah.

O divine Soma, when the sun rays drink you as the moon in the first, dark half of the month, then you come up to full growth as the moon in the second, bright half of the month. The wind, cosmic energy, is the protector of soma in its place. Thus the month is the constituent of years and presents the full form of the two equal fortnights of the moon.

7. Cittirā upabarhaṇaṁ cakṣurā abhyañjanam.
Dyaurbhūmiḥ kośa āsīd yadayāt sūryā patim.

When Surya, the dawn, the new bride, goes to the house of her groom, then her noble mind and thought is her resting couch, her gracious eye, the collyrium, and the earth and heaven, her treasure.

स्तामा आसन्पतिधयः कुरीरं छन्द आपशः ।

8. Stomā āsan pratidhayaḥ kuvīraṁ chanda opāśaḥ.
Sūryāyā āśvanā varāgnirāsīt purogavaḥ.

Hymns of adoration are the axle of her chariot wheels, music of the hymns, her head scarf and cushion, the Ashvins, prana and udana energies, are friends of the groom, and Agni is the first call of maturity.

सामा' वधूयुर'भवद्श्विनास्तामुभा वरा ।

9. *Somo vadhūyurabhavadaśvināstāmubhā varā.
Sūryām yat patye śaṁsanīm manasā savitādadāt.*

Soma is the proposer and Ashvins, pranic energies, the first attraction and attention, when Savita, giver of life and light, gives away the bride, love-lorn at heart, to the groom.

मना अस्या अन आसीद द्य रसीदुत च्छदिः ।

10. *Mano asyā ana āsīd daurāsīduta cchadiḥ.
Śukrāvanadvāhāvāstām yadayāt sūryā grham.*

The mind is her bridal chariot, bright sky its canopy, the sun and moon the motive powers when the bride, like the glorious dawn, goes to her own home with the groom.

ऋक्सामाभ्यामभिहिता गावा त सामनावितः ।
श्रात्रं त चक्र आस्तां दिवि पन्थाश्चराचरः ॥ ११ ॥

11. *Rksāmābhyāmabhihitau gāvau te sāmānavitaḥ.
Śrotram te cakre āstām divi panthāścaraḥ.*

Sun and moon, both equal and glorious, yoked and celebrated by Rks and Samans, move the chariot on the new procession. Let revelation of the Word and infinite Space be the movement towards advancement, and let the path be both tumultuous and restful over the moving and the unmoving world unto the light of heaven.

शुचीं त चक्र यात्या व्याना अ ऽ आहतः ।

अना मनस्मयं सूयाराहत्पयती पतिम ॥ १२ ॥

12. Śucī te cakre yātyā vyāno akṣa āhataḥ.
Ano manasmayaṁ sūyārohat prayatī patim.

Surya, the new bride, rides the chariot of the mind when she moves to the house of the groom (with her dreams of the future). When she moves, her pure ears are the wheels (on which the chariot moves because the mind moves in response to the stimulants of the senses) and the wind, psychic energy of thought, is the axis of the wheels.

सूयाया वहतुः पागात्सविता यमवासृजत ।

13. Sūryāyā vahatuḥ prāgāt savitā yamavāsṛjat.
Aghāsu hanyante gāvo'rjunyoh paryuhyate.

The bridal procession of Surya proceeds which Savita, her father, starts. The bullocks are made to move the chariot in Magha constellations and the bride is inducted into the groom's home in Phalguni constellations.

14. Yadaśvinā pricchamānāvayātaṁ tricakreṇa putraḥ pitarāvavṛṇīta pūṣā.

O Ashvins, married couple, when you come together by the three wheeled mental chariot of Sattva, Rajas and Tamas constituents of personality in balance, asking for fulfilment of the wedding of Surya, let all the Vishvedevas, nobilities around and the mind and senses within, know and approve your intent and purpose, and then let Pusha, future progeny for sustenance, select the life giving parents for the arrival.

यदयातं शुभस्पती वर्यं सूयामुप ।

15. *Yadayātaṁ śubhaspatī vareyaṁ sūryāmupa.
Kvaikaṁ cakram vāmāsīt kva deṣṭrāya tasthathuḥ.*

O Ashvins, protectors and promoters of life's good, noble men and women of reason and passion, when you come to the bride, darling choice of the groom, where is one of the wheels of your chariot and where abide the two for the purpose of benediction?

द्व त चक्र सूय ब्रह्मणा ऋतुथा विदुः ।

अथकं चक्रं यद गुहा तदद्भातय इद्विदुः ॥ १६ ॥

16. *Dve te cakre sūrye brahmāṇa ṛtuthā viduḥ.
Athaikaṁ cakram yadguhā tadaddhātaya idviduḥ.*

O Surya, bride of the new home, the sages of knowledge know the two wheels of your life's chariot according to the seasons, i.e., your words and actions according to your moods and circumstances. The third, thought, reflection and intentions, is hidden in the depths of the mind which only exceptional master minds know. And that one is a mystery.

सूयाय द्वभ्या मित्राय वरुणाय च ।

य भूतस्य पचतस इदं तभ्या करं नमः ॥ १७ ॥

17. Sūryāyai devebhyo mitrāya varuṇāya ca. Ye bhūtasya pracetasa idaṁ tebhyo'karaṁ namaḥ.

This homage I do and offer to Surya, the dawn, the divinities, the loving friend and the wise for the sake of intelligent progeny and to all those who know and enlighten all living beings.

These two, sun and moon, move on in sequential order by their own power and virtue, playing happily like innocent children and go on participating and contributing to the divine yajna of the cosmos. Of these, one watches and enlightens all regions of the world and the other rises again and again according to the season and thereby setting the seasons in order.

19. Navonavo bhavati jāyamāno'hnāṁ keturuṣa-sāmetyagram. Bhāgaṁ devebhyo vi dadhātīyāyan pra candramāsitirate dīrghamāyuh.

The moon rising again and again ever anew, proclaiming days and lunar dates, comes ahead of the dawn in the dark fortnight. While coming it brings its share of the havi for divinities and gives long life to biological and human life.

Welcome, O bride, bright dawn of a new morning, ride and rule the golden, well structured, well geared chariot of a homely world, beautiful and glowing like a shalmali garden in bloom and turn it into paradisaal bliss of immortal joy for the husband and the family.

Rise from here. This girl is now married as wife to a husband. Thanks and salutations I offer to the master of the world's wealth with homage and words of reverence and adoration. Love this girl, your other self, born, bred and raised to fullness in the parental home. She is now a part of your life. Know her, accept and take her as a complement of your self from the very birth by nature, culture and future growth of your life.

Rise from here and now, O master of the wealth of a new world, we honour and adore you with reverence and homage. Love this bride, this other self of yours, fully mature and cultured, accept, take and join her in the role of husband.

Let our paths be simple, natural and comfortable, free from obstacles, by which our friends may win the goal of their choice. May Aryama, lord of vision, justice and rectitude, and Bhaga, lord of power, prosperity and glory, lead us on to fulfilment. O divinities of nature and humanity, may our married life be happy, noble and fruitful.

I free you from the bonds of Varuna, discipline of virginity observed in the spirit of justice, freedom and responsibility in the parental home, into which Savita, lord giver of life and natural growth unto maturity, had bound you in full dedication without inhibition, and I settle and establish you with your husband into a new life of natural conjugal order in the world of noble action free from sin, violence and violation of the law.

I release you from here, the parental home and its discipline, but not from there, the husband's home, where I establish you duly bound in the new conjugal law and discipline so that, O Indra, O noble husband, she may be the proud and fortunate mother of noble progeny.

May Pusha, the husband who would maintain you, having accepted your hand, lead you to the new home. May the Ashvins, other leading personalities, escort you by chariot to the husband's home. O bride, go to the new home and new families as mistress of the new home and new family so that you become the darling ruler of the new hearth and home. You are come to a new yajnic order, and you speak a new language of yajnic dedication.

Here in the new home may your new love and happiness increase to new heights with family and children. In this new home keep awake for the good of the children and the family. Here with this husband of yours join in body and mind, and both of you enjoy good fellowship, company and converse till full age and fulfilment in yajnic life.

Matrimony? It is roughshod, it is thorny bitter, all barbs, all poison, it is dangerous to flirt with it. Only the wise youth of divine vision who knows and realises the light and sanctity of Surya, he deserves the prize he may carry away.

The third is Agni which inspires you with love and passion. And your fourth guardian is your husband, son of man, for the extension of humanity.

May the lord controller of the world make us one personality. May mother Sarasvati of the divine voice join and proclaim us as one. May the Vishvedevas join and integrate our hearts and minds into one inseparable personality.

Indra Devata, Indra (1, 8, 11-12, 14, 19-22), Vrshakapi Aindra (7, 13, 23), and Indrani (2-6, 9, 10, 15-18) Rshis

1. Vi hi sotorasṛkṣata nendraṁ devamamṣata. Yatrāmadadvṛṣākāpiraryah puṣṭeṣu matsakhā viśvasmādindra uttarah.

The creatures having been created flowed forth, streamed too far and strayed from acknowledgement of the creator Indra, where Vrshakapi, the human soul, jivatma, top master among the created, rejoiced among them.

My friend and favourite Indra, great and generous, is supreme over the whole creation, says Prakṛti, the mother consort.

Indra, far too far you move from Vṛshakapi who feels too sorrow stricken. O jivatma you would not find anywhere else other than Indra's presence to enjoy the soma joy of life... Indra is supreme over all.

Indra is supreme over the whole creation.

Indra, your darling Vrshakapi whom you protect and favour so much falls a victim to greed which crushes him in its jaws as a hound seizes a boar by the ear.

Indra is supreme over the whole creation.

Indra is supreme over all the world.

There is no other creative consort of Indra other than Prakṛti, no female more charming, more agreeable, more pliant, more responsive, more attractive and more elevating, none other than me.

Indra is supreme over all the world.

7. *Uve amba sulābhike yathevāṅga bhaviṣyati.

Mother Nature, Prakrti, blessed and blissful fertility and giver of virility, whatever is to be shall be. My breast, my loins, my head all vibrate with energy, your gift. Indra is supreme over all.

O lady of lovely arms and nimble fingers, wavy hair and ample zone, divine consort of omnipotence, why do you arraign Vrshakapi, why blame jivatma?

Indra is supreme over all.

9. *Avīrāmiva māmayaṁ śarārurabhi manyate.

This naughty thinks of me as naught, bereft of the brave, while I am blest with heroes, and I am the creative consort of Indra and friend of the Maruts, stormy troops of the winds of nature.

Indra is supreme over all.

The creative force in original time receives the cosmic seed and stirs into action for the dynamics of creative evolution. For this very reason, Prakṛti, impregnated with the cosmic seed, is exalted as the consort of Indra, mother of the universal brave, controller of the laws of existence.

Indra is supreme over all.

11. Indrāṇīmāsu nāriṣu subhagāmahamaśrvam. Na hyasyā aparaṁ cana jarasā marate patirviśvasmādindra uttarah.

So have I heard of Indrani among the creative dames as the mother of glory. Never shall her lord, Indra, ever die of old age like others, men of mortal nature. Indra is supreme over all.

12. Nāhamindrāṇi rāraṇa sakhyurvṛṣākaperṛte. Yasyedamapyam haviḥ priyam deveṣu gacchati viśvasmādindra uttarah.

O divine consort, Indrani, I never enjoy the play of existence without my friend and companion, Vrshakapi, generous playful humanity, since the havi given by him and given for nature and humanity goes up and reaches the divinities which I share.

Indra is supreme over all.

13. Vṛṣākāpāyi revati suputra ādu susnuṣe. Ghasat ta indra uṣaṇaḥ priyaṁ kācitkaraṁ havirviśva-smādindra uttarah.

O Vrshakapayi, mother Prakrti, provider of living beings, opulent and abundant power, mother of noble children and giver of joy and bliss, mother fertility, Indra would ultimately take over and consume whatever dear, creative and inspiring havi you would offer here in the created world.

Indra is supreme over all the world.

14. Vṛṣākāpāyi revati suputra ādu susnuṣe. Utāhamadmi pīva idubhā kukṣī pṛṇanti me viśva-smādindra uttarah.

Natural powers of creative mother Prakrti ripen, mature and give up fifteen evolutionary forms of matter, energy and mind with twenty parts of the biological systems which I swallow at the completion of the existential cycle and I feel satisfied with the involutionary consumption of the Rtam and Satyam modes of existence. Indra is supreme over all.

Indra, just as a sharp horned bull bellows and lords over the herds of cattle with pride, so may the joyous process of the creative cycle which the dedicated celebrant and loving Prakṛti enacts for you give you satisfaction and joy at heart as lord and master of the world.

Indra is supreme over all.

16. Na seśe yasya rambate'ntarā sakthayā kapṛt.
Sedīśe yasya romaśaṁ niṣeduṣo vijṛmbhate viśva-

That person does not rule over the self whose hedonic mind roams and rambles around among objects of sensual pleasure. That person rules as master of the self whose radiant mind in a state of peace and freedom blossoms and expands in spiritual wakefulness. Indra is supreme over all.

17. Na seśe yasya romaśaṁ niṣeduṣo vijṛmbhate.
Sedīśe yasya rambate'ntarā sakthayā kapṛd viśvasmādindra uttarah.

That person whose radiant mind in a state of peace and freedom blossoms and expands in spiritual wakefulness does not rule the world of Prakṛti. The master that rules the world of Prakṛti is the power whose ecstatic presence in peace and sovereignty pervades in and over space and time. Indra is supreme over all.

Indra, lord omnipresent and omnipotent, let this Vṛshakapi, lover of joyous showers and shaker of thoughts of evil, know and realise that the duality between the self and the super self is ended. Then he will attain the soul inspiring pranic energy, creative intelligence, new spirit of yajnic performance and full achievement of the saving light of divinity.

Indra is supreme over all the world.

Perceiving the light of knowledge, building up my score of yajnic action, I come to the omnificent vibrant presence of divinity, and I drink of the nectar of the light and life of purity, eternity and direct realisation of divine communion. Indra is greater than the world of existence.

The desert land, the dead-wood or the dark abyss, whatever, wherever, howsoever many they be, they must be given up. Come closer to your own homes, shelter of the closest divinity. Indra is supreme over all the world.

O Vrshakapi, come again and both of us would create good things for your peace and comfort in well being. Thus destroying the state of dream and sleep, this lover of showers and breeze, Vrshakapi comes home by the paths of existence and piety again and again. Indra is supreme over all the world.

O Vrshakapi, O Indra, when the higher souls come rising to the state of peace in the divine home, then where does the sinner, the vexatious and the seeker roaming around go, to what state of life?

Great is Indra, supreme over all the world.

The creative and catalytic power of omniscient Indra, universal mother, together creates twenty varying modes of matter, energy and thought for physical, biological and intelligent forms of existence. O noble soul, blessed be the mother who suffers the travail to bear the transmigrant soul on way to earthly pleasure and pain and then the bliss divine. Great is Indra, greater than all, supreme over all the world.

Mandala 10/Sukta 87

Agni Rakshoha Devata, Payu Bharadvaja Rshi

र ाहणं वाजिनमा जिघमि मित्रं पथिष्ठमुप यामि शम् ।

1. Rakṣoḥaṇaṁ vājinamā jigharmi mitraṁ prathi- ṣṭhamupa yāmi śarma. Śisāno agniḥ kratubhiḥ samiddhaḥ sa no divā sa riṣaḥ pātu naktam.

I sprinkle the holy fire with ghrta and dedicate myself to Agni, light and fire of life, destroyer of evil and giver of victory, friend and saviour most boundless, and there I find peace and freedom for life eternal. May Agni, sharp and blazing with yajnic actions of creativity, protect and promote us against hate and enmity, violence and obstruction day and night.

2. *Ayodaṁṣṭro arciśā yātudhānānupa sprśa jāta-

Omnipresent spirit of life and protection of existence, blazing with flames of fire and fierce with jaws of steel, destroy the anti-life elements with the touch of your laser beams, seize the agents of death with flames, catch the blood suckers and flesh eaters with the jaws and crush them to naught.

Destroyer of the negative, refining the positive, commanding both creative and corrective powers for protective and punitive purposes, promote life both here and hereafter. O refulgent ruler of the world, fly over the skies and, with the force of both power and persuasion, overwhelm the violent and destructive, and either correct and integrate them or throw them out.

Organising the armed forces into order, alliance and submission by discussion, cooperation and submission, shining and updating the forces by the addition of lightning weapons and thereby paralysing the heart core of the terrorist forces, break their violent arms all round.

Agni, Jataveda, present everywhere, break through the cover, camouflage, secret shelters and hideouts of the elements of evil, violence and sabotage with fatal light and penetrative power, split up every section and every unit of it to bits, disperse and destroy them all, and let the fire which consumes the dead collect and consume the remains and reduce them to ash.

6. Yatredānīm paśyasi jātavedastiṣṭhantamagna uta vā carantam. Yadvāntarikṣe pathibhiḥ patantam tamastā vidhya śarvā śiśānaḥ.

And now, whenever you see, O ruler all knowing, Agni, the enemies of life, elements of darkness and destruction, covered in clusters or roaming around or even flying in the sky by paths of air, then sharp, shining and instantly shooting, destroy the enemy with a fatal shot of thunderous missile.

7. Utālabdham sprṇuhi jātaveda ālebhānādrṣṭi-bhiryātudhānāt. Agne pūrvo ni jahi śośucāna āmādaḥ kṣviṅkāstamadantvenīḥ.

Agni, first and foremost power, bright and blazing, knowing and commanding over everything born, with the strike of your force, power and punishment, release the innocents caught up in the clutches of the forces of violence and terror, destroy the carnivorous, blood suckers and eaters into the flesh, and let them be thrown to the vociferous vultures.

8. Iha pra brūhu yatamaḥ so agne yo yātudhāno ya idam kṛṇoti. Tamā rabhasva samidhā yaviṣṭha nṛcakṣasaścaksuṣe randhayainam.

Agni, expose and proclaim right here whoever be the violent force that does this damage. O youthful power ever watchful of humanity, subject it to the fuel fire and destroy it that all may see.

O Agni, blazing ruling power of nature and the world, ever alert, ever watchful of humanity, with penetrative and comprehensive eye, guard, protect and promote the yajnic order of society enacted and proceeding so clearly and transparently, and let it progress for the achievement of wealth, honour and excellence for all the people. Unsparing destroyer of the negatives, shining, and burning the destructive, let no violent force terrorize or depress you ever.

Agni, all watchful power, watch for the wicked enemy hidden among the people, crush his three prime forces of intelligence, arms and follow up. With your blazing fire and passion, break his back three ways, financial, manpower and allies. Throw up and throw out the forces of violence and destruction root and branch wherever they be.

Agni, all knowing Jataveda, brilliant ruler, whoever violates the law of truth with the force of untruth, must suffer threefold shackles of your law and power, justice, punishment and deterrence. Crashing on him with the light and power of truth, crushing him down openly before the law abiding and socially dedicated people, root out the evil and the violent.

O Agni, cast the same eye of light on the law abiding celebrant of the social order by which you watch the violent and antisocial elements treading on the peace and order of society. As an enlightened power undisturbed at heart, with your divine light and power, light up or burn out the callous and violent destroyer of truth and law.

Agni, the sharp and shooting words with which fighting rivals revile and execrate, the rough and raging words which the poet creates for irony, the piercing pain that issues forth in words from the mind in a state of passion, with that language chastise and strike the demonic violent deep to the heart core (yourself undisturbed).

Let the divinities break off the crooked, let the cruel curses visit back upon the crooked curser, let the arrows reach the heart core of the thief with the right message, and let the saboteur suffer universal bondage with loss of freedom under the rule of Agni.

Whoever feeds himself upon the flesh of humanity, whoever prospers by animal wealth at the cost of animal wealth by destroying it, whoever carries off the milk of the inviolable cow and destroys the fertility of the earth, O Agni, strike off their heads with light and passion for truth.

Agni, watchful guardian of humanity, let the oppressor not drink milk of the cow for a year, and if the oppressor drinks of the milk and excessively too, punish him with your flame unto the heart core.

Let the oppressors of the cows, earth and the environment drink poison instead of milk. Let the oppressors of Aditi, mother, sister and nature suffer in isolation. O Savita, saviour soul of renewal and replenishment, throw them off to ruin and let them be denied their share of herbs and trees. (Those who oppress the creative and productive powers of natural sustenance of life and pollute the sources of energy themselves deny the sustenance because that is the law of Agni in nature and life).

1. Haviṣpāntamajaram svarvidi divisprśyāhutaṁ juṣṭamagnau. Tasya bharmaṇe bhuvanāya devā dharmaṇe kaṁ svadhayā paprathanta.

Devas, the divines of humanity and divinities of nature, with food and reverence, offer delicious, expansive, loved and solemnly dedicated havi into the holy fire which rises to the skies and reaches the sun. Thus do they exalt Agni so that they may well be, rise and exalt in the gracious order of Agni under the divine shelter and support of the order.

2. Gīrṇaṁ bhuvanaṁ tamasāpagūḥmāviḥ svara-bhavajjāte agnau. Tasya devā prthivī dyauru-tāpo'raṇapannoṣadhīḥ sakhye asya.

The world of existence lay deeply engulfed and covered in the darkness of the night of Pralaya, annihilation, and then on the rise of Agni, Lord Supreme of light and life, it rose and manifested: Akasha, time-space continuum manifested, and then others followed, earth, light and heat, waters, herbs and trees all arose, and all the devas, divine spirits of nature, rejoiced in the love and friendship of this Lord Supreme, Agni.

3. *Devebhirnviṣito yajñiyebhiragniṁ stoṣānyajaraṁ

Inspired by Devas and lighting the fire of yajnas, I adore and exalt Agni, lord unaging and eternal, infinite, who, by his self-refulgence, pervades this earth and heaven and expands both heaven and earth and the middle regions of the skies.

या हातासीत्पथमा द्वजुष्टा यं समाज्ज ण्यना वृणानाः ।

nnājyenā vṛṇānāḥ. Sa patatrītvaraṁ sthā jaga-

I adore and exalt Agni who is the first, original and efficient cause of the cosmic yajna, loved and celebrated by the devas, whom the best of men with cherished love and choice sprinkle and serve with sacred ghrta, who creates, shapes and rules the world of flying, moving, non-moving and revolving objects and living beings. That is Agni, Jataveda, self-refulgent and omniscient.

O Jataveda, Agni, who abide and shine on top of the world with the sun, with our thoughts, words and holy songs we adore and worship you. You are adorable, worthy of worship, pervasive all over heaven and earth.

6. Mūrdhā bhuvo bhavati naktamagnistataḥ sūryo jāyate prātarudyan. Māyāmū tu yajñiyānāmetāmapo yat tūrṇiścarati prajānan.

Agni as Vaishvanara is awake and vibrates as the prime reality and spirit of existence at night when the whole world sleeps. Then in the morning, rising with the dawn, it shines as the sun. It is but the wondrous work of the highest of adorables, cosmic Maya, that it thus moves and vibrates at the fastest, knowing and watching all actions and movements of the world of moving and non-moving objects.

7. *Drśenyo yo mahinā samiddho'rocata divi

Wondrous in form, Agni, who, refulgent with its own grandeur, shines in heaven as the light most gracious is the divinity into whom, in sacred fire form, all devas, divinities of nature and humanity, guardians of our health and body, offer yajnic oblations of havi with the chant of Vedic mantras.

सूक्तवाकं प्रथममादिदग्निमादिद्धविरजनयन्त द्वाः ।

8. Sūktavākaṁ prathamamādidagnimdidhvira-janayanta devāḥ. Sa eṣāṁ yajño abhavat tanūpāstaṁ dyaurveda taṁ pṛthivī tamāpaḥ.

The devas, noble yajakas, first chant the divine Word, then they light the fire and then they prepare and offer the havi. That Agni is the adorable lord of them all, guardian and promoter of health and age. That the heaven receives, that the earth receives, and that the waters receive, and that all of them realise, the pervasive power and energiser.

यं द्वासा जनयन्ताग्निं यस्मि ऋजुहवुर्भुवनानि विश्वा ।

9. Yam devāso'janayantāgniṁ yasminnājuhavurbhuvanāni viśvā. So arciṣā pṛthivīm dyāmutemāmrjūyamāno atapanmahitvā.

Agni which all the divine powers of the universe create and serve, into which all worlds of the universe offer their oblations at the cosmic yajna of evolution and devolution, that Agni, radiant and natural ordainer, lights and energises this earth and heaven with its glory and self refulgence.

10. Stomena hi divi devāso agnimaājjanāñchaktibhī rodasiprām. Tamū akṛṇvan tredhā bhuve kaṁ sa oṣadhīḥ pacati viśvarūpāḥ.

By mantric power and their own potential the divine powers in heaven create and raise Agni which pervades earth and sky too, thus creating it in three ways: Agni or fire on earth, Vayu or electricity in the sky, and Aditya or light in heaven. This same Agni of all universal forms well matures and ripens herbs and all vegetation on earth.

11. Yadedenamadadhuryajñiyāso divi devāḥ sūrya-māditeyam. Yadā carīṣṇū mithunāvabhūtāmādit prāpaśyan bhuvanāni viśva.

When the divine powers, performers of cosmic yajna, place this sun, child of the refulgence of Aditi, mother Infinity, in the heavenly region, then it becomes two, moving together as twofold power, Agni and Vaishvanara, sun and dawn, and as they pervade all regions of the world, so do all regions of the world see them.

12. Viśvasmā agniṃ bhuvanāya devā vaiśvānaraṃ ketumahnāmakṛṇvan. Ā yastatānoṣaso vibhātī-rapo ūrṇoti tamo arcīṣā yan.

Devas, divine powers, create and make the solar form of Vaishvanara Agni, and make it the flag sign of the day for the sake of the whole world, and the sun, radiating, lights up the bright dawns and dispels the darkness of the night with its light, unveiling the day.

13. Vaiśvānaraṃ kavayo yajñiyāso' gniṃ devā ajana-yannajuryam. Nakṣatraṃ pratnamaminaccariṣṇu yakṣasyādhyakṣaṃ taviṣaṃ brhantam.

Wise and visionary Devas, adorable divine powers, create the unaging Vaishvanara Agni, the ancient star unalterable and inviolable, moving as the ruling star of space, blazing and expansive.

14. Vaiśvānaraṃ viśvahā dīvivāṃsaṃ mantrairagniṃ kavimacchā vadāmaḥ. Yo mahimnā paribabhū-vorvī utāvastāduta devaḥ parastāt.

With Vedic mantras we invoke and adore Agni, Vaishvanara, light divine ever shining bright, the very eye of omniscience which, with its might and grandeur, enlightens and overwhelms both heaven and earth, the ultimate light and bliss above and below, the end and the foundation both.

द्व स्त्रुती अशृणवं पितृणामहं द्वानामुत मर्त्यानाम ।

15. Dve sruṭī aśṛṇavaṁ pitṛṇāmahaṁ devānāmuta martyānām. Tābhyāmidam viśvamejat sameti yadantarā pitaraṁ mātaraṁ ca.

I hear there are two paths of life in existence: Pitryana, the path of average mortals to earthly bliss, and Devayana, the path of divine souls to divine bliss. By these does the world of vibrant life travel transmigrating from birth by father and mother to death and attains whatever is between earth and heaven.

Two, earth and heaven, together bear Agni born on top, vibrant and radiating from the highest heaven, and that abides immanent and pervasive all over the worlds of existence, unremissive, radiant and divinely self-refulgent.

17. Yatrā vadete avaraḥ paraśca yajñanyoḥ kataro nau vi veda. Ā śekurit sadhamādaṁ sakhāyo nakṣanta yajñaṁ ka idaṁ vi vocat.

Where both terrestrial agni and supraterrrestrial agni, both high priests of yajna, communicate and commingle then, for us, which one of these excels and proclaims the distinction? When yajakas do perform the yajna and serve and celebrate Agni together on the vedi, who would speak to us of the distinction?

कत्यग्रयः कति सूर्यासः कत्युषासः कत्यु स्विदापः ।
नापस्पिजं वः पितरा वदामि पृच्छामि वः कवया विद्वान्
कम ॥ १८ ॥

18. Katyagnayah kati sūryāsaḥ katsuṣāsaḥ katsu svidāpaḥ. Nopaspijaṁ vaḥ pitara vadāmi pṛcchāmi vaḥ kavayo vidmane kam.

How many are the fires? How many the suns? How many the dawns? How many the waters? O enlightened sages, I say this not out of curiosity, I ask you this in all seriousness for the sake of knowledge.

यावन्मात्रमुषसा न पतीकं सुपण्या३ वसत मातरिश्वः ।
तावद्दधात्युप यज्ञमायन्ब्राह्मणा हातुरवरा निषीदन ॥ १९ ॥

19. Yāvanmātramūṣaso na pratīkaṁ suparṇyo vasate mātariśvaḥ. Tāvaddadhātyupa yajñamāyan brahmaṇo hoturavaro niṣīdan.

As long as the all moving glorious Vayu, the electric form of Agni, with radiant sun rays bears and wears the face of dawn as its banner of the day, so long would the holy yajaka, the Brahmana, go to the yajna vedi and sit and offer the fragrant havi in honour of the terrestrial fire, the high priest of yajna.

Note: The answer to these questions is given in Rgveda 8, 58, 2: The same one Agni shines and blazes in many forms, The same one sun shines in all lights of the universe, the same one dawn rises over all this world, and the same one lord of existence manifests in all forms of the world,

1. Indraṁ stavā nṛtamaṁ yasya mahnā vibabādhe rocanā vi jmo antān. Ā yaḥ papraucarṣaṇī-dhṛdvarobhiḥ pra sindhubhyo riricāno mahitvā.

Adore and celebrate Indra, highest over humanity, who overwhelms the lights of the world with his grandeur and rules over the ends of the earth, who, watchful sustainer of humanity, pervades and fills the worlds of the universe by his excellences and, all overpowering, exceeds the oceans of earth and space by his glory and grandeur.

Indra, self-refulgent cosmic Sun, greater than the greatest, he moves the worlds of existence like chariot wheels and, destroying the deepest darknesses of the world with his refulgence, keeps the dynamic universe in ceaseless flow like a particle in a wave of energy.

Worship Indra, constant, evident and immanent, greater than heaven and earth, infinite, adorable ever new, who, as primary foundation and ultimate master, knows all that are born in existence and neither deserts friends nor hurts the devotees.

I sing songs of praise and make incessant streams of water flow from the oceans of space and sky in honour of Indra who, with his cosmic power and actions, sustains the heaven and earth in motion like wheels of a chariot held in balance by the axle.

Boundless in passion and potential, impetuous in action, mighty mover and shaker, awfully powerful, strongly armed, simple and natural, creative and inspiring like Soma, is Indra. Not all the winds and weapons of the world, not all the lights and blazes, no measures and comparisons of the finite world, can face, equal, much less exceed and overcome Indra.

Neither heaven and earth, nor sky, nor space, nor clouds and mountains, equal his might, creative and inspiring Soma as he is, especially when his power and passion, overwhelming all, shatters the strongest and shakes the firmest fixed.

7. Jaghāna vṛtram svadhitirvaneva ruropa puro aradanna sindhūn. Bibheda giriṁ navaminna kumbhamā gā indro akṛṇuta svayugbhiḥ.

Destroying the demon of darkness like lightning striking the woods, Indra shatters the strongholds of evil. He breaks the clouds and mountains like a little new earthen jar, and as he sets floods of rivers aflow, so with his own waves of divine energy, he lets the streams of psychic energy and spiritual enlightenment flow for the devotee.

8. *Tvaṃ ha tyadr̥ṇayā indra dhīro 'sirna parva

You alone are the constant and magnificent giver of bliss, and you alone, like the sword severing every knot and joint of negativity, destroy the evil and crookedness of life for those good people who do not violate the light and law of Mitra and Varuna, universal spirit of love, friendship and judgement and for those who do not ever deceive a real sincere friend of all time.

And against those crooked men of unholy ways who deceive the friend, violate the progressive man of justice and rectitude, hurt dedicated men of positive social support and oppose the man of judgement and enlightenment, O lord of power and progress, Indra, prepare the thunderbolt, instant, overwhelming and blazing but just and unquestionable, and strike such unfriendly and negative forces without delay.

10. Indro diva indra īśe pṛthivyā indro apāmindra it parvatānām. Indro vṛdhāmindra inmedhir-ānāmindraḥ kṣeme yoge havya indraḥ.

Indra rules over the heavens, Indra rules over the earth, Indra rules over the waters of earth and space, Indra rules over mountains and the clouds, and Indra rules over all our actions and ambitions. And Indra is the spirit and power for the rising wise on way to progress in times of peace and prosperity to be invoked and worshipped for protection and preservation of what has been gained and for the achievement of that what has yet to be gained further. (Yoga is achievement, and Kshema is preservation and protection of what has been achieved, and both these are two aspects of progress.)

Indra is far greater than the nights of existence, greater than days, space, and the bounds of space. He transcends the expansive currents of energy, the bounds of the universe, the flowing flux of existence, and all definitions of the flux in form.

Indeed, days and months, herbs and forests, clouds and mountains, shining skies and earth and the oceans and vapours of space, all move and proceed in accordance with Indra as it emerges into manifestation.

Where is that punitive power of yours, Indra, and when does it strike, the power that picks up and shatters the sinner, the criminal, and the perpetrator of evil, and struck by which the betrayers of friends, felled and dead, lie on the ground like cattle carcasses.

We invoke and adore Indra, lord of bliss, omnipotent, highest leader and guide of humanity in this our battle of life for protection, victory and further advancement. Indra is listening, blazing in battles, destroying demons of darkness, negativity and obstructions, and winning the honours, wealth and excellences of the world for humanity.

Mandala 10/Sukta 90

Purusha Devata, Narayana Rshi

सहस्रशीषा पुरुषः सहस्त्रा १ः सहस्रपात ।
 स भूमिं विश्वता वृत्वात्यतिष्ठद्दशाङ्गुलम् ॥ १ ॥

1. Sahasraśīṣā puruṣaḥ sahasrākṣaḥ sahasrapāt. Sa bhūmiṁ viśvato vṛtvātyatiṣṭhaddaśāṅgulam.

Purusha, the cosmic soul of existence, is Divinity personified, of a thousand heads, a thousand eyes and a thousand feet. It pervades the universe wholly and entirely and, having pervaded and comprehended the universe of ten Prakrtic constituents, It transcends the world of existence.

पुरुष एवदं सर्वं यद्भूतं यच्च भव्यम् ।

उतामृतत्वस्यशाना यदनातिराहति ॥ २ ॥

2. Puruṣa evedaṁ sarvaṁ yadbhūtaṁ yacca bhāvam. Utāmṛtatvasyeśāno yadannenātirohati.

All this that is and was and shall be is Purusha ultimately, sovereign over immortality and ruler of what expands by living food.

एतावानस्य महिमाता ज्यायँश्च पुरुषः ।

पादास्य विश्वा भूतानि त्रिपादस्यामृतं दिवि ॥ ३ ॥

3. Etāvānasya mahimāto jyāyāṁśca pūruṣaḥ. Pādo'sya viśvā bhūtāni tripādasyāmṛtaṁ divi.

So great is the grandeur and glory of It, and still the Purusha is greater. The entire worlds of existence are but one fourth of It. Three parts of Its mystery are in the transcendental heaven of immortality beyond the universe.

त्रिपादूर्ध्व उदत्पुरुषः पादास्य हाभवत्पुनः ।

तता विष्वङ व्यकामत्साशनानशन अभि ॥ ४ ॥

4. Tripādūrdhva udait puruṣaḥ pādo'syehābhavat punaḥ. Tato viṣvaṁ vyakrāmt sāsānānāśane abhi.

Three parts higher rises the Purusha above the universe in which only one measure of Its glory manifests again and again, pervading all the material and biological world and thence remains transcendent over the universe.

5. *Tasmādvirāḷajāyata virājo adhi pūruṣaḥ.
Sa jāto atyaricyata paścādbhūmimatho purah.*

From Purusha arose Virat, the cosmic idea, the blue-print in terms of Prakrti. The Purusha manifests in the Virat and remains sovereign over it. Though manifested, it exceeds, transcends and then creates the universe and the world regions for forms of existence.

6. *Yat puruṣeṇa haviṣā devā yajñamatanvata.
Vasanto asyāsīdājyaṁ grīṣma idhmaḥ śara-

When the sages visualise the universal yajna of creation and enact it in communion with the Purusha in meditation, then the spring season is the ghrta, summer is the fuel, and winter is the havi. (This meditative enactment is in terms of nature. In fact, the creation of the universe is an evolutionary process beginning with Prakrti evolving into material, biological and psychic forms as follows in this very hymn.)

तं यज्ञं ब्रहिषि पा ऽन्पुरुषं जातमगतः ।

7. Taṁ yajñam barhiṣi praukṣan puruṣaṁ jātama-grataḥ. Tena devā ayajanta sādhyā ṛṣyaśca ye.

The Rshis of universal vision, sages of universal accomplishment and scholars of the Veda, invoke and worship the eternal Purusha, self-manifested in advance of every thing else of the cosmic yajna. They spread and consecrate the grass over the vedi in mind and offer the oblations in the cosmic fire with Veda mantras.

8. Tasmādyajñāt sarvahutaḥ sambhṛtaṁ ṛṣadā-jyam. Paśūn tāṁścakre vāyavyānāraṇyān grām-yāśca ye.

From that cosmic yajna with total input of Prakṛti, by the universal Purusha was prepared and received the sacred ghrta, living plasma, the universal material of creation. He created the animals, all those birds of the air, rangers of the forest and inmates of the village.

9. Tasmādyajñāt sarvahuta ṛcaḥ sāmāni jajñire. Chandāṁsi jajñire tasmādyajustasmādajāyata.

10. *Tasmādaśvā ajāyanta ye ke cobhayādataḥ.

From that yajna were born the horses and those which have two rows of teeth up and down. From that were born the cows and from that were born the goat and sheep.

11. *Yat puruṣam vyadadhuh katidhā vyakalpayan.
Mukham kimasya kau bāhu kā ūrū pādā ucyete.*

How do the Rshis visualise the manifestive modes of the Purusha? What was his mouth? What the arms? What the thighs? What are the feet as they are said to be?

12. *Brāhmaṇa'sya mukhamāsīdbāhū rājanyaḥ kṛtaḥ.

The Brahmana, man of divine vision and the Vedic Word, is the mouth of the Samrat Purusha, the human community. Kshatriya, man of justice and polity, is created as the arms of defence. The Vaishya, who produces food and wealth for the society, is the thighs. And the man of sustenance and ancillary support with labour is the Shudra who bears the burden of the human family as the legs bear the burden of the body.

13. Candramā manaso jātaścakṣoḥ sūryo ajāyata. Mukhādindraścāgniśca prāṇādvāyurajāyata.

The moon is born of the cosmic mind, the sun is born of the eye, the fire and energy is born from the mouth and the wind is born from the breath.

14. Nābhyā āsīdantarikṣam śīrṣṇo dyauḥ samavartata. Padbhyām bhūmirdiśśaḥ śrotrāt tathā lokāṁ akalpayan.

The sky was born of the navel of the cosmic Purusha, that is, the sky is the navel part of the universe, the heaven of light arose from the head, the earth solidified from the dust of the feet, the space quarters emanated from the ear, and the other regions of the universe similarly arose from the Purusha.

सप्तस्यासन्परिधयस्त्रिः सप्त समिधः कृताः ।

15. Saptāsyāsan paridhayastrīḥ sapta samidhaḥ kṛtāḥ. Devā yadyajñam tanvānā abadhnan puruṣam paśum.

Seven are the bounds of the vedi of cosmic yajna in meditation, thrice seven, twenty one, are the samidhas, fuel sticks, ordained and offered into the yajna fire. When the sages enact the yajna within, they concentrate on the Purusha, the universal observer, whose presence they crystallise and fix upon in the soul for direct realisation.

Note: In this mantra the word ‘pashu’ does not mean ‘animal’ as has been interpreted by certain translators. The word ‘pashu’ is derived from the root ‘pash’ which means ‘to see, to observe’. ‘Pashu’ then means ‘one who sees’, and here it means the ‘Purusha, cosmic observer’ whose presence is the object of concentration in meditation.

Seven bounds and twenty one samidhas is the mystique of meditative yajna of creation which has been explained in different ways. Swami Dayanand explains it thus in his commentary on Yajurveda, 31, 15:

Seven bounds are the seven chhandas, metrical compositions of Veda mantras such as Gayatri. Twenty one samidhas are: Prakrti, potential material cause of the universe, Mahat, material cause actualised, Ahankara, individualised identity of the universe which may also be called the blue print of the universe, five subtle elements or tanmatras, five gross elements, five senses, and three qualitative orders of the creative materials, i.e., Sattva (thought), Rajas (energy) and Tamas (matter), and that makes up twenty one.

In the Introduction to his Commentary on the Vedas Swami Dayanand explains the same thing in a different and detailed manner in the chapter on creation.

For an average reader, a simpler way to understand is to refer to the seven stages of creative evolution: Prakrti, Mahat, Ahankara, Tanmatra, perceptive faculties, volition faculties, and gross elements. These stages of evolution are the seven bounds of creative yajnas performed by Purusha. They are also samidhas because each successive evolute arises from yajnic consumption of the preceding one. And each of these seven is of three orders of quality, Sattva, Rajas and Tamas. That makes it thrice seven.

Another way to realise the seven boundaries is to refer to the seven Vyahrtis: Bhuh, Bhuvah, Svah, Mahah, Janah, Tapah and Satyam which are the boundaries of each loka or region of existence.

यज्ञं यज्ञमयजन्त द्वास्तानि धर्माणि पथमान्यासन । त
ह नाकं महिमानः सचन्त यत्र पूर्व साध्याः सन्ति
द्वाः ॥ १६ ॥

16. Yajñena yajñamayajanta devāstāni dharmāṇi prathamānyāsan. Te ha nākaṁ mahimānaḥ sacanta yatra pūrve sādhyāḥ santi devāḥ.

By that yajna of the mind, and in meditative realisation of the cosmic process of evolution, the sages worship the master of cosmic yajna and realise the eternal and original Dharmas of existence. Blest with the light of the divine, they experience that heaven of freedom which the primeval sages of the world enjoyed at the dawn of creation.

In objective terms: Divine powers and potentials by integration and interaction conduct and accomplish the yajna of creation. They are the primary modes of the laws and causes of creative evolution which, while they wield and realise their potential in evolution, they also embody and realise the heavenly purpose, the original and efficient cause, the Purusha, and they are also the same original and eternal potentials of divinity which carry on the eternal cycle of existence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 91Agni Devata, Aruna Vaitahavya Rshi

1. Sam jāgrvadbhirjaramāṇa idhyate dame damūnā iṣayanniḷaspade. Viśvasya hotā haviṣo vareṇyo vibhurvibhāvā suṣakhā sakhīyate.

Agni, celebrated by enlightened devotees, is kindled and lighted in yajnic halls on the holy ground on earth. Generous it is, loving and inspiring, universal giver and receiver of yajnic materials and fragrances of yajna, loving choice of all, all pervasive, refulgent, and an unfailing friend who loves the devotees as friends and is honoured by them as a friend.

2. Sa darṣataśrīratithirgrhegrhe vanevane śisriye takvavīriva. Janamjanam janyo nāti manyate viśa ā kṣeti viśyo viśamviśam.

Commanding excellent grace and grandeur, honoured like a holy guest, it abides in every home and every forest like a flying bird. Lover of humanity, it blesses every community, ignores none, scorns none, loves every class of people and lives with all classes and communities with equal love and favour.

Refulgent Agni, generous with immense gifts, noblest performer by holy works, you are the omniscient poetic creator evidently by your cosmic poetry of existence. You alone dwell in the world as the highest Vasu of life shelters and living forms, and you are the master of all that the heaven and earth create and sustain.

Agni, lighted and refulgent, come and take your holy seat in the vedi prepared and sprinkled with ghrta according to the season on the floor of the yajnic earth. The light and flames of your arrival shine and appear like rise of the dawns, like rays of the sun, pure, immaculate, beatific.

Your wonderful lustre and beauties shine like lightning flashes of the clouds of rain, like lights of the rising dawns, specially when, radiating warm and free, you reach and shine upon the herbs and trees and fields of grain and receive them into the shining warmth of your maturing and ripening radiations.

That Agni, energy, the herbs and waters receive into them and they bear it as mothers, producing it on maturity as nourishment and energy for life forms. The same Agni, the herbs and trees of the forest receive equally, hold it in the womb and always produce it as the embodiment of energy.

When urged and impelled by wind, Agni, you rush fast to objects of your choice love and consumption, then your youthful unaging flames, burning and blazing, rush on like the horses of a monarch's chariot.

Devotees choose to worship Agni alone, none other than Agni, giver of intelligence, accomplisher of yajna and education for knowledge, high priest of yajnic existence, supreme over all, omniscient wise, and equally loving for all, whether the havi offered is small or great, whether the purpose is high or low. O lord of light, they choose none other than you.

9. Tvāmidatra vṛṇate tvāyavo hotāramagne vidatheṣu vedhasaḥ. Yaddevayanto dadhati prayānsi te haviṣmanto manavo vṛktabarhiṣaḥ.

Agni, here in the world, your loving devotees, wise sages, thoughtful people, choose to worship you, high priest of yajna, when dedicated to divinity and the divine potentials of nature, having spread the holy grass on the vedi and bearing sacred havi, they offer their dearest fragrant oblations to you.

Agni, you are the over all master and lord of yajna, yours are all the functions: you are the yajaka, you are the purifier, you are the leader, you are the kindler, you are the director, you are the manager, you are the Brahma, presiding priest, and you are the chief of our yajnic home.

Agni, whoever the mortal that gives unto you, Spirit imperishable, Lord immortal, and surrenders himself by way of fuel fire, dedicates his total life as yajnic performance, you yourself become the yajaka for him, move as his messenger, speak to him in the soul, and take over his life itself as manager of the yajna. (Surrender, O man, to the Immortal for the sake of immortality.)

Let me raise this new holy song of praise to the loving and gracious eternal Agni. May the Lord listen. And let it be like an inspiring creative poem full of love and passion in a beautiful form for the master, able to touch and move his heart within to bless me.

With love and devotion at heart I create this song of thoughtful praise for the kind and gracious Agni under whose order and dispensation horses, virile bulls, cows, sheep and goats are created and range around freely and then are called back to the stalls.

Honour and adore Agni, leader of your life's yajna, ruler and sustainer of communities of the people, pioneer and chief priest of the universe, useful giver of the peace of night, and spectrum light of the world. Generous and virile, brilliant illuminator, worthy of honour and adoration, burning the dry woods and vibrating in the greens it pervades every thing on earth and repose in the regions of light.

Both humans and divines honour and adore this Agni, by nature energising life constantly, sustainer of the world and its dharma, accomplisher of yajna. They love and adore it like the mighty sun, harbinger of the dawn and child inviolable of the blazing cosmic energy.

Truly do we love and adore the various gifts of this Agni. May the food, energy and sustenance, all with light divine, blessed gifts, be good for consumption and advancement. Indeed, when relentless devotees come to realise the imperishable joy and freedom of immortality, then are the gifts of this divine Agni truly realised in actuality.

4. Ṛtasya hi prasitirdyaururu vyaco namo mahyaramatiḥ paṇīyasī. Indro mitro varuṇaḥ saṁ cikitrīre'tho bhagaḥ savitā pūtadakṣasaḥ.

All this existence is an extension, a web, of nature and her law under the ordinance of Agni: the heavens of light, the vast skies, adorable earth, expansive space, all are but fragrant manifestations of Agni, the cosmic high priest. Mitra, the sun, Varuna, the night, Bhaga, cosmic power, Savita, cosmic creativity, all reveal the omnipotence of the generous lord of light and purity that gives everything in plenty. They all do homage to Agni.

5. Pra rudreṇa yayinā yanti sindhavastiro mahīmaratiṁ dadhanvire. Yebhiḥ parijmā pariyanuru jrayo vi roruvajjathare viśvamukṣate.

Showers of rain and floods of rivers which cover the earth move by the tempestuous currents of cosmic energy of the Maruts, and by the same currents the vast ocean of vapours far traversing across the middle regions roars in the womb of skies and showers and fertilises the world of life.

Active currents of the cosmic energy of the Maruts, dwelling all over the universe, move from the regions of the sun as directed companions of the ocean of vapours, and along with those dynamic currents are seen the dynamic Varuna, Mitra, Aryama and Indra, forces of nature's catalysis, integration, direction and motive energy.

Indra, cosmic energy, is self-potent, creative and immensely fertile. In Indra, in its splendid self-manifestive power to be observed and pursued with the mind, they find possibilities of human profit, and they, creative and competent craftsmen in elite human institutions, invent usable instruments of power, prosperity and protection.

Even the sun radiates its rays of light under the power and law of Indra, supreme omnipotent. Every powerful force obeys the law and power of Indra. Under the power of fertile and potent Indra, the whistling winds blow from its vault and the mighty cloud roars without obstruction day by day.

Offer now a song of praise and adoration with homage to Rudra, mighty lord of justice and dispensation, leader, protector and ruler of the brave, self-existent, self-glorious, lover of peace and well being, commanding bright power and forces moving on their ordered course by which he blesses loving devotees with the fulfilment of their cherished desires.

They for sure hold and know the evolution of life, birth of divinity's children: Brhaspati, lord of Prakṛti and the Word of knowledge, Vrshabha, generator of the seed of life in the form of Hiranyagarbha, and the Soma currents of vitality which bear the seeds in life form. These, first Atharvan holds in knowledge and disseminates in form and word by processes of yajna, and later, the divine Bhrgus, sages of knowledge and austere discipline, acquire the knowledge by tradition and their own expertise.

These for sure are the divinities which contribute to the evolution and flow of life : the solar region and the earth both replete with life and fertility, the middle region which overflows with electric energy, air, vapour, and elements of nourishment, evolutionary law in its course, imperishable mother nature, divine Tvashta which is the formative power immensely generous and keen to structure the forms, pranic energy, wind energy, and Vishnu, divine power of sustenance. These are powers worthy of our gratitude, reverence and worship.

And may that Ahirbudhnya, omnipresent, omniscient and all watching lord of expansive Prakṛti, listen to our profuse prayer and adoration offered in our yajna with unbounded love and faith. And may the sun and moon, both stationed in heaven and moving in space, acknowledge our homage with their sensitive natural perception, and may the heaven and earth too acknowledge our homage.

13. Pra naḥ pūṣā caratham viśvadevyo'pām napā-davatu vāyuriṣṭaye. Ātmānaṁ vasyo abhi vāta-marcata tadaśvinā suhavā yāmani śrutam.

And may Pusha, divine spirit of nature's nourishment, protect and promote our living and moving wealth. May the life-giving Vayu energy, sustainer of life's vitality, and all natural divinities protect and promote us to achieve our cherished desires for well being. O dedicated celebrants of divinity, honour and adore the glorious spiritual energy within the soul, and may the Ashvins, complementary currents of natural life energy in yajnic touch with us, perceive our earnestness on way and bring us blessings of divinity.

With songs of praise we celebrate Agni, ruling divine power abiding at heart among these fearless people, the divinity glorious by its own actions. Along with all the world's divine powers of nature and humanity, we also praise Aditi, imperishable Prakrti, the moon, youthful ruler of the night, and the self-existent, self-refulgent sun, gracious life giver of the people.

By birth, the first and foremost sage Angira sings the song of divinity, the soma makers look up and watch the process of divine creation and all those powers by which the all watching creator waxes great and his omnipotence creates and provides the highest kind of food for humanity for the journey ahead.

May the great earth and high heaven be vaster and greater, and always waxing and rising for us, may they like mothers help us rise and grow. May they, stronger and more prosperous, promote us by those heavenly gifts of light and rain. May they, ever stronger, amiable, procreative and productive, help us grow with these gifts of rain and food.

2. Yajñeyajñe sa martyo daivāntsaparyati.
Yah sumnairdīrghaśruttama āvivāsātyenān.

That mortal man serves and augments the divinities who, risen in knowledge and wisdom by reading and listening to the utmost, serves them in every yajnic programme with holy works of cleansing and replenishment to be creative and productive more and more.

O masters of the world, great is the glory of the divinities. All of them command universal majesty, all of them are adorable in yajnic congregations.

4. Te ghā rājāno amṛtasya mandrā aryamā mitra varuṇaḥ parijmā. Kadrudro nṛṇām stuto marutaḥ pūṣaṇo bhagaḥ.

They are lights of immortality, happy and joyous, harbingers of well being to humanity: Aryama, spirit of justice and rectitude in conduct, Mitra, divine love, friendship and unity, Varuna, spirit of judgement and choice, Parijma, all moving air, Rudra, destroyer of suffering, Maruts, cosmic currents of energy, Pushana, energy and nourishment for growth, Bhaga, spirit of divine glory and human power and prosperity. Everyone of them is valued, loved and respected by humanity.

5. Uta no naktamapām vṛṣaṇvasū sūryāmāsā sadanāya sadhanyā. Sacā yat sādyeṣāmahir-budhneṣu budhnyah.

And those harbingers of rain and wealth, the Ashvins, the sun and moon, auspicious givers of wealth for the home, the clouds of vapour floating in the skies and their auxiliaries which abide in nature, may all these be friendly and bless us with wealth and joy day and night.

6. Uta no devāvaśvinā śubhaspatī dhāmabhir-mitrā-varuṇā uruṣyatām. Mahah sa rāya eṣate'ti dhanveva duritā.

And may the divine Ashvins, complementary currents of natural energy, Mitra and Varuna, prana and udana energies of the body system vibrating in nature, protect and promote us. One whom they protect and promote rises great in wealth, rules it as the master and crosses over all evils with a single leap.

And may the health giving Rudra pranas, the Ashvins, prana and apana energies, all brilliant holy men of the world, Bhaga, spirit of honour, power and prosperity of life, the presiding power of the chariot of human life for the individual and society, Rbhu, the wise sage of creative expertise, Vaja, commander of strength and progressive advancement, Rbhuksha, skilful technician, all moving wind energy, and managers of the world's wealth be kind and good for our welfare.

Great is Indra, cosmic energy, great is the joy of the creator of cosmic energy. O mighty lord of cosmic energy, great are the complementary currents of your energy circuit. Grand, not easy, is the knowledge and articulation of the divine energy of nature, and its management too at the human level as yajnic process is not easy.

Savita, O lord of light and life's creativity, admired and exalted by the strong and powerful, pray make us bold and self-confident, let us never be subjected to shame and ignominy. Indra, lord of power, controls and directs the power and wisdom of these people of the earth with psychic currents of pranic energies as a driver controls and directs the movement of the chariot by reins and the wheels.

O earth and heaven, mother and father of humanity, pray vest high honour and fame of universal human order in these brave heroes. Exalt them with food and energy, honour and enthusiasm, and wealth and excellence for the achievement of victory and conquest over evil forces.

Indra, lord omnipotent, you are our father, mother, protector and all, pray accept this celebrant all time wherever he be, protect him for his good, promote him for his cherished happiness and well being. Pray take on the seeker, enlighten the lover, save me, O shelter home of the world.

12. Etam me stomaṁ tanā na sūrye dyutadyāmānaṁ vāvṛdhanta nṛṇām. Saṁvananaṁ nāśvyaṁ taṣṭe-vānapacyutam.

May the singers of divinity and celebrants of humanity exalt and extend this my song of divine adoration and united human celebration like radiant rays of the sun spreading light or a craftsman launching an infallible automotive fast chariot on boundless ways.

13. Vāvarta yeṣāṁ rāyā yuktaiṣāṁ hiraṇyayī. Nemadhitā na paṁsya vṛtheva viṣṭāntā.

The prayer of devotees whose words are replete with the wealth of conscience and sincerity naturally and spontaneously bears the golden fruit of divine love and salvation, just as the heroic exploits of warriors in battle, united and directed to the same one end, lead to victory and never go waste.

14. Pra tadduḥśīme pṛthavāne vene pra rāme vocamasure maghavatsu. Ye yuktvāya pañca śatā-smayu pathā viśrāvyeṣām.

To the restless, celebrated, emotional, sensual, exuberant and powerful, let me speak of that knowledge and wisdom which is heard of these our well wishers of humanity who control and direct five hundred fluctuations of their mind by meditation to peace and divinity. (That is the path of living, knowing and speaking.)

15. Adhīnnvatra saptatim ca sapta ca. Sadyo didiṣṭa tānvaḥ sadyo didiṣṭa pārthyah sayo didiṣṭa māyavaḥ.

Here in the matter of body and mind, divine nature gives and simultaneously orders and controls seventy seven nerves of the body, seventy seven bone structures, and seventy seven articulatory functions.

Gravana Devata, Arbuda Sarpa Kadraveya Rshi

1. Praite vadantu pra vadāma grāvabhyo vācam vadatā vadadbhyaḥ. Yadadrayaḥ parvatā sākamāśavaḥ ślokaṁ ghoṣaṁ bharathendrāya sominaḥ.

Let these veteran sages speak, let us also speak the Word from the sages who speak for us. You too, O yajakas, speak the Word when the sages of eminent standing, bearers of soma, together passionately offer the words of divine praise to Indra.

एत वदन्ति शतवत्सहस्रवदभि कन्दन्ति हरितभिरासभिः ।

2. Ete vadanti śatavat sahasravadabhi krandanti haritebhirāsabhiḥ. Viṣṭvī grāvāṇaḥ sukrataḥ sukratyayā hotuścīt pūrve haviradyamāśata.

The sages speak as they do to hundreds and thousands, and proclaim the Word loud and bold with resounding voice. Eloquent sages of long standing, noble performers, sitting on the vedi, speak with noble tongue in sacred language and partake of the yajnic hospitality of the yajamana.

एत वदन्त्यविदना मधु न्यूङ्खयन्त अधि पक्व आमिषि ।

They speak only when they know the subject by experience, having tasted with relish the honey sweets of the juice in the ripe fruit. Enjoying the fruit of life on the bright branch of the tree of existence they, mighty wise, bearing the knowledge by experience in the mind, speak the word of wisdom and reveal the truth.

They speak wide and bold, exalt Indra with joy in words of ecstasy, tasting, knowing and proclaiming sweets of honey by music of the tongue. Having experienced and enjoyed the taste of sweetness repeatedly, the veterans express the ecstasy in dance with gestures, movements and expressions, the earth resounding with the music of their joy.

5. *Suparṇā vācamakratopa dyavyākhare kṛṣṇā iṣirā

Birds of imagination fly up to the bounds of heaven and raise their voice of adoration, vibrant clouds dance in the deepest caverns of space and celebrate their joy, the spirits distil the ecstasy of highest realisation and, pure and radiant as sunlight, receive profuse showers of immortal life.

Like virile bulls yoked together bearing the chariot pole and drawing the chariot forward, they, inspired and mighty enthusiastic, lead humanity forward. Breathing, panting, happily accepting all pleasure and pain of social experience, they go on proclaiming their message, and the echoes of their proclamation is heard like the breathing of victorious race horses.

7. Daśāvanibhyo daśakakṣyebhyo daśayoktrebhyo daśayojanebhyah. Daśābhīśubhyo arcatājarebhyo daśa dhuro daśa yuktā vahabdbyah.

Honour those who work at ten levels of earthly life and create the soma joy of existence, ten equal cooperators like the ten fingers, ten equal cooperative faculties such as the senses, ten possible cooperatives such as energies of passion and understanding, ten partners such as the pranic energies, ten dynamic forces such as will and determination, ten unaging ones such as desires and ambitions, ten burden bearers joined to carry on the tenfold business of living such as the rules of personal and social discipline.

8. Te adrayo daśayantrāsa āśavasteṣāmādhānaṁ paryeti haryatam. Ta ū sutasya somyasyāndhasom'śoḥ pīyūṣaṁ prathamasya bhejire.

They are the sages and scholars strong as adamant, high as mountains, roaring as clouds, working with tenfold discipline and freedom of mind, fast and instant workers and thinkers whose total energy and attention is concentrated on the one central end and aim of life: the creation of joy. And they alone share and enjoy the first, original and immortal nectar sweet of the blissful energy and ecstasy of life created and refined by sages.

9. Te somādo harī indrasya nimsatem' śum duhanto adhyāsate gavi. Tebhirdugdham papivāntsomyam madhvindro vardhate prathate vṛṣāyate.

They, tasting of soma joy, attain to both knowledge and action toward both secular and sacred aims of life under divine dispensation and, distilling the joy of life, abide confident in the state of yoga on the earth and then on higher planes as well. Indra, the soul, drinking of the honey sweet milk of divine ecstasy, rises, expands and expresses itself in showers of creative joy and positive activity.

10. Vṛṣā vo amśurna kilā riṣāthaneḷāvantah sadamit sthanāśitāḥ. Raivatyeva mahasā cāravaḥ sthana yasya grāvāṇo ajuṣadhvamadhvaram.

O lovers and creators of soma, strong, generous and inexhaustible is your soma of joy. You would never be hurt or violated. Blest with food, energy and enlightenment, live ever satisfied and happy. O sages, abide in life as great and brilliant as with the spirit of the wealth, honour and excellence of life. The stalk of your joy whose yajna you live by is deep, eternal and immortal.

11. Tṛdilā atrdilāso adrayo 'śramaṇā aśrthitā amṛtyavaḥ. Anāturā ajarāḥ sthāmaviṣṇavaḥ supī-vaso atrṣitā atrṣṇajah.

O revered sages, be ever relentless, inviolable, destroyers of evil, indefatigable, immortal, unafflicted, unaging, steadfast and dynamic, strong and healthy, uninhibited and unfrustrated, and free from greed.

12. Dhrvā eva vaḥ pitaro yugeyuge kṣemakāmāsaḥ sadaso na yuñjate. Ajuryāso hariṣājo haridrava ā dyāṁ raveṇa prthivīmaśuśravuḥ.

O veteran sages, parental lovers of humanity, be all time strong and steadfast, well wishers of all as members of one joint family. Untouched by age, lovers of life's greenery, inspirers of life's joy, speak so that your voice resounds and is heard across the earth and skies.

kṛtaḥ prñcanti somaṁ na minanti bapsataḥ.*

Veteran sages on way to freedom from the bonds of mortality speak of immortal Indra like bards in a state of ecstasy. As the farmer, having sowed the corn, guards it till ripeness, they, enjoying the soma experience, guard and mature the nectar, they do not violate it, never destroy the taste of immortality.

सुत अध्वर अधि वाचमकृता कीळ्या न मातरं तुदन्तः ।

14. Sute adhware adhi vācamakratākṛīlayo na mātaraṁ tudantaḥ. Vi ṣū muñcā suṣuvuṣo manīṣāṁ vi vartantāmadrayaścāyamānāḥ.

Just as children in love vex the mother while playing, so when the yajna is on and soma is extracted, let the sages recite the hymns with love and a sense of freedom and release in spontaneity and then let them retire with love and reverence into rest and silence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 95

Devata: Urvashi (1, 3, 6, 8-10, 12, 14, 17), Pururava (2, 4, 5, 7, 11, 13, 15, 16, 18), Rshi: Pururava Aila (1, 3, 6, 8-10, 12, 14, 17), Urvashi (2, 4, 5, 7, 11, 13, 15, 16, 18)

(This sukta is a dialogue between Pururava, the man, and Urvashi, the consort.)

हय जाय मनसा तिष्ठघार् वचांसि मिश्रा कृणवावह नु ।

न न मन्त्रा अनुदितास एत मयस्करन्परतर चनाहन ॥ १ ॥

1. Haye jāye manasā tiṣṭha ghore vacāṁsi miśrā kṛṇavāvahai nu. Na nau mantrā anuditāsa ete mayaskaran paratare canāhan.

Hey venerable one, awful too though, stay awhile with mind at ease. Let us have a dialogue between us, words of mutual interest, of love and sweetness. These words and thoughts have remained unexpressed between us. Will they not do some good to us some later day?

किमता वाचा कृणवा तवाहं पाकमिषमुषसामगियव ।

पुरूरवः पुनरस्तं परहि दुरापना वार्तइवाहमस्मि ॥ २ ॥

2. Kimetā vācā kṛṇavā tavāhaḥ prākra-miṣamu-ṣasāmagriyeva. Purūravaḥ punarastam parehi durāpanā vāta ivāhamasmi.

What shall we do with these words of yours? I am yours but I go like mist of the morning before dawn. Go back to your abode, Pururava, I am unattainable, elusive like the winds.

इषुन श्रिय इषुधरसना गाषाः शतसा न रंहिः ।

अवीर कता वि दविद्युत गरा न मायुं चितयन्त धुनयः ॥ ३ ॥

3. Iṣurna śriya iṣudherasanā goṣāḥ śatamā na raṁhiḥ. Avīre kratau vi davidyutannorā na māyūṁ citayanta dhunayaḥ.

I am not able to shoot the arrow from the quiver for victory and glory, and though I am strong and brave, I cannot win the hundreds of lands with the roar of victory. O lady bereft of the brave, I shine not in the rising battles of life, my own powerful forces forsake me.

(The dialogue develops as a dialogue between man in love with life and the search for inspiration, purpose and consummation of living. The love is intense, excessive and vociferous like the thundering cloud's and the inspiration is lovely and seductive like the elusive lightning. It can be interpreted as a dialogue between the ambitious ruler and the social power, and ultimately, between the liver (man) and the possibilities of life, the passion and the unattainable, the dawn and the day, the night and the morrow.)

Note that Pururava is Aila, child of Ila, nature, and Urvashi is infinite beauty, and their consummation is joy and creativity.

सा वसु दधती श्वशुराय वय उषा यदि वष्ट्यन्तिगृहात् ।

अस्तं नन । यस्मिञ्चाकन्दिवा नक्तं श्नथिता वतसन ॥ ४ ॥

4. Sā vasu dadhī śvaśurāya vaya uṣo yadi vaṣṭyantigrhāt. Astaṁ nanakṣe yasmiñcākan divā naktam śnathitā vaitasena.

If Urvashi (electric energy or the dawn) bearing light and nourishment for the coming day were to rise from the depth of space or darkness of night, and stricken with love as catalytic agent, were to visit the lover's chamber, the heart of the cloud or the sun on the rise, then she would be struck with three way charge of positive, negative and consummative 'vaitasa', process of nature's evolutionary activity. Day and night, all time?

(‘Vaitasa’ is the name of a process of movement, attainment, fertility, enlightenment, extension, consumption and evolution in the natural cycle. The catalytic agent does not stay with the mode it causes to change and move toward growth. The electric charge causes the cloud thunder, breaks the cloud into rain, and that causes the earth to produce vegetation. The processes of catalysation, rain and growth are described in the Brahmanas and quoted by Swami Dayananda in his commentaries on Vedic mantras.)

त्रिः स्म माह्नः श्नथया वतसनात स्म म व्यत्य पृणासि ।
पुरूरवा नु त कतमायं राजा म वीर तन्वस्तदासीः ॥ ५ ॥

5. Triḥ sma māhnaḥ śnathayo vaitasenota sma me'vyatyai prṇāsi. Purūravo'nu te ketamāyaṁ rājā me vīra tanva tadāsiḥ.

O Pururava, cloud, day, thrice in a unit of time you would move me with the energy of procreative nature and thus achieve the fulfilment of nature's purpose. Come to your chamber thus for fulfilment, O brave one, you would be the ruler of my body. (But stay I cannot.)

Mantras 4 and 5 are spoken by Urvashi like a thoughtful soliloquy.

या सुजृणिः श्रणिः सुम्नअपिहृदचं तुन गन्थिनी चरण्युः ।
ता अञ्जया रुणया न संस्तुः श्रिय गावा न धनवा - नवन्त ॥ ६ ॥

6. Yā sujūrṇiḥ śreṇiḥ sumnapirhradecakṣurna granthinī caranyuḥ. Tā añjāyo'ruṇayo na sasruḥ śīrye gāvo na dhenavo'navanta.

Waves of energy flow, exciting, wavy, soothing, successive and cyclic, and move in circuit, beautiful, shining red rays, harbingers of beauty and prosperity like young loving cows of the family.

समस्मिञ्जायमान आसत् ग्रा उतमवध द्यौः स्वगूताः ।
मह यत्त्वा पुरुरवा रणायावधयन्दस्युहत्याय द्वाः ॥ ७ ॥

7. Samasmiñjāyamāna āsata gnā utemavardhan nadyaḥ svagūrtāḥ. Mahe yat tvā purūravo raṇāyāvardhayan dasyuhatyāya devāḥ.

When this roaring cloud is formed or when the sun is risen for the day, then many forces like divine consorts of nature join and, self-energised and fluent like showers of rain and streams of water, exalt it. O Pururava, then the devas too, brilliant divinities of nature and humanity, prepare and exalt you for the mighty battle against want and darkness to destroy evil from nature and society.

(The metaphor of natural forces here may be said to touch the field of human society. Many divine, natural and human forces join in the wedding of the young man and in the investiture of the ruler in his office. Both are like the cloud formed for showers and like the sun risen for the day, and the function of both is to dispel want and darkness from nature and society.)

8. Sacā yadāsu jahatīṣvatkamamānuṣīṣu mānuṣo niṣeve. Apa sma mat tarasantī na bhujoyustā atrasan rathasprśo nāśvāḥ.

When Pururava, the mighty cloud, takes over earthly form and joins the unearthly forms of nature after they have given up their natural super-human character, they, which earlier had feared him like the game fearing the hunter, do not fear him as horses joined to the chariot do not fear the master.

When the mortal Puruava loving these immortal beings joins them with loving words as well as with noble actions, then they, like swans playing in water, shine and show their bodies like horses playing with the bridle in their teeth.

Like lightning, falling and flashing, bringing me cherished gifts of water showers, Urvashi who creates blissful floods and streams for humanity blesses me with long life and health.

Pururava, you are born and destined for the protection of earth and promotion of life. Pray bear and command the lustre of life for me. Educated and cultured in the art of home life, I advised you day in and day out, pray listen to me. What can you say if you do not serve life and mother earth? Nothing.

12. Kadā sūnuḥ pitaraṁ jāta icchāccakranāśru vartayadvijānan. Ko daṁpatī samanasā vi yūyo-dadha yadagniḥ śvaśureṣu dīdayat.

When would the progeny born, grown, knowing and coming without tears and actively doing love and favour the parents? And who would separate the couple wedded in mutual love when the passion for life shines among the brave? None.

13. Prati bravāṇi vartayate āśru cakran na kranda-dādhye śivāyai. Pra tat te hinavā yat te asme parehyastam nahi mūra māpaḥ.

And I say to you, Pururava, by way of warning: if the untoward happens in case of separation, the child would come to you crying, in tears, yearning for consolation and comfort. I would send him to you who is now ours and spurn you off: O fool, impetuous, infructuous man, go off your way, I am not for you!

Urvashi, if such a calamity befall, let the ardent lover immediately fall to no redemption, go far to the farthest distance, let him lie in the depth of denial and adversity, and let voracious wolves devour him.

Pururava, let this never be: do not die, never fall, never must cursed wolves devour you, such are not the loves and friendships of women. It is only women of wolfish heart that deceive and betray the covenant.

When I came down from the divine into this different earthly form living happily for four years among mortals, I have lived on one time little drop of ghrta a day, and content with that alone I sojourn among men.

I, Vasishtha, closest ardent lover, speak to Urvashi, spirit of boundless beauty, light and love, and celebrate this ranger of the skies, controller of vapours and breaker of the cloud. May the bounty of divine generosity ever abide by you. My heart is burning, pray turn, return and fulfil the divine purpose.

18. Iti tvā devā ima āhuraila yathemetadbhavasi mrtyubandhuḥ. Prajā te devān haviṣā yajāti svarga u tvamapi mādayāse.

Pururava Aila, child of nature, word of divinity, this is what the divines have spoken: Kinsman of death you would be, your children would serve the divinities with homage and fragrant havi into the yajna fire, and you too would abide in paradise and be happy.

(This sukta is a myth, a mystery, until it is unraveled.)

It is a myth of the love between man and woman, fickle as well as unbreakable and sacred. The flower and fruit of it is the child, continuance of the race. And it may be called the myth of Purusha and Prakrti and the cycle of existence. It is a myth of the cloud, thunder and lightning. The cloud is a mass of gases, then the electric charge, thunder, lightning, rain and life on earth. And it points to a wonder possibility:

The thunderous cloud, Pururava, is ineffective without Urvashi, the lightning charge. Urvashi, the heavenly nymph, lives on one drop of ghrta per day. The children of the couple live and perform yajna, and the parents abide in paradise. Can we say: One drop of ghrta into the yajna fire per day feeds Urvashi which causes the cloud to rain and the yajaka contributes to a life of paradise on earth?

Hari Devata, Baru Angirasa or Sarvahari Aindra Rshi

1. Pra te mahe vidathe śamsiṣaṁ harī pra te vanve vanuṣo haryataṁ madam. Ghrtaṁ na yo hari-bhiścāru secata ā tvā viśantu harivarpaṣaṁ girah.

O lord omnipotent, Hari, in your great cosmic yajna, I adore your forces of Rtam and Satyam. Lord of beauty, glory and bliss, I pray for the joy of your ecstatic bliss, which, beautiful and beatific with showers of joy, blesses life on earth as ghrta exalts the sacred fire. May our words of adoration and prayer reach your blissful presence immanent in the universe.

2. Harim hi yonimabhi ye samasvaran hinvento harī divyaṁ yathā sadah. Ā yaṁ pṛṇanti haribhirna dhenava indrāya śūṣaṁ harivantamarcata.

You, who in concert adore and exalt Hari, omnipotent original cause of the universe as he pervades the divine spatial home, whom hymns of Veda and rays of the sun please and fulfil with their vibrations and radiations as cows fulfil the yajna with ghrta and milk, whose powers of Rtam and Satyam with their centrifugal and centripetal forces you praise, please study and honour that power of his which bears the burden of the world of nature and humanity. Do so for the sake of the honour and excellence of life on the way forward.

3. So asya vajro harito ya āyaso harirnikāmo harirā gabhastyah. Dyumnī suśipro hariman-yusāyaka indre ni rūpā haritā mimikṣire.

That power of Hari, omnipotent Indra, is the thunderbolt, and the thunderbolt is electric, magnetic, unfailing in aim and desire and it is borne in the hands of centrifugal and centripetal forces. It is bright and blazing, mighty passionate, punitive and destructive for the evil. Indeed in Indra as in the sun, all forms, all colours and all beauties are integrated.

4. Divi na keturadhi dhāyi haryato vivyacadvajro harito na ramhyā. Tudadahim hariśipro ya āyasaḥ sahasraśokā abhavaddharimbharaḥ.

The power of Indra, the Bajra, is held as the sun blazing in heaven. It expands and pervades like the bright rays radiating all over space. Destroying evil, breaking the clouds of darkness, glorious and mighty, the adamantine Bajra of a thousand flames shines as the symbol of the power of omnipotence.

5. Tvaṁ tvamaharyathā upastutaḥ pūrvebhirindra harikeśa yajvabhiḥ. Tvaṁ haryasi tava viśva-mukthyamasāmi rādho harijāta haryatam.

Indra, lord of light and knowledge, self-manifested universal spirit of light, love and beauty, loved and adored by the earliest celebrant sages, you alone received, acknowledged and blest the adorations of the past, and you alone are the sole, unique, beloved, universally adorable giver of success and fulfilment who love, receive, acknowledge and bless the gifts of adoration and yajna offered to you.

6. Tā vajriṇaṁ mandinaṁ stomyaṁ mada indraṁ rathe vahato haryatā harī. Purūṇyasmai savanāni haryata indrāya somā harayo dadhanvire.

Those adorable carriers, centrifugal and centripetal forces of divine nature, bear and sustain the power and presence of the thunder armed, joyous, adorable Indra in the divine blissful chariot as the universe of existence. For this Indra, blissful lord, many yajna sessions, soma oblations and beautiful gifts of homage are prepared and offered.

7. Araṁ kāmāya harayo dadhnvire sthirāya hinvan harayo harī turā. Arvadbhiryo haribhyirjo-ṣamīyate so asya kāmam harivantamānaśe.

The dynamics of divine nature sustain the refulgent Indra for its holy solar purpose. The same powers energise the gravitational forces to hold the sun in balanced orbit. By these energy forces does Indra's presence vibrate in the universe with love. And through these very forces does Indra fulfil his dear divine purpose.

8. Hariśmaśārurharikeśa āyasasturaspeye yo haripā avaradhata. Arvadbhiryo haribhirvājina-ivasurati viśvā durityā pāriṣaddharī.

The world's greenery is his hair, golden rays of light, his locks. Wielding thunder and gravitation, his radiation enters waters of the earth and vapours of space, he expands in power and presence, and with powers of instant radiation, he shines as lord of abundant earth and overcomes all evils of disease and darkness with his catalytic forces.

His golden eyes, sun and moon, move and radiate light as two ladles of ghrta feed and exalt the fire, and the heaven and earth like his golden jaws move for the food, energy and advancement of life. In his created world, having tasted of the delicious and inspiring food and drink, man refines and exalts his will and understanding.

10. Uta sma sadma haryatasya pastyoratyō na vājam harivāṃ acikradat. Mahī ciddhi dhiṣaṇāharya-dojasā brhadvayo dadhiṣe haryataścidā.

Potent and charming Indra pervades the regions of heaven and earth as his home and with his power and presence roars like a hero going to war. With his might he wields both the great earth and the refulgent heaven, loves them and bears abundant food, strength and joy for life there.

Lord of love and beauty, loved and loving all, you beautify and beatify the heaven and earth with new and newer favours, you love and create fresh and rising thoughts of admiration and adoration. O lord of vital energy and inspiration, pray open the homely state of earth and humanity to the illumination of the sun and light divine.

Indra, may the radiations of your light bear and bring you, glorious lord of golden visor, by your cosmic chariot to the people so that you, loving the yajna, drink of the honey sweet soma extracted and prepared with utmost dexterity of hand and care in the hall of yajna.

Indra, lord of light divine and solar radiations, you have drunk of the soma of the ancients of earliest sessions. This yajna session and the soma extracted in here is only for you. O lord of generous showers in this session, pray, drink of the honey sweet soma of our love and faith and let the showers of bliss flow and fill the skies and space unto the depth of our heart.

Oshadhayah Devata, Bhishag Atharvana Rshi

या आर्षधीः पूवा जाता देवभ्यस्त्रियुगं पुरा ।

1. *Yā oṣadhīḥ pūrvā jātā devebhyasrīyugam purā.
Manai nu babhūṇāmahaṁ śataṁ dhāmāni sapta ca.*

Let me observe, investigate and know the herbs, ancient and best for all the three seasons and ages, born of the divine gifts of nature for people, herbs yellow, ripe and brown, and hundred and seven of them with places where they grow and where they work. ('Shatam dhamani sapta cha' can also be interpreted as seven hundred herbs and the places where they grow.)

3. *Oṣadhīḥ prati modadhvaṁ puṣpavatīḥ prasū-

O herbs, plants and creepers ever growing, rise and rejoice in response to life's health, blossoming and fragrant, procreative and fructifying, victorious like winsome life energy itself, taking us across all suffering and disease.

5. *Aśvatthe vo niṣadanaṁ paṇe vo vasatiṣkṛtā.

Your seat is on the ashvattha tree, on the air and the cloud, your residence is made on the leaf and on the parna tree, you share your efficacy with the earth, sun rays and the cow by which you bestow health and vitality for life.

For the recovery and rehabilitation of the sick and for his freedom from ailment in future, I know and can provide all herbal medicines, for example, Ashvavati, the herb for revival and energy, Somavati, for soothing and energising, Urjayanti for strengthening, and Udojas, exceedingly powerful for life saving, and others.

And the strength and vitality of herbs which, O man, they bestow on you as the wealth of health for your body, mind and soul, stream forth to you like cows emerging from their stall or light rays radiating at dawn.

9. *Iṣkṛtirnāma vo mātātho yūyaṁ stha niṣkṛtīḥ.

O herbs, the name of your mother is Ishkrti, good health, immunity and prevention, gifts of food, earth and nature. And you are cleansers and protectors. Be circulating in veins and arteries, throw out all that ails the body's health.

10. *Ati viśvāḥ pariṣṭhāḥ stena iva vrajamakramuḥ.

Just as a thief breaks into a cattle stall (and is thrown out) so should all the herbals circulating all over the body attack and throw out the ailments that afflict the body.

11. *Yadimā vājayannahamoṣadhīrhasta ādadhe.

When I take up these medicines in hand to administer them against ailments, it is like a warning of death for them and their very soul and root disappears, totally destroyed, even before the dose.

Consumptive disease is cured with increase in appetite, administration of medicine by mouth and cleansing by vomiting, with bitter medication, with strong and deep breathing in clean air, and cleansing of the system by eliminating the sputum and congestion.

O herb, O medicine, you are the best, most efficacious. The trees such as peepal and banyan are your auxiliaries, they are solid concentrations, next to you, of medical properties diffused all over. May all that helps us with health and comfort be our ally. May all that harms us, such as disease, be under our control.

Mandala 10/Sukta 98

Devah Devata, Devapi Arshtishena Rshi

बृहस्पत पतिं म दवतामिहि मित्रा वा यद्वरुणा वासिं पूषा ।
आदित्यवा यद्वसुभिर्मरुत्वान्तस् पजन्यं शन्तनव वृषाय ॥ १ ॥

1. Bṛhaspate prati me devatāmihi mitro vā yadvaruṇo vāsi pūṣā. Ādityairvā yadvasubhirmaru-tvāntsa parjanyaṁ śāntanave vṛṣāya.

Brhaspati, lord of unbounded rain and thunder, come and bless me as the epitome of divine powers, whether you are Mitra or Varuna or Pusha or commander of the Marut winds with Adityas and Vasus. Let the cloud rain for the man of peace and lover of knowledge.

(This mantra is a prayer for physical as well as for spiritual rain of water and peace for the lover of knowledge and peace. Brhaspati, Mitra, Varuna and other devas are physical powers of rain, and this process of vapourisation, electric catalysis of gases and condensation has been explained in his essays on the composition of water and atmosphere by late Pandit Gurudatta Viyarthi in his book Wisdom of the Rshis, republished by Dr. Ravi Prakash Arya, Email : vedicscience@hotmail.com).

2. Ā devo dūto ajiraścikityān tvaddevāpe abhi māmagacchat. Praticīnaḥ prati māmā vavṛtsva dadhāmi te dyumatīm vācamāsan.

May the divine messenger, fast and brilliant, harbinger of collected light of knowledge come to me. Brhaspati, come to me constantly and continuously in circuitous series. I receive your illuminant Word into my mind and speech.

3. Asme dhehi dyumatīm vācamāsan bṛhaspate anamīvāmiṣirām. Yayā vṛṣṭīm śantanave vanāva divo drapso madhumām ā viveśa.

Infinite lord of nature, knowledge and the divine word, bring us for our mind and speech illuminant shower of the divine voice, immaculate, unrestrained and inspiring energetic by which we may bring about an earthly rain of peace and enlightenment for the lover of knowledge and well being for all, and let a shower of paradisaal honey sweets bless the earth from heaven.

4. Ā no drapsā madhumanto viśantvindra dehyadhi-ratham sahasram. Ni ṣīda hotramṛtuthā yajasva devān devāpe haviṣā saparya.

Let showers of honey bless us, Indra, give us a thousandfold wealth of peace and prosperity of high order. O harbinger of Devas, sit on the vedi, perform the yajna according to the seasons and serve the divinities with oblations of havi as required for the purpose.

5. Ārṣṭiṣeṇo hotramṛṣirniṣīdan devāpirdevasumatim cikityān. Sa uttarasmādadharām samudramapo divyā asṛjadvarṣā abhi.

Arshtishena Devapi, sagely seer knowing the dynamics of yajnic creation and the qualities and functioning of different divine facts of nature and life in full knowledge of the moods of beneficent divinities, may seat himself on the vedi of yajna, create clouds of divine water in the vast sky above and bring down showers from the ocean above to the earth for fields, rivers and the seas.

In this upper oceanic sky water vapours stay held up by divine forces of nature. Catalised by electric charge caused by divine marut energies, they condense, and, sent down into clouds, they shower, upon the earth in torrents.

7. Yaddevāpiḥ śāntanave purohito hotrāya vṛtaḥ kṛpayannadīdhet. Devaśrutam vṛṣṭivanim rārāṇo brhaspatirvācamasmā ayacchat.

When Devapi, friend of divinities, the priest appointed for the purpose of rain yajna, prays and shines with adoration, Brhaspati, listening to his prayer to divinity for rain, waxes with joy and grants him the gift of thunderous Word and shower for the peace and prosperity of humanity.

Agni, whom Devapi, priest and sagely scholar of the science of rain, shining with ardent adoration among men, lights and serves with sacred fire and prayer, be pleased along with all the divine powers and move the clouds laden with rain showers for humanity.

Agni, universally invoked and adored yajnic power and showers of rain, saints and seers of the world of all time approached you with songs of adoration and prayer in yajna. O lord of red flames and thunderous voice, pray visit our yajna and grant us a thousandfold gifts overflowing our chariots of life.

Agni, these ninety and nine chariots of life laden with overfulls of a thousand gifts of homage are offered to you. With these, O Lord Almighty, rise in flames of glory and grace and, thus loved and adorned, pray move the eternal showers of bliss for us from the light of heaven.

Agni, these ninety and nine thousand gifts of homage, pray, send up to Indra, generous lord of showers, for our share of his divine service and, knowing the paths of the divine movements of nature according to seasons, put the clusters of vapour in heaven among the divinities, Maruts, Mitra, Varuna and others for showers of rain.

(‘Aulana’ may also be interpreted as the devout human soul and ‘showers’ as showers of divine bliss.)

Agni, drive away the violent, open up the impassables, eliminate ill health and disease, repel and destroy the evil, and from that infinite ocean of the waters of life, release the showers of heavenly bliss on earth for us.

Mandala 10/Sukta 99

Indra Devata, Vamra Vaikhanasa Rshi

कं नश्चित्रमिषण्यसि चिकित्वान्पृथुग्मानं वाश्रं वावृधध्य ।
कत्तस्य दातु शर्वसा व्युष्टा त द्वजं वृत्रतुरमपिन्वत ॥ १ ॥

1. Kaṁ naścitramiṣanyasi cikitvān pr̥thugmānam vāśraṁ vāvṛdhadhyai. Kat tasya dātu śavaso vyuṣṭau takṣadvajraṁ vr̥traturamapinvat.

Knowing us all, Indra wishes us well, gives us comfort and well being, gifts wondrous and varied, expansive and admirable, for our progress and advancement. Great is his gift of bliss, the mighty one, for our fulfilment. And what could be our gift in return for his kindness? He creates and wields the thunder for breaking the cloud and strikes the thunderbolt to destroy the evil, and he gives us the showers that we may grow and rise in life.

2. Sa hi dyutā vidyutā veti sāma pr̥thum yonima-suratvā sasāda. Sa sanīḷebhiḥ prasahāno asya bhrāturna ṛte saptathasya māyāḥ.

He, challenger of adversaries and destroyer of suffering and violence, goes on with light and lightning, pervades the vast space, and rules and breaks the mighty clouds with his kindred Maruts. Such is the power and splendour of the ruler and sustainer of the highest heavens.

स वाजं यातापदुष्यदा यन्त्स्वषाता परि षदत्सनिष्यन ।

3. Sa vājam yātāpaduṣpadā yantsvarṣātā pari ṣadat saniṣyan. Anarvā yacchatadurasya vedo ghnañ-chiśnadevāṁ abhi varpasā bhūt.

He goes on with the dynamics of existence by straight unfailing paths of law and rectitude, giving showers of joy, presiding over it all, keen to share it with one and all, irresistible and unhurting, opening a hundred doors of possibility for wealth and excellence, and subduing the demons of lust and impiety with force, the one supreme ruling power.

स युह्या३ वनीगाष्ववा जुहति पध्न्यासु सस्त्रिः ।

4. Sa yahvyo'vanīrgoṣvarvājuhoti pradhanyāsu sasriḥ. Apādo yatra yujyāso'rathā dronyaśvāsa īrate ghrtaṁ vāḥ.

That mighty Indra, moving, flowing and advancing, showers torrents of rain over fertile lands where fast and deep streams, cooperative friends of Indra, receive and make the precious waters move of themselves by gravity, without external aids such as legs and chariots.

(In the third and fourth mantras, Indra may be interpreted as human soul in the context of yoga meditation and control over mind and senses. In this context, the flow would mean the flow of consciousness. In the physical sense Indra may be interpreted as Vayu, the catalytic electric energy that breaks the clouds of vapour into showers of rain. Indra as the supreme cosmic power that rules and sustains the world of existence, of course, is obvious throughout the hymn.)

स रु॒दभिर॑शस्तवार् ऋ॒भ्वा हि॒त्वी गय॑मा॒रअ॒वद्यु॑ आ॒गात॑ ।

5. Sa rudrebhiraśastavāra ṛbhvā hitvī gayamāre avadya āgāt. Vamrasya manye mithunā vivavṛī annamabhītyārodayanmuṣāyan.

That Indra, mighty energy, free from despicables and undesirables, and possessed of indescribable wealth of force, moves with Rudras, catalytic forces, in serial motion leaving one place for another and, I believe, it gets to the gaseous couple that produce and deliver the waters, and having broken the cloud and taken away the waters, food of life, leaves it roaring.

ṣāṇaṁ damanyat. Asya trito nvojasā vṛdhāno vipā

That Indra, sustainer of life, attacking the six-eyed three-headed cloud, subdues it, and Trita, threefold Agni power, rising by the power and lustre of Indra, with currents sharp as razor's edge, breaks the cloud and delivers the rain.

(The cloud is six eyed because it is active and awake all the six seasons of the year. It is three headed because it arises from three regions: from the solar region as soma, from the middle regions as parjanya and from the earthly region as water vapour.

Agni is threefold, Trita, because it has three varieties of its form and function: terrestrial fire as agni, middle region vayu or electric energy, and solar region aditya or light, and all of them play their part in the formation of the cloud in the form of water vapour on earth, parjanya in the middle region and soma in the solar region.)

7. Sa druhvaṇe manuṣa ūrdhvasāna ā sāviṣadarśasānāya śarum. Sa nṛtamo nahuṣo'smat sujātaḥ puro'bhinadarhan dasyuhatyē.

Indra, lord supreme, highest potent, best and foremost leader among humanity committed to truth and right and controller of the lawless and violent, strikes the weapon of justice and punishment against the forces of jealousy, enmity and destruction and, risen to nobility and grandeur of personality in his own right, deserving the highest position, destroys the strongholds of negativity in our struggle against anti-social and anti-life elements.

8. So abhriyo na yavasa udanyan kṣayāya gātum vidanno asme. Upa yat sīdadindram śarīraiḥ śyeno'yopāṣṭirhanti dasyūn.

Just as the cloud waxing with water vapours goes down in showers on earth for the nourishment of fields and pastures, so does Indra, ruling soul, overflowing with generosity, goes forward to the earth for our peaceful home life and with the iron spur of his heels strikes and drives away the evils around us, since he, a tempestuous soul in body like the eagle, sits close to the Indu, blissful source of the nectar of life.

9. Sa vrādhataḥ śavasānebhirasya kutsāya śuṣṇam kṛpaṇe parādāt. Ayam kavimanayacchasyamānamatkaṁ yo asya sanitota nṛṇām.

He throws off the violent with his powerful forces, he removes drought and adversity, and he thereby gives strength and confidence to the supplicant devotee. He leads that man of vision and imagination to the heights of fame and admiration who, of all men, knows his real form and nature and in his spirit realises his divine presence.

10. Yam daśasyan naryebhirasya dasmo devebhir-varuṇo na māyī. Yam kanīna ṛtupā avedyami-mītārarum yaścatuspāt.

He, generous giver of favours by the dynamics of his divine powers, gracious and wondrous like Varuna, cosmic spirit of justice and retribution, throws off evil, violence and negativity. He is known as gentle and kind, protector and ordainer of the seasons of the world and, existent in four states of cosmic being, overcomes jealousy and aggression.

When the simple, natural and ardent yajaka, having prepared the soma of adoration, shines with his words of praise, then, crossing the physical, pranic, mental and intellectual covers of the soul's existential state, and breaking into the secret cave of the soul's divinity by the showers of the grace of the lord giver of life and spiritual strength, he becomes established in his essential nature and shines in his natural spiritual essence.

Thus, O lord of life and pranic energy of the universe, the humble devotee bursting forth in song and adoration step by step moves on to you, great burden bearer and ordainer of the universe. Thus does the lord revealing the presence does good to this devotee giving him all the world's wealth of food, energy, peace and shelter of divinity and shines to him in full glory.

Indra, lord almighty of universal glory, pray strengthen the soul akin to you so that it may be happy and feel exalted with life. Pleased with our songs of adoration here, accepting the soma of our love and faith, pray let the Presence be revealed to us for our spiritual growth. With our mind and senses and the Vishvedevas, all divinities of nature and humanity, may the self-refulgent spirit of light, life and energy, Savita. protect and promote our knowledge already revealed to us and bless us that we may by reason, faith and choice abide by the eternal, divine, imperishable spirit of total existence.

They accept, taste and enjoy the nectar sweets of the songs and homage of the enlightened devotees. By reason, faith and choice of will, we wholly abide in and by the divine imperishable mother spirit of total existence.

O lord of Infinity, Brhaspati, you are the harbinger of life and health of higher order for us. Reflected in yajna, power of thought and meditation, holiness of intelligence, you are our sustainer as father giver of happiness. We honour and adore Aditi, mother Infinity of universal and imperishable order of divine generosity.

O cows, knowledge, wisdom and culture, just as cows feed on grass in the pasture, drink from the water reservoir, grow and produce energy giving milk, similarly, O holy words of wisdom and knowledge, feed on whatever you find in the house of eternal truth on the flow, and in the depth of the heart core of spirit, grow abundant with light and energy, and let the body of language be the medicinal corrective and sanative for the body of knowledge and culture. We honour the universal imperishable Mother Nature and mother Ila and Sarasvati for our mother land, Mahi and Bharati, for universal progress of knowledge and culture.

Full is his treasure of wealth like the mother cow's stream of milk. We honour and adore the universal generosity of divine imperishable inexhaustible Mother Nature.

1. *Pra te ratham̐ mithūkṛtamindro'vatu dhṛṣṇuyā.

O ruler and commander, may Indra with his irresistible might and weapon protect your chariot designed and structured by the team of scientist and technologist and working on double stream of energy. O universally invoked leader, in this famous and terrible battle of the nation against all-destroying forces, pray protect us and lead us to victory.

उत्सु वाता वहति वासा अस्या अधिरथं यदजयत्सहस्रम् ।

2. *Ut sma vāto vahati vāso asyā adhiratham̐

The wind raises and unfurls the banner of this force of Indra on the chariot which wins over thousands. The mace of the waxing force of Indra rides the chariot as commander in the heat of battle, the army moves and extends its exploits (against malice, hate and enmity).

अन्त्यच्छ जिघांसता वज्रमिन्दाभिदासतः ।

3. *Anaryaccha jighāṁsato vajramindrābhidā-sataḥ.
Dāsasya vā maghavannāryasay vā sanutaryavayā

Indra, lord of glory, ruling soul of the human system, blunt, revert and recycle the weapons of hate and enmity of the violent who destroy and enslave the spirit of love and freedom. Whether the weapon of negativity belongs to a destroyer or a dynamic person, always turn it off from negativity and re-employ the energy for positive good.

4. Udno hradamapibajjarhrṣāṇaḥ kūṭam sma icchamāno 'jiraṁ bāhū abharat siṣāsan.

Indra, exalted spirit of energy and joyous generosity, overflows with the spirit of life and love and enmity. Abundant and rapturous as a roaring cloud, loving order and enlightenment, he wields the twin arms of positive and negative power and, building and breaking, breaking and building, he advances upon the areas of conflict and darkness seeking to bring in light and love.

5. *Nykrandayannupayanta enamamehayan vṛṣa-

In the battle between the positive and negative forces of nature and humanity, the powers of evolution strike this abundant cloud of concentrated wealth and energy at the closest and make it roar as it breaks into showers. Thus, by the evolutionary process of positive catalysis, does Mudgala, Indra, joyous ruling power of nature and humanity in the struggle for progress, win a hundred-thousandfold sustaining wealth of lands, cows and culture of enlightenment against darkness and negativity.

6. Kakardave vṛṣabho yukta āsīdavāvacīt sārathi-rasya keśī. Dudheryuktasya dravataḥ sahānasa ṛcchanti śmā niṣpado mudgalānīm.

Generous and joyous, lord of evolution and progress is Indra, Vrshabha, Mudgala, terribly strong, committed to positivity. Its chariot conductor like the electric force in the firmament, magnetic force on earth and socio-political forces in society, is vocal, thunderous and far reaching like hair on the head and radiations of the sun. Of this determined, committed, radiant lord in state alongwith its conductive force, the allies are like atoms of energy in nature and individuals in society. These all join its consort power, Mudgalani, of their own will, without any coercion or outside basis of supportive and persuasive elements.

7. Uta pradhimudahannasya vidvānupāyuna-gvaṁsagamatra śikṣan. Indra udāvat patima-ghnyānā-maramhata padyābhiḥ kakudmān.

And taking on to the steering wheel of the system, the scholar leader should take to the leading power, at the same time energising it. Thus does Indra animate and drive the master power of the circuit of currents, imperishable energies, and, more and more powerful, moves on his mission by motions of the wheels.

(The mantra may be applied to the individual human system and its spiritual advancement. Indra, the soul, takes on the Buddhi, intelligential steering wheel, controlling the master power of the senses, that is, the mind, and using the senses of perception and will for onward motion, lives a dynamic life of success and progress.)

8. Śunamaṣṭrāvyacarat kapardī varatrāyām dārvā-nahyamānaḥ. Nṛmṇāni kṛṇvan bahave janāya gāḥ paspaśānastaviṣīradhatta.

The dynamic disciplined soul, Indra, insulated within the circuitous energies of the self by inviolable control of the fluctuations of mind, moves on happily on way to spiritual progress, and similarly the self-disciplined leader and ruler, concentrating on social welfare against outer disturbances, creating many positive gifts for all people, watching his personal actions and movements of society, bears and commands the strength and glory of the nation.

9. Imaṁ taṁ paśya vṛṣabhasya yuñjaṁ kāṣṭhāyā madhye drughāṇaṁ śayānam. Yena jigāya śatavat sahasraṁ gavāṁ mudgalaḥ pṛtanājyeṣu.

Watch this, the power and force of the might and mace of Indra within the battle field of existence, destroying hate and enmity and abiding at peace by which Mudgala, generous lord of abundance in the warlike contests of life forces, has won a hundred thousandfold wealth of lands, cows and culture for the enlightenment of people.

10. Āre aghā ko nvitthā dadarśa yaṁ yuñjanti tamvā sthāpayanti. Nāsmāi tṛṇaṁ nodakamā bhara-ntyuttaro dhuro vahati pradedīśat.

Who has seen that which thus drives away sin and crime, hate and enmity, poverty and adversity, the power which they use and establish among themselves? For this generous and virile power they bring no grass, no water, the one that is higher and higher as you try to know and see, that bears the centre hold of the world, points out the paths of life and directs us on the way.

Like a woman who has missed her husband for long and on reunion waxes with joy, like a water wheel that constantly moves and provides water for irrigation, let us win happiness and well being for life by constant endeavour and dynamic will and power, and let our victory be the giver of prosperity and fulfilment.

Indra, lord of radiant powers, come by the radiations of your divine presence to our songs and acts of adoration to listen and to drink the soma of our love and homage distilled from the heart. May our yajna reach you, lord omnipotent, gracious and forgiving. You are the generous giver, you know the yajna, and you award the fruits of yajna.

Him, who is lord of a thousand powers, subduer of challenging enmities, lover of soma and his own creation, mighty glorious, adorable, matchless Indra, songs of adoration exalt and salutations of celebrants praise.

8. Saptāpo devīḥ suraṇā amṛktā yābhiḥ sindhumata indra pūrbhit. Navatiṁ srotyā nava ca sravantīrdevebhyogātum manuṣae ca vindah.

Indra, lord breaker of the strongholds of darkness, want and negativities, seven are the divine streams which flow free and unobstructed, by which you fill the sea and help us cross it, ninety are the streams flowing, and nine the sources of the flow by which you bless the divines and humans to find and follow the paths of life to the destination.

9. *Apo mahīrabhiśasteramuñco'jāgarāsvadhi deva

The great streams of water which you released from ignominious self-containment, i.e., from the hoarding clouds and the adamantine mountains, and over which you, the sole one divinity, keep relentless watch, ever awake, Indra, those which you brought into being by breaking the cloud and whatever else you did, by the same streams, O life of life, nourish and promote the body and health of all living beings of the world.

Indra is brave, noble doer, admirable, and so does the Vedic voice adore him, universally loved and invoked. He breaks the demons of darkness, want and ignorance, brings in light, and, mighty protector as he is, conquers all antilife forces.

We invoke and adore Indra, lord of bliss, glorious, best of men and leaders, in this our battle of life for protection, victory and further progress. He is the best listener, illustrious, blazing in battles, destroyer of the demons of darkness and winner of wealth and honours.

Mandala 10/Sukta 105

Indra Devata, Sumitra or Durmitra Kautsa Rshi

कदा वसा स्तात्रं हयतु आव श्मशा रुधद्वाः ।
 दीर्घं सुतं वाताप्याय ॥ १ ॥

1. *Kadā vaso stotraṁ haryata āva śmaśā rudhadvāḥ.
 Dīrghaṁ sutaṁ vātāpyāya.*

O Vasu, shelter home of life, when does the spirit inspire, impel and create the joyous song of celebration for Indra? When it controls the various flow of the mind, then the lasting soma is prepared for the ecstatic soul.

हरी यस्य सुयुजा विवता वरवन्तानु शपो ।
 उभा रजी न कशिना पतिदन ॥ २ ॥

2. *Harī yasya suyujā vivrtā verarvantāni śepā.
Ubhā rajī na keśinā patirdan.*

The person whose senses of perception and volition are properly under control, dedicated to the soul in repose and illuminative like the sun and moon in unison, is blest by the master with the gift of peace and divine ecstasy in the state of grace.

अप॒ यारि॒न्दः पाप॑ज॒ आ म॒ता न॒ श॑श्रमा॒णा बि॒भी॒वान ।
शु॒भ यद्यु॑युज॒ तवि॑षीवान ॥ ३ ॥

3. Apa yorindrah pāpaja ā marto na śaśramāṇo bibhīvān. Śubhe yadyuyuje taviṣīvān.

Repeller is Indra for the man of sin, fearsome like a person sitting in judgement for punishment, but for the man dedicated to good and joined to the divine spirit, he is the giver of light and power.

सचा॒यारि॒न्दश्च॑कृ॒ष आँ उ॑पा॒नसः स॑प॒यन ।
न॒दया॒विव॑र्तयाः शू॒र इ॒न्दः ॥ ४ ॥

4. *Sacāyorindraścarkṛṣa āṁ upānasah saparyan.
Nadayorvivratayoḥ śūra indrah.*

For the person dedicated to him, serving him and faithfully depending on him as the master, Indra is a friend and comrade and does every good thing for him, but for the vociferous and the refractory, he is a mighty awful punitive and corrective power.

अधि॑ यस्त॒स्था क॑श॒वन्ता॒ व्यच॑स्वन्ता॒ न पु॑ष्ट्य ।
व॒नाति॑ शि॒पाभ्यां॑ शि॒पिणी॑वान ॥ ५ ॥

5. *Adhi yastasthau keśvantā vyacasvantā na puṣṭyai.
Vanoti śiprābhyām śipriṇīvān.*

Indra who, like the sun of radiant and expansive light, abides and rules over the world of heaven and earth with his potent and pervasive presence for the evolution and progress of life, wins over the contraries and provides everything for the pious and law abiding by both his promotive and punitive powers.

पास्तादृष्वजा ऋष्वभिस्तत ऽ शूरः शवसा ।

ऋभुन कर्तुभिमातरिष्वा ॥ ६ ॥

6. *Prāstaudrṣvaujā ṛṣvebhistatakṣaḥ śūraḥ śavasā.
Rbhurna kratubhirmātariśvā.*

Indra, glorious lord of omnipotence, is universally adored and served by cosmic forces and he, Matarishva, mighty presence active in universal nature, as Rbhu, cosmic architect, creates and structures the universe by his divine vision, intelligence and shaping powers.

वज्रं यश्चक्र सुहनाय दस्यव हिरीमशा हिरीमान ।

अरुतहनुरद्भुतं न रजः ॥ ७ ॥

7. Vajraṁ yaścakre suhanāya dasyave hirīmaśo hirīmān. Arutahanuradbhutaṁ na rajah.

He, the lord who made the Vajra, cosmic force of universal dynamics, for breaking and building, consumption and creation through transformation of the forms in evolutionary process, and for emergence of light over darkness and positive over negative, is the lord of golden glory. He commands golden blissful powers and inviolable creative imagination, and is mysterious and sublime like the expansive space and time continuum.

अव॑ ना वृ॒जिना॑ शि॒शीहृ॒चा वन॑मा॒नृचः॑ ।

8. *Ava no vṛjinā śīśīhrycā vanemānṛcaḥ.
Nābrahmā yajña ṛdhagjoṣati tve.*

Reduce and remove our sin and crookedness. Let us win over the negationists with hymns of positive celebration of nature and divinity. Yajna, pursuit of knowledge and joint action, without grateful celebration of divinity with Vedic hymns does not at all win your approval and blessing.

ऊ॒ध्वा यत्त॑ त्रि॒तिनी॑ भू॒द्य॒ज्ञस्य॑ धू॒षु स॒द्वन॑ ।

स॒ज॒नावं॑ स्वय॑श॒सं स॒चा॒याः ॥ ९ ॥

9. Ūrdhvā yat te tretinī bhūdyajñasya dhūrṣu sadman. Sajūrnāvaṁ svayaśasaṁ sacāyāḥ.

Your Trinity of divine glory and power rising with the flames of cosmic yajna, the Trinity of Purusha, Prakṛti and Jiva, the soul, which pervades the threefold universe of Sattva, Rajas and Tamas, matter, energy and thought, which pervades the three worlds of heaven, earth and the skies, which activates divine stuti, prarthana and upasana (adoration, prayer and meditation) rising in the hearts of yajakas, and which perfumes the house of cosmic yajna in space, that is the ark, friend of humanity, with its own divine glory, and life companion of the human soul in the world of existence: that ark of life and divinity may we embark with the three-dimensional mantra of Rk, Sama and Yajus and cross the seas of existence.

यया स्व पात्रं सिञ्चसु उत ॥ १० ॥

10. Śriye te pṛśnirupasecanī bhūcchriye darvira-repāḥ. Yayā sve pātre siñcasa ut.

Let the sun, the skies and the divine voice be for your glory, expression of the showers of bliss. Let the yajnic ladle of immaculate ghrta be for the celebration of your glory without a trace of human selfishness. By these you shower the grace of your light and bliss with water on your own seat of humanity, the earth.

शतं वा यदस्यु पति त्वा सुमित्र इत्थास्ताहुमित्र इत्थास्तात ।

11. Śataṁ vā yadasurya prati tvā sumitra itthā-stauddurmitra itthāstaut. Āvo yaddasyuhatye kutsaputraṁ prāvo yaddasyuhatye kutsavatsam.

O lord of cosmic energy of pranic existence, thus does the positive friend of divinity adore you a hundred ways and more. Thus does the negative friend of negativities adore you a hundred times and more, you who save the child of the pious in the elimination of evil, you who protect the darling child of the celebrant in the struggle against negationists.

Ashvins Devate, Bhutansha Kashyapa Rshi

उभा उ नूनं तदिदथयथ वि तन्वाथ धिया वस्त्रापसंव ।

1. Ubhā u nūnaṁ tadidarthayethe vi tanvāthe dhiyo vastrāpaseva. Sadhrīcīnā yātave premaṁjīgaḥ sudineva prkṣa ā taṁsayethe.

O Ashvins, complementarities of nature's energy and human resources, you want just that medium and opportunity for your operation by which you may extend your field of action like the weavers extending the warp and woof of their cloth. The yajamana has been waiting and waking so that you come together and, as in happy time, you may add beauty and comfort to life with joint relations and corporate activity.

śāsurethaḥ. Dūteva hi ṣṭho yaśasā janeṣu māpa stātaṁ mahiṣevāvapānāt.*

As the loving and shining twins of nature at the beginning of creation, you take on work worth completion. Like a perfect team of fast and united experts, you move and work within the master's order and design. Stay within the community with honour and fame like welcome prophets of good news, do not stay away as veteran achievers do not go away from their ideal station of self- fulfilment.

3. *Sākanyujā śakunasyeva pakṣā paśveva citrā

Team of simultaneous workers like wings of a bird, wondrous as visionaries, lovers of divinity bright as fire, come and join our yajna together and, like the winds blowing all time and seasons over spaces, continue the programme abundantly.

4. Āpī vo asme pitareva putrogreva rucā nṛpatīva turyai. Iryeva puṣṭyai kiraṇeva bhujiyai śruṣṭī-vāneva havamā gamiṣṭam.

Twin brothers of ours, protective as parents for children, bright as blazing fire and the sun, instant achievers like ruling twins, nourishing and strengthening life like pranic energies, soothing as warmth of sun rays for comfort and joy, pray listen to our call and come immediately as success itself.

5. Vamsageva pūṣaryā śimbātā mitreva ṛtā śatarā śātapantā. Vājevoccā vayasā gharmyeṣṭhā meṣe-veṣā saparyā purīṣā.

Providers of food and nourishment like a team of bullocks, givers of love and peace like friends, omnipresent observers of truth and law, hundredfold performers, saviours and protectors in a hundred ways, high and great like the spirit of energy, harbingers of good health and age, dedicated to Dharma, strong like rams in raiment like the golden fleece, and worthy of service and reverence, that's what you are.

सृण्यव जभरीं तुफरीतू नताशव तुफरीं पफरीका ।

6. Sṛṇyeva jarbharī turpharītū naitośeva turpharī parpharīkā. Udanyajeva jemanā maderū tā me jarayvajaram marāyu.

Shining and supporting like the moon, destroyers of hate and enmity, distributors of boons, powers of punishment for evil, breakers of darkness, pearls of the sea, victorious, joyous, may the Ashvins give the aging mortal like me the gift of unaging health and immortality.

पजव चचरं जारं मरायु ाद्वाथषु ततरीथ उगा ।

7. Pajreva carcaram jāram marāyu kṣadmev-ārtheṣu tartarītha ugrā. Ṛbhū nāpat kharamajrā kharajrurvāyurna parpharat kṣayadrayiṇām.

Ashvins, like mighty fast and illustrious pilots, take the uncertain, transitory, aging mortal through the objects of value and desire across the seas. Like artists of perfect expertise and builders of the chariot, may the Ashvins come like impetuous winds and bring us wealth and life's fulfilment.

घमव मधु जठरं सनरू भगविता तुफरी फारिवारम । पतरव चचरा चन्दनिणिङ मनऋङ्गा मनन्याङ् न जग्मी ॥ ८ ॥

8. Gharmeva madhu jaṭhare sanerū bhagevitā turpharī phārivāram. Patareva cacarā candra-nirṇiṇ manarṅgā mananyā na jagmī.

Like the warmth and cool of the sun and moon, you make us share the honey sweets of life at the heart of the nation. Protectors of the nation's honour, well equipped with power, force, and armaments for defence, ever on the watch like birds on the move, blissful of form like the moon, dynamic as mind in action, perceptive and responsive as visionary wise sages and tacticians: Such you are, rulers and warriors of the nation of humanity.

बृहन्तव गम्भरेषु पतिष्ठां पादव गाधं तरत विदाथः ।

9. Bṛhanteva gambhareṣu pratiṣṭhāmpādeva gādham tarate vidāthaḥ. Karṇeva śāsuranu hi smarāthom'śeva no bhajataṁ citramapnaḥ.

Like all great men, you have attained stability of mind and action in the deeper situations of life. Like the feet of the traveller fording a stream, you feel the depth of the water. Like the ears, you listen to the ruler and you remember and remind all others of their duty. Pray, like rays of the sun, please share the wonders of our karma.

आर्ङ्गरव मध्वरयथ सारघव गवि नीचीनवार । कीनारव

10. Āraṅgareva madhverayethe sāragheva gavi nīcīnavāre. Kīnāreva svedamāsiṣvidānā kṣāmevorjā sūyavasāt sacethe.

In approval and appreciation of our performance you excite and inspire us with the sweetness of life. Like humming bees filling the honey comb hanging down, you bring the milk and honey of nature from above down to the earth and the cow. Like toiling farmers sowing the seeds of their sweat in the field and the earth yielding food from crops and herbs, you bring life energy for the body, mind and soul.

11. Ṛdhvāma stomaṁ sanuyāma vājamā no mantraṁ sarathehopa yātam. Yaśo na pakvaṁ madhu goṣvantarā bhūtāṁśo āśvinoḥ kāmamaprāḥ.

Let us realise and extend the meaning and application of the mantric song of life and achieve further progress. O Ashvins, come close by your car, share and confirm our mantras and mantric success in practice. And may the honour and excellence of the nation as well as ripe grain, honey, and milk in the cow's udders and our knowledge of the physical essence of the world fulfil the hopes and expectations of the Ashvins and of the men and women of the world.

Mandala 10/Sukta 107

Dakshina or Dakshina-datarah Devata, Divya Angirasa or Dakshina Prajapatya Rshi

आविरभून्महि माघानमषां विश्वं जीवं तमसा निरमाचि ।

1. Āvirabhunmahi māghonameṣāṁ viśvaṁ jīvaṁ tamaso niramoci. Mahi jyotiḥ pitṛbhirdattamāgā-duruh panthā dakṣiṇāyā adarṣi.

Revealed and manifest is the great light and glory of these sun-rays, the entire life of the world is revealed and released from darkness. Mighty light given by parental radiations of the sun is come, yajna is accomplished, and the broad flow of generosity is seen on high.

उच्चा दिवि दि णावन्ता अस्थुय अश्वदाः सह त सूयण ।

2. Uccā divi dakṣināvanto asthurye aśvadāḥ saha te sūryeṇa. Hiranyadā amṛtatvaṁ bhajante vāsodāḥ soma pra tiranta āyuh.

Generous givers of dakshina holy gift, abide on high in the regions of light and bliss. Those who give horse in charity ride with the sun. Givers of gold win immortality. O Soma, friend of peace and joy, givers of shelter and clothes cross the hurdles of life and live a long age.

3. Daivī pūrtirdakṣiṇā devayajyā na kavāribhyo nahi te pṛṇanti. Athā naraḥ prayatadākṣiṇāso-’vadyabhiyā bahavaḥ pṛṇanti.

Divine fulfilment and yajnic dakshina for the holy Devas is not for the stingy, selfish and the mean, because they give not for anyone, anything. And many are those who give liberally for fear of ignominy and shame, they give for the fulfilment of the deserving holy ones.

They know and give liberal dakshina for Vayu blowing in a hundred streams, for the sun in heaven and for many other Devas who love, watch and guard humanity. And those who serve the devas and offer homage and gifts in yajna wherein they join the divinities themselves receive the fruits of yajna flowing in by seven streams.

5. *Dakṣiṇāvān prathamo hūta eti dakṣiṇāvān grā-

The giver of dakshina is first invited and goes about in advance of all, the giver of dakshina is chosen as leader and head of the community and goes to occupy the first place. I accept him as leader and ruler of the people, who rises first and highest as the man of generous giving.

6. Tameva ṛṣim tamu brahmāṇamāhuryajñanyam sāmāgāmukthaśāsam. Sa śukrasya tanvo veda tisro yaḥ prathamo dakṣiṇayā rarādha.

He alone they call Rshi, the seer, Brahma, presiding priest of yajna, Adhvaryu, prime organiser, Samaga, singer of Saman hymns, and Ukthashasa, scholar specialist of the Rks, and he alone is the knower of immaculate divinity, who has first realised the three mantras of Aum, three branches of Veda, Rk, Yajuh and Sama, three orders of yajnic fire, Agni, Vayu and Aditya, and who has first fulfilled the basic part and pre-requisite of yajna, Dakshina.

7. Dakṣiṇāśvaṁ dakṣiṇā gāṁ dadāti dakṣiṇā candramuta yaddhiranyam. Dakṣiṇānnam vanute yo na ātmā dakṣiṇāṁ varma kṛṇute vijānan.

He who gives a horse as dakshina, who gives a cow, who gives silver, who gives gold, gives food and food grains, that giver is our own, the very soul of yajna and, knowing this secret of yajna, he creates a protective cover for himself by dakshina.

The givers of food die not, nor do they suffer want and poverty, they are never hurt, never violated, never suffer pain, because they give food in charity. And all this that the world is, all this that is comfort, joy and bliss, all this, Dakshina gives to those who give in charity.

The givers of food and relief first get a good fragrant home, liberal givers win a fair accomplished wife, generous givers reach the end sweetness of all drinks, and they win over even those who assail them, without challenge or provocation.

For the generous giver they embellish and adorn the fleet horse, for the generous groom the maiden waits and sits on the wedding vedi in all her finery, and for the generous man is this home, lovely as a rose bouquet and decorated, wonder worked and sanctified as a temple of divinities.

Well trained horses bear the generous master along in his travels, by dakshina gift to the craftsman a comfortable chariot is obtained, the divinities protect and advance the generous yajamana in all his yajnic battles for life, and the generous giver alone is the winner over oppositions in all conflicts.

Mandala 10/Sukta 108

Devata: Sarama (1, 3, 5, 7, 9), Panayah (2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 11); Rshi: Panayah Asurah (1, 3, 5, 7, 9), Sarama Devashuni (2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 11)

This sukta is a dialogue between the Panis who are also Asuras, and Sarama. At the physical level the Panis are the dark clouds of vapours, and Sarama is thunder and lightning. At the spiritual, the Panis are the senses and pranas and Sarama is the energy of the spirit, the soul's urge for living, elan vital or Ashish.

1. *Kimicchantī saramā predamānaḥ dūre hyadhvā

What does she want? Sarama, thunder voice of divinities, that is come here? The path which the higher ones tread is far off, not here. And what is our interest here in her coming? How deep is the darkness like the unfathomable night! How has she crossed the floods of the skies. (This is what the Panis say in response to Sarama's approach.)

2. Indrasya dūtīriṣitā carāmi maha icchantī paṇayo nidhīn vah. Atiṣkado bhiyasā tanna āvat tathā rasāyā ataraṁ payāṁsi.

Sarama: O clouds, O pranic energies, I am the dynamic spirit of Indra, inspired by Indra, I sojourn here, anxious to take on the treasures and pleasures of your living possibilities. I wander from the boundless force of Indra, and I wander with fear. May Indra protect us. That's how I have crossed the floods of water and the golden greens of Indra's court.

3. Kīdrññindrah sarame kā dṛśīkā yasyedaṁ dūtīrasarah parākāt. Ā ca gacchānmitramenā dadhāmā'thā gavāṁ gopatirno bhavāti.

Panis: O Sarama, voice of thunder and lightning, O dynamic spirit of life, what sort is this Indra? What is his strength and splendour whose messenger you come travelling from far, whom we should receive as a friend and bear as one that he may be our master and the master of our cows, our powers and potentials for living?

4. Nāhaṁ taṁ veda dabhyam dadhat sa yasyedaṁ dūtīrasaraṁ parākāt. Na taṁ gūhanti sravato gabhīrā hatā indreṇa paṇayaḥ śayadhve.

Sarama: O Panis, O clouds, O senses and pranic powers of practical living, I do not comprehend that power, Indra, which is undaunted, which is overpowering, whose messenger I am, come from afar. Mighty rolling oceans of unfathomable depth cannot cover it, nor contain it. Indeed, struck by Indra, the clouds fall in showers and lie on the ground.

5. Imā gāvaḥ sarame yā aicchah pari divo antān subhage patantī. Kasta enā ava sṛjādayudhvyyu tāsmākamāyudhā santi tigmā.

Panis: O noble and glorious Sarama, these streams of rain, these vibrations of senses, mind and energies which you want, travelling unto the bounds of heaven, who would release these for you without struggle? And our weapons too are sharp and powerful.

6. Asenyā vaḥ paṇayo vacāsyaniṣavyāstanvaḥ santu pāpīḥ. Adhr̥ṣṭo va etavā astu panthā br̥haspatirva ubhayā na mṛlāt.

Sarama: O Panis, clouds of vapour, mind and sense vibrations, your words are not worthy of fight, your bodies are too tenuous for the arrows, your path of motion too is not strong enough for any campaign. And even Brhaspati, lord of speech and space, himself would not be too indulgent toward you. You are too lost in the dust around to be free from sin.

7. Ayaṁ nidhiḥ sarame adribudhno gobhiraśve-bhirvasubhirnyr̥ṣṭaḥ. Rakṣanti taṁ paṇayo ye sugopā reku padamalakamā jagantha.

Panis: O Sarama, light of lightning, spirit of life's will, this treasure is locked in the cloud, it is vibrant with sunlight within, lustre of nature and wealths of life. And that treasure, practical possibilities guard. Wonderful guards are they. In vain have you come to this place, it is void of anything for you.

8. Eha gamannṛṣayaḥ somaśitā ayāsyō aṅgirasō navagvāḥ. Ta etamūrvāṁ vi bhajanta gonā-mathaitadvacaḥ paṇayo vamannit.

Sarama: O Panis, calculative clouds of small gain, here come the sharpest shears of wind, stormy gusts of winds, sudden whirl winds, which all will shatter this concentration of waves and vapours of living possibilities of the rains of life, (render them meaningless and purposeless without the presence of Indra, the soul). Mind therefore, and withdraw those words.

Panis: O Sarama, thunderous voice and lightning version of Indra, this way, then, you come equipped with divine powers and forces. We then accept you as our self-fluent and self-energised sister. O glorious sister, pray do not go back, we share the waves and vapours of life with you, and we give you what is yours.

10. Nāhaṁ veda bhrāṭṛtvaṁ no svasṛtvamindro viduraṅgarasaśca ghorāḥ. Gokāmā me acchadayanyadāyamapāta ita paṇaya varīyaḥ.

Sarama: O Panis, I know no brotherliness, nor sisterhood. Indra and fiery winds and energies of nature's law know what is to be known. Those who want to live by senses and pranas, the source whence I come, would move and win you. Hence you go off far from here.

11. *Dūramita paṇayo varīya udgāvo yantu minatīr-

O Panis, O clouds, go far away to the best place you can. Let the vapours break the bonds and go up by the law of nature, and Brhaspati, master of space and rain, Soma, master of herbs, Gravana, scholar scientist of vapours and condensation, the sages of vision and holily motivated specialists would obtain them wherever hidden, however so deep. So will Indra, the soul, win the senses and pranas to satisfy the will to live in the world of existence.

Mandala 10/Sukta 109

Vishvedevah Devata, Brahmajaya Juhu or Brahmaputra Urdhvanabha Rshi

त॑ वद॒न्प॒थ॒मा ब॑ह्य॒किल्बि॑ष॒ कू॒पा॒रः॑ स॒लि॒ला मा॑त॒रि॒श्वा ।

1. Te'vadan prathamā brahmakilviṣe'kūpāraḥ salilo mātariśvā. Viḷuharāstapa ugro mayobhūrāpo devīḥ prathamajā ṛtena.

In the beginning, to express and reveal the joyous manifestation of the creativity of Supreme Brahma, those first borns of the dynamics of divine law, Akupara, the light principle or Aditya Rshi, Salila, the liquid principle or Angira Rshi, Matarishva, the wind energy principle or Vayu Rshi, Viduhara, the fiery catalytic principle or Agni Rshi, all like yajnic fire burning and creative, illustrious, soothing, flowing, divine souls and spirits express and reveal the divine voice of the Veda. (This voice is the Ila.)

सामा॒ राजा॑ पथ॒मा ब॑ह्मजा॒यां पुनः॑ पा॒र्यच्छु॑द॒हणी॑यमानः ।

2. Somo rājā prathamō brahmajāyām punaḥ prāyacchadahṛṇīyamānaḥ. Anvartitā varuṇo mitra āsīdagnirhotā hastagrhyā nināya.

Soma, the ruling spirit of life, all at peace, having first received the divine Word, the Vedic voice, concomitant of omniscience, gives it again to Brahma in the dynamic Sarasvati form. Varuna, Mitra and Agni follow, and the yajaka Agni holds it by hand as in the yajnic ladle and leads it on.

ह॒स्त॒न॒व गा॒ह्या आ॒धि॒र॒स्या ब॑ह्मजा॒यय॑मि॒ति च॑दवा॒चन॑ ।

3. Hastenaiva grāhya ādhirasyā brahmajāyeyamiti cedavocan. Na dūtāya prahye tastha eṣā tathā rāṣṭraṁ gupitaṁ kṣatriyasya.

The received form of this divine Vak is to be practically received by hard discipline. "This is the child of heaven," this having been said, "This is not for communication without practice," this is the important injunction. It does not wait for any one, it does not stand still, it moves on. Its meaning is hidden like the state of the dominion of a ruler.

4. Devā etasyāmavadanta pūrve saptaṛṣayastapase ye niṣeduḥ. Bhīmā jāyā brāhmaṇasyopanītā durdhām dadhāti parama vyoman.

The divinities of eternal time and seven ancient sages who sit down for tapas and cosmic yajna speak and communicate this. It is the mighty companion of the devotee of Brahman received through discipline of celibacy and initiation. Brhaspati, lord of Infinity holds this sublime Vak in infinite space and time.

5. Brahmacārī carati veviṣadvīṣaḥ sa devānām bhavatyekamaṅgam. Tena jāyāmanvavin-dadbrha-spatiḥ somena nītām juhvaṁ na devāḥ.

The Brahmachari, dedicated to this sublime subject, goes on pursuing the discipline of the divine voice and, internalising it, becomes one of, and with, the nature and presence of the Devas. And thereby, O sages, the scholar obtains the Word and the wedded wife escorted to him by the blissful somaic preceptor like the ghrta ladle for yajnic offering and achievement.

पुन॑व द॒वा अ॑ददुः पुन॑मनु॒ष्या उ॒त ।

6. Punarvai devā adaduḥ punarmanuṣyā uta. Rājānaḥ satyaṁ kṛṇvānā brahmajāyāṁ punardaduḥ.

Noble teachers and scholars continuously go on teaching the Vedic voice and noble people conduct the yajnic programmes of education. Rulers and brilliant men of knowledge and generous disposition serving the divine truth carry on the propagation of the holy Word and its extension in practice and application.

पुन॒दाय॑ ब॒ह्वजा॒यां कृ॒त्वी द॒वनि॑किलि॒षम ।

7. Purardāya brahmajāyām kṛtvī devairnikilviṣam.
Ūrjaṁ pṛthivyā bhaktvāyorugāyamupāsate.

Thus do sages, scholars and noble people, serving and spreading the light of divine knowledge and the Vedic Word, sanctified and energised for life's purity, excellence and joy by Devas, serve Brahma, Lord Supreme in order that they may enjoy and extend the wealth and creativity of mother earth and the environment.

O Jataveda, life pervasive in all that is born, lighted fire of life, light of light, greatest friend, bearer of the fragrance of life, all awareness, all intelligence, you are the poetic seer and creator, and when you are lighted faithfully in the human homes you invoke, bring in and join the divinities. O Tanu-napat, sustainer of your own existential form and promoter of our health and mind, O divine light of holy flames, enjoy and sprinkle with honey the paths of yajna by which the fragrances rise and the yajakas proceed to the divinities by observance of the law of Truth, and, augmenting our thoughts with acts of holiness and beatifying the yajna, take over our songs and yajna of love and non-violence and establish it in the heights of divinities.

Invoked and invoking, venerable and adorable Agni, come with all the pervasive wealth and excellences of life and join this yajna. Mighty great you are among the divinities, presiding priest of divine nature, sociable, loved, admired and cherished for company, pray bring in the divinities to the yajna.

(This yajna may be interpreted either as the daily morning yajna or the first creative yajna at the dawn of each existential cycle.)

Divine Agni and Aditya, first and foremost universal yajakas of noble expression, participants in cosmic yajna, promoting all yajnic programmes of nature and humanity and projecting the universal light of existence, directing and showing it by various paths of nature, may, we pray, inspire and promote us in order to help us enact and accomplish all our human programmes of yajnic nature and purpose.

May Ila, the spirit of transcendent divinity, Sarasvati, dynamic spirit of universal immanent omniscience, and Bharati, generous spirit of mother nature and mother earth, all three divinities of holy light, knowledge and love, noble doers of divine acts, come at the earliest and seat themselves here on the lovely sacred grass of our vedi like human mothers and bless us with vision, wisdom and enlightenment.

That shaping power of divinity which adorns with beautiful forms these two creative motherly heaven and earth and all other natural forms of existence, that divine refulgent Tvashta, O learned yajaka, loved and venerable, invoke, adore and worship in the yajna here today.

And sincerely with your heart and soul, offer holy havis into the yajnic fire, having prepared the holy materials, seasoning them with honey and ghr̥ta for food of the divinities according to the seasons, and let Vanaspati, nature's greenery, Shamita, breaker of the clouds for showers of peace and prosperity, and the refulgent sun taste and consume the offerings with delight.

Agni which is the first and pioneer of the divinities enacts and lights up the yajna as soon as it arises and accomplishes it to the end, so may the divinities, under the action and direction of this yajaka, share and consume the fragrant havis offered with Svaha into the flames of yajnic fire with complete faith and dedication.

1. Manīṣiṇaḥ pra bharadhvaṁ manīṣāṁ yathāyathā matayah santi nṛṇām. Indram satyairerayāmā krtebhiḥ sa hi vīro girvaṇasyurvidānaḥ.

O men of thought and wisdom, judgement and reflection, bear your thoughts and offer your songs and prayers to Indra according to whatever are the thoughts and faith of the people. With our sincere thoughts, words and actions, we praise and pray to Indra. He alone is the lord omnipotent and generous, he alone knows all that is, and he knows and accepts the thoughtful celebrant.

Indra is the splendour and sustainer of the regions of light and vapours of skies, he rises and shines, playful like the youthful calf of a heifer or Prakṛti at the dawn and comes up in glory with attendant radiations. He rises with the blaze of light and proclamation of its might pervading wide and bold the great expansive regions of space.

3. Indraḥ kila śrutyā asya veda sa hi jiṣṇuḥ pathikṛt sūryāya. Ānmenāṁ kṛṇvannacyuto bhuvadgoḥ patirdivaḥ sanajā apratītaḥ.

Indra knows the course of existence in entirety as is known by revelation of the Veda. He alone is the ultimate victorious over all, he alone sets the orbit for the sun, he alone reveals the sacred Word of divine knowledge. He alone is the master of heaven and earth, imperishable, eternal, infinite.

Indra is lord almighty by his own omnipotence, ruling the spatial ocean of particles of matter and energy, both manifesting and withdrawing them, homage being done by vibrant sages and blazing stars of the universe. He creates and extends the many many worlds of space and he wields the law and the power that holds the entire worlds of existence.

Indra is the maker and measure of heaven and earth, knows all operations of the world in existence, and destroys drought and adversity by showers of rain and divine grace. He enlightens the great heavens by the sun and he himself is the pillar of the universe holding it in dynamic balance by the law of divine Rtam working in nature.

6. Vajreṇa hi vṛtrahā vṛtramastaradevasya śūśuvānasya māyāḥ. Vi dhṛṣṇo atra dhṛṣatā jaghanthā-thābhavo maghavan bāhvojāḥ.

O lord of glory, destroyer of darkness, negativity and want, destroy the demon of evil by the Bajra, unfailing catalytic power of nature you wield. O lord indomitable, be the mighty hero of arms of adamant and steel, destroy the violent forces of terror, frustrate the wiles and designs of the uncreative forces of society and be the saviour by unassailable power of Divinity.

7. Sacanta yaduṣasaḥ sūryeṇa citrāmasya ketavo rāmavindan. Ā yannakṣatram dadṛśe divo na punaryato nakiddhā no veda.

When the lights of the dawn join the sun, then its rays assume wonderful beauty and glory. Then (in the day) I see no (other) star of heaven nor any joining the rising dawn again. Why? What is this mystery? Who knows of this? (Only Indra).

8. Dūram kila prathamā jagmurāsāmindrasya yāḥ prasave sasrurāpaḥ. Kva svidagram kva budhna āsāmāpo madhyam kva vo nūnamantaḥ.

At the rise of the sun, the first rays and the first mists of the morning move and go far far away. Who knows what and where is their beginning, what is their basic foundation, what is their middle, and what and where their end? Who among you knows this mystery? (Only Indra).

Indra, when you release the showers of rain engulfed by the cloud, then these flow down free and rapidly. Thus those who want freedom and release from bondage are released by Indra, and once released, they do not stop on way involved in the bonds (they have cast away).

Together the streams released by Indra flow and join the sea like loving women joining their husband, the lord of time and breaker of the existential bonds always since eternity is their inspirer and freedom giver. O Indra, may all our earthly wealth and excellences of sense and mind, all your gifts here, and all our songs of adoration and voices of prayer ultimately reach you, the destination from existence to the essence.

Indra, lord of glory, drink of the soma of love and adoration prepared and offered you as you please in response to our desire. This morning prayer, adoration and yajnic homage is primarily and exclusively for you. Pray be exalted and rise to destroy the enemies and negativities of life. Let our body, mind and soul be touched by golden glory of the sun and transmuted into the highest forms of beauties and graces of life. Indra, thus invoked and adored by us who yearn for company and communion with you, pray come, be seated in the heart and soul in union, joyous and exalted, and lead us to the divine goal.

1. Tamasya dyāvāprthivī sacetasā viśvebhirdevairanu śuṣmamāvatām. Yadait kṛṇvāno mahimānamindriyaṃ pītīvī somasya kratumām avardhata.

May heaven and earth along with all the nobilities of nature and humanity, all of equal and agreeable mind, follow, protect and promote the might of Indra, this ruling power of the world, when he goes forward to display that power and grandeur of his mind and senses and, exalted by the happy and exhilarating glory of his dominion in action, rises in greatness and majesty.

2. Tamasya viṣṇurmahimānamojarśaṃ'śuṃ dadhānvān madhuno vi rapśate. Devebhirindro maghavā sayāvabhi ryrtraṃ jaghanvām abhavadvareṇyaḥ.

Vishnu, pervasive power and presence of nature and humanity, holding, sharing and sustaining its own part of the power and Dharma of Indra's dominion by virtue of its own might and lustre, exalts the sweetness and grace of his system, and Indra, ruler of the glorious dominion, destroying the evil factors of darkness, want and ignorance with the assistance of his supporters and divine partners rises mightier, proves his greatness and majesty and becomes the object of his devotees' choice all the more.

When against forces of darkness and serpentine crookedness you bear weapons and stand firm to fight, win all agreement, approval and admiration that all is well, then, O blazing lord of might and glory, all the Maruts, vibrant powers of nature and humanity in the world, together with their heart and soul join and exalt your greatness and the magnanimity of your majesty of mind and soul.

From the very rise and manifestation, repelling, expelling and removing conflicts and confrontations of jealous forces, watching, assessing and affirming his fighting forces, breaking down clouds of pent up waters and mountainous hoards of resources and releasing all stagnant potentials, and sustaining the mighty vast world of light and joy by his will, wisdom and active power, Indra rules and reigns in glory.

5. Ādindraḥ satrā taviṣīrapatyata variyo dyāvā-prthivī abādhata. Avābharaddhṛṣito vajramāya-saṁ śevam mitrāya varuṇāya dāśuṣe.

Indra keeps, rules and controls all the dynamic forces of the world together in order, separates, holds, energises and moves heaven and earth and maintains the order of separate identity and togetherness in balance, and, undaunted and invincible, he wields the thunderbolt of justice and punishment as well as the golden sceptre of peace and law for people of love, justice, free choice and generosity.

6. Indrasyātra taviṣībhyo virapsina rghāyato aramhayanta manyave. Vṛtram yadugro vyavṛścado-jasāpo bibhrataṁ tamasā parivṛtam.

When the blazing Indra with his might breaks the demonic cloud hoarding the waters of life covered in darkness, then in honour of the brave hero of shattering thunder and his brilliant forces, poets sing songs of adoration.

7. Yā vīryāṇi prathamāni kartvā mahitvebhiryata-mānau samīyatuḥ. Dhvāntaṁ tamo'va dadhvase hata indro mahnā pūrvahūtāva-patyata.

When two warriors, Indra and Vrtra, meet in battle doing mighty acts of the first order of valour with their respective valour and power, then, when the covering darkness is destroyed, Indra with his might rules the scene and dominates over the first invocation and institution of yajna.

8. Viśve devāso adha vṛṣṇyāni te'vardhayantsoma-vatyā vacasyayā. Raddhaṁ vṛtramahimindrasya hanmanāgnirna jambhaistrṣvannamāvayat.

And then all saints and holy men of the world celebrate and exalt your mighty deeds with voices full of sweetness, love and adoration. And when Vrtra is destroyed by the fatal blow of Indra and darkness is dispelled, Indra like the sun waxes in glory as fire rises in flames, having consumed fuel food with its jaws and crackling tongues.

O celebrants of Indra dedicated to yajnic union and cooperation, celebrate your kinship with Indra enthusiastically and proclaim with words of power, praise, love and friendship: Indra listens with faith, understanding and sympathy at heart to invocation and prayer for relief of the oppressed and subdues the vociferous ogres and terrorising destroyers of life and values of good living. (Such a person is worthy of being the ruler, Indra of the human nation.)

Indra, omnipotent ruler of the world, bear and bring us abundant wealth, honour and excellence flowing in from all sides so that I may be able to think and meditate with words of prayer, praise and thankfulness: O lord, let us get over all difficulties, evils and undesirables of the world by simple, natural and navigable paths of progress, and you now, today itself, firmly seat and settle yourself over the wide world and receive our homage and admiration as tribute of love at heart in faith.

1. Gharma samantā trivṛtaṁ vyāpatustayornuṣṭim mātarīśvā jagāma. Divaspayo didhiṣāṇā aveṣan vidurdevāḥ sahasāmānamarkam.

Bright heat and light in conjunction pervade the threefold universe of heaven, earth and the middle regions. Matarishva, basic cosmic energy and pranic vitality, joins these two in friendly alliance for love and service. From the heaven of light and divine awareness flow vibrations bearing the milk of life and the divine message of knowledge for human awareness, and divine souls receive the light of eternal illumination, the Vedic message with the music of Samans in ecstasy.

2. Tisro deṣṭrāya nirṛtīrupāsatedīrghaśruto vi hi jānanti vahnayaḥ. Tāsām ni cikyuḥ kavayo nidānam pareṣu yā guhyeṣu vratesu.

Sages who have heard the divine message for long through discipline carry it on to pass it on to others. They know, closely watch, internalise and worship the trinity of eternal reality and its existential dynamics: Brahma, Prakrti, and Jiva, three modes of Prakrti: sattva, rajas and tamas, three phases of temporal existence: creation, continuance and completion, three aspects of the good life: knowledge, karma and worship, three aspects of worship: adoration, prayer and meditation in the triple world of earth, skies and heaven. Poetic vision arises and creative souls know the original cause of all these orders of existence and knowledge which operate in all other open and covert, lowest and highest facts, activities and disciplines of life. That cause is One, Supreme, Unique.

nāni vaste. Tasyām suparṇa vṛṣaṇā ni ṣedatur-yatra devā dadhire bhāgadheyam.*

Fourfold is that reality of existence, knowledge and the language of knowledge: Prakrti, jiva, immanent ordainer and the transcendent; matter, energy, intelligence and avyakta Prakrti; Rks, Samans, Yajus and Chhandas; Para, pashyanti, madhyama and vaikhari, in other words, nama, akhyata, upasarga and nipata. The vedi of existence in which it abides is ever young, beyond age and death, eternal. It is beautiful and exciting, golden gracious, which covers all the rules and laws of existence. In that abide two generous, creative beautiful birds on the tree of life: the one that watches is the Supreme Spirit of the cosmos, and the other that eats the fruit and tastes the sweet and the bitter of it is the individual human soul. In that existence, that knowledge and that Word of knowledge, noble souls find, live and experience their share of existence and the divine essence.

One and One only is the cosmic spirit which pervades and manifests in the boundless ocean of space-and-time. It watches, illuminates and inspires this entire universe. I see it with pure and transparent mind manifesting at the closest. Prakṛti which is the mother medium of its manifestation embraces it in love, and it too loves and embraces the mother medium. So also, divine Speech which is the mother medium of its expression embraces it in love, and it too loves and embraces the mother medium.

5. Suparṇaṁ viprāḥ kavayo vacobhirekaṁ santaṁ bahudhā kalpayanti. Chandāṁsi ca dadhato adhvaṛeṣu grahāntsomasya mimate dvādaśa.

Vibrant self-realised sages and visionary poets visualise and express the One immutable Spirit by words of their experiential vision. Taking on to the poetic compositions of Vedic mantras in yajnas and meditative sessions they visualise and restructure twelve cyclic manifestations and self-expressions of soma, the moon, the sun and the light beyond the sun and moon, and the spirit of life itself.

6. Ṣaṭtriśāṁśca caturaḥ kalpayantaśchandāṁsi ca dadhata ādvādaśam. Yajñam vimāya kavayo manīṣa ṛksāmābhyāṁ pra ratham vartayanti.

Visualising and re-structuring the modes and manifestations of the Soma spirit through thirty-six and four poetic structures bearing upto the twelfth of the forms, having enacted the yajna with their thought and imagination, the sages accomplish the yajnic cycle with Rks and Samans.

7. Caturdaśānye mahimāno asya taṁ dhīrā vācā pra ṇayanti sapta. Āpnānaṁ tīrthaṁ ka iha pra vocadyena pathā prapibante sutasya.

Fourteen are other majestic manifestations of this soma spirit of the universe in dynamic yajnic form which seven grand sages conduct with the voice divine. And here, in this world of limited human imagination, who can explain and reveal in human terms that all-pervasive saviour spirit in its reality and that central path by which the sages move up to divinity and have a drink of the soma ecstasy of divinity distilled through experience?

8. Sahasradhā pañcadaśānyukthā yāvad dyāvāpr-thivī tāvadit tat. Sahasradhā mahimānaḥ sahasram yāvadbrahma viṣṭhitam tāvatī vāk.

Thousandfold are the Vedic hymns, fifteen of them the highest and best, all extended as far as the heaven and earth. Thousandfold are the majesties and glories of it, the Vedic Word and vision extending and abiding as far as the vision and omniscience of divinity.

9. Kaśchandasaṁ yogamā veda dhīraḥ ko dhiṣṇyāṁ prati vācam papād. Kamṛtvijām-aṣṭamam śūramā-hurharī indrasya ni cikāya kaḥ svit.

Who is the constant sage that knows the structure, end and purpose of the hymns? Who attains to the centre meaning of divine reality corresponding to the word of divine voice? Who would say who is the eighth veteran of the sagely yajakas? Who knows the two mighty carriers of the cosmic chariot of Indra?

10. Bhūmyā antaṁ paryeke caranti rathasya dhūrṣu yuktāso asthuh. Śramasya dāyaṁ vi bhajantye-bhyo yadā yamo bhavati harmye hitaḥ.

Some of the horses of Indra, master of the solar chariot, as rays of the sun, reach the ends of the solar regions while they abide yoked to the poles of the chariot. The divinities of nature provide them with food to replenish the energy spent, when the sun rests inside its chamber.

Wondrous is the invigorating and sustaining power of the newly risen youthful Agni which never goes to its parental source for food and energy replenishment. And if you say that the udderless creator has given it birth, even so, going on its great ambassadorial mission, it carries the fragrant message of yajna to the divinities immediately on its birth.

2. Agnirha nāma dhāyi dannapastamaḥ saṁ yo vanā yuvate bhasmanā datā. Abhipramurā juhvā svadhvara ino na prothamāno yavase vr̥ṣā.

Agni, 'high priest' is the name given to 'fire', fiery leader of yajna, which, heroic of action, giving generously, takes to the woods with blazing flames and crackling jaws and, noble deity of yajna as it is, with ladlefuls of havi joins us with gifts of life like a mighty roaring cloud raining on pastures and fields of corn.

तं वा विं न दुषदं द्रुवमन्धस इन्दुं पार्थन्तं पवर्पन्तमणवम ।

3. Taṁ vo viṁ na druṣadam devamandhasa indum prothantam pravapantamarṇavam. Āsā vahniṁ na śociṣā virapśinam mahivrataṁ na sarajanta-madhvanah.

O celebrants of yajna, celebrate Agni, the leader, watching every thing like a bird on the tree, abiding in every thing dynamic, brilliant and generous, profuse giver of food and joy, thundering as a cloud of living showers and deep as the sea, consumer of havi by flames of fire and giver of light by sun rays, mighty strong and exalted, grand achiever of victories and pioneer path maker and illuminator like the sun.

4. Vi yasya te jrayasānasyājara dhakṣorna vātāḥ pari santyacutāḥ. Ā raṇvāso yuyudhayo na stvanam tritam naśanta pra śiṣanta iṣṭaye.

Agni, power unaging and dynamic, inviolable and imperishable are your forces like the radiations of dazzling light and blazing fire which, like victorious warriors, come to you, power indomitable and presence pervasive in three worlds, and exhort you for their life's fulfilment.

स इदग्निः कण्वतमः कण्वसखायः परस्यान्तरस्य तरुषः ।

19. Sa idagniḥ kaṇvatamaḥ kaṇvasakhāryaḥ para-syāntarasya taruṣaḥ. Agniḥ pātu grṇato agniḥ sūrīnagnirdadātu teṣāmavo naḥ.

That Agni, lord and leader of life, wisest pioneer and comrade of the warring wise, is the saviour giver of success and fulfilment to devotees far and near across difficulties within and outside. May Agni protect and promote the celebrants and the brave and give us the advantage of their protection and advancement.

वाजिन्तमाय सह्यस सुपित्र्य तृषु च्यवाना अनु जातवदस ।

6. Vājintamāya sahyase supitrya tṛṣu cyavāno anu-jātavedase. Anudre cidyo dhṛṣatā varam sate mahintamāya dhanvanedaviṣyate.

Resplendent fatherly presence between heaven and earth, I, spontaneously inspired and exalted, offer homage and pray for protection to the most powerful presence, Agni, forbearing as well as challenging, all pervasive and aware, ever true, highest and most glorious protector and promoter who provides succour and sustenance of high order even in dry desert lands of no water by his indomitable power and potential.

एवाग्निमतः सह सूरिभिवसु ष्टव सहसः सूनरा नृभिः । sah sūnaro nṛbhiḥ. Mitrāso na ye sudhitā ṛtāyavo

Thus Agni, wealth, power and shelter of the world, inspirer of strength, ambition and enthusiasm for life, is adored and exalted by the brave along with the leading lights of vision and action, though mortals all, who, constantly disciplined in mind, dedicated to truth and yajnic action for creativity and production of good things for life, like friends of mankind in unison and united action, excel and lead ordinary humanity by virtue of their brilliance and shining achievements.

8. *Ūrjo napāt sahasāvanniti vopastutasya vandate

“Child of energy, creator, sustainer and master of strength, energy and victory, undaunted and inviolable wielder of courage, patience and enthusiasm for living”, thus does the celebrant’s profound vision and word describe you as he closely watches and adores you. We, holy, brave and grateful, praise you while we enjoy your gift of good health, long life and the vision and hope of ultimate success and fulfilment.

Agni, lord omniscient, leading light of existence, cosmic energy of nature, thus do visionary sages, close watchful scholars, children of yajakas pursuing, enacting and accomplishing yajnic acts for rain showers and gifts of generous nature, describe and adore you. Pray protect and promote them with success. Bless the celebrants. Advance the veteran scholars. “Here is the havi, pray accept the oblation”, saying this they raise the hand for offering and rise. “Salutations to Agni and honour to the generous giver for the achievement of showers, food and energy,” saying this with surrender and submission they rise and achieve their mission’s success and fulfilment.

Mandala 10/Sukta 116

Indra Devata, Agniyuta Sthaura or Agniyupa Sthaura Rshi

पिबा सामं महत इन्द्रियाय पिबा वृत्राय हन्तव शविष्ठ ।

1. *Pibā somaṁ mahata indriyāya pibā vṛtrāya

Indra, lord omnipotent, light of life, ruler of the world, harbinger of the showers of prosperity, drink of the soma of our homage, and protect and promote the honour of your own creation for the power and glory of humanity on earth. Mightiest lord, take over and rule the world for the elimination of evil and the promotion of the positive values of life. Invoked and exalted, inspire your own people for the sake of strength, high morale and prosperity, honour and excellence. Promote the sweetness and culture of life and, happy and satisfied, bring us showers of all round progress and prosperity.

2. Asya piba kṣumataḥ prasthitasyendra somasya varamā sutasya. Svastidā manasā mādayasvā-rvācīno revate saubhagāya.

Indra, taste the best of beauty and sweetness of this abundant and powerful soma of the social and spiritual system prepared and seasoned to purity and sanctity of the highest order and presented in full faith. O giver of good and all round welfare of life, come straight to our vedi for the gift of wealth, honour and excellence of prosperity, happy at heart, and let us all rejoice.

3. Mamattu tvā divyaḥ soma indra mamattu yaḥ sūyate pārthiveṣu. Mamattu yena varivaścakartha Mamattu yena niriṇāsi śatrūn.

Let the heavenly soma of the sun and moon exhilarate you. Let the soma sweetness and beauty of things earthly created here exhilarate you. Let the soma of your own grandeur by which you do wonders exhilarate you. And let the soma of your own valour by which you destroy the enemies exhilarate you.

4. Ā dvibarhā amino yātvindro vṛṣā haribhyām pariṣiktamandhaḥ. Gavyā sutasya prabhṛtasya madhvaḥ satrā khedāmaruśahā vṛṣasva.

May generous Indra, mighty ruler of the powers of heaven and earth, come with complementary powers of centrifugal and centripetal forces of nature and society and taste the sweet sustaining assets of food and energy created on earth. O lord breaker of clouds and destroyer of enemies, adversity and exhaustion, let there be ceaseless showers of abundant honey sweets of distilled and seasoned wealth, honour and excellence of life on earth.

5. Ni tig māni bhrāśayan bhrāśyānyava sthirā tanuhi yātujūnām. Ugrāya te saho balaṁ dadāmi pratītyā śatrūn vigadeṣu vṛṣca.

Indra, lord of solar power, sharpening your catalysis and shining your blazing radiations, reduce and destroy the strong persistent life destroying forces from nature and society. I offer you power and persistent forces of resistance to cooperate with your blazing fight against the anti-life elements. Face the enemies and uproot them in our battle for health and the good life.

6. Vyarya indra tanuhi śravāmsyojaḥ sthireva dhanvano 'bhimātīḥ. Asmadyragvāvṛdhānaḥ sahobhiranibhrṣṭastanvaṁ vāvṛdhasva.

Indra, lord of life and human society, expand the resources of food, energy and sustenance, heighten the power and prestige of life and extend the spatial knowledge and power as on a permanent basis. Unresisted and inviolable by virtue of your own patience, persistence and power, rising in strength and lustre of glory before us, raise the power and prestige of the self and the total human organisation.

7. Idaṁ havirmaghavan tubhyaṁ rātaṁ prati samrāḷahṇāno grbhāya. Tubhyaṁ suto maghavan tubhyaṁ pakvo 'ddhīndra piba ca prasthitasya.

Indra, lord of glory, this homage and tribute is offered to you. O ruler of self, humanity and all life, pray take it freely without inhibition or hesitation. For you is the soma distilled and offered, O lord of majesty. For you is the food prepared and seasoned. Pray accept it, taste of it and drink of it as it is prepared with faith and love without reservation.

Indra, ruling lord of nature and human society, pray accept these offers of homage as inputs in the natural and human system of evolution and progress. Take the food prepared and the soma distilled as our share of contribution and generate and bring the divine gifts of food and natural energy for health and joy. Bearing food and tribute of homage we love and honour you and pray may the cherished desires of the yajamana be fulfilled.

9. *Prendrāgnibhyām suvacasyāmiyarmi sindhāviva

I send up this song of adoration to Indra, lord of power, and to Agni, lord of light. It is infused with the inspiration of mantras and I launch these prayers like a boat on the sea. Devas range around and move like harbingers of good fortune, they are abundant givers of wealth and they destroy misfortune and uproot evil.

Mandala 10/Sukta 117Dana-stuti or Indra Devata, Bhikshu Angirasa Rshi

न वा उ द्वाः ।ुधमिद्वधं ददुरुताशितमुप गच्छन्ति
मृत्यवः । उता रयिः पूणता नाप दस्यत्युतापूणन्मडितारं

1. Na vā u devāḥ kṣudhamidvadham dadurutāśitamupa gacchanti mṛtyavaḥ. Uto rayiḥ prṇato nopa dasyatyutāprṇan marḍitāraṁ na vindate.

The devas have ordained death for mortals, but not for reasons of hunger alone, because death overtakes the rich and well provided too. The wealth of the generous giver of charity does not diminish while the uncharitable finds no grace, none to comfort him.

य आधाय चकमानाय पित्वा विन्त्सनफितायापजग्मुष ।

2. Ya ādhrāya cakamānāya pitvo'nnavāntsan raphitāyopajagmuṣe. sthiraṁ manaḥ kṛṇute sevate puroto cit sa marḍitāraṁ na vindate.

The man of means in plenty who does not give in charity to the poor, needy, hunger afflicted supplicant that comes to his door but hardens his heart and, further, himself enjoys the fruits of his riches in his very presence, finds no grace, no comfort, none to console him.

स इद्भ्राजा या गृहव ददात्य कामाय चरत कृशाय ।

3. Sa idbhojo yo grhave dadātyannakāmāya carate kṛśāya. Aramasmai bhavati yāmahūtā utāpa-rīṣu kṛṇute sakhāyam.

Bounteous blest is he who gives to the needy seeker desirous of food and to the wanderer in search, gone feeble. Amplitude comes to him at his call for his purpose, and he creates friendly alliances even among those who once opposed him.

न स सखा या न ददाति सख्यं सचाभुव सचमानाय पित्वः ।

च्छत ॥ ४ ॥

4. Na sa sakhā yo na dadāti sakhye sacābhuve sacamānāya pitvaḥ. Apāsmāt preyānna tadoko asti prṇantamanyamaraṇaṁ cidicchet.

No friend is he who gives no help and sustenance to the friend, the assistant and the associate. Denied, the friend goes away from him. No home is this house of the miser mean, if the friend in need has to knock at another door, the house of a generous helpful person.

पृणीयादि णधमानाय तव्यान्दाधीयांसमनु पश्यत पन्थाम ।
आ हि वतन्त रथ्यव चकान्यमन्यमुप तिष्ठन्त रायः ॥ ५ ॥

5. Prṇīyādinnādhamānāya tavyān drāghīyām-samanu paśyeta panthām. O hi vartante rathyeva cakrānyamanyamupa tiṣṭhanta rāyaḥ.

The rich man should give for the poor seeker, he should see the paths of life in the long run. Riches move like wheels of the chariot: Now they are at one place, now they move to another.

माघम ँ विन्दतु अपचताः सत्यं ब्रवीमि वध इत्स तस्य ।

6. Moghamannaṁ vindate apracetāḥ satyaṁ bravīmi vadha it sa tasya. Nāryamaṇaṁ puṣyati no sakhāyaṁ kevalāgho bhavati kevalādī.

The man of no knowledge and short vision gets food in vain and prosperity for nothing. Verity I say that prosperity is his ruin, his very death in life. He prospers not who helps neither the friend nor the wise, eating all by himself he eats nothing but sin.

कृषात्फाल आशितं कृणाति य ऽध्वानमप वृङ्क्त चरित्रः ।

7. Kṛṣannit phāla āśitaṁ kṛṇoti yannadhvān-amapa vr̥ṅkte caritraiḥ. Vadan brahmāvadato vanīyān pṛṇannāpirapṛṇantamabhi śyāt.

The ploughman ploughing the land produces food for the hungry, the traveller while moving crosses the path to destination, the vocal sage is better than the silent, and the giving friend and brother is better than the non-giving.

एकपाद्भूया द्विपदा वि चक्रम द्विपात्रिपादमभ्यति पश्चात ।
चतुष्पादति द्विपदामभिस्वर संपश्यन्पङ्क्तिरुपतिष्ठमानः ॥ ८ ॥

8. Ekapādbhūyo dvipado vi cakrame dvipāt tripā-damabhyeti paścāt. Catuspādeti dvipadā-mabhisvare sampaśyan paṅktīrupatiṣṭhamānaḥ.

In the process of evolution and mutual exhortation, the man of the first order of wealth looks up to the man of double order of wealth and, if he be active and generous, may even surpass the doubly rich person. Similarly, the man of double order of wealth looks up to the man of triple wealth and may even surpass him. Later, the man of triple wealth looks up to the man of fourfold wealth and may overtake and even surpass him. Thus in evolution, competition, cooperation and mutual exhortation, the generous man of initiative goes on and on, watching and abiding in the line of the progressive evolution of humanity.

9. Samau ciddhastau na samam viviṣṭaḥ saṁmātarā cinna samam duhāte. Yamayościn-na samā vīryāṇi jñāti cit santau na samam prṇītaḥ.

The two hands, howsoever alike, do not perform equally well, two mother cows, alike and equal otherwise, do not yield the same quality and quantity of milk, the power and performance of even twins is not equal and the same, and two persons may be closely related, still they are not equal and exactly alike in charity.

7. *Adābhyena śociṣāgne rakṣastvaṁ daha.

स त्वमग्ने पतीकन् प्रत्याष यातुधान्यः ।

उरु येषु दीद्यत ॥ ८ ॥

8. *Sa tvamagne pratīkena pratyōṣa yātudhānyaḥ.

Agni, with your heat and light rays burn and destroy all forces of germs, viruses, insects and impurities that damage life, shine as you do in vast vedis of scientific programmes of yajna.

9. Taṁ tvā gīrbhirurukṣayā havyavāhaṁ samīdhire.
Yajisṭhaṁ mānuṣe jane.

Agni, carrier and harbinger of fragrant havis to divinities and humanity, most adorable in human communities, men of dignity and grand mansions invoke and light you in vast vedis with holy songs of the Veda.

Receiving the light and ecstasy of divinity, beatified by grace, I have become the fire that carries the fragrances of love and faith to the divinities and the highest Divine, for I have drunk of the soma of the spirit divine and I have become the divine ecstasy itself.

Mandala 10/Sukta 120

Indra Devata, Brhaddiva Atharvana Rshi

तदिदासु भुवनेषु ज्येष्ठं यतो जज्ञ उगस्त्वष्टृमणः ।

सद्य जज्ञाना नि रिणाति शत्रूननु यं विश्व मदन्त्यूमाः ॥ १ ॥

1. Tadidāsa bhuvaneṣu jyeṣṭhaṁ yato jajña ugrastveṣanṛmṇah. Sadyo jajñāno ni riṇāti śatrūnanu yaṁ viśve madantyūmāḥ.

That Indra, Brahma, is the first and highest among all the worlds in existence, of which, as the original cause, is born the blazing, refulgent potent sun which, always rising every moment, destroys the negativities which damage life and by which all positive and protective powers and people of the world rejoice and celebrate life.

वावृधानः शर्वसा भूयाजाः शत्रुदासाय भियसं दधाति ।

अव्यनच्च व्यनच्च सस्त्रि सं त नवन्त पभृता मदेषु ॥ २ ॥

2. Vāvṛdhānaḥ śavasā bhūryojāḥ śatrurdāsāya bhiyasaṁ dadhāti. Avyanacca vyanacca sasti saṁ te navanta prabhṛtā madeṣu.

Growing mighty in strength, immensely lustrous, destroyer of negativities, it strikes fear into the heart of forces causing damage to life and the environment. Bountiful purifier and sustainer of the breathing and non-breathing world, all the people and powers which receive sustenance from you join to do honour to you in their joy and celebration of life.

त्व कतुमपि वृज्जन्ति विश्व द्वियदत त्रिभवन्त्यूमाः । स्वादाः
स्वादीयः स्वादुना सृजा समदः सु मधु मधुनाभि याधीः ॥ ३ ॥

3. Tve kratumapi vṛñjanti viśve dviryadete trirbhavantyūmāḥ. Svādoḥ svādīyaḥ svādunā sṛjā samadaḥ su madhu madhunābhi yodhīḥ.

And they all, celebrants of divinity, surrender all actions and prayers to you when they join in couples and grow to three in the family. O lord sweeter than sweetness itself, join the sweets of life with honey and with divine sweetness and bliss create life overflowing with love and ecstasy.

इति चिद्धि त्वा धना जयन्तं मदमद अनुमदन्ति विपाः ।
आजीया धृष्णा स्थिरमा तनुष्व मा त्वा दभन्यातुधाना

4. Iti ciddhi tvā dhanā jayantaṁ madamade anumadanti viprāḥ. Ojīyo dhṛṣṭṇo sthiraṁ mā tanuṣva mā tvā dabhan yātudhānā durevāḥ.

Thus with joy on every happy occasion of life, grateful people and vibrant sages celebrate you, winner, creator and giver of wealth and excellence. Illustrious lord of shattering power, expand the commonwealth of permanent values. Let not the crooked and fiendish forces on the prowl suppress the creative gifts of divine generosity.

त्वया वयं शाशङ्वाह रणेषु पपश्यन्ता युधन्यानि भूरि ।
चादयामि त आयुधा वचाभिः सं त शिशामि ब्रह्मणा

5. Tvayā vyaṁ śāśadmahe raṇeṣu prapaśyanto yudhenyāni bhūri. Codayāmi ta āyudhā vacobhiḥ saṁ te śiśāmi brahmaṇā vayānsi.

With your divine inspiration, well knowing the weapons of war, we fight out the enemies of life in the battles of humanity. I strengthen and calibrate the arms and ammunitions for battle by your divine words, and by the same divine formula I sharpen the target efficacy of the arrows and missiles of defence and offence.

स्तुष्यं पुरुवप'सृभ्वमिनतममाप्त्यमाप्त्यानाम ।
आ दषत शर्वसा सप्त दानून्प सा त पतिमानानि भूरि ॥ ६ ॥

6. Stuṣeyyaṁ puruvarpasamṛbhvaminatamamā-ptyamāptyānām. Ā darṣate śavasā sapta dānūn pra sākṣate pratimānāi bhūri.

We love and celebrate Indra in song, lord adorable infinite in form, all pervasive, most glorious and wisest of the self-realised wise. With his might he breaks seven types of clouds and seven orders of sin and evil, and he challenges and subdues the many adversaries that arise in the world of nature and humanity.

नि तद्दधिष वरं परं च यस्मि णविथावसा दुराण । आ मातरा

7. Ni taddadhiṣe'varaṁ paraṁ ca yasminnāvithāvasā duroṇe. Ā mātaraṁ sthāpayase jigatnu ata inoṣi karvarā purūṇi.

You sustain this visible world of physical reality and the other invisible world of meta-physical and spiritual reality in which you maintain and protect everything with your might in their very home. And you hold and stabilise the revolving motherly earth and heaven, inspire many great actions therein and see them accomplished.

इ॒मा ब॒ह्म बृ॒हद्दि॒वा वि॒व॒क्ती॒न्द्रा॒य शु॒ष॒मग्॒रि॒यः स्व॒षाः । म॒हा

8. Imā brahma bṛhaddivo vivaktīndrāya śūṣama-griyaḥ svarṣāḥ. Maho gotrasya kṣayati svarājo duraśca viśvā avṛṇodapa svāḥ.

The poet of boundless heavenly light speaks these divine verses in honour of Indra for his own spiritual peace and pleasure. First and foremost among eminent poets, self-illuminant, self-refulgent and self-controlled, he masters the mighty treasure of Vedic wisdom and he opens the flood gates of his own vision of universal light and wisdom.

ए॒वा म॒हान्बृ॒हद्दि॒वा अथ॒वावा॑च॒त्स्वां त॒न्व॑मि॒न्द॑म॒व ।

च ॥ ९ ॥

9. Evā mahān bṛhaddivo atharvāvocat svām tanva-mindrameva. Svasāro mātarihbharīrariprā hinvanti ca śavasā vardhayanti ca.

Thus does the sage of boundless light and vision of wisdom with settled mind address his song of adoration to Indra only, and the pure immaculate fluent streams of speech like motherly creations inspire the world and exalt humanity with strength and enthusiasm.

Kah (Prajapati) Devata, Hiranyagarbha Prajapatya Rshi

हिरण्यगर्भः समवततागं भूतस्य जातः पतिरक आसीत् ।

1. Hiranyagarbhaḥ samavartatāgre bhūtasya jātaḥ patireka āsīt. Sa dādadhāra pṛthivīm dyāmutemām kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

Hiranyagarbha, the golden Seed, one lord of light and the sole creator of lights such as the sun, existed before creation (as he ever exists). He alone was and is the lord and sustainer of all forms of created being. He holds and sustains the earth and heaven and supports this whole universe. We worship the same one lord and offer him homage with oblations of fragrant materials.

य आत्मदा बलदा यस्य विश्व उपासत पशिषं यस्य द्वाः ।

2. Ya ātmadā baladā yasya viśva upāsate praśiṣaṁ yasya devāḥ. Yasya cāyāmṛtaṁ yasya mṛtyuḥ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

The lord who is the giver of birth to the soul with its power and potential in body, whose glory all the divinities of the world celebrate in song, whose shade of protection is immortality and falling off is death, to him we offer our homage and worship in hymns with havi.

यः पाणता निमिषता महित्वक इदाजा जगता बभूव । य

3. Yaḥ prāṇato nimiṣato mahitvaika idrājā jagato babhūva. Ya īṣe asya dvipadaścatuspadaḥ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

The sole one lord who, with his own might, creates and rules over the world of those who breathe and see, the lord who rules over both men and animals, to that sovereign lord of bliss and majesty we offer homage and worship with our heart and soul.

यस्यम हिमवन्ता महित्वा यस्य समुदं रसया सहाहुः ।

4. Yasyeme himavanto mahitvā yasya samudraṁ rasayā sahāhuḥ. Yasyemāḥ pradiṣo yasya bāhū kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

Whose majesty these snow covered mountains proclaim, whose depth and grandeur the ocean with rivers declares, whose arms these quarters of space extend to infinity, that lord of light and sublimity let us worship with offers of homage in havis.

यन् द्यारुगा पृथिवी च दृ हा यन् स्वः स्तभितं यन् नाकः ।

5. Yena dyaurugrā pṛthivī ca dṛlḥā yena svaḥ stabhitam yena nākaḥ. Yo antarikṣe rajaso vimānaḥ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

By him the suns blaze, by him the earth is firm, by him the heaven of bliss is sustained, by him the ecstasy of Moksha is constant, and he is the creator of the worlds of space. Let us worship the lord refulgent and omnipotent with offers of homage in havis.

6. *Yaṁ krandasī avasā tastabhāne abhyaikṣetām

kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.*

Whom eloquent heaven and earth sustained in balance by divine power, shining in splendour and inspired at heart, manifest in glory and celebrate in song, under whose law the sun rises, shines and illuminates the world, that self-refulgent lord let us worship with offers of havis.

आपा ह यद बृहतीविश्वमायुन्गर्भं दधाना जूनयन्तीरग्निम ।

7. *Āpo ha yadbṛhatīrviśvamāyan garbham dadhānā

surekaḥ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.*

When the boundless ocean of charged particles of Vayu energy comes into existence bearing the implicit blue print of the cosmos in seed form, creating the heat mode of existence, then the one supreme of the divinities, living breathing life itself, emerges in advance of all cosmic forms, and that One all-comprehensive divine lord let us worship with oblations of havi, who else? That is Hiranyagarbha.

8. *Yaścidāpo mahinā paryapaśyad dakṣam dadhānā

kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.*

The one who with his might pervades, watches and overall controls the ocean of charged particles of Vayu energy bearing the heat mode producing the yajnic process of life's evolution, who is on top of all the divinities of existence, that One supreme lord let us worship with havis.

9. Mā no himsījjanitā yaḥ pṛthivyā yo vā divaṁ satyadharmā jajāna. Yaścāpaścandrā bṛhatīrjajāna kasmā devāya haviṣā vidhema.

May the one lord supreme never hurt us, the lord that is creator of the earth, who also creates the heavens and who also creates the vast oceans of energies and waters, all beautiful, soothing and blissful, the master, controller and ordainer of all the laws of existence in operation in truth. Let us worship that one lord supreme with offers of faith and havis.

10. Prajāpate na tvadetānyanyo viśvā jātāni pari tā babhūva. Yat kāmāste juhūmastanno astu vayaṁ syāma patayo rayīṇām.

Prajapati, lord of life and your children, there is none other than you who rules over life forms and materials in existence, for yours are the laws of existence, none else's. Whatever our desires, whatever you wish we should desire, all that we pray for, may all that be fulfilled in life for us. May we be masters in control of the wealths, honours and excellences of the world within your laws of life.

Loving and adorable Agni, universal knower of the laws and ways of life, presiding power of all holy works, pray listen to my words and accept my prayer : Rising and refulgent with ghṛta, inspire the sage and open up the paths of progress for him. Divinities and noble souls raising you in yajna adore you, join you and raise themselves in pursuance of your laws of life.

Immortal Agni, pervading seven regions of the universe, bhu, bhuva, sva, maha, jana, tapa and satyam, advance and exalt the noble and generous yajamana of holy action. Whoever brings and offers holy fuel and fragrant havi to you, pray accept and bless him with noble progeny and abundant wealth of life.

Seven priests with seven pranas and seven faculties of sense and mind offer havi and adore Agni, first and original performer of creation yajna who bears on the banner of creative yajna to its victorious completion, and they go on serving the seven-rayed light of life, listening, fed on and rising by ghr̥ta, generous lord refulgent who blesses the dedicated celebrant with noble strength and happy progeny.

Vena Devata, Vena Bhargava Rshi

अयं वनश्चादयत्पृश्निगभा ज्यातिजरायू रजसा विमान ।

1. Ayam venaścodayat prṣnigarbhā jyotirjarāyū rajaso vimāne. Imamapāṁ saṁgame suryasya śiśuṁ na viprā matibhī rihanti.

This loving and lovely light, glorious sun, womb of light, shines in varied light and beauty in the ocean of particles of mist in middle space, moves and energises the clouds of vapour, and in the meeting of the sun rays and the vapours sages celebrate and adore the sun with songs of prayer and love with gratitude as a child of divinity.

2. Samudrādurmimudiyarti veno nabhojāḥ prṣṭham haryatasya darṣi. Ṛtasya sānāvadhi viṣṭapi bhrāt samānaṁ yonimabhyānūṣata vrāḥ.

Rising from the skies, the sun radiates its waves of light, draws waves of mist from the ocean, energises clouds of mist from the ocean of space, the vault of glorious heaven across the skies is seen, the glory shines on top of the high heaven of nature's yajna, and the sages celebrate both dawn and the vault of heaven together.

Equal and abundant, shining and thundering currents of natural energy, mother generators of clouds of rain, abiding together with vapours and sun rays in the skies, also active on top of nature's dynamics, inspire the honey sweets of sage's immortal songs of divine celebration.

4. Jānanto rūpamakṛpanta viprā mṛgasya ghoṣaṁ mahiṣasya hi gman. Ṛtena yanto adhi sindhuma-sthurvidadgandharvo amṛtāni nāma.

The sages, knowing the form, structure and functioning of the cloud and the roaring thunder, celebrate it and realise it in practice. Going by laws of natural truth, waters, evaporation and cloud formation and catalysis in the depth of spatial ocean, they realise that it is really the sun which holds the earth and controls the immortal waters for sure.

5. Apsarā jāramupasiṣmiyāṇā yoṣā bibharti parama vyoman. Carat priyasya yoniṣu priyaḥ santsīdat pakṣe hiranyaye sa venah.

Like a youthful belle holding on to her lover, the lightning with a brilliant smile holds on to and sustains with the cloud in the highest skies, and the cloud too, dear and lovely, moving about in the spatial home of his lovely light and lightning, stays by the side of the golden beloved.

6. Nāke suparṇamupa yat panantaṁ hr̥dā venanto abhyacakṣata tvā. Hiranyapakṣaṁ varuṇasya dūtaṁ yamasya yonau śakunaṁ bhuranyum.

O Sun, wrapped in wondrous rays flying around in the highest heaven, loving sages with their heart and soul see and realise you at the closest as a messenger of the supreme lord of love and justice and as a mighty bird blazing and flying with golden wings in the vast space of the lord ordainer of the universe.

7. Ūrdhvo gandharvo adhi nāke asthāt pratyāṁ citrā bibhradasyāyudhāni. Vasāno atkaṁ surabhiṁ dṛśe kaṁ svarṇa nāma janata priyāṇi.

High up over there abides the sun in the region of heavenly light. It bears wondrous weapons of divinity such as thunder and lightning. It wears a beautiful, fragrant form soothing for people to see, and like the light and bliss of heaven creates divine waters and many other dear divine gifts for life.

8. *Drapsaḥ samudramabhi yajjigāti paśyan

When the sun in the third, highest, heaven, shining on the oceans and vapours in the skies with the light of its fervent rays reaches the clouds of vapour, then the blazing heat with pure and powerful energy catalyses the clouds and condenses the vapours into dear valuable drops that shower in rain upon the earth.

Mandala 10/Sukta 124

Devata: Agni (1), Agni's Atma (2-4), Varuna (5, 7-8), Soma (6), Indra (9); Rshi: Agni, Varuna, Soma (1, 5-9), Agni (2-4)

इमं ना अग्न उप यज्ञमहि पञ्चयामं त्रिवृतं सप्ततन्तुम् । असा

1. Imaṁ no agna upa yajñamehi pañcayāmaṁ trivṛtaṁ saptatantum. Aso havyavāluta naḥ purogā jyogeva dīrghaṁ tama āśayiṣṭhāḥ.

Agni, yajnic light of life, come to this life yajna of ours: which has five divisions, i.e., Brahma-yajna, Deva-yajna, Pitr-yajna, Atithi-yajna, and Balivaishva-deva-yajna; conducted by five people, i.e, four socio-economic classes of Brahmans, Kshatriyas, Vaishyas and Shudras and others like chance visitors from other groups there might be; which is threefold, i.e., paka yajna, haviryajna and somayajna; and which has seven extensions, i.e., Agnishtoma, Atyagnishtoma, Ukthya, Shodashi, Vajapeya, Atiratra and Aptoyami. You are our leader and pioneer, Agni, and you are the carrier of our yajna to the divinities as well as harbinger of the fruits of yajna to us. Pray come and be our all time dispeller of the cavern of deep darkness from life.

(Yajna is a creative process of development in life from the individual to the social, national, global and environmental level of life. The explanation above is related to the social level. Swami Brahmamuni explains the yajna at the individual level, and that is also suggested in Rgveda 10, 7, 6: ‘Svayam yajasva’, and yajurveda 4, 13: “Iyam te yajniya tanu”, which means: Develop yourself by yajna according to the seasons of your growth, and remember your life in body, mind and soul is worthy of yajnic service for your personal development, your body being the first instrument of your wider yajna of life. This personal yajna is fivefold, for the elemental balance of earth, water, heat, air and ether; threefold for the balance of vata, pitta and kaf, and also for balanced growth of body, mind and soul; sevenfold for the growth of rasa, rakta, mansa, meda, asthi, majja and virya. Thus yajna is the process of growth beginning with the individual, accomplished at the cosmic level.)

अदवाहुवः पचता गुहा यन्पश्यमान अमृतत्वममि । शिवं

2. Adevāddevaḥ pracatā guhā yan prapaśyamāno amṛtatvamemi. Śivaṁ yat santamaśivo jahāmi svāt sakhyādaraṇīm nābhimemi.

When I, the soul, transcending the mere physical, non-divine, form, take on to the light of divinity within the heart cave of the soul, I see the light of divinity within and attain to it. Thus when I relinquish my dark side of personality, attaining to the light and peace of divinity, then by reason of my essential affinity with divinity, I reach the life divine, sole centre of existence, just like fire existing at peace in the arani wood, its natural abode, rising into heat and light at yajna.

3. Paśyannanyasyā atithim vayāyā ṛtasya dhāma vi mime puruṇi. Śamsāmi pitre asurāya śevamayajñiyādyajñyam bhāgamemi.

Watching the traveller of another path of life other than the physical, the bird on another branch of the tree, and seeing the original home of the cosmic yajna, I enact many vedis to follow the yajnic paths of living. I sing songs of homage in honour of the omnipotent father giver of life and take to my share of yajnic living, away from the selfish ways of existence.

4. Bahvīḥ samā akaramantarasmindindram vṛṇānaḥ pitaraṁ jahāmi. Agniḥ somo varuṇaste cyavante paryāvadrāṣṭraṁ tadavāmyāyan.

Having lived in this body, vedi of living yajna, and choosing Indra, omnipotent father, for worship, I give up the vedi. Agni, vital heat, Varuna, mind and senses and the water element, and Soma, living vitality, depart, and moving ahead I come to the freedom of existence which I cherish and protect for further life.

5. Nirmāyā u tye asurā abhūvan tvaṁ ca mā varuṇa kāmayaśe. Ṛtena rājannanṛtaṁ viviñcan mama rāṣṭrasyādhipatyamehi.

When I get the freedom of my state of being, let the demonic forces be void of their powers, and O Varuna, lord of love, justice and fulfilment, pray bless me with love and protection. O ruling lord of existence, eliminating untruth by the rule of truth and divine law, come and take over the ultimate sovereignty of my free state.

6. Idaṁ svaridamidāsa vāmamayaṁ prakāśa urvantarikṣam. Hanāva vṛtraṁ nirehi soma haviṣtvā santaṁ haviṣā yajāma.

O Soma, spirit of life in the state of freedom, this is the state of bliss, this is beauty, this is the light of life, this is the expansive space to sojourn at will. Come up out of all sense of bondage. We two shall eliminate darkness and nescience. You are the havi and you the object of love and adoration too. We powers of divine law and truth of existence serve and bless you, our darling, with your real self and blessings of total fulfilment.

7. Kaviḥ kavitvā divi rupamājsajadaprahūtī varuṇo nirapaḥ sṛjat. Kṣemaṁ kṛnvānā janayo na sindha-vastā asya varṇaṁ śucayo bharibhrati.

The sovereign creator with his divine vision and power created the light and placed it as the sun in heaven. Varuna, the same lord omnipotent of the element of waters, created and released the rivers aflow which, pure and creative mothers, harbingers of peace and joy, bear and manifest the generosity and majesty of the lord.

8. Tā asya jyeṣṭhamindriyaṁ sacante tā imā kṣeti svadhāyā madantīḥ. Tā im viśo na rājānaṁ vṛṇānā bībhatsuvo apa vṛtrādatiṣṭhan.

Those streams of living waters share and bear the highest power and beneficence of this lord Varuna, and the lord rules and abides in these streams which sparkle and flow, enjoying the fragrance of oblations offered in yajna. They, also, like people choosing and abiding by the ruler, free from fear and keeping off from darkness and evil, flow free from fear and obstruction.

9. Bībhatsūnām sayujaṁ haṁsamāhurapām divyānām sakhye canantam. Anuṣṭubhamanu carcūmāṇamindram ni cikyuḥ kavayo manīṣā.

The sun, companion of the free and fearless clouds, which sojourns in space as a comrade of the holy waters, the poets call the ‘celestial bird’, and the wind and electric energy blowing and radiating in response to yajna with anushtup verses, they know with their vision and imagination, and this they call ‘Indra’.

Mandala 10/Sukta 125

Atma Devata, Vagambhrni Rshi

अहं रुद्रभिर्वसुभिश्चराम्यहमादित्यरुत विश्वदेवः ।

अहं मित्रावरुणाभा बिभम्यहमिन्द्राग्नी अहमश्विनाभा ॥ १ ॥

1. Ahaṁ rudrebhirvasubhiścarāmyahamādityair-uta viśvadevaiḥ. Ahaṁ mitrāvaruṇobhā bibhamryahamindrāgnī ahamaśvinobhā.

I am Vak-ambhrni, voice of omniscience, Universal Speech all bearing, all borne, co-existent with eleven Rudras, pranic energies and the soul, eight Vasus, earth, water, fire, air, space, moon, sun and stars, all abodes and supports of life, twelve Adityas, year’s twelve phases of the sun, and all the Vishvedevas, divinities of nature and humanity. I pervade and support both Mitra and Varuna, day and night, I pervade and support Indra and Agni, wind and fire, and I bear and support both the Ashvins, all complementarities of nature and humanity such as positive and negative currents of energy and science and technology.

(Language, Vak or Word, is a system corresponding to and co-existent with existence as a system and the awareness or knowledge of existence. Hence language at the level of divine awareness is co-existent and co-extensive with existence itself. In other words, at the level of omniscience, existence is language and language is existence. In our life, our language is the seat of correspondence between our awareness and knowledge of existence and its articulation in experience, expression and communication.)

2. Ahaṁ somamāhanasam bibharmyahaṁ tvaṣṭāramuta pūṣaṇam bhagam. Ahaṁ dadhāmi draviṇam haviṣmate suprāvye yajamānāya sunvate.

I bear the reception and expression of experience in communication and the soma joy of corporate existence. I bear the formative evolution, nourishment and growth, and the power and glory of life and its progress. I bear the wealth and prosperity of life for the yajamana who creates beauty and sweetness for life and bears liberal havis of corporate yajna for the common welfare of humanity and indeed all life. (In other words, the content of Language is Existence and the awareness of Existence.)

3. Ahaṁ rāṣṭrīm saṁgamanī vasūnām cikituṣī prathamā yajñiyānām. Tām mā devā vyadadhuḥ purutrā bhūristhātrām bhūryāveśayanīm.

I am the spirit and organisation of the social system. I am the pioneer and harbinger of the wealth, honours and excellences of the corporate system with the people. I am the thought, awareness and determined organisation of the basics of human life and its values. Sages and scholars establish me in many socio-political forms with many permanent stabilities and many evolving powers and possibilities of progress in various directions.

मया सा अमिच्छति या विपश्यति यः पाणिनि य ईं शृणा- त्युक्तम् । अमन्तवा मां त उप ति यन्ति श्रुधि श्रुत श्रद्धिवं

4. Mayā so annamatti yo vipaśyati yaḥ prāṇiti ya īm śṛṇotyuktam. Amantavo mām ta upa kṣiyanti śrudhi śruta śraddhivam te vadāmi.

O listener, listen, what I say to you is worth listening and doing in faith: Whoever sees whatever he sees, whoever breathes whatever he breathes, whoever hears what is said, he receives the food of life by me. Those who do not listen, do not care, do not believe what I say and neglect me, they waste away, they come to ruin.

(We may realise here that Vagambhrni is not only the voice of divinity, it is also the voice of the people who think and speak truly, positively and jointly whenever and wherever they happen to do so, whether it be in parliaments or assemblies or in the press or in the universities. And this voice must be invariably true and authentic.)

अहमव स्वयमिदं वदामि जुष्टं देवभिरुत मानुषभिः । यं

5. Ahameva svayamidam vadāmi juṣṭam devebhi-ruta mānuṣebhiḥ. Yam kāmaye tam tamugraṁ kṛṇomi tam brahmāṇam tamṛṣiṁ tam sumedhām.

And all this that is loved, adored and spoken by the sages and veteran scholars and even by average mortals of honest mind, take it that I, voice of divinity, speak it myself. Whosoever I love by virtue of his or her merit of nature, character and performance, I raise to brilliance, to piety worthy of a yajnic Brahma, to the vision of a poetic sage and high intelligence of an exceptional thinker.

अ॒हं रु॒दाय॑ ध॒नुरा॑ त॒नामि॑ ब॒ह्वद्विष॑ शर॒व॒ हन्त॒वा उ॑ ।
अ॒हं ज॒नाय॑ स॒मदं॑ कृ॒णाम्य॒हं द्यावा॑पृथि॒वी आ वि॑वश ॥ ६ ॥

6. Ahaṁ rudrāya dhanurātanimi brahmadviṣe śarave hantavā u. Ahaṁ janāya samadam kṛṇo-myaham dyāvāpṛthivī ā viveśa.

I draw the bow for Rudra, powers of justice and punishment, to eliminate the forces of hate and violence against lovers and observers of piety and divinity. I fight for the people and create felicity and joy for them, and I reach and pervade the heaven and earth.

अ॒हं सु॒व पि॒तर॑मस्य मू॒धन्म॑म॒ या नि॒र॒प्स्व॑न्तः स॒मुद॑ । त॒ता

7. Ahaṁ suve pitaramasya mūrdhan mama yonira-psvantah samudre. Tato vi tiṣṭhe bhuvanānu viśvotāmuṁ dyām varṣmaṇopa sprśāmi.

I create the parental protector on top of this human nation and this world in the form of the ruler and the sun. My place is in the depth of waters and the sea and in the particles of space. That same way I abide in all worlds of the universe, and I reach that heaven of light and touch the very top of it with my light and grandeur.

अ॒हम॒व वा॒त इ॒व प वा॒म्या॒रभ॒माणा॒ भु॒वना॒नि वि॒श्वा ।

8. Ahameva vāta iva pra vāmyārabhamāṇā bhu-vanāni viśvā. Paro divā para enā pṛthivyaitāvātī mahinā saṁ babhūva.

Loving, embracing and pervading all regions of the universe, I flow forward like the wind that blows across the spaces. Beyond the heaven, beyond this world I am, so much is my power and potential, immanent and transcendent my presence.

O devas, divinities of nature, noble scholars and sages, neither sin nor suffering, nor anything vicious can touch the mortal whom Aryama, spirit of enlightened guidance, Mitra, spirit of love and friendship, and Varuna, spirit of judgement and justice, all together with love and care without relent, lead across hate, jealousy and enmity.

O Mitra, Varuna and Aryama, divinities of love, justice and rectitude within and without in society, nature and beyond, that protection and guidance of yours we seek of you, yourself all beyond sin and evil. Save the mortals from sins and lead them to success and fulfilment across and beyond hate, jealousy, enmity and all negativity.

3. *Te nūnaṁ no'yamūteye varuṇo mitro aryamā.

This Varuna, this Mitra, this Aryama, surely they are for our protection, guidance and success. O protective and guiding divinities of rectitude, take us and guide us on the path we ought to take, lead us to the goal we ought to reach, take us across and beyond the hate, jealousy and enmity we ought to avoid.

4. *Yūyaṁ viśvaṁ pari pātha varuṇo mitro aryamā.

Mitra, Varuna and Aryama, you protect, guide and lead the world to their goal of success and fulfilment. We pray, under the loving care, security and felicity of your law and order, let us advance to our cherished goal, pursuing noble ethics and policies beyond the wicked.

5. Ādityāso ati sridho varuṇo mitro aryamā. Ugram marudbhī rudraṁ huvemendramagniṁ svastaye' - ti dviṣaḥ.

May the Adityas, brilliant scholars of the Aditya order of forty eight years discipline, Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, powers of justice, love and rectitude, protect us and guide us across violence and enmity and lead us to success. We invoke the blazing commander with his tempestuous commandos, Rudra, determined destroyer of evil and suffering, Indra, mighty ruler, and Agni, brilliant teacher and scholar, for all round protection and well being so that we may overcome the forces of hate, jealousy and enmity and reach our goals.

6. Netāra ū ṣu ṇastira varuṇo mitro aryamā. Ati viśvāni duritā rājānaścarṣaṇīnāmati dviṣaḥ.

May Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, leaders and brilliant rulers of the people, judicious, loving and nobly motivated, safely pilot us across all sin and evil of the world and all forces of hate, jealousy and enmity of society.

7. *Śunamasmabhyamūtaye varuṇo mitro aryamā.

May Varuna, Mitra and Aryama, powers of justice, and noble choice, love and friendship, and noble ethics and policy, bring us peace and progress for our protection and advancement. May the Adityas, brilliant scholars, teachers and researchers give us lasting comfort and well being of wide variety which we seek and pray for, and may all these divine nobilities lead us beyond the reach of the forces of hate and enmity.

8. *Yathā ha tyadvasavo gauryaṁ cit padi ṣitāma-

O Vasus, world powers of peace and settlement, scholars of the Vasu order, all loving and adorable in yajnic association, just as you set a noble but fettered cow at freedom to roam around at peace with joy, so pray release us from the bonds of sin and evil. O Agni, lord of light, give us a life of enlightenment, a long life of good health and light of wisdom.

Agni, light of life, leader and pioneer of men, let there be vigour and lustre in me in the battles of life. Let us shine and rise in body, mind and soul while we kindle you in the yajnic development of human society. Let the four directions of life and the people there be favourable to me in love and faith, and let us win the battles of life under your leadership and presiding power.

In the battle of life when the clarion call is given, let all the Devas, divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity be for me. Let the Maruts, Vishnu and Agni, all with Indra, stormy troops, all pervasive people power, and the leading lights of humanity, all inspired with passion and energy, all wielding weapons of fire, wind and electric power, be with me. Let the sky and space be the vast world for me. And let the winds blow for me in this beautiful world for the fulfilment of this yajnic ambition for personal and collective expansion.

May veteran and divine yajakas in nature and humanity join me in our yajna for the general good. May we be blest with health of body, mind and spirit, be inviolable and blest with noble progeny.

May all be well with you!

O divinities of the world, be brave and great and help us rise to bravery and grandeur. Never deplete us either by loss of health and virility or by loss of progeny. O ruling Soma, lord of peace, light and glory, let us never fall a prey to the forces of hate, jealousy and enmity.

O Agni, sovereign ruling lord of light and fire, ever awake and protective, warding off the anger and attack of foreign and negative powers, defend, protect and promote us without relent. Let our enemies withdraw and go back, repulsed, frustrated and routed. Howsoever clever, intelligent tacticians they think they are, destroy their mind, morale and intelligence altogether.

The one lord sustainer of all sustainers of the world such as sun and earth, the one that is the supreme lord creator, ruler and protector of the universe, the one that subdues the proudest of the enemies of life and humanity, the one that saves and gives fulfilment, that One I worship and adore. May the Ashvins, twin divine complementarities of nature and humanity, Brhaspati, lord of Infinity and the sage dedicated to Infinity, and the infinite divine voice and all other divinities of the world, we pray, promote this yajna and save this yajamana from sin and evil.

Indra, all pervasive lord of the expansive universe, infinitely potent, universally invoked and adored, infinitely opulent and generous, may, we pray, give us peace and fulfilment in this great war-like yajna of life. O lord of the dynamics of existence, Indra, we pray give us the joy of fulfilment for our people and for our future generations, pray never hurt us, never forsake us.

May the Vasus, shelter and support givers of life and the general order of educated people, Rudras, powers of justice and order and the middle order of intellectuals, and Adityas, powers of light and the highest order of scholars and sages raise me high, inspire me with the brilliance of fire, enlighten me and anoint me as the highest ruling authority.

1. Nāsadāsīnno sadāsīt tadānīm nāsīdrajo no vyomā paro yat. Kimāvarīvaḥ kuha kasya śarmanna-mbhaḥ kimāsīdgahanam gabhīram.

It was neither a-sat nor sat, neither non-existence nor positive existence, then, nothing tangible, neither particles nor sky nor space nor anything beyond. What form? What content? None. Where? What purpose, for whom? What mist? What deep darkness? None, nothing, and yet not nothing.

(It was the zero state of existence after the completion of one cycle and before the beginning of the next cycle, like the zero hour between two dates. It is a state intangible and inexplicable because thought and language too terminate into the intangible and inexplicable silence at the completion of the cycle. The zero hour exists and yet it does not, it doesn't exist and yet it does, that's the mystery of it. The state under meditation in this sukta is the hour of Infinity in the womb of Infinity self-brooding on the zero; the One upon the zero.)

2. Na mṛtyurāsidamṛtaṁ na tarhi na rātryā ahna āsīt praketaḥ. Ānīdavātaṁ svadhayā tadekaṁ tasmāddhānyanna paraḥ kiṁ canāsa.

There is, then, neither death nor deathlessness of immortality, neither night nor day as we know the night and day. There is only That, the One self-existent Brahma, breathing without breath, the sole One, one with its potential. Any other apart or beyond That there was none whatsoever.

तम आसीत्तमसा गू हमगं पकृतं सलिलं सवमा इदम ।

3. Tama āsīt tamasā gūḷhamagre'praketaṁ salilaṁ sarvamā idam. Tucchyenābhvapihitaṁ yadāsīt-tapasastanmahinājāyataikam.

There is only dark, darker and deeper than darkness itself before the world of existence comes into being, something misty beyond knowledge and experience, this all that now is. That living mystery, which then exists, covered in something more mysterious than mystery itself, self-manifests by the exercise of Its own grandeur of power and potential solely by Itself.

कामस्तदगु समवतताधि मनसा रतः पथमं यदासीत् । सता

4. Kāmastadagre samavartatādhi manaso retah prathamam yadāsīt. Sato bandhumasati niravindan hr̥di praṭīṣyā kavayo manīṣā.

There is love and desire before the creation at the heart of Brahma which is the first, original and ultimate seed of the world of existence that comes into being. Sages blest with vision, by divine inspiration and mind in meditation, realise the world of existence from the tangible upto the intangible state implicit in the seed state of Prakṛti subsisting in the divine mind.

5. Tiraścīno vitato raśmireṣāmadhaḥ svidāsīdupari svidāsīt. Retodhā āsan mahimāna āsantsvadhā avastāt prayatiḥ parastāt.

The waves and vibrations of these causal potentials of divine Prakrti extend in time and space all round, up, down and transverse. There are the individual souls also, seedlings great and yearning for emergence into life. In all this process of creation and evolution, the divine will is supreme, and the divine potential, Prakrti, the seeding souls, and potential evolutions, are all subservient and subordinate to the divine will.

6. *Ko addhā veda ka iha pra vocat kuta ājātā kuta iyam visṛṣṭiḥ. Arvāgdevā asya visarjanenā-

Who for certain knows, who here would declare whence this universe has come, whence this variety has emerged? The visionary sages all come after the creation and diversity of it. Who of them would then know whence and why all this has come into existence? Only He, the creator, would know, only He can reveal and declare.

7. Iyam visṛṣṭiryata ābabhūva yadi vā dadhe yadi veda yadi vā na veda.

O dear seeker, whence this multitudinous variety of existence arises, who holds and sustains it, or whether He doesn't hold and sustain it while He terminates it, only He knows who is the presiding power of it at the highest heavenly level of mystery. Only He knows and pervades it, and He only knows when he doesn't pervade it while it subsists in Him as in the state of Pralaya.

Mandala 10/Sukta 130

Bhavavrttam Devata, Yajna Prajapatya Rshi

या यज्ञा विश्वतस्तन्तुभिस्तत एकशतं दवकमभिरायतः ।
इम वयन्ति पितरा य आययुः प वयार्प वयत्यासत तत ॥ १ ॥

1. Yo yajño viśvatastantubhistata ekaśataṁ deva-karemebhirāyataḥ. Ime vayanti pitaro ya āyayuh pra vayāpa vayetyāsate tate.

The yajnic cosmos, the web of existence, which is extended and expands all round by vibrations, radiations, currents, flames, streams, fibres and filaments spun out and woven by a hundred plus one divine actions (by eight Vasus, twelve Adityas, eleven Rudras, eleven Vishvedevas, fortynine Maruts and ten Vishvasrj creative processes) all this web of yajna, these divinities universally prevailing weave up and down all round, and all these divinities, actions and processes abide therein, in the yajna itself.

पुमँ एनं तनुत उत्कृणन्ति पुमान्वि तन्न अधि नाकं अस्मिन् ।

2. Pumāṁ enaṁ tanuta ut kṛṇatti pumān vi tatne adhi nāke asmin. Ime mayūkhā upa sedurū sadaḥ sāmāni cakrustasarāṇyotave.

The supreme cosmic Purusha weaves this web of existence and the same Purusha winds it up on time. He alone in this cosmos and beyond the heaven of time and space extends it. These radiations, vibrations, threads, filaments and creative processes abide and act in this vast yajna of the cosmos, and they structure the holy formulas and they spin the threads of the warp and woof of this web.

3. Kāsīt pramā pratimā kiṁ nidānamājyaṁ kimāsīt paridhiḥ ka āsīt. Chandaḥ kimāsīt pra-ugam kimuktham yaddevā devamayajanta viśve.

What is the central vision and comprehensive blueprint of the design of cosmic yajna? What is the measure of the progressive stages of the yajna upto accomplishment? What is the basic cause and ultimate purpose? What is the ghrta input of the yajna? What is the ultimate bound? What is the chhanda, joyous formula, from the inception and conception to completion? What is the beginning, middle and the hymnal close of the divine yajna? When the divinities join the Supreme Divinity in the yajna of cosmic creation, what are these constituents of the creative process?

अग्रयायत्र्यभवत्सयुग्वाष्णिहया सविता सं बभूव । अनुष्टुभा

4. Agnergāyatryabhavat sayugvoṣṇihayā savitā saṁ babhūva. Anuṣṭubhā soma ukthairmahasvān bṛhaspaterbṛhatī vācamāvat.

Gayatri is the companion of Agni, Savita manifests with ushnik, Soma with anushtup, the sun manifests with uktha hymns of celebration, and brhati comes to express the voice of Brhaspati. (That is, the mantras associated with these deities are composed in these verse forms.)

5. Virāṇmitrāvaruṇayorabhiśrīrindrasya triṣṭubiha bhāgo ahnaḥ. Viśvān devāñjagatyā viveśa tena cākḷpra ṛṣayo manuṣyāḥ.

Virat is associated with Mitra and Varuna together, trishtup is associated with Indra as share of the mid-day session, jagati joins with the Vishvedevas and by that the sages and ordinary people are joined and receive their strength of being. (The Chhandas, metres, of the Vedas, thus, are part of the process of creation.)

6. Cākḷpre tena ṛṣayo manuṣyā yajñe jāte pitara naḥ purāṇe. Paśyan manye manasā cakṣasā tān ya imam yajñamayajanta pūrve.

When the creation yajna of all time is accomplished, thereby our ancient forefathers, seers and ordinary mortals receive their being and strength of identity, and, visualising them with the eye of the mind and imagination, I honour and adore those who in times of yore enact this yajna of creation.

7. Sahastomāḥ sahachandasa āvṛtaḥ sahapramāṛṣayaḥ sapta daivyāḥ. Pūrveṣāṁ panthāmanu-dṛśya dhīrā anvālebhire rathyo na raśmīn.

Well versed in Vedic hymns of yajna and the cosmic process of evolution, the verse forms of Chhandas associated with divinities, and the evolutionary stages of the cosmos, seven divine sages of vision and wisdom, self-established in peace of mind and soul, having realised the holy path of the ancients and following in their footsteps, realise the cosmic process of divine evolution and live their life to perfection like the driver holding reins of his chariot and controlling his horses in the right direction.

1. Apa prāca indra viśvāṁ amitrānapāpāco abhubhūte nudasya. Apodīco apa śūrādharaḥ urau yathā tava śarman madema.

Indra, all powerful ruler of the world, subduer of all enemies of the world, drive off all enemies that stand in front, who attack from behind, who arise from below, and all those who descend from above so that we may live in peace with joy without fear in your vast territory.

2. Kuvidaṅga yavamanta yavaṁ cidyathā dāntya-nūpūrvam viyūya. Ihehaiṣām kṛṇuhi bhojanāni ye barhiṣo namovṛktiṁ na jagmuḥ.

Well then, just as master farmers of grain harvest the crop in order and separate the grain from the chaff, so, dear lord, here, there, everywhere, in order create and provide food and sustenance for those who never neglect yajnic offerings but bear the holy grass and bring homage to the vedi.

3. Nahi sthūrytuthā yātamasti nota śravo vivide saṁgameṣu. Gavyanta indraṁ sakhyāya viprā aśvāyanto vṛṣaṇaṁ vājayantaḥ.

A one horse cart never reaches the destination on time according to season and purpose, nor, in battle, supplies are received on time without the favour of Indra. Therefore nobles and sages well desirous of cows and horses, seeking success and victory, pray for the favour and friendship of the generous and virile Indra.

4. Yuvaṁ surāmamaśvinā namucāvāsure sacā. Vipipānā śubhaspatī indraṁ karmasvāvatam.

O Ashvins, complementary powers of humanity, men and women, scholars and teachers, masters and protectors of the good, valuable and auspicious, well enjoying the soma taste of life together, help and assist Indra, ruler of life in the world, in the struggles of life and society against the demonic forces of want, violence and meanness.

As parents support the child with all their power and potential, so O lord of power and glory, Indra, let the Ashvins, complementary powers of nature and society, men and women, scholars and scientists, leaders and followers, all support you with words of adoration and actions of profuse generosity when you defend the nation with bold actions and enjoy the peace, prosperity and power of the order, and may Sarasvati, divine intelligence, support and guide you.

May Indra, self-potent, saviour protector and promoter, master of all wealth, power and glory of the world, be gracious to us by his support and protection for peace and security. May he ward off and drive away hate and enmity, grant freedom from fear, so that we too may be masters and protectors of noble strength and heroic splendour.

7. Tasya vayaṁ sumatau yajñiyasyāpi bhadre saumanase syāma. Sa sutrāmā svavāṁ indro asme ārāccid dveṣaḥ sanutaryuyotu.

We pray may we ever abide in the good will and loving kindness of adorable Indra. May he, self-refulgent, self-potent, saviour protector, keep off and drive away for all time elements of hate and enmity far and near, all.

1. Ījānamid dyaurgūrtāvasurījānaṁ bhūmirabhi prabhuṣaṇi. Ījānaṁ devāvaśvināvabhi sumnairavardhatām.

May the Heaven of welcome treasures of abundance bless and promote the man of love, non-violence and yajna with peace, plenty and joy. May the earth of abundant riches and beauty bless the man of love, charity and yajna with plenty, progress and joy. May the Ashvins, twin divines of nature and humanity, by their systemic complementarities bless and promote the man of dynamic creativity and yajna with personal success, social prestige and divine fulfilment.

2. *Tā vāṃ mitrāvaruṇā dhārayatkṣitī suṣumne-

O Mitra and Varuna, lord of light and love, and lord of sovereign judgement and freedom, you are both sustainers of the earth and givers of peace and comfort to mankind. We serve and worship you with love for the sake of cherished fulfilment. We pray, let us, with your favour and friendship, win over the forces of evil and negativity for the advancement of the lover and performer of yajna and deeds of charity.

3. *Adhā cinnu yaddidhiṣāmahe vāmabhi priyaṃ

And when we bear and bring liberal gifts of homage to you, ourselves being masters of our favourite wealth and property, or when the generous giver of gifts and homage augments his wealth, then the wealth, power and glory of such a person never diminishes, never exhausts, in fact it increases manifold.

20. *Asāvanyo asura sūyata dyaustvaṃ viśveṣāṃ varu-

O Mitra, sun, life giving light and pranic energy, that other, mother Infinity, has given you birth. O Varuna, breath of life and cosmic air, you are the ruler and life giver of the world. You, Mitra-Varuna, are the head of the chariot of life, the cosmic yajna. You are the antidote of death. Let not our yajna be vitiated even by a remote touch of sin.

In this yajna instituted by the yajamana, who is otherwise competent in his own right of strength, one sin of omission would vitiate the performance if Mitra, the sun, alone is invoked for oblations. The omission vitiates the inner strength and others in the family unless the other protector, Varuna, too is invoked. When this other protector is invoked and served, no want or short coming remains in the cherished body health of the yajna, the yajaka and the yajaka's family.

Mitra and Varuna, givers of light and intelligence, known with special effort of the mind, your mother power is eternal Nature, the giver of knowledge about you is eternal Veda which washes the cover of ignorance as heaven and earth wash away the evils of darkness and want. The sun illuminates with rays of light, the earth gives cherished wealth of food.

O Mitra and Varuna, givers of light and life energy for positive action, be seated on the vedi of cosmic yajna. Ascend the chariot strongly structured and balanced, worthy of universal movement to fight out those vociferous forces of the enemy poised against us. You save the yajaka dedicated to the progress of united humanity from sin. You save the yajamana of intelligential and scientific yajna from going astray on the path of evil and destructivity.

Offer a song of abundant praise in honour of this ruling lord Indra for his mighty force and front rank chariot. He, destroyer of darkness and evil, inspires us in our battles of life at the closest and enlightens us in our struggle for universal freedom. Let the strings of the alien enemy bows be snapped by the strike of the forces of Indra.

Indra, you release the floods of rivers to flow down on the earth. You destroy the demon of darkness, evil, want and ignorance. You are born without an equal, adversary and enemy, and you promote the choicest wealth and excellence of the world. Such as you are we love and embrace you as our closest loving friend and companion. Let the alien strings of the enemy bows snap upon their bows.

Indra, may the facts and forces of enmity, adversity and ungenerosity be eliminated from life and the world. May all our thoughts and actions be inspired by love and generosity. You strike the thunderbolt of justice and punishment upon the enemy who wants to destroy us or frustrate our love and generosity. May your grace and generosity bring us wealth, honour and excellence of life. Let the strings of enemy bows snap by the tension of their own negativities.

strength and power which is great as the blazing sun. Let the bow strings of the enemies snap under the heat of your blaze.

Indra, lord of a hundred powers, actions and achievements, when you move and exploit the resources of the world's possibilities by thousands of protective and regenerative techniques and grant the benefits of wealth to the creative partners in the developmental yajna, then the divine mother elevates you to honour, the gracious mother exalts you to glory.

Lord of intelligence, imagination and foresight, as an elephant driver wields the hook to control the strength and direction of the elephant, so you wield your power of far-reaching potential to control the world order, its forces and direction, and as the eternal ruler and controller holds the reins of time, so do you, O lord of might and magnanimity, hold the reins of the social order steps ahead of possibility long before actuality. The divine mother enlightens you, the gracious mother exalts you.

O devas, divinities of nature and nobilities of humanity, we never transgress the law, never frustrate any plan, never violate the order, never act surreptitiously. (We are an open minded people), we follow the law, and act according to the divine mantra, tradition and mantric declaration of the principles and policies of the order. In matters of the social order we love and cooperate with all parties of our view as well as with others whether they are rivals or people on the periphery.

Yama Devata, Kumara Yamayana Rshi

1. Yasmin vṛkṣe supalāśe devaiḥ saṁpibate yamaḥ. Atrā no viśpatiḥ pitā purāṇāṁ anu venati.

On the leafy silken tree on which yama, the human soul in control of its senses and mind, sits and tastes the fruits of its own performance, on the same tree, our father, ruler and controller of the universe, sits, lives, loves, and watches the eternal human souls in accordance with their performance.

पु॒रा॒णाँ अ॒नुव॑नन्तं च॒रन्तं पा॒पया॑मुया ।

2. *Purāṇāṁ anuvenantaṁ carantaṁ pāpayāmuyā.
Asūyannabhyacākaśaṁ tasmā asrṛṇhayāṁ punah.*

I see the father loving and watching the eternal human souls. I see the human soul discontented, displeased, protesting and still living with that same sinful conduct. I see all this and yet I wish I would love to live the same again.

यं कुमारं नवं रथमचक्रं मनसाकृणाः ।
एकं विश्वतः पाञ्चमर्षयुधि तिष्ठसि ॥ ३ ॥

3. Yaṁ kumāraṁ navam rathamacakraṁ manasākṛṇoḥ. Ekeṣaṁ viśvataḥ prāñcamapaśyannadhi tiṣṭhasi.

O soul, dear child, without seeing, without knowing, you ride a new chariot, of the body, which you have yourself caused to have been created, by your own mind. It goes round and round all round in various forms of life and states of existence without wheels and by only one pole of desire and energy.

यं कुमारं पार्वतया रथं विप्रेभ्यस्परि ।
तं सामानु पार्वततु समिता नव्याहितम् ॥ ४ ॥

4. *Yaṁ kumāraṁ prāvartayo ratham viprebhyaspari.
Taṁ sāmānu prāvartata samito nāvyaḥitam.*

O soul, that body which you move like a chariot away from the sages, the wise man settled at peace in the heart moves the same chariot all secure as if it is safely placed in a boat to cross the seas.

कः कुमरमजनयदथं का निरवतयत ।

कः स्वित्तदद्य ना ब्रूयादनुदयी यथाभवत ॥ ५ ॥

5. *Kaḥ kumāramajanayadratham ko niravatrayat.
Kaḥ svat tadadya no brūyādanudeyī yathābhavat.*

Dear soul, who creates this chariot for the spirit? Who completes and who dismantles it? Who at all would speak of this to us now so that we could have a vision of the future and knowledge of restitution? The Lord alone can say.

यथाभवदनुदयी तता अग्रमजायत ।

पुरस्ताद बुध्न आततः पश्चात्तरयणं कृतम ॥ ६ ॥

6. *Yathābhavadanudeyī tato agramajāyata.
Purastādbudhna ātataḥ paścānnirayaṇaṁ kṛtam.*

As this body, this other than the soul, is created, similarly before this, mind and thought is created. Before that Prakṛti is all pervasive and expansive, and from that all forms emerge and evolve.

इदं यमस्य सार्दनं दवमानं यदुच्यत ।

7. *Idaṁ yamasya sādanaṁ devamānaṁ yaducyate.
Iyamasya dhamyate nālīrayaṁ gīrbhiḥ pari-skṛtaḥ.*

This body is the abode of the spirit, it is also the abode of death. It is said to be made of devas, divine evolutes of nature such as earth, water and others. This pulse of the body system beats, and as long as it beats the soul and body is celebrated and exalted with songs of adoration.

Mandala 10/Sukta 136

Keshina (Agni, Surya, Vayu) Devata, Vatarashanah Munayah Rshis. The Rshis' details are: Juti (1), Vatajuti (2), Viprajuti (3), Vrshanaka (4), Karikrata (5), Etasha (6), Rshyashrng (7)

क॒श्य॑ग्निं क॒शी वि॒षं क॒शी बि॒भर्ति॑ राद॒सी ।

1. *Keśyagniṁ keśī viṣaṁ keśī bibhrti rodasī.
Keśī viśvaṁ swardṛśe keśīdaṁ jyotirucyate.*

Keshi, the sun of radiant rays, holds and sustains the fire, the water, the heaven and earth and, indeed, the world, and it is called the light that reveals the world, illuminating it, so that we may see and enjoy the beauty and bliss of it.

(This mantra as others too may also be interpreted at the microcosmic level. In that case Keshi is the soul which sustains the pranic energy and the elements, processes and subsystems of the body system. The soul is the inner light which itself is further illuminated by the cosmic spirit precisely in the way the sun itself is illuminated by the cosmic light of existence.)

मु॒न॒या वा॒तर॑श॒नाः पि॒शङ्गा॑ वस॒तु म॒ला ।

2. *Munayo vātaraśanāḥ piśaṅgā vasate malā.
Vātasyānu dhrājim yanti yaddevāso avikṣata.*

Self-energised objects of space controlled by cosmic energy wear a dull yellow vestment and they follow the currents of cosmic energy when rays of the sun touch and affect their behaviour.

(Sages harmoniously self-controlled in tune with the currents of cosmic energy wear a soothing vestment of yellow hue, and when their senses become totally internalised, they identify their being with the cosmic energy of divinity.)

उन्मदिता॒ मानयन्॒ वाताँ॒ आ तस्थिमा॒ वयम् ।

3. *Unmaditā mauneyena vātāṁ ā tasthimā vayam.
Śrīredasmākaṁ yūyaṁ martāso abhi paśyatha.*

Inspired by the sun we, space objects, abide in orbital stability by the cosmic currents of universal energy. O mortals, you may see our body on the surface, but nothing inside.

(Pranic energies of the sage inspired by spiritual energy, we abide in balance with the psychic currents of the soul. O mortals, you can visualise and observe our physical movements, but the inner reality, you can't.)

4. *Antarikṣeṇa patati viśvā rūpāvacākaśat.
Munirdevasyadevasya saukṛtyāya sakhā hitaḥ.*

The sun which is an object of meditative realisation flies through space, illuminating and watching the forms of heavenly bodies in the solar system. It itself is placed in orbit by the divine spiritual energy of the cosmos for the sake of harmony among the heavenly objects of the cosmic system.

(So does the soul vibrate in the microcosmic system illuminating, the intelligence and energising the mind and senses and the pranas to achieve the individual's harmony with himself and the totality of existence.)

वा॒त॒स्या॒श्वा॑ वा॒याः स॒खा॒था॑ द॒व॒र्षि॒ता॒ मु॒निः ।

5. *Vātasyāśvo vāyoḥ sakhātho deveṣito muniḥ.
Ubhau samudrāvā kṣeti yaśca pūrva utāparaḥ.*

The sun moves in orbit by the dynamics of cosmic energy. It is a cooperative friend of cosmic energy, inspired and energised by the supreme Divinity. An object of realisation in meditation, it illuminates both sides of its cosmic movement in space, the former and the latter both in the cosmic orbit.

(The soul in meditation can illuminate both sides of its orbit in time and space, the past and the future both as revealed by the sage Patanjali in accordance with the Veda.)

6. Apsarasām gandharvāṇām mṛgāṇām caraṇe caran. Keśī ketasya vidvāntsakhā svādur-madīntamah.

Pervasive and radiating in the course of light rays in the sky, over the earth and in the solar region itself, the sun, treasure source of radiation, concomitant with fire, warmth of life and light, is the highest inspirer of joy, most soothing source of the sweetness of existence.

(The soul itself is the reservoir of eternal joy in the microcosmic existence of the human individual in its spiritual journey on earth, in the sky, in the solar region, in short, all over in its state of existence all time all over space.)

7. *Vāyurasmā upāmanthat pinaṣṭi smā kunannamā.
Keśi viṣasya pātreṇa yadrudreṇāpibat saha.*

When the sun drinks the soma fragrance of yajna and the vapours of water arising from the earthly vedi by the spatial cup along with the fire of the vedi, then the wind churns the wealth of nature's bounties and the inviolable thunder grinds the grosser gifts of nature to the refined particles of rain for the earth and the moral and spiritual yajnic values for the soul of humanity.

Indra Devata, Anga Aurava Rshi

1. Tava tya indra sakhyeṣu vahnaya ṛtaṁ manvānā vyadardirurvalam. Yatrā daśasyannuṣaso riṇa-nnapaḥ kutsāya manmannahyaśca daṁsayah.

O lord of cosmic energy, Indra, in consonance with your will and law, these flames of fire carrying yajnic fragrance, and these currents of wind bearing electrical energy, break the vaporous force of the mighty cloud, and when the mantras are chanted and you radiate the lights of the dawn, catalytic power is initiated and showers of rain are released in response to the wishes of the yajakas.

2. Avāsrjaḥ prasvaḥ śvañcayo girīnudāja usrā apibo madhu priyam. Avardhaya vanino asya daṁsasā śuśoca sūrya ṛtajātayā girā.

Indra, lord of cosmic winds and energy, creates the vapours, breaks the clouds, initiates radiations of light and energy, absorbs the honey sweets of fragrances, augments the oceans of water in space, and by the order and power of its liberal potential, will and voice, the winds blow and the sun shines in heaven.

The sun in the midst of the regions of light releases the energy flood of its rays, creating thereby a complementary adversary for the mighty cloud which holds the wealth of vapours. Thus does Indra, omnipotent performer, controller of cosmic dynamics, break the formidable concentrations of the wondrous mighty collector's hoard of living showers by the strike of the catalytic operation of its natural law.

Dauntless and valiant Indra, ruler of the world, breaks down the formidable unimpaired selfish hoarders of wealth and power and, just as the sun by seasonal heat of its rays takes up the waters, so does he take out the concealed wealth and power of the antisocial elements, and, adored and celebrated, destroys the enemies of humanity by the lustre of his justice and power.

Indra, heroic commander of irresistible force, omnipresent and boundless, destroyer of evil and darkness by his inviolable potential, is generous, reduces the hurtful and promotes the progressive. The evil and wicked fear the shattering thunderbolt of Indra who is ever moving forward, illuminating and purifying, and every day the morning moves his chariot for a new dawn of light and progress for humanity.

Indra, these are the celebrated deeds of yours, lord absolute, who alone by yourself fix every selfish uncreative power. You hold and sustain the sun in heaven, and the sun, inspirer and promoter of life on earth, regulates the months and seasons of the year and abides by the path carved out by you in space.

1. Sūryaraśmirharideśaḥ purastāt savitā jyotirudayāṁ ajasram. Tasya pūṣā prasave yāti vidvāntsaṁpaśyan viśvā bhuvanāni gopāḥ.

Savita, eternal light of life, wearing the rays of the sun, golden haired, is risen there from the east. On his rise in the world of his creation, Pusha, living energy of divinity for life forms on earth, rises, seeing, blessing and promoting all regions of the world as protector of life and its activity.

Watching and enlightening humanity, this light divine of life abides in the midst of heaven, filling heaven, earth and the middle region with its light and glory. It illuminates all quarters of space with universal light and bliss before and after and everywhere in between over the planets and the node.

3. Rāyo budhnaḥ saṁgamano vasūnām viśvā rūpābhi caṣṭe śacībhiḥ. Deva iva savitā satya-dharmendro na tasthau samare dhanānām.

The very root and foundation of wealth, power and excellence, giver of health, peace, comfort and security of life, Savita watches, illuminates and inspires every thing of life with its forms and powers of action. Like omnificent divinity itself, the very essence and spirit of truth and Dharma, Savita abides by us in our battles for life's wealth, beauty and excellence.

O Soma, blessed seeker, just as vapours of water rise up by the heat of yajna and reach the sun, sustainer of the earth and life giver of the world, similarly self-realising souls by meditative yajna rise to the cosmic soul, and just as dynamic wind energy moves in consonance with the sun to the vaporous halo round the sun, similarly self-realising souls watch the cosmic halo round divinity, and the exceptional soul, having stayed existential complexities, reaches the divine presence at the centre of the halo.

May the spirit of the universe, shelter home of the world and world's wealth and knowledge, divine sustainer of the universe and universal wisdom, maker and measurer of the universe in space and time, enlighten us of what is the truth of existence, what we do not know. May he inspire our vision and intelligence, and protect and promote our intelligence, will and actions.

May Gandharva, eternal lord sustainer of the universe, knowledge and speech, abiding deep at the centre and on the circumference of the fluent streams and rolling oceans of speech and knowledge, open up for us the doors of knowledge locked in adamant mystery and release the nectar streams of these mysteries in speech and vision. Indra, lord omnipotent and omniscient, alone knows in full the depth and far outreach of these mysteries.

Agni, leading light of life, great is your vigour, power and felicity, shining, inspiring and incessantly flowing. O refulgent lord, your flames rise high and blaze fiercely. Light and fire of Infinity, omniscient poet and creator, by your power, potential and abundance, you bear and bring admirable food, energy and fulfilment with the sense of victory for the generous giver and selfless yajaka.

1. Ayamagne jaritā tve abhūdapi sahasaḥ sūno nahyanyadasyapyam. Bhadram hi śarma trivarūthamasti ta āre hiṃsānāmapa didyumā krdhi.

O self-refulgent light of life, Agni, this celebrant is dedicated to you wholly in worship and service. O creator and inspirer of strength, patience and fortitude, there is none other than you worth attaining. Blissful is your power of body, mind and soul. Pray cast away the pain and sufferance caused by the burning oppression of violent enemies.

Agni, your presence radiates, desiring to take things into your fold like a companion power reaching all regions of the world. And our thoughts and songs of homage too, spontaneously flying vibrations of heart and soul, reach on to you like eager servants of the divine master.

3. Uta vā u pari vṛṇakṣi bapsadbahoragna ulapasya svadhāvaḥ. Uta khilyā urvarāṇām bhavanti mā te hetim taviṣīm cukru dhām.

Agni, self-refulgent fire and power, when you burn and devour heaps of grass, sometimes you spare patches of green and sometimes vast areas of fertile lands become wastelands. Let us understand this mystery and the way so that we do not excite the onslaught of your blazing power of destruction.

When you rise and spread, devouring both high and low like a fierce army thirsting for victory, and specially when the wind blows favourable to your blaze, then like a barber shaving off beard and moustache you lay waste vast areas of land.

Agni, lord of light, illuminative and enlightening power, may your bright flames rise higher, may the radiations of your light and grandeur and your victories over want and darkness rise high and elevate the body, mind and soul of the celebrant. Yourself rising and expanding, raise the high higher, condescend, save and raise the low, and may all the soothing, sheltering powers and personalities of the world sit by you on the vedi and rehabilitate the uprooted here today and now.

This is the vast reservoir of waters, bottomless bound of the sea. Agni, create some other higher path from these here, so you may proceed to the fulfilment of your heart's desire.

8. *Ayane te parāyaṇe dūrvā rohantu puṣpiṇīḥ.

Agni, may flowers and holy grass grow on your arrival, may flowers and holy grass shower on your departure. Let all these homes be homes close to the infinite ocean, with reservoirs and flowers around.

(The seventh and eighth verses may be addressed to the human soul as well as to Agni, leading light and creative spirit of the cosmos.)

Ashvinau Devate, Atri Sankhya Rshi

त्यं चिदत्रिमृतजुरमथमश्वं न यातव ।

1. *Tyam cidatrimṛtajuramarthamaśvaṃ na yātave.
Kakṣīvantam yadī punā ratham na kṛṇutho

Hey Ashvins, complementary energies of nature and complementary nobilities of humanity such as physician and surgeon, teacher and preacher, father and mother, men and women, the person who observes the laws of nature and principles of truth and grows up in the yajnic way of life, whether he or she loves to enjoy the experience of living or has grown out of life's colourfulness and temptation, such a person you strengthen like a strong force in harness with every side of personality renewed to top condition of health and body to reach the goal and realise the purpose and values of life.

2. *Tyaṁ cidaśvaṁ na vājinamareṇavo yamatnata.

And the person most youthful, dynamic, ever in harness for winning the goal of life, but bound by the web of life through senses, mind and pranas, all unsoiled though by dust, pray release, undo the bondage like a gordian knot of life so that the person may live free from possible dust and pollution.

3. *Narā daṁsiṣṭhāvatraye śubhrā siṣāsataṁ dhiyaḥ.
Athā hi vāṁ divo narā punaḥ stoma na viśvase.*

O leading lights, noble souls, brilliant scholars, pray release the worldly man in search of freedom from bondage, bless him with holy thoughts and intelligence, since the enlightened man's song of prayer and adoration in order to celebrate you reaches you, harbingers of light, again and again.

4. *Cite tadvām surādhasā rātiḥ sumatiraśvinā.

Ashvins, harbingers of wealth, competence and success, that wealth of noble thoughts and intelligence, that generous gift of yours, is for the enlightenment of humanity which, O leading lights, you bring in showers in this vast world of life, in this hall of yajna, in this struggle of our life for happiness and freedom.

5. *Yuvaṁ bhujyūṁ samudra ā rajasaḥ pāra rīkhi-

Ashvins, bright like fire and the sun, inviolably committed to truth and law, pray come with faultless ark and oars to humanity beaten about in the depth of dust and rolling seas, to help us swim to the shore to freedom and victory.

Leading lights of the world, greatest and most liberal masters of universal wealth and knowledge, come like benevolent harbingers of peace and freshness of joy, bless us and refine us with your gracious favours of peace, freedom and happiness as abundant showers of rain fill the lake.

Mandala 10/Sukta 144

Indra Devata, Suparna Tarkshya or Urdhvakrshana Yamayana Rshi

अ॒यं हि त॒ अम॑त्य॒ इन्द्रु॑रत्या॒ न पत्य॑त ।
द॒ तां वि॒श्वायु॑व॒धस॑ ॥ १ ॥

1. *Ayam hi te amartya induratyo na patyate.
Dakṣo viśvāyurvedhase.*

Indra, lord eternal and omnipotent, this immortal soma rises to you like a flying courser. Versatile, living vitality of the world, it rises in homage to the lord creator of the world.

अ॒यम॒स्मासु॑ का॒व्यं ऋ॒भुव॑जा॒ दास्व॑त ।

2. Ayasmāsu kāvya ṛbhurvajro dāsvate. Ayam bibhrtyūrdhvakṛśanam madamṛbhurna kṛtvyaṁ madam.

Here among us it is inspiring and adorable, brilliant, a very thunderbolt of protection for the generous, and scourge of punishment for the destructive. And it bears the exhilaration that elevates like rising flames of fire just as the wise sage bears the passion for creativity.

घृषुः श्यनाय कृत्वन आसु स्वासु वंसगः ।

अव दीधदहीशुवः ॥ ३ ॥

3. *Ghr̥ṣuḥ śyenāya kṛtvana āsu svāsu vaṁsagaḥ.
Ava dīdhedahīśuvaḥ.*

Effulgent, agile and exhilarating for the dynamic creative personality, inspiring and vitalising among its own people, it blesses them and their progeny with high energy and enthusiasm.

यं सुपणः परावतः श्यनस्य पुत्र आभरत ।

शतचक्रं या३ ह्या वतनिः ॥ ४ ॥

4. *Yam suparṇaḥ parāvataḥ śyenasya putra ābharat.
Śatacakraṁ yo'hyo vartaniḥ.*

Soma, which Vayu, cosmic energy, child of all pervasive space, bears and carries from far off solar regions, is performer of a hundred divine acts of nature and it is the very life of the cloud and indestructible vitality of life.

यं त श्यनश्चारुमवृकं पदाभरदरुणं मानमन्धसः ।

5. Yam te śyenaścārumavṛkaṁ padābharadaruṇaṁ mānamandhasaḥ. Enā vayo vi tāryāyurjīvasa enā jāgāra bandhutā.

The essence of life's vitality, soma, lovely and pleasing, unassailable and sunny bright, which nature's energy brings by its own spirit and power, is the vitality by which health and fertility for life grows higher and the kinship and continuity of humanity keeps living and awake.

एवा तदिन्द्र इन्दुना द्ववषु चिद्धारयात् महि त्यजः ।

6. Evā tadindra indunā deveṣu ciddhārayāte mahi tyajah. Kratvā vayo vi tāryāyuh sukrato kratvā-yamasmadā sutah.

Thus does Indra, life of life, through soma life energy, disseminate and bear the great creative vitality in the divine forms of nature and humanity. O lord of holy action, the health and age of distinct life forms is extended and maintained by holy acts of soma activity, and this vitality is created and distilled from us by us through the holy discipline of yajnic living with brahmacharya.

Mandala 10/Sukta 145

Sapatni-badhanam Devata, Indrani Rshi

The subject matter of this hymn at the surface level is getting rid of a rival wife, and for that purpose the speaker takes recourse to a herb also. Thus the hymn reads like a spell cure and possibly with a magical herb. But this approach would not do justice to the deeper meaning of the hymn which is integration or re-integration of personality with a single, undivided, focussed interest in the pursuit of a definite goal of positive value.

Split personality is a problem in modern times. So is schizophrenia, a devastating disease. The cure can be both herbal and psychological. The word 'Upanishat' helps us to read the hymn in this Vedic direction of practical yoga in which sanative herbs, mental concentration and spiritual faith all play an important role (refer Yoga Sutras of Patanjali, 4, 1.).

इ॒मां ख॒ना॒म्या॒र्षधिं॑ वी॒रुधं॑ ब॒लव॑त्त॒माम॑ ।

1. *Imām khanāmyaṣadhiṁ vīrudhaṁ balavattamām.
Yayā sapatnīm bādhat yayā samvindate patim.*

I dig out this luxuriant and most powerful herb by which one can annul a rival fascination and by which the pursuant can recover a single, all absorbing love for successful attainment.

2. *Uttānaparṇe subhage devajūte sahasvati.
Sapatnīm me parā dhama patim me kevalam kuru.*

O soma plant growing up with luxuriant leaves and branches, nobly effective, divinely energised, giver of peace, patience and courageous vitality, transform me to concentrate on my one and only love. Throw off my evil fascination. Let me be with my master spirit of life.

उ॒त्तरा॑ह॒मु॒त्तर॑ उत्तरदु॒त्तरा॑भ्यः ।

3. *Uttarāhamuttara uttareduttarābhyah.
Athā sapatnī yā mamādharā sādharābhyah.*

O soma, you are higher, more efficacious. I also am higher than the fascination, greater than all others who are superior, generally speaking. May that which is my rival be lower than the lowest fascinations.

4. Nahyasyā nāma gr̥bhṇāmi no asmin ramate jane.
Parāmeva parāvataṁ sapatnīm gamayāmasi.

I do not even think of its name. No one entertains this human distraction, no one is distracted by this human fascination. We throw this remote fascination far off at the farthest.

अ॒हम॑स्मि स॒हमा॑नाथ॒ त्वम॑सि सास॒हिः ।

5. Ahamasmi sahamānātha tvamasi sāsahih.

I am patient, challenging and victorious. O soma, you too are unassailable, you and I, both challenging and victorious, we shall subdue the rival.

6. Upa te'dhām sahamānāmabhi tvādhām sahīyasā.
Māmanu pra te mano vatsaṁ gauriva dhāvatu

O soma, O spirit of peace, O spiritual knowledge of the Upanishad, I love you at heart and hold on to you in faith, patient and victorious as you are. I hold on to you with a determined mind. May your spirit radiate and come to me like the mother cow hastening to the calf and water rushing straight down to the lake.

Tarry, O spirit of the forest, who disappear like a phantom in no time. Why not stay for a moment by the village? And you don't fear even fear itself, which fears to touch your presence.

3. Uta gāva ivādantyuta veśmeva dṛśyate. Uto aranyāniḥ sāyaṁ śakaṭīriva sarjati.

Dear spirit and forest presence, someone calls upon his cow to come home, this one cuts the tree, and in the evening someone staying in the forest shrieks, someone howls, someone bursts in song also.

The forest does not hurt anyone. Whoever goes to the forest without the intent to damage eats the delicious fruit and roams around as he wishes at will.

6. *Āñjanagandhiṁ surabhiṁ bahvannāmakṛṣīvalām.

I revere and celebrate the forest and the spirit of the forest not subjected to human encroachment by farming, abounding in wild fruit, fragrant, flowery beautiful, mother of wild life and sustaining friend of humanity.

Indra, you are the mighty maker and terrible breaker both at the same time in the creative process of nature and life, great and brave at the very manifestation of your power, who challenge and break open the negative forces of dark clouds by the sun, so that, on showers of the divine grace of rains, we receive and enjoy the soma nectar hidden in the mystery held at the heart of the vapours and water showers.

(In the spiritual sense, Indra is present deep in the self, and when by grace it breaks the darkness, we receive the light and the divine nectar.)

1. Savitā yantraiḥ pṛthivīmaramṇādaskambhane savitā dyāmadṛmhat. Aśvamivādhuḥṣaddhunikāntarikṣamatūrte baddham savitā samudram.

Savita, lord creator, places the earth in orbit, and Savita places the region of light, in columnless space by the forces of cosmic gravitation. Savita moves the thundering cloud like a horse in skies and brings the showers, and Savita places the middle regions and the vast expanse of vapours and waters bound in boundless space.

Where the ocean of vapours and water is sustained and whence it sprinkles the earth with showers, only Savita, eternal sustainer of waters, knows that mystery. Thence, from Savita, arises the earth, thence arises the sky and thence only the heaven and earth arise in mutual relation and expand.

Dear seeker, from Savita only first arises the grand flying bird of fire, the sun, in conformity with the laws of Savita, and then the others.

Just as cows hasten to the village, the warrior takes to the horse, loving mother cow anxious at heart runs to the calf for milk, the husband goes to the wife for love, so may Savita, sustainer of the heavenly world, love of all humanity, come and bless us as his children.

Vishvedeva Devata, Nairrta Kapota Rshi

This is a hymn of the Vishvedeva's, i.e., the leading lights', response to the arrival of a 'pigeon', bird of mysterious message, something like a premonition of destiny, and the human response with honour, acknowledgement and self-preparation. Any such message can be a message of love, friendship and cooperation, or it can be a message of disaster. In either case humanity must respond and make proper preparations to face the consequences. In modern terms, it is an ambassadorial hymn.

दवाः कृपात इषिता यदिच्छन्दूता निऋत्या इदमाजगाम ।
तस्मा अचाम कृणवाम निष्कृतिं शं ना अस्तु द्विपद् शं

1. Devāḥ kapota iṣito yadicchan dūto nirṛtyā idamā-jagāma. Tasmā arcāma kṛṇavāma niṣkṛtiṁśaṁ no astu dvipade śaṁ catuṣpade.

O Devas, leading lights of the nation, here is the pigeon, bird of message, ambassador from the land of destiny, come to deliver some message of deep intent. We honour the messenger and prepare for the response. May there be peace and well being for us, for our birds, animals and our people.

शिवः कृपात इषिता ना अस्त्वनागा दवाः शकुना गृहषु ।

2. Śivaḥ kapota iṣito no astvanāgā devāḥ śakuno gr̥heṣu. Agnirhi vipro jiṣatām havirnaḥ pari hetih pakṣiṇī no vṛṇaktu.

May this bird sent from the land of destiny be good and auspicious for us. May the bird and its message be free from blame and violence in and for our homes. Let this vibrant messenger accept and enjoy our hospitality offered with faith and let there be no strike of the winged force of arms to disturb and uproot us from our settled land.

3. Hetiḥ pakṣiṇī na dabhātyasmānāṣṭryāṁ padarṇi kṛṇute agnidhāne. śaṁ no gobhyaśca puruṣe-bhyaścāstu mā no himsīdiha devāḥ kapotaḥ.

Let not the winged force of the messenger attack, destroy or deceive us. Let it create a place for itself in our space and in the yajnic hall. Let there be peace for our lands, cows and culture and for our people. O leading lights, this messenger must not hurt us here.

यदुलूका वदति माघमतद्यत्कृपातः पदमग्रा कृणाति । यस्य दूतः पहित एष एतत्तस्मै यमाय नमो अस्तु मृत्यवे ॥ ४ ॥

4. Yadulūko vadati moghametadyat kapotaḥ padamagnau kṛṇoti. Yasya dūtaḥ prahita eṣa etattasmai yamāya namo astu mṛtyave.

If the messenger is politic and speaks misleading and ambiguous language, that effort must be frustrated. If he thus risks his foot in the fire, then for his sender and controller let there be our thunderbolt for his death.

1. Vātasya nu mahimānaṁ rathasya rujanneti stanayannasya ghoṣaḥ. Divispr̥gayātyaruṇāni kṛṇvannuto eti pṛthivyā reṇumasyan.

Let us describe the greatness of the impetuous chariot of the wind: the storm goes roaring, thundering, crashing, shattering as it blows, touching the heights of heaven, raising a storm of dust over earth, and turning the skies red in all directions.

Plants, creepers and solid structures on earth, like trees, wave and shake in deference to Vayu, wind energy, just as youthful maidens go to their love and flashes of lighting go with the sky. And one with all these, goes the ruling energy of this whole universe, divine wind on the chariot of its currents.

Energy and identity of the divine forces of nature, sustainer of the universe, this divine wind roams around at will freely. We have heard the roar of it but we have not seen its form. To that divine Vayu, we offer homage and adoration with oblations of havi to develop energy.

Kṣāmā ye viśvadhāyaso'snan dhenum na mātā-ram.*

The children and disciples of Rbhus, expert makers, celebrate their mighty achievements of science and technology and, sustainers of world community, children of mother earth, they reach and explore the earth for service and resources like calves rushing to mother cows.

प द्रवं द्रव्या धिया भरता जातवदसम ।

2. *Pra devaṁ devyā dhiyā bharatā jātavedasam.
Havyā no vakṣadānuṣak.*

O scholars and experts, with your divine and brilliant intelligence and actions, serve Agni, spirit of the light and life of all that exists, which instantly bears our oblations abroad as well as brings us the creative rewards of yajna without fail.

अयमु ष्य प द्रव्युहाता यज्ञाय नीयत ।

3. *Ayamu śya pra devayurhotā yajñāya nīyate.
Ratho na yorabhīvrto ghrṇīvāñcetati tmanā.*

This Agni is the same lover of brilliant divines dedicated to life and nature which is the leading light and power of yajna and which is invoked and honoured for the completion and success of any creative project, the same which is radiant and dynamic like the solar chariot and, surrounded by celebrants, gives light, knowledge and showers of the joy of achievement.

4. *Ayamagnirurusyatyamṛtādiva janmanah.
Sahasaścīt sahiyān devo jīvātave kṛtaḥ.*

This Agni, self-refulgent power manifest in existence, saves and protects us as mortals born or reborn of immortal existence. Mightier than the mightiest, this divine power is kindled, honoured and adored for the victory of life over suffering and death.

Mayabhedha Devata, Patanga Prajapatya Rshi

पतङ्गमक्तमसुरस्य मायया हृदा पश्यन्ति मनसा विप-श्चितः । समुद्र अन्तः कवया वि च त मरीचीनां पदमि- च्छन्ति वधसः ॥ १ ॥

1. Pataṅgamaktamasurasya māyayā hṛdā paśyanti manasā vipaścitaḥ. Samudre antaḥ kavayo vi cakṣate marīcīnām padamicchanti vedasaḥ.

Men of wisdom with dedicated mind and heart see the 'patanga', bird-like soul, wrapped in golden hues of mysterious Maya, wondrous potential of the Lord's Prakṛti, in the boundless ocean of the world of existence. Men of vision and imagination see it existing within the oceanic presence of the infinite spirit of the Lord and, inspired by the lord's love and presence, love to reach nothing but the ultimate reality at the centre of the radiating rays of existence.

पतङ्गा वाचं मनसा बिभत्ति तां गन्धुवा' वदद्भ' अन्तः ।
तां द्यातमानां स्वर्ग' मनीषामृतस्य पद कवया नि पान्ति ॥ २ ॥

2. Pataṅgo vācam manasā bibharti tām gandharvo'vadadgarbhe antaḥ. Tām dyotamānām svaryam manīṣāmṛtasya pade kavayo ni pānti.

Patanga, the soul flying in various forms, bears the eternal Vak, divine Word, at the depth of its mind. Vak is the voice which Parameshvara, sustainer of the voice and the universe, speaks to the soul at the heart of existence. That same resonant and refulgent voice and its awareness, wise visionaries retain, hear and enjoy in the state of samadhi communion at the centre of the ultimate truth of existence.

अपश्यं गा॒पाम॒नि॒पद्य॒मान॒मा च॒ परा॑ च॒ प॒थि॒भि॒श्चर॑न्त॒म ।

3. Apāśyaṁ gopāmanipadyamānamā ca parā ca pathibhiṣcarantam. Sa sadhrīcīḥ sa viṣūcīrvasānā ā varīvarti bhuvaneṣvantah.

I see this retainer of the divine Voice and its senses and mind, the soul ranging over different paths around here and far off. Shining, wearing different forms, moving in the right central as well as various directions, it goes round and round in the worlds of existence.

(This verse can also be interpreted in continuation of the second verse: I see this eternal infallible master of the eternal Voice, existential and transcendental both, the Spirit that vibrates and manifests constantly in all directions, in all worlds of the universe.)

Mandala10/Sukta 178*Tarkshya Devata, Arishtanemi Tarkshya Rshi*

त्यम् षु वाजिनं द्रवजूतं सहावानं तरुतारं रथानाम ।

1. Tyamū ṣu vājinam devajūtaṁ sahāvānaṁ taru-tāraṁ rathānām. Ariṣṭanemiṁ pṛtanājamāśuṁ svastaye tārksyamihā huvema.

For the sake of good and all round well being of life, we invoke and study that wind and electric energy of the middle regions which is fast and victorious, moved by divine nature, powerful, shaker of the clouds and energiser of sound waves, inviolable, war-like heroic and most dynamic, moving at the speed of energy.

इन्द्रस्यैव रातिमाजाहुवानाः स्वस्त्य नार्वमिवा रुहम ।

उवी न पृथ्वी बहुल गभीर मा वामता मा परता रिषाम ॥ २ ॥

2. Indrasyeva rātimājohuvānāḥ svastaye nāvamivā ruhema. Urvī na pṛthvī bahule gabhīre mā vāmetau mā paretau riṣāma.

Invoking Tarkshya, wind and electric energy, studying and exploring the power for all round well being as the gift of Indra, divine lord of energy, we wish to use it like a boat across the seas to overcome the problems we face. O earth, O sky, both vast and deep as well as abundant, may we never be hurt while this energy travels hither and back far off in circuit over and across you both.

सद्यश्चिद्यः शर्वसा पञ्च कृष्टीः सूर्य इव ज्यातिषापस्ततान ।

3. Sadyaścidyāḥ śavasā pañca kṛṣṭīḥ sūrya iva jyotiṣāpastatāna. Sahasrāḥ śatasā asya ramhina smā varante yuvatim na śaryām.

Instantly does this wind-electric energy reach all five peoples of the earth with its force, power and speed like the sun which spreads its light and brings vapours and showers of rain over earth for humanity. Hundredfold and thousandfold is its power that travels, and just as none can stop the arrow fixed on the bow and shot, so no one can stop the flowing current of this energy once it is initiated for use.

1. Uttiṣṭhatāva paśyatendrasya bhāgamṛtviyam. Yadi śrāto juhtotana yadyaśrāto mamattana.

Citizens, friends, arise, see whether the seasonal yajnic share of Indra, the ruler, is ripe and ready. If so, offer it by way of yajnic oblation as tax duty. If not, do not remiss, accelerate the ripening process and give.

2. Śrātaṁ haviro ṣvindra pra yāhi jagāma sūro adhvano vimadhyam. pari tvāsate nidhibhiḥ sakhāyaḥ kulapā na vrājapatiṁ carantam.

The havi is ripe and ready for the offering. O Ruler, Indra, come, the sun has reached the middle of its course. Friends sit with their treasure offering and wait like family heads for the chief commander of hosts out on the sojourn on the borders and around.

3. Śrātaṁ manya ūdhani śrātamagnau suśrātaṁ manye tadṛtaṁ navīyaḥ. Mādhyāndinasya savanasya dadhnaḥ pibendra vajrin purukṛju-ṣaṇaḥ.

I believe the milk is ripe in the cow's udders. I know the grain is ripe in the heat of the sun. I am sure every thing is ripe and ready for the yajna, ripe and fresh truly. O lord of versatile action, wielder of the thunderbolt of justice, law and order, loving, kind and cooperative, come and taste the milky sweets of the mid day's session of yajna. Receive, taste, protect and promote the milk of cows and harvests of the field.

1. Pra sasāhiṣe puruhūta śatrūñjyeṣṭhaste śuṣma iha rātirastu. Indrā bhara dakṣinetā vasūni patih sindūnāmasi revatīnām.

O Ruler, Indra, invoked by all, you challenge and subdue the enemies. Highest is your power and force here which may, we pray, be a positive boon for us. Indra, with your efficiency and perfection of governance and administration, bring us wealth, honour and excellence for the nation. You are the master and controller of the abundant and opulent rivers of the land, and equally well you manage the flow of the economy and social advancement of the nation.

2. Mṛgo na bhīmaḥ kucarā giriṣṭhāḥ parāvata ā jaganthā parasyāḥ. Śṛkaṁ saṁśāya pavimindra tigmaṁ vi śatrūn tāliha vi mṛdho nudasva.

Terrible like a mountain lion roaming around, pray come from the farthest of far off places and, having sharpened the lazer fiery thunderbolt, destroy the enemies and throw out the violent adversaries.

3. Indra kṣatramabhi vāmamojo'jāyathā vṛṣabha carṣaṇīnām. Apānudo janamamitrayantamurūṁ devebhyo akrṇoru lokam.

Indra, glorious ruler, virile and generous leader of the people, arise and create a beautiful, grand and powerful social order. Throw out the people who are unfriendly to the nation and create a vast, beautiful mighty world of peace and progress for the noble, brilliant and generous people dedicated to divine values.

Mandala10/Sukta 181

Vishvedeva Devata, Pratha Vasishtha (1), Sappratha Bharadvaja (2), Gharma Saurya (3) Rshis

पथश्च यस्य सप्तथश्च नामानुष्टुभस्य हविषा हविर्यत ।
धातुद्युतानात्सवितुश्च विष्णो रथन्तरमा जभारा वसिष्ठः ॥ १ ॥

1. Prathaśca yasya sapprathaśca nāmānuṣṭubhasya haviṣo haviryat. Dhāturdyutānāt savituśca viṣṇo-rathantaramā jabhārā vasiṣṭhaḥ.

Vasishtha, the most brilliant seeker and teacher, a man of versatile mind and boundless possibilities who was gifted with a radiative spirit and passion for enlightenment, received the pure, applied, beatific and life giving Word of the Veda, the first, original and eternal gift of the lord of omniscience into his yajna of cosmic creation, from Agni, sustainer of the light of knowledge, Vayu, vibrant sage with passion and strong will, Savita, i.e., Aditya, brilliant and inspiring like the sun, and Angiras, the sage inspiring as omnipresent Vishnu and breath of life.

(This Vasishtha, the brilliant disciple of the four sages, Agni, Vayu, Aditya and Angira, who then became the teacher of the Vedas, was Brahma. Swami Brahmanuni explains this interpretation of this mantra in his commentary on Rgveda and cites authoritative evidence from the Brahmana works. Swami Dayanand explains the cosmic process of creative evolution and Vedic revelation in his Introduction to his Commentary on the Vedas, Rgvedadi Bhashya Bhumika, saying on Vedic and ancient authority that the Vedas were first revealed to four sages: Rgveda to Agni, Yajurveda to Vayu, Samaveda to Aditya, and Atharva veda to Angira. Brahma, the brilliant disciple and later the inspired teacher, learnt the Veda from these four sages and passed on this knowledge to his disciples.)

अविन्दन्त अतिहितं यदासीद्यज्ञस्य धाम परमं गुहा यत ।
धातुद्युतानात्सवितुश्च विष्णाभ्रद्वाजा बृहदा चक अग्रः ॥ २ ॥

2. Avindante atihitam yadāsīdyajñasya dhāma paramam guhā yat. Dhāturdyutānāt savituśca viṣṇorbharadvājo bṛhadā cakre agneḥ.

Those sages, i.e., Agni, Vayu, Aditya and Angira, received this knowledge, which was deeply hidden and perfectly preserved in the bottomless depths of omniscience of creative Divinity, and which is, still, deeply preserved in the depths of the human mind at the frequency of the cosmic mind, from the Lord Supreme that is all sustainer, self-refulgent, giver of light and life, immanent and omnipresent. From them and from the lord self-refulgent Agni, then, the disciple inspired with will and passion, Bharadvaja, receives and practically extends the knowledge which has, after all, no bounds.

त विन्दन्मनसा दीध्याना यजुः ष्क ऽ प्रथमं देवयानम ।

3. Te'vindan manasā dīdhyānā yajuḥ śkannam pratham devayānam. Dhāturdyutānāt savituśca viṣṇorā sūryādabharan gharmamete.

They, brilliant in mind and vision, vibrant at heart and burning with passion, received the knowledge for life and living, revealed and released in incessant flow, first and final for men on the path to divinity. And all these, Agni, Vayu, Aditya and Angira, Brahma, Bharadvaja and others that follow ultimately receive the knowledge, light and warmth of life, from the Supreme Sun, self-refulgent sustainer, giver of light, giver of life, omniscient, omnipresent Divinity.

May Agni, adorable favourite of humanity, protect and promote us in Prayaja yajna, the preliminaries of the performance. May Agni support and bless us with success and prosperity at our performance of Anuyaja yajna, the great finale. May Agni cast away malignity, destroy evil intention, and do good to the yajamana, free him from fear and disease, and bestow on him good health and prosperity.

In order that hate and violence may be eliminated from the world, may the lord of blazing light and refulgent intellect put to the crucibles of trial and punishment those who are wicked destroyers of the good and who malign and oppose the divine sages. May the great lord cast away scandal, strike away evil intention, and do good to the yajamana, free him from fear and disease and bless him with good health and prosperity.

progeny and prosperity here in the household, pray be reborn through your own child and fulfil your desire for progeny and continuity in life.

Just as two golden arani woods produce the fire by friction, so do the Ashvins, by their dynamics of complementarity through nature's nourishment and formative intelligence, nourish and mature your foetus. That baby in your womb we adore and welcome to emerge into full life in the tenth month of pregnancy.

तता रात्र्यजायत ततः समुद्रा अणवः ॥ १ ॥

1. *Rtam ca satyam cābhīddhāttapasas dhyajāyata.
Tato rātryajāyata tataḥ samudro aṇavaḥ.*

By the arduous will of Divinity, Prakṛti manifested in existence in its simultaneous modes of Satyam and Rtam, constant and mutable, under the Eternal Law. Then arose the night and darkness of no positive name. Then arose the spatial ocean of indeterminate particles of existence.

समुद्रादणवादधि संवत्सरा अजायत ।

अहारात्राणि विदधद्विश्वस्य मिषता वशी ॥ २ ॥

2. *Samudrādarṇavādadhisaṁvatsaro ajāyata.
Ahorātrāṇi vidadhadvīśvasya miṣato vaśī.*

From the spatial ocean arose the time parameter of existence, and from there the master creator of the universe with his will created the conceptual days and nights.

The supreme master creator and controller planned the sun and moon, heaven and earth, the middle regions and the regions of bliss as ever before since eternity.

Samānamastu vo mano yathā vaḥ susahāsatī.*

Let your discussion and resolve be equal and common, your heart, feelings and passions equal and common. Let your thought and will be equal and common so that you may realise and enjoy a common-wealth of peace, progress and all round well being for all in commonalty.
